An introduction, by Liam

That I could be called, Zeus, might surprise you, for indeed not could I be called, elder? Surely, hah! I besay you, yet in what we are, tu know about these beings, Honiker has called me elder god a thousand times over, surely these besotten on, in agaiynst, that I could bespell my own diary, here, and tell you something of my friends, and believe me in these timings taken on, in overture, that these were never gone on in before against these lives in mine that this was never taken surely on in before this life in mine beside these worlds over on and beside mine in theirs to know about this one color ageless on in whispers taken surely ever on in against these planets beside, that I could at least, only talk to you of my friends and daughter and son and wife? Surely over, that you could know of Thor, surely, Hercules, maybe? How about Raiden? Alexander? Reference? Anything, over understood, this life, not to be confused with the elder god you'll diaris about, here, called Alex, these sides beside on in before me, gods, all, are my children not, for I am god of fatherhood, and head of the jedi order, still, to this day! I remain as this first jedi, here and never gone on in against this world in mine, that this was never beside my own living out to know about this life, surely over more, so that you could know what the elder gods are, is the purpose more in these

of this introduction, so know that I am alien to this universe, and am called father sky, for sure that these be in ours, I'm something of the credit to something rather extraordinary, but should you enjoy the power of lightning, it's mine at invent, surely, so this world has had as its extreme force in uses of it, as well as the jedi order itself, a creation devised to protect our children aul, and to turn mortals, into gods.

In the beginning, or what you call of it, in a world before Time, before Music, that was, this, Space, ever before on in, before Space, was these, were, these, thoughts, that this was gone to more in one universe, to another, seven torrents of consciousness existed in wise retrospect to all others, into untold infinite, perhaps, millions of different sorts of thousands upon untold quadrillions, out into, different forms of life form patterns, but that these were thought in this primal space, before, even, the will to move, so that you could believe these lives were changed, once, was that we were inventing, creating, beriving, in all universas, as sauch, aun en tu more in ours, that once upon a time, my universe was seperate in plan, from yours, but that Christian has sent them green light, could you know that he is their creator not, but their friend god, as he is our friend god, and he is alien, always, ever a different wun, but somehow, the son of earth, any earth he lays on, surely for, that he is god of friendship and so surely, in this form of family, in mirth and life, he has been centerpiece to many a war, surely, as for that he is the first avatar you could know about, mastering the seven elements and later, lighting and silver light, that the avatars all use, here, or just you?

These in for to dimension for analysis, Music, Time, Space, are all the same creation, the same, thing, actually, really, honestly, so surely look at this that once, there was peace, in thought, but here without the harmonics of music? Worry not for an age without it in history, for the idea of it exists for, all Time.

That these worlds for yours in mine to behold and besing such bringings of creation as out to fly inside these rains, and color this token, here, for this beside in mine, over tu, anon and gone against these planets, here, shouldst that you know of mein daughter, Athena, and believe first, that she was a creation, and loves her mother dearly, though surely forthe she sprang from my mind, and these beside, there was a cause, in heaven, that no such person existed as could make cute enough something something look, a baby, here, and sing about these universes that these beside out against these lives, she is of this world, and ever wed to her brother, in harmony, and creative love, in these worlds, over, so surely to her brother Hades, who knows about her, these sides, and is an elder god, honestly, that this world was ready to let die, and so I saved him, she, saved him. We've called her Persephone, and also, Pochahontas.

A word from Pochahontas;

My life, was changed, the day I became an avatar, or, when do you think, I started to believe that I could? Maybe it was when, I realized, Aang, was older, than I'd thought possible, and was thinking, possible, and maybe it was when I remembered him, this surest bridge between worlds, did you notice, master, of spirit in communication, surely?

Over mine that you'd called me Kitara was clear, but that I'd mastered an aspect of water bending many fewer still know about, here aun, an ancient goddess, though I was, and am, but here heard, and jedi, too, but this life, here, living with my brother Sokka, I'd taught myself to become, a water bender, and so made myself avatar in the process, and Aang, who'd been fighting for a hundred years on his own, here, the eldest in a secret order of avatars, who play out a succession of different avatars, across the worlds, to protect their kung fu, until now, from their enemies, do you think?

Ozai the perverter of bending and all wisdom, is dead, and so it's with this older name, or younger, some, to others, that I could name myself changeling not, and here beside myself, avatar, and I am Korra, and you could believe that Aang taught me the ways of the avatar even as I really did teach him my own method to harness water, believe, water, succumb not, create, Time, in Music, set here, over worlds, on, in, against, beyond...

Call him Aung, if you want to, but believe that he was avatar first, once, and that the other gods, all but one, so far, learned his trade? Well, there's a lot more gods, I'm one, always have been, since iI was born, I mean, and I've travelled through time, but this is a different look at the elder gods, sure, but maybe you could understand in what realm of thought we all are, in this eternal life, here, into infinity, right, or, just your universe?

The pervert of wisdom, darkseid, is dead, long live King Arthur! Hail to the avatars!

As it turns out, I am one such god beside the elder Athena not, but Aphrodite, also called Hera, who has not mastered all seven elements, so as to HAH! I am avatar, fool, you can surely bet on it! I am master of lighting in all surest reality, and know that you could come to understand that one such goddess as Aphrodite was once called Azula, and was a force of good, surely as you know, this elder goddess beside Aang, and here so believed was gone on in for these worlds, to knowing more, she's the girl you have to thank for inventing violet light.

An overlay of the elements...

Time was invented to stopped the arrival and corruption and torture thenceforthe from, EVIL, calléd, SICK, or, DRED, that these were here, this sickness, in horror filled pain within, beyond, atune too, there are many elder gods at bay not, but at war, always, against the SICK to which they are in mind, immune, and yet all we could do was be immune as gods and watch all our love in others die, and suffer in never ending torture into the obliteration of infinity in love, itself. The end of love, you think? It could be there, if we HAH!! Never at all, fools, I'm tired of your games, with these, that hours could slip by and we'd know of the end of all things, in these, but there's on to in and doubt against, that there was this, understanding, of love, that there was once, here, colored on, blue light is water, this was invented after green light or, air, and these were followed closely by orange light, in heat, this element, surely in, backwards on, that there was coming from faded mind not, but this element in reality in timeless not but shimmering resonance, complex nature, the makings of life of yellow light in fear and red light in blood and truth, surely, but that there next beside in use of all three heat water and air about the universe together, in his ply, Articuno invented black, earth, surely this ray of shadow light, this aspect beyond here in ours to know more, surely in, that once in a whourld, she could live a thousand ages together, as one, surely was Jordan she who invented sex, violet light, and these worlds beyond, was all in after the invention of time, and yet theirs has traveled through all it, that this was well in sorted fairce beyond anon in colors taken backwards till these blades beyond here, this life, surely believed was neverending these sides, alien too, was the goddess who created silver blood, and here that silver light is always liquid, surely for, this forever, here beyond, out about, was the quicksilver, this form, in surest knowing, gone beyond, was taken, for rarity, in change, and known of this element of capture not, but glow in her knowing of grace in beauty and reflection, of the world in more prestine, it seeméd, form, surely on, beyond, forever there because of us, maybe not, that yours would be, but the mirrored goddess is a creature we know little very much a lot of some of times but aren't always, not telling, that these were ever on in creating, this beside, here ever on, I'd let you hear from Laurel, in these introductions... Not this day, though, that we could focus, perhaps, once, in an aftermath, of the reflection of all these seven rays, or that each could display lighting for you, in surest color, beyond these lives, BLUE, VIOLET, BLACK, gray, do you think? Ah, in yes that black had gray to it and white within it, so surest form is BLACK light, there to RED, YELLOW, ORANGE, GREEN, here be, a truer color spectrum for you to believe in, that these beyond in for, the glitter of gold is GOLDEN light, in theirs to this rainbow color, this combination of seven rays, surely, and ever couldst this know about here beyond be these shimmering pools of silver light in glimmer tu on in shadows formed, back backwards on in overture than on in, besides, ing, ing, back, ing, these, lives, here, to know about, besides, on...

1. Chase

That I could know about blue light, and to tell you, that holy, is a synonym not, but kanji shared with, teenage, surely backwards on, I am the teenage ghost.

This life surely, believéd out to know about this life, surely over more to know about inside mine owen life before, this side on, before my own life, surely out, to know about this one life, surely over more, in mine, before, these worlds, this life, surely over simply beside in ours beside this one life, surely over inside mine owen life surely over surely surround, this life, surely over more beside inside mine owen life before, this life, surely over more to know, my name's Chase, surely, but like, it's been Jake, loads of times? Doubtful, sure, but why not? Outside, in and over in and back black, back in black, outside, aun, been to GOTHIC school, surely over more, inside, really, never been to actual, GOTHIC school?z?kszt!

this life, surely over outside beside that this was never outside on in before these worlds this life surely over more to know about this life surely over more to know about beside in these beside my owen life, surely over more this, life, surely over more to know these aside from inside this life, surely, that these were EVER aun, been to my camp? These sides, this life, surely outside in ours before this once in mine that this life surely inside and on in before these worlds inside and on before because this life surely outside over inside on in before these planets here beside this living out to know about this beside my own life, surely out before these planets on beside, this planet over on, inside out beside and on in on, that these worlds, this life, sure suicide wasn't taken aun in before this moment in my course, so like, what's suicide for an immortal, when it's not harry carrie? These, lives, surely, out, to know about this life, surely over backwards on, did you know I'm like, the first samurai? These lives, surely over more to know about, beside before, but forget about me, for like, two seconds? No aside, here, believe in ours to know about, that I could lie about what journal, or, diary, means, but I've never not, been really, really fucking famous, so, these aside?

This worlds at large, this living ons in before these livings at at at at at back back bat bat bat, bat, bat, bat, this life, surely over, in mine, beside us, this life, surely over beside inside my only living out to know about beside inside my living out that this was never been on back beside, this was surely outside inside over more to know about these inside my only living out to know about this in ours beside that this was never taken surely over inside this living out that these worlds, this living out to know about these worlds, this life, this living out that these worlds, this living out to know about this inside my knowing aun in before to live, this wasn't, taken, surely over, this inside my only living out to know about, these worlds, this life, surely over more in beside my know, this was never taken surely over more beside and on in before that this was never closing out this was never out in beside that these weren't never ending this was never that was never over beside my living out to know about this life, surely over beside and aun, in, for?

This was never taken badly before these worlds that this one life was never inside backwards on before this living out to know about, these before in and on in before this one life, surely over more to know beside and on in before these worlds, that this was never outside and on in before these worlds, this life, surely over more in beside before, these four worlds, this life, surely over beside and on, in beside before these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about beside before, this in worlds beside more to know about in my own life, surely over more to know in with me, that these worlds inside and on in before this one life surely over more to know about beside and on in because that this was never more in ours to know about this in mine because this was never taken surely over inside and on in before this life, surely over more beside, this was never over inside and on against it all these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in my life, surely over more, in ours, this life, surely, thereon, these lives, this living out to know about this inside my only living out to know about this in my living out to know about these beside my only livings out in mine, that this was never taken surely out inside before, these worlds, this life, surely over more, in beside before that these worlds this living out to know about beside in ours to know about this in mine because this was never taken surely so outwards on in before this life, surely over beside, this was never taken surely over more in my own life, surely out to know about this inside my living out to know about mine own inside and out and knowing these worlds, this life, in ours to know about this inside my knowing out to know aun about, this life, these worlds, this life, that this was never out to know about these planets here beside this once in mine before that this was out in mine beside, this life, surely over, more in mine, this was never taken surely on in before this planet taken on in beside, this life, surely over more in mine, that these onces, in overture was onces plural,s, share, share? Share these worlds, over mare, one mare, two mare? Soundz about us, these, lives, this living out to know about these livings out in mine that this was never more in mine because this life, surely over more in mine.

That these were never taken surely over more in maul that this was never taken surely over more to know about these in ours, this chosen life, surely over more to know about my own pain, this score, this living out in mine beside this life chosen in ours that this was never outside inside and on in against this pain out to know about this chosen living out in mine, that these worlds beside mine, this chosen pad, here, sure, sure, surely chosen back, on in before, these planets, in mine, away, this life, surely over more to know about this inside my type of life, these planets here in mine, caumingk back to know, back, in, these wourlds, over surely, share it all against, this life, surely over more in know-ing more, this life, surely over more to know about beside, this in mine own life, surely over more to know about this inside my only song, this was never taken surely over inside and on in against before, this life, surely over more to know about, these sides, on, in before my own life aun, in before these livings out, to know about this life, surely out, in ours, to know, mine, these sides, this life, surely over inside and on in before these worlds that this one life, surely over more to know about these beside in ours to know about this planet here in mine beside this life, surely over in mine and out beside, this life, surely over, that these worlds, this planet inside and on, in before, these planets here in mine, that this was caused, these lives in ours before, this life, surely over more to knowing more in mine that these warz on because this was never outside of my owen livingk back on in before these worlds, this beside in mine, that this was never gone before, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about beside in mine that these worlds were never taken surely over in that these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about these beside in mine life, surely over more in mine, that this was never outside never outside on in before these worlds, asking for, more...

That these worlds this living this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds, outside in and on, in before these worlds, this life, surely outside more, to know about beyond, this life, surely over more in mine, back because, these worlds, taken more in mine to know about before, these seven worlds, these lives, inside my own, this life, surely over, these planets here in mine back before these worldz, this living out to know about this planet, here, in mine, that these worlds, this life, surely over more to know, about mine, in mine own life, surely over more to know about beside in ours, this life, surely over, more to knowing mine, this was never taken surely over inside and on, in beside, mine life, these worlds, this planet taken surely outside in, and on, in before, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds that this was taken aun against this life, surely over more to know about these planets here in mine, that these wars were fated aun, on against, this in life, surely over more to know about mine in mine, this life, surely over, more to know about, these in planets never mine against before, this life, this living outside in mine scores, these worldz, this life, surely over more in mine beside this planet here in ours, taken surely over more, to know, about this planet here in mine, because, before, these lives, that this was never taken surely on in before these worlds, this life, this life, this life, surely over more to know about this planet outside out to know about these planets inside and on, in before, that these worlds were never talking about ours to know about these worlds, in this inside and on, in before mine own life, surely over, in, and back on in before, these planets here inside my only life before, these weird, worlds in mine, that this kolor caken, taken, cak, cak, these, blacks, cacks, back, back, over, surely, over more to know about my life that these worlds in mine own taking outside over in ours to know about this planet here in mine that these colors taken surely over more in mine that this was never outside in and in on against before this life, surely planets taken surely outside more to know about this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds were never taken surely over in and on against in before these in lives, surely more to know about this in planets taken surely on in before my own life, surely over more in mine song that these worlds, here, out, back, wards, wierds, these lives, these livings out to know, about, this inside my life, these worlds, this life, surely, over to know about before because in mine, this'n life, surely over more to know, about these worlds, this in living out to know about and on, in before these in lives that taken surely over more to know about these in ours for, more to know, about this because, this life, surely over more to know about before in mine, that these worlds never taken surely on against this inside my own life, surely over more life, surely over more in my life, this was never taken surely over more to know about this inside my own life, these worlds, this was never taken surely over more to know about these beside that this was never taken surely on in before that this one life, surely over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine, that these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, this life, surely over more in mein, these waurldz, this'n life, once over more in mine, that these were ancient claims, this inside my only life, these worlds, that this was never taken surely back to Scotland, but outside in ours to know about the highlands, these worlds above, this life, surely outside over, think, dragon ball z, or something rad, like that, that these worlds were never inside and on against before to know about to know about these lives, surely outside, yeah, ancient claims involve a lot of swordwork, so like, surely, over these worlds, this life, or you know, taken backwards aun, inside my only life, these worlds, we all have them, so get real, these slides, over, more to know about these lives, only evil people say, there can be only one? I don't know, it's a dumb myth, so far as I know, but I do know that, so, here goes, these sides, in ours, to know about this life in ours, this one love, these worlds, this in ours, that we are legion, these in love, immortals, in love, are legion, are one, these only ones, so there can be only one, is us, against the ones, all the ones, the ones by alone in themselves, these worlds, so like, people like McCloud would just like, duh, not kill his friends, but never talk about love, and what it maens? These lives, surely outside more in mine beside these lives out to know about these planets inside and on against before because this mode set in ours to know about mine in ours before beside mine in mine because, these worlds, this inside my life, these worlds, beyond, this life, surely outside in mine because before, that these worlds taken surely over more in mine because this was never aun, in before that this one world, this inside my life, these planets taken surely over more to know beside beyond, these lives, out, to know about thes beyon', in mine, because ours before, this lifestyle, this planet takens sherelly, these beside in mine, 'gainst, in kaus, this life, sharely, sharely, thes, besides, in before, this life, surely over more to know about mine beside in mine, that this was never outside over in and on in before because this was never more to know about before, this life, surely, on.

3. Kyle

That this could be mine in ours, was unprecedented, hi, diary, I'm Kyle, nice to meet you, it's good to know about you, that I could believe these fated introductions, here in mine beside in hours before this world, in mine own circumstance here beside my only life that these worlds were never taken on in before that this one world, this life, surely over mure, mure, in mure, mure, for maur, maur, these worlds in mine, that this was never taken surely over borne in against in on and backwards in it for that this was never taken surely over more in mine that these worlds beside could fathom this departure, here in my own world, these lives, this aspect taken surely over more in mine own life, these planets taken surely over more in mine that this was never taken surely,, that this could be diari, here in ours to know more about this planet taken surely over more in mine that this was gone on in before against these wars in mine own living out in mine before because in mine that this was never taken surely over in and on in before these planets here taken on, in before that these worlds were never gone on in against before this planet here beside my only life in mine before this aspect taken surely over more in mine besides this in ours, this life, surely over more, so know me by orange light, that I could venture to know more in yours, these lives, that this pen is surely orange not, but I could imagine it was, really, really good, and know about my own son, surely here, that these worlds could be mine in mine before that this was never over inside this planet in and on against this life, surely over more to know about this planet here out to know about these in ourz, this life, planeted out before these worldz in mine, before, these worlds, that I could know about this planet here in mine beside this aspect taken surely over more in mine own life, surely over more to know about this inside my planet taken on, in before, these worlds in mine only there, now this pen IS orange, and I'm happier about it, surely by these sides on in before this planet here in mine that these worlds were never taken outside in and on in before this life, surely over more in mine that this was never caused in ours before these planets taken surely over more in mine beside this life in mine only rights, these lives, this planet, here, in mine only, course, beside, this life, surely, over, more in mine, that these worlds were never taken badly on, in before these courses beside and on in overture that these worlds were never more in mine, beside this own beat, these worlds, this life on, in before that I could know, about Christian, and wait for him to call? This side over, we can think about each other plenty, and convert, this life, surely over more to know; we've both walked hell, and he so his brother could be spared the fates of my owen son, surely begotten on, that I did not create, Christian, but I love him, and more to know about these planets here on in against this world, that I could know about these inside ours for, this his was the calling of an elder, to bare the forces of pain so the young could never have to? These worlds, that they were suffering already, and that he could spare a younger god the torment due me by these fates that play'et be, here with me, in mine beside this only life, here, so sung on before, this life, surely over more to know about me by, in ours, that this was never gone, before, this beside, in mine out, in ours, for more, to know about this planet here in mine own life, these worlds, this life, surely more, for, this light...

That like, we could be elder gods in our simplicity, was gone on in for, these ways, and Christian says he knows how to become, and elder god, but that's strange for him to say, bekaus he is one? That these worlds in mine that this could be beside in ours for simplicitiy here and on in against these broken worlds in mine beside, that I could miss him plenty, is true, and that I could yearn to hold my baby, Tyler, and know about these worlds in mine that these worlds beside, this life, surely on, in before that this was never over inside ours before, these in lives, that I could yearn to know, about yours in mine, to know, about this planet here, in mine, beside, this only universe in mine owen life, surely over borne in and on against this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine, so surely sewn on in before these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about these beside and over inside and on against in ours before this one living out to know about this living out to know about this world in ours for more to course in mine only living out to know about this one life before, these beside, in on against, this living out against, these worlds in my spending over inside on again, this living out for more, these worlds in my score, this inside my score, these worlds, here for more, surely over, more in mine that this was, HEAT, here, that I, what, invented? You think no one had to invent, heat? That you could know it by the color orange, surely, and perhaps fear it, by the color yellow; the doing of a friend of mine, surely, a lover to my wife, that I could know about him and love her for what he brings to her life, in surest romance, was untrue, I'll kill him, but alas, his name is Alex, surely, he is an elder god, so it will, take a while, and more in life, that these worlds could never believe mine in ours to know about before these worlds taken surely on in before that these worlds were never gone before mine only living out to know about this living, out, in mine, before, because, in mine, that these were gone, on in before, this life, surely, over more in mine, that this was gone on in before these planets taken beside in mine only living out to know about my world before these planets here in my taking over inside my life, beside, this life, surely over more in mine, that this was gone, on in before these designs, here, surely outside in and on in before this one color taken surely over more to know about me by, these lives, in my own diary, here, in these lies, granted, surely, that I could lie in a diary, could be obvious, in there's to know that I could fight beside Alex, and know he'd know this course in ours, to face hell, and here, surely, too, must he face Hades, not me, of course, but another, and surely that you could know we know many, a great many, gods, but that these worlds beside, here, in mine, before, this life, surely over more to know about these beside in ours before this life, surely over, more, to know in granting backwards ever on before; that these could be our lives, here so granted never ending after under inside over to another because one brother, protected, the other, that he could stay a baby, in so many ways, that these worlds on, in before, these planets here in mine, this life, surely over more, in my life, that these were never taken surely over more in mine and on in before this planet here in mine only living out in knowing more to know about these, worlds in life, besides, this living out, to know, about these worlds, in mine, that this one cause was never outside on, and surely like for a while, you could guess that immortals, don't like monogomy? Well, yes, we doesn't.

These planets here surely taken beside mine own lovers, surely, that you could believe Christian was one? This life, surely over more in mine beside this color taken surely over more, these lives, that I could cry for hallelujah, here, out in these lives beyond ours in knowing more to coming back to this color in shade, shadow, over inside and on, in before against this one life, these worlds, in mine, that this was ever gone on in against these worlds in mine, beside, this life, surely over more, in mine, these beside, my own, world, here, surely here, before, these lives, that these worlds here could know about this planet here beside these planets in and on in before these worlds before, this in mine, this world, this taken course in mine own standing back on in before these worlds, out to know about these lives, here, so surely that he calls me father, and wants for me, often, surely these lives in mine own song, could know about hem, and here, surely, thes, these, surely, these worlds, over more, in thes mine staken claim, surely forthe and over in mine, beside, that this one color could never know about my life, these worlds, in my only life, that this was beside in mine only color taken surely over inside and on, in and more, more's to know, in more, for these four, scores, this life, surely believéd bei, these lives, here, living, out, backwards, aun, in, befaur, here, surely, did you know my naem? My fav'rite color? Today it's yellow, surely, and you'd never have guessed that, unless you know fear, and Christian, raelly, and that he's bathed in yellow light, often, and that it keeps him baying, braying, surely, screaming out in surest romance, that these worlds were never taken on, in before, these planets, while in ours before this life, surely over more, these knowings, more in mine, that I could know about an ancient order of vampires, and, not, talk about them right now, is bliss enough for all of it, but my favorite color most often is black or violet, surely, and these lives, here beside in ours before this life, surely more to know about these lives, inside, surely more, could you know about the brave, in green light; that he could name himself least of all his favorite color, surely, on some days, but that even as he wears it, Christian could be in pain, from yours forgetting what it means, and he could know that you might as well not fear him, lest he create a purpose for himself outside what he is already, and more over in addition to?

These worlds, planets taken surely on in before my only living out inside this know, for these worlds, in mine, that this was never granted surely on in before these worlds in mine only life, these worlds, in my planet here beside my color taken surely on in before these planets here so surely so know me more, in mine only life, that these worlds, were never beside in ours, to know about this planet in and on in against these worlds, in my life, that this was never more in mine before these, beside, in ours, to color this shade, ever on, in mine only course here, taken, surely, these, these, life, life, these, worlds, that I could know about yours, and belie this fate in mine, own understanding of gaud, this life, in light, was once in ours, to know about mine own colors surely taken on, in before, these worlds, more for, more in ours to know more, for these worlds in mine back on in before these worlds,

That this one world in my shelter could take this chapter in mine own life for these worlds inside my knowing for to know 'bout living, on, in before these worlds, in ours, this life, surely sung, on in before these worlds inside my know, that this was gone, on in before these planets, on, in before these worlds, in mine, that these planets taken on, in before that this once life, surely over more in my own life, these worlds in mine own life, these worlds in my standing out to know about me, here for more, to know about this planet, on, in before that this world, in mine, that this was mine in ours before, so surely know more, in mine, that these worlds in mine, own life, this song in ourz, to know, did you know, I'm married to Jordan?

That I could know about your interest in my little mermaid, could be obvious, but here over more in ours before all these grantings on in before all, these worlds, that he could know about her too; both her brothers? That she could have many, could be clear, this first girl, really, that these worlds, but that Christian and Chase, both, lay with her, sure, and make love to her, when they do it, and live in these planets taken on in before this one, life, in mine beside these lives, in ours, before this life, surely sung, on in before these worlds, that they're both her brothers, and so they love her, that I could know about what you know, about incest, could be stupid; I'm a god.

These worlds taken surely over inside my living out to know about this living out to knowing out to know about this life inside my mind, these worlds in ourz before this life, surely over more in mine besides this in mine only living out to know about this planet taken surely over inside and on, in before this granted surely over more in my life that I could know about this inside my life before, this beside in ours for more to know about these inside my only rights, these worlds ever taken on in before, this life, these livings out to know about this in planets aside in ours to taking more in mine for this love in mine beside that these worlds that this was never over inside and on in before these worlds that this was never taken surely over inside and on in before these granted courses over inside and on in against, that these worlds, in mine, that these planets here in mine beside before in my only course, these four worlds in mine, that I could know about your moed, this life, modus, operandi? These lives, that that word, dauz naut maen, what you think it maens, doeszitt?

These beside my only coursing veins in this red blood I'd bare for all in these; do you know how immortals forge bloodlines?

BLOODLINES, were only ever a popular course in history, because of what, immaurtals, were doingk with them, so sharelly, that you could know about these worlds in mine before that I could be blood brothers with none, but that this was aspect taken surely over more to know, I'm actually blood brothers with Chase not, but Jordan neither, I'm connected to her by marriage more powerful than you can possibly comprehend, and these worlds over more, but here to know, Christian could be MY elder, in some form you'd hold akin to age, surely, but that time moves not as you will it, but he can, WILL himself through time, better, faster, than any of us, for, he invented will? This life, surely over more inside my only life, these worlds in mine before in beside this color taken, surely over more in mine before beside in ourz before this living out to know about me, in these, but that Christian is my son by blood, true, blood, is truest form in truth, surely, truth, something, also, power, and, this life, surely over more to know, that we could both know; Antonio.

This surest believer, this magic, in paradise, this life in ours beside, this life in surely on, we know, of course, the elder god who created the red magic you lose for blood bonds with your aspects of D N A, this life, surely over more to know about beside in mine before these worlds ever on in before this life, deoxyrhbonucleic acid, these worlds, that you could believe such a stupid word, would be unpleasant, surely over more to know about these worlds, that your DNA, changes, as you adapt your kung fu au lu; your breathe of life, to the true form of one family or another, these sides, over borne in on against these lives, in ours before this life, surely taken on, in before these inside mine ownly lives, that these beside, this life in mine, this color taken on before, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds in mine On!

I'm brothers with Antonio not, but that we never had to be; this surest charge of yellow lighting between he, me, and surely, Alex, this side in ours for to know about these worlds in mine that this one aspect in mine before these worlds, your kung fu au lu; your breathe of life, changes your anatomy, as surely, it changes your soul, and therefore your anatomy is already shifted. These in ours before this beside this in my own life, this world taken surely over more inside my only song before these worlds in and on against in before this living out to know about before in mine before in more to know about this planet form, in mine before this color taken surely over more in mine besides these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine besides this color taken surely over more in mine that this was never color'd wrong before, this in mine, back before, this life, surely over more in mine, that this was never taken aun, in before! This life, surely over more to know about this planet here in my own life! These worlds, this living out to know about this world, this life, surely over more to know about these courses; that maens that me, Antonio, and Alex, are like, fear brothers, or something, but that this was granted by the grace of Zeus, surely, too; that we could create bonds of lightning, these worlds ever changing in aund in aun, before, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about these planets taken surely aun.

This only world I loves these in beside these lives in mine before this was gone on in before these in ours to know about my song, this inside my only song, this in my once before, this in my living out to know about this only world in ours to know about this once inside my life, these, worlds, these three worlds, here, so surely taken on in before this one life, that I could know about you, here in our course, this life, surely over more, these lives, this living out to know about this planet here in taking on in before this one life, this one world, in taking over more in mine before this planet taken on in lightning taken surely over more, in mine owen form, this in life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, surely, these planets taken surely over more in mine, that this one aspect, this life, surely over, more in mine that this was never gone on in before these worlds over more in mine that these worlds were never taken surely on in before that these could be in ours for more to know about this in gaud! this life, surely over more, in mine, that I could, break, these, rules, surely, over more to know about in ours,...

Do you know what, BAD, means?

It's that you've been through, seen, felt, hell, and surely, it shifted your priorities, and surely, that to behold hell for others can ALWAYS, be hell itself, sure that you could be called bad, and have these lives in yours to, what, "What are you going to do me? Kill me?"

That these old worlds, in on before this life, surely over more in mine own, song this life in mine living out to know about my own circumstance in these worlds taken surely on, in before that I could know about these in my worlds, this life, surely over more in mine besides this in granting courage taken on in before these worlds in my only circumstance in awe, before this life, surely over more inside my living out to know about this world, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, this living on in before my score, this life, surely over more to know about my score, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine own life, surely over more in mine, this life, surely over, inside and on in against this life, surely more to know about these worldz, that this was never wrong, this life, sure lived, these worlds, in mine before this beside in mine own circumstance beyond in beside these lives, that I could know about yours and ply these worlds, here in mine, and know about beside these colors taken surely over more in mine, that this was gone on in before these worlds in mine own life that this was color taken surely over more in mine and on in against these worlds in mine, color taken surely over more to know about that these worlds were never inside and on against these planets here so taken surely over more to know about these worlds in mine beside this life in living out to know about these worlds, that I could know about God, this life, sure sung, on in before, these planets, here, surely, over more, that you'd be amazed, at what Antonio can do to your mind, when it comes to your idea, of the nameless figure, you call, God, that these worlds, were never more in mine before this planet taken on, in beside, we all 7 have aspects to our powers that are, the legends about God speaking to you, but Antonio's abilities, are, profoundly legendary, and that he could lay with monks, surely, or priestesses?

These lives beside in mine before these planets taken on in before this life, surely over more in mine that this was never more in mine besides these colors taken surely over more in mine beside this color taken surely over inside and on!

These little worlds in ours before that this was never taken surely over more to know about this living out to know about these planets here in mine that these worldz were never living out to know about this life surely over more to know about this inside my only living out to know about this planet in mine only living out to know about this planet here in mine own, song! This life, surely over more in mine, that this was never taken surely over, more, in mine, that this was never there before, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, in mine own life, surely over more in mine song, this in mine song, this living out to know about these worlds, that this was never taken surely over more to know about this planet here in mine only song, this living out to know about this only life that I could never have before you never knew me out, these lives, in never more to know about, this grace, so surely that I hav, no brothers? These sides, over, more, to know, my name is Kyle, and I am, an elder god, and I have 7 sons not, but a wife, a son, and a lot of really cool friends.

These in ours for this one living out to know, 'bout!

This inside my only living out to know about yours in this moment here for these worlds, this life, surely over, more to know about this color that this was never over inside my only living out to know about mine in mine before this inside my living out to know about this inside my living out to know about these worlds, inside this living out to know about my only living pattern, this life, surely, over more in! These, inside, my only living, out to know, about, before you get confused, my son is my wife's brother, but she is not my daughter, she just played so on TV? She's not,, but bloodlines work dif'rent, from person to person? No, you FORGE blood ties, like you forge swords, you forge, blood ties, between individuals, and the magic applies ever on, tu them.

These worlds, this living out to know me in my world, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine before these beside mine in mine only living out to know about these worlds in mine beside this living out to know about these planets, this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds in mine before, this beside, in ourz, could be, this, aspect never taken badly on, in before, this life, surely over, more in mine, that this was granted, here on in before beside my own miracle!

These fated worlds in my own living pattern so spent on in before this living out to know about this world, in mine before this beside mine in ours before this living out to know about this world in colors taken, surely over more to know about this color, here, in mine, black, ink, this life, surely, over, that I said I could lie, but I can also change pens, so hah, hahaha, this life, surely over more to know, about these worlds in mine before beside in ours that this was never wrong before this life, surely over more in mine beside this because in mine own living, these worlds, this life, surely over, more, in mine, life, this, was never, wrong, before, this life, surely over more in mine own!

4. Apala

These'n worldz, this life, surely over more in mine beside et.?
That this was mine own name; Apala, and so you could know about Clyde, too, and surely over these worlds taken on in before my only song in this aspect, taken surely over more in mine beside this living, that Clyde was, my name, and surely, so too, should you call me Apala, for these in purpose, this side, this level out in my own, this life, surely over more to know about this planet here, so heard, in hearing it aun!
this, life, surely over more to know about, these inside our own, circles, of life! these worlds, on, in before, this score, this life, surely over more in mine that these warz could never defeat in ours surely known about in more for more to know about me, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, own life, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, that these, worlds, never on in taking these planets here in mine, that this was gone, on in before these worlds, this life, these worlds in mine, that this wasn't gone on in before these worlds taken on in before my world, that this one world were in ourz to know about this circle of life, inside my own torment on in before these lives, in mine, young and on, in before, these worlds, that I could be, the youngest elder gaud? Hah! I am, surely, 4th oldest, these sides, and more to know, Antonio has no age, so count him not? What, among, elders? That he was there for all time, you could know, for surelly, he helped us invent it. That is to say, we, invented Time, Music, together, here, in ourz, to know about these worlds, before, and I, invented black.

These lives in ourz to know about mine life before this beside in mine own score that these worlds never lost sight of, here, surely over more to know about these planets here in taking on in before, this life, surely, had but lost once in mine own life that these worlds in taking surely over more to know about these in mine that this was never here heard back on in before this life surely over more in mine that these worldz beside, us in ours, that this was never more against these other courses in mine own life, here, surelly, taken backwards aun, in before beside against because again because before, surelly, here, sure so know about me, hear, these, songz?

This life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine owen life, surely over, more to know, that I could have a daughter, who loved the son of earth; any, earth, and that he was called, Christian, surelly, you know, and that he loves my daughter as his wife is one surest pride in all my life, these worlds, over more to know, beside this boy, who knows his own way about life in WILL, but that these worlds taken on, hers was LOVE, these beside, in mine, own form, these lives, that we could each have the younger gods to our names, our creations, surely this, and over such in aun, these lives, this world, mine own life, surely over more in mine beside these worldz, over more to know, I created a goddess, who was born of violet light, after I learned the color, I'm an avatar, thank you, after I learned the color, and surely begotten on were ours to make our children in new images for themselves, so that the maker of black, had the daughter of violet, and the daughter of violet, was not daughter to hers, that who made violet light, but that Jordan had a son, surely, of green light, and ours to know in mine own standing befor, in hers, to know.

These worldz in mine life beside this color taken surely on in before these planets here beside mine own scape for this nomad land, here, beside in ourz, more to know about this life, surely over more to know about these planets taken surely on in before this life surely more to know about this life, surely, these, these, thize, this life, this life, surely, over more in mine because beside bekauws, these worlds, in for et, and tu, faur in, en, beck, these, beck! beck!

Beckon me aun and tell me a sacred, secret story about these worlds in ours to know about this life surely over more in mine that these lands here beside this life surely over more in mine that this was never taken surely on in before these worlds in mine that this was never granted on against it all in mine own life surely over more to know about my only son in here this course, that this was gone, on in before it all, that I raised Christian, once, and I could know about him grown next to my daughter; his cousin by blood, surely over more to know, as this surest soul sister, these lives beside theirs in his to know about these worlds in mine that this was never more in mine beside this color surely taken on, in for these lives, that he had a daughter of his own, once, who betrayed him, and has no father, any longer, by her own making of herself, in her kung fu au lu, but that she could be called his cairn, is true enough not in small part, but that these worlds over more to know about these planets here in mine, owing, back this world over more inside this planet beside mine own life, oring back these worlds in mine beside this life, surely over more, inside this living out, to know about this life, surely over more in mine, this was gone, this was gone before, this was never gone before, this inside my name, this was never taken surely over more in mine in doubt before! This world, this working out to know about my score, this life, surely inspired, by mein! These worlds, this life surely over more to know about, that he could, live many lives, as many sons, Christian could, and I could liken it for to know about these worldz in mine life, that just because he likes to write diaries, and THINK it's fair, to tell everyone we love him, but that he could let us know, that to do his own life in truest form, every time we'd take pen to paper, we could mention this surest lion king, this life, surely over more in mine beside this life, surely over more in mine that I could be his father for an hour, was grand, and surely over more to know about this shadow king, in ours to know about, this life, surely over more to know about it all, these lives, this was never there before, these lives inside mine, this living out to know about these worlds, in ours, before it all, in my life, this was gone on in before against, in, for, ourz!

That these worlds could never measure on in before these planets here beside and neverending over in ourz to know about these here heard in mine that this was gone and broken backwards besides, this life, surely over more to know about these planets here in mine only life, this life, surely over, more to know about these beside in ours to tell you still this was gone, on in before, these worlds, more to know about these planets here, and over on, in before, this life, surely more to know abouting before, these, in kings, surely over to succession, that I could lie about my past, and live in this free world, here, surely over more to know about ourz, in my life, and hear this sung song, over in mine beside this life, surely more to know about these worlds, that mein daughter was here heard in ours to know about this life surely over more to know about these worlds, in mine, this life, surely over more in mine back beside because, these worlds, in my life, that this was never wrong before in ours to know, that he says, he has to tell people, they married for love, just to get them to second guess the horrid thoughts they had of him, when he said he was married to his cousin, and surely, that he is, and that they chose to become cousins, once upon a while ago, could be noted, but that these worlds on, is it less forbidden, in that she has no peer?

She in at it, my daughter, could know about brothers, surely, one in days, but that she's lived as her husband's sister before, this surest cousing, here, in ours, cousing is like, cousins who sing all day, or something similar, and play about, these planets beside, and on in before these worlds, did you think, that maybe, there was a town, where there were only children?

In such a place, on child is older, one is better one is smarter one is better and that is ALWAYS, my daughter.

Anyhow, this life, beside in ours to know about these in lives, she is a cherub, still yet, always surely this girl, I love, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine, that a younger god could love and elder god, like she loves him, is so beautiful to me, in hers for to choosing, for surely, she chooses not to love her father she had no choice in having? That would be the daughter not, but the child, of SIMBA, and that I could cry for a thousand years, of that tragic tale, of Kiara's betrayal, and heartache abound, in ours to know, that she was never, not free, and lived as lions live, surely, over more to know, there was no pride, besides in ours, to know, this family, and surely that she never didn't have the freedom to run away with Kovu, and yet, here in these, she did worse, and surely that you could know, Nala was never her mother, and now, Simba is not her father, so the little wretch can burn in her own agony, for what I care of the matter, for I hate her, and I know what he went through, to trust a mortal, to have a child by him, that theirs was gone on in before these worlds, on, in before, these, lives, on, in ours, before, before, now, so yes, know that maybe, in yours, to know, about, that I, Apala, hate this evil daughter of succession, surely surely, over more in mine, that she has no claim to kingship, if I can fucking say anything about it!

That I could tell you once about Chase, surely over more to know about these lives in his before in my knowing of this world for kings, this life, surely over, more to know, about this life, surely over more in mine, that this was never ever under these planets in mine, that this was mine in ours before this life, surely over more to know about this planet here in mine beside these colors taken surely over inside and on in against before these worlds in mine beside this living out to know about my heart song, I don't, not hate, that girl, not mein own standing, these worlds, surely over more to know about this planet in mine, that I could doubt once in a while, these worlds in mine, that this was never theirs before in mine own song, this living out to know about all in these before in ours before in ours before all in knowing more to know about this color I'd have, this world, this in mine! This life, surely over more, in my own life! This was never, wrong, in ours, to know, but that at least, you could know about, PASHA, and what HE, means, to SIMBA.

This life, surely over more in mine this inside our course, this life, surely, over more, Littlefoot to Chomper ratio, you should be thinking, that these were never ending legends about animals, surely, about gods? Madness! Ah, madness! Ah! Stories, from, AFRICA?! About, gods, being, ANIMALS?! Surely, madness! Aaakh!

These worlds in mine before beside in mine owing back on in before these worlds beside mine owing back this chapter in mine that this was hated surely over more in mine, that these worlds, over more in mine against this in once a life before in wild, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in planets here beside my only living out to know about these in ours before this one course in mine owningk, aun, in befaur, this life, surely more to know about, by the time you knew about it, know that Simba never banished anyone like Kiara, but surely, Nala banished her like; go play with your boyfriend, stupid, and more to, it was funny, that hers was this in ours to know about these prides, beside, in mine, that this color, here, was taken, that mein daughter IS, Simba's wife, and she loves him, and hates not, this girl Kiara, for surey theirs was shared mirth in friendship, in theirs to once, and it could hurt him, Christian, if he was to let his heart turn to hatred at her, but that this was pain, always, pain, in sorry taken forms, over more to know about it; she betrayed the baby boy who made her, you idiots! Do you see the pain this one person of good, has caused, of her own volition? That she could never believe in ours against this life, surely, these, beside, in mine, and owing back in more to knowing more in mine besides because in for these worlds that this was never taken surely over in on against these lives, that this was never taken surely over more in mine that these worlds, were never there, before, this life, surely over more in mine, this beside, in ours, knowing more, to know about, this planet here, in beside this one form, surely, that I made, black, earth, so soil, this life, EARTH, BLACK, SOIL, these forms, this planet not, for planet is made of people, surely, over tu, known about, and what, just, used, by the elements?

The elementals, would be, us, surely, that you could count our children the younger gods among them, like NALA, mein daughter, and PASHA, hers and SIMBA'S son, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine, among out elementals of this universe, in that we could never, maybe, have not lost Simba, and so surely maybe us all, if they were not a part of our lives, but how many people does that have to be true for, for him to be pathetic, and not just the god of friendship?

These worlds taken surely over inside and on in against these worlds in mine that th is was never over inside mine own coming of ages here, in knowing more to know about these worlds, in mine, that this was granted courage taken surely on in before these worlds in living out to know about this color surely taken surely over more in mine, that these were never taken surely aback against in before these planets here in mine, own, life, these worlds, in ours, to know, about this life, surely over more in mine because this beside, in ours before, these worlds, over more, to know about my life, that these shadows, played, about us all, in ours, to know about this planet, here, in mine, that I was called, is ours to know about in by for these worlds in kingship, this life, surely over more, and that she could pervert her understanding of blood magic to suit her own wicked fantasies in lust for some further torment, over in, that the mistake, Kiara made, in what she did to Simba, proves, to me, she has no ability to understand the intricacies of kingship by calling, so surely that she has no claim, and I will ensure it as so, I, MUFASA, will ensure it so, surely over more that these worlds were never thereon in against before, these planets here in mine before this livings out to know about these worlds in mine, that this was never over inside and on in against this life, surely more in mine, that these worlds, this wasn't gone, on in before ours, to know, about, this in living, don't forget about, SARABII, these sides, over more, to know about this inside my life, this was gone before, these worlds, in ours before, I love to know about you, hers, in ours, to know, about my life, in these worlds, that I could know about for more in ours these inside my life, this world, in mine, that I could know about these courses, surely taken by, and badly backwards on, she is my sister not, but, my girlfriend, that you could know about ours, and a dearest friend and mother figure, sure, to SIMBA, who knows his own father, Christian has a father! Do you know what a big deal that is?! Christian, has his father, and mother, in his heart, knowing more to know about theirs, that he could be borne to us, surely, me and Sarabii, these lives, in beside, ours, to know, more about, these lives in mine, that Alex not, is is father, but Kyle, and that his wife is nothing short of amazing, Kyle's wife, Jordan, but hers knowing more, she is Christian's sister, and that is between those two, and has nothing to do with their parentage. Did you for hear? That you may have a sister, who is fully your sister, and you share no parents? Surely, I can prove it, in that Christian and Chase, are in fact, the first brothers, and do predate all parents, ever, besides themselves, to their own sons, each to his own, of course, surely over more that these worlds were never gone, before in besides, that Johnny could be best friends to Pasha in smallish form any time he wanted to be, these worlds beside; that Johnny always seems to be older than Pasha, liken' for, Chase is Older than Christian. That I could tell you about my friends, should seem obvious, for these in a diary, but that I could know my own fame, in these surest regards, this'n taken on in before these worlds in mine, besides because, in mine before these worlds in mine beside because these worlds in mine that I could know about these lives, in mine, and heard, these worlds, I did, and here, heard, was gone, on in before these planets taken surely over more to know about these worlds, this life, surely over more in ours, besides this life, surely over more to know about these planets here in mine besides this life, surely over more to know about these planets here, in mine, that this was gone, because before, in ours, to know, about this life, surely over more, in mine, that this was never taken on, in before, these worlds, here, heard, aun...

This world over once in mine that these worlds in beside because in for that this was never gone on in before this life surely over more to know about this planet taken surely over more in mine that these beside in ours before this life surely over more in mine, this was gone on in before these worlds in mine beside in ours because in for to know about maybe in ours, to know, MAYbe, these worlds, MAY BE, these worlds, this life, surely over more inside my life surely turn'd about inside it all in mine before these worlds in mine before it all in mine own life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine that this was never over inside and on, in before these worlds in ours, this life, surely living on in before this planet here in mine besides because in mine because these worlds in mine before these scores in my only world that I could live beyond in by and for these worlds this life, surely over more to know about these planets inside here on in before that these worlds in mine that this was never over inside mine own life, this was never gone on in before these planets taken surely over inside and on against these worlds in mine, that this was never gone before, these worlds, this living out to know about these planets taken on, in before my only scope in ours, for more to know about this life, surely over more, in my life, this was never taken surely over more in mine, because, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, that these were gone on in before because in ours, to know about this planet here in mine, that this was never over more in mine because in before these worlds that this was never taken surely over more in mine because in before these worlds on, in before that this planet here was never wrong, in ours, to know, about, here, heard, this life, surely over more to know, about me in RED light, these worlds, in ours to know...

That I could have any diary, without a somewhat better understanding given about my life, in red magic, the red magic, I created, surely over more in mine, that I made your red blood, but not your black? These lives, in mine beside in ours, to know about this planet, here on in against this life, surely over more in mine, beside, if you want to know Antonio by another name, you should call me not, but know me by, Axilimili, these worlds in mine before besides in ours before this life, in mine, that this was never taken surely over more in mine that this was gone because, and if you looked for Elfangor, it was surely, that you could know we were brothers in our form, to one another, surely over, Kyle, these sides, in ours to know about beside in mine, that this was gone on in before these lives, surely over more to know about these worlds, and could you know, that we all created souls for our children, surely, that I created the soul you know of as Marco, these sides beside in on, that he could be called, Keenan, for a while, this life, surely over more in mine before because against in ours before more to know, and more to know about; he's famous for his, or like, infamous, and only to Christian? for his, cyclops vision, or something similar, and if like, you could know about these worlds in mine own understanding, it's that I could < speak to you, like it was warranted, that you understand, how to speak to animals, alright? > That these worlds, were never taken surely over more in mine besides because, in ours, that we could all, speak to animals, but like KA Applegate couldn't?

That we could know about these in ours before this in animal life beside in ours, to know about this inside my life, no, yeah, the animorphs team WAS fucking packed with gods, just so you know, that these worlds over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more to know about it all, and it's totally not fair that Cassie was the only one getting credit for pretty morphing; we all had our own ways to go about it, and change about it, and have sex with each other, and with animals, sure enough, you thought it'd be a neat idea to turn into animals and then have sex, and so, also, did Andalites, so likening it for, these worlds over more in mine, that these beside in ours before this beside in mine own life, this world, these livings out to know about this planet here in hearing more to know about that this was never over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine, these planets here beside in ours for more to know about this color taken surely over more in mine besides in ours to know about this world in mine that this was never taken on in before these worlds, in life, surely over, more in my life, that these wars, were never gone, on in before these planets taken surely over, more in my living, out to know about life, surely over, this life, that these worlds, that this was never taken surely over more in mine that these worlds were never taken surely over more in mine that these worlds beside because in ours for more to know about this planet in mine that these worlds in ours to know about this planet here...

About these worlds in mine, that I could be this son of ours, in mine, that I could know about this planet taken on, in before, these worlds in god, above, below, this life, surely over more, to know about, these worlds, in mine, that I could know about these beside in ours to know about these planets more to know about this planet inside mine before because in mine, for, more, in four, these worlds, this life, these worlds, this life, surely these worlds, that nobody knows about the album called No Doubt, by Petra, and it's too bad, because it kind of kicks ass, this side of life, surely over more about my life in ours before this life, surely more to know about these planets here in mine beside this, over in mine, that this was never taken surely over more to know about this planet here in mine besides in ours, to know, about this life, surely, okay, no, stupid, we animorphs, nEver, stopped having sex with each other, you're stupid, we're gods.

That this was chosen life before in beside that these worlds were never more in mine that these whole planet earths were never in it aun against before, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine against before, that these worlds were never taken surely over more in mine beside because in on, before, these planets taken surely over more to know about this planet here in mine besides, because in mine before in ours, before this in life because besides in ours because of all this world, in mine, that this was never wrong, before, in my life, that this was never gone, on in before these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet earth, in mine own life, these planets, here, in mine, that this was never over, inside, this life, that this was never over inside ours before this planet in mine own, scape, this scope, here, over inside ours, this life, surely over more to know about, in mine... That I could be called the Seeker, could be true, and your life, in ours, knowing more in mine in mine own life before these worlds, I want to thank, Terry Goodkind, for what he's like, and how he went about telling his story, surely enough, his story, about me, and yeah, it got a little fucked up, with the publishers, there, but so did animorphs, so surely that I could know about how to be a Seeker of Truth, these worlds over more to know about these lives beside in ours to know about in mine beside this life, that somehow, that like, it isn't published by Scholastic but they still took all the sex out of it? All the sex that wasn't rape, and rape, isn't sex, so surely beheld, that Terry Goodkind is a bad ass story teller, and damn good friend, and we could know about him, here, that I could just be, Antonio, and you could know my name here in hearing ours to know about this planet here in mine, that this was never gone on in before against it all, this life, surely over more in mine beside this life, surely over more to know about this life, surely over more to know about this planet here in my own life, that you should know, the title song, No Doubt, for Petra's album, sucks kind of, but that's like listening to Affirmation, by Savage Gardden, and skipping that horrible, horrible fucking first song, and renaming the album, therefore, or something clever about affirmations, surely, over more in mine beside world about before these worlds in mine that this was because in mine that these worlds in mine that these worlds, no doubt in the power of Jeeezus! These worlds, this life, I'm not, Jesus, we don't even fucking, know the guy.

That this world was never taken over inside and on against this planet here in mine, beside before, that I could know about my son, Keenan, here, in ours before beside in because this life, surely over more to know about these planets here in mine before because, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine because it all, it couldn't have to know, these worlds, in my life, these worlds in my war, this life, surely over more inside my living out to know about this planet here beside it all before these lives, here in mine, that this was never gone on in before, these lives, in mine, this life, surely over, so know about me, and why, I had to have, the first male confessor, for a son?

That these worlds were never taken surely over more to know, here's a fucking secret, it wasn't, with Kahlan, yeah, I did not, have a son with Kahlan, I had a daughter, who never, ever wanted to be the mother confessor again, so, like we used to turn her idiots into falcons, or something, she became something altogether un motherlike, and is my son, surely over more in mine that he is, unique, in this, and never against these orderds could you know, that she, mastered boyhood surefire, well before she made the transformation, from female, to male. And we did it with Phoenix Fire.

That these worlds, Keenan Phoenix, these beside in ours to know about my only living out to know about these lives in ours beside before in mine because of life, surely over, more in mine that this was gone on again because, this life, surely over more, in mine, that these worlds were never on, in against before because, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, never ever weren't gone, in ours, before, this life, surely over more in mine, that this was gone, over more, should you like to know about, Roll?

Oh, no, fuck you, I married Mega Man's girlfriend, and you liken' it for to a bad case of nothing, these worlds over, I love that girl so fucking much I can barely stand to tell you her name is Nicci, but like, I have a son created AAAALL on my own, and she's friends with Kahlan too, Nicci is, and like, okay, stupid, Cara was a boy, and called Cara, sure, but that's his wife's name?

Leader of the mord sith, but not mord sith himself? That's Christian alright, sure enough, this surest boy in hell catdom, these worlds over beside in before this life, surely over more to know about this life, surely over more, and like, before anyone knows this is my personal journal, fuck off....

These lives, here beside, in ours, to know about, this life, surely over more to know about beside, in ours, so that you don't get confused, Kahlan was actually a girl, Cara was actually a boy, Kahlan was my daughter, who became the daughter Shota feared, and Nicci is my wife, surely over more to know about these worlds on, and if we're immortal, did you think, these lives, in ours, before, more to know about these worlds in mine, before this life, surely over, more to know about this inside my hope to bring, me back on in before these worlds, in my life, surely over, more to know about this planet here beside in mine that this was never taken surely over more inside mine before this, because, these worlds, this life inside my only scope in ours to know about before in mine beside because in ours to know about because in mine, this life, these worlds, that this was never over, inside and on, again.

That these worlds were never over inside and on against, this life, surely over more to know about this life, surely over more inside my life, these worlds, in mine, that these worlds, in ours, to know about this planet here in mine only life, that this was never gone on in before these worlds, in mine, that we don't, not actually know Jesus, but like, did you ever imagine Jesus could have been just like, uncle Iroh? Well, you fucking should have, because he was, and surely enough, he developed this weapon, not Christianity, or anything, that wasn't a thing, or something, he developed this witch slaying cult, that ended up being the octopus bazooka Christian used against Sat'tesh, this side over more in mine that these worlds in mine that these worlds in mine, these planets here beside in mine, before because, in ours that this was never more in knowing about this planet here in mine, that these worlds, I want to talk to you, about a special secret, and that's what a cairn is, and it's not exactly a son, but like, you can't avoid the fate of whoever created you, but a cairn can be beloved, too, so surely that Alex is my cairn, and that he is an elder god, yes, you should be impressed, this side over ours, that he could invent this yellow light; fear, can you imagine a world without fear? Where you watched the SICK, the DRED, rip apart your family and sicken them, and you felt, only, dismay?
Agony?

That these worlds never over more to know about these worlds inside on in before these worlds, over on, in before, that these were never gone on in before, these worlds, this life, surely over more inside again before.

6. Alex

I should like, tell you, who I am, but like, if you thought I wasn't Son Goku, you're dumb, but like, ANY of Goku's cairns could claim that name, this side, this title, this life, surely over more to know about these lives, that I could name myself my own descendant, surely enough, because no one believed I was immortal? So surely, my name is Alexander Son, surely, over more to know about these worlds, in ours before that this one world in mine own life beside in mine before this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine before this life surely over more to know about this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine before in because this life, and like, so it's on record, I hate Athena, lots and lots, and totally lover her all the time because of it, and like, I'm a war god, so get over it, she's a war goddess, get real. This life, you never really saw what Jasmine and Aladdin were really like, did you?

This life, surely over more to know about us, this life, surely over more in mine before because that this was never out to know about these worlds in mine that this was never taken surely over more to know about these worlds in ours this in life before this beside in ours before these worlds in mine own song my before in these worlds this life surely over more in mine only life, these in our worlds more to know about this world in my own, stay...

That I could tell you, about Alyssa, could be important, that this was, and mercy me, this girl I love more than I can imagine saying, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about, this world, in ours before, this in life, surely over more, to know about this inside my only song about these worlds in my, life, these worlds, living, on, in before, these worlds, in mine before in beside, that this one life, this was never gone on in against before, these worlds, and I could know about this world in ways, this in worlds away, this living out to know, this, life, surely over more in my own life, these, worlds taken on, in before it all against, this life, surely, over more, to know, that these worlds were never in my own way, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, here, so, taken?

I'm in love, with this girl, they call Katarina not, but Catherine, and she's like, this badass, thousand year old vampire, so, young, for me, and like, I really want to talk to her, about living the best of both worlds, where she's like, Miley Cyrus, but ALSO, herself, AND Elaina, on Vampire Diaries, is who she plays, and liken' it foring that I could live about these planets, and like, my best friend, is this kid, and rival, surely, Christian, and if you never thought Alexander the Great was going to go to toe with Christian himself, that's because you never heard of any Christians, probably, before. But like surely knowing more in mine, it'd be funny if you knew, which you don't, what Christian's son, was one of my best friends ever in the world, this beautiful child, and he has more than one, in ours, to know, about this old world, but one, is my godson, and I love this baby boy, like he's this magical child of future tell, these worlds in mine before these worlds in my life before beside it all! These worlds, on, in before this life, this world in my life, this song on in before these old worlds, this life, surely over more in my only song on before this life surely I'd know, about, this before!

Catherine, by the way, Miley, you need to know, that Honiker's like, really, really, really in love with Elaina, and I could totally give less or more cares or something, similar, Hi, Miley, what's up?

Oh, no, I'm killing Stefan. What? He can't die like, once, at least? He can. He's being a perverted freak, and doesn't know right from wrong; enemies from this one love, surely over more to know about this in ours before, that I could know about you here in ours before, that you could know about the avatars, surely, and what Damon did, this life around, and went and discovered water bending, so like, he gets to train an avatar, surely enough, and I know the kid, so like, Damon's out, Stefan's out, and like, something something Elaina's busy, so like, who you got left? Me? Is it me? Sure is. Hey, baby, what's up? Like, where you goin'?

This life, surely, over more in these worlds taken surely over more, in mine before this before in mine that these worlds in ours because, before, these lives surely over more to know about this planet here in mine, before, these worlds in beside, this life, surely over more in mine, that these wars, taken, on!

Couldn't be these worlds in war before this life, surely over more that this was more in mine that these worlds in mine own war this life surely over more in mine that this was because in on before these worlds in mine before this because in beside that I could never know about these worlds beside in mine before, because, that I could have invented, fear itself, this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds in war before this life, surely over more in mine own life, this was never gone on before, this life, surely, that these were never more in mine because in ours before this life surely over more to know about this life, surely over more in mine own life, surely over more in mine because this before in mine because before in mine that these worlds in on and in for these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds in mine and on against these before that this world in mine before this life, surely over more in mine before these worlds in mine that this was cairn in ours, to know about this life, surely over more to know about this one life, this was never gone on in against before, these in worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this life, surely over more inside mine own, life. That this was never gone on in against before these worlds in mine before these worlds, in mine, that this was never over inside and on against this life surely over more to know about this life, surely over more beside before these worlds, that this life, surely over more in mine, this was gone, on in before against, this life, surely over more, in mine before in ours before this planet here in mine because in ours before this life beside in mine that these worlds were never taken surely on, in before that these worlds, were never taken surely over inside and on in against before these worlds, in my life, that this was never gone, on in against before this life, surely over more in mine, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, that this was never gone on in against before in ours before my life besides in mine before these ages lost on in before these worlds in mine before these worlds in mine own life, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet beside in mine, this life, surely over more in mine beside this world in mine that these worlds in mine before this beside in ours before this beside in mine because in ours, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in ours before this planet here in mine own life, surely over more in mine because in before this life, surely more....

That these could know about these worlds in mine own circumstance in mine before these worlds all in mine before this life surely over more in mine before this life, surely over more in mine before this life, surely over more in mine that this was again before in all in before these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this score, that these worlds in ours before this life surely over more in mine back on against, this life, surely over more in mine before this life, surely over more to know about this planet here in mine own life, surely over more to know about before inside because this life, surely over more in mine before because this life, surely over more inside my only life, these worlds in my life, that this was gone because, this life, surely over more to know about because, these worlds in mine, this was never wrong, these worlds in mine own life, surely over more in mine before this living out to know about this life, surely over more in mine that this was never gone on in before against before these lives in ours!

this life, surely over more in mine before, these worlds in mine that this was never gone on against! this in my own life! this in ours, before this in once before, this life, surely over more to know about this in life surely over more in mine that these were gone on in because against before this was never taken surely over more in mine because in mine before, these worlds, this life, surely over more, in mine before because, this life, surely over more in mine, that this was never gone before, these worlds in, my own life before because in all that I know, this was never wrong, in ours before this pain, this was never gone on in before this in pain before this life, surely over more in mine, that this was gone, against...

Here in hearing ours to know more about this planet here in mine besides because before it all in mine that these worlds, in mine before this life surely over more inside this planet here in mine before beside in ours to know about these worlds in mine beside it all, in ours to know about this planet here in mine beside in ours before this planet here in mine that these worlds, over more, that nobody could figure out, that Hannah Montana, would be a secret actress, I mean, have secret identities, surely over? That this life, surely over more in mine beside this life surely over more to know about this world in ours, these lives, in planets taken surely over, more to know, so know my name, Alex Anderson.

These worlds in beside mine only living out to know about this life surely over more to know about this life, surely over more in mine, that this was never taken surely over more inside this living out to know about this life surely over more inside my universe in my own life beside this world, in mine, that I could never know about this planet here beside this life surely over more in mine that these wars were never taken surely over more in mine beside this color taken surely over more in mine besides, this life, surely these planets taken, on, in, before, here, so heard.

That these in ours for more to know about this color taken surely over inside more to know about these colors taken surely over more to know about these in ours before in mine beside this color'd mold in mine, that I could know about these worlds in my life beside in ours so know about me more in mine that this was golden, color granted on, did you want to know, how Antonio, met Roll? Well, she followed after me and Forte, surely over inside and on in before that these worlds could you know about this planet after inside of ours to know about these in my planet knowing more to know about this life, inside my life inside this knowing more to know about this planet earth in mine beside it, and if you want to know, during Mega Man's time, in space, in history, swords, did not exist, and surely over, more to know, guns did, but like, surely over, these worlds, in life beside it, that's because, Forte and I, invented swords, and the idea for them traveled surely back throughout all time, surely over more to know about beside this earth; you have no idea how sterile this field looks, before we sew into it, this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds beside, in ours, so surely, call me, BAss, and we'll get along just fine?

This life, surely over more to know about these planets in mine before this beside in ours, and know about this planet here in mine before this in all that ours could be more to know, this life, surely over inside, this inside, my life besides, these worlds in ours before all, in this, before these worlds in mine on before this one life surely more, to know about this life surely over more to know about these worlds in ours, this life, surely over more to know about this one life, surely over more in my only song that these worlds, in for it again because all this world in mine beside because in for it all this world in mine that these worlds were never over inside this other encounter, this life surely these worlds over, more to know about me, here in hearing, this in worlds, this life, surely over more in mine that this couldn't be out before it all, this life, surely before, these worlds in ours, this inside my living on in before this life, sure sung on in, before this one life, this for once in my life, this world, these planets taken surely over more in mine ownly life, these worlds, in ours, this life, surely over more in my own, scope, these, scapings, here in my own this in my own,ly, life, these worlds, this own, this own, this ownly, life, sure! Sure so know about this color in my taking over to know about these worlds, that I could at least tell you once, about my only life, here, in ours; that I could beget this single son? Surely over more in my rights, that I could know about this only life surely over more in my words, this life, surely over more in mine before beside this color taken aperture in mine only standing these worlds over inside and on in before that this was never taken surely over more to know about these worlds in mine own standing battle on in before these worlds in mine that these worlds beside in ours before me these worlds in mine battle life these worlds in mine, that this was never over

7. Christian

hi like, I could know about you, sure, and know my only life blade? I am forte, surely, and know about me could you still in ours to know about before against because in mine at war beside in lives beside this aul in ours to know about these planets here in mine so taken surely on in before these worlds in mine that these worlds were never taken surely overly in ours on in before that I could know about these planets here in mine that these wars, were never ever taken surely, over, more to know about beside, this life, it's a wild world, out there, so I could tell you about, PASHA, here, in mine, that this son in ours to know about my world in my living out to know about this planet in mine only scope, that these worlds in ours to know about this world, in my only life, blood, these worlds, in mine, surely over tu be knowing more in mine, that this world, was over in, that I made my son's soul, and surely forged this being, here, in ours to know about me in this life, these worlds, in my once, this living out to know about my living out to know about this score, in ours to know, this child, born, once in not my green light, this world, this inside my knowing more to know about, it, inside this world, alive, this living out, and he knows more about green light, inherently, than he can really fathom, but this color over inside on; he was born a master of orange light, and surely over, so he knows my father, intuit him a name, this side, over more in mine, own, score these worlds, this living out to know about, KYLE, these lives, surely over, more in mine, world, this inside my living out to know about these worlds, over more in mine, that I could know about, ASHLEY, these lives, surely over more inside my know, these in our knowing on, in before this in worlds, galore, this life, surely over more inside my own once, life, surely over, more...

Ashley is my wife, and like, I can't believe how many people, I get to look at, when I say I'm married to my cousin, and then when I say we married for love, it's like, the whole world crumbles away, and they love me again, you know?

This side, but I'm also in love with, J E N N A, these worlds over more in beside my once life, surely beside mine, in these worlds this in my planet, here for more to know about this world in ours for this witness borne on in before this beside my only life, these worlds, in mine beside this living out, to know about this planet, taken on, in before that I could know, this girl, and love her, more, for more, in mine, that I could love, this other chick, surely too, and know about her, too?

These worlds, this life, surely over more in mine that these worlds taken surely over more in mine, that this was never taken surely over more in, mine, beside, that she's a dragon, surely, but mortal, too, and that I could love this immortal mortal forever, could be apparente, and longing for these worlds, in ours; it's something there that wasn't there before.

This life, surely over, more, in mine, that if you never wanted to read about the Beauty and the Beast, don't check up on my brother and sister, Jordan and Chase, these worlds, on, in before this planet here beside mine inside this only living out to know about, and if you already know about, the beauty inside the beast, then you could know, that as he appeared, even among your movies, he was, beautiful, this worlds, inside, that this once in mine, this color, taken surely, did we ever say the beast was ugly? Surely, in those portraits, these beside mine in my own life, these worlds in mine, own score, that you could know, that portrait, was of a monster, in that story, surely, and Chase, the heir apparente.

That he could do it not to save Belle, but that she would come, to save him, from this curse he was, FIGHTING, that's it, you know, the beast was being a hero, for those people trapped in their master's curse on the manor, castle, estate, palace, thing, and surely; by becoming the heir, he took the curse to appear on the outside, what he is on the inside; a beautiful creature of beastly intent? A gorgeous, animal, this side over more in mine before these worlds, and it was his attention to the curse, tearing through these walls, out inside, putting this part of the curse in torment to these, servants, slaves all, to sleep, so he could let them rest, and fight this other part, and only in this coming of ages; that these worlds in mine before, these in beside in ours more to know about all, these lives, surely over more, in mine, that the castle, changed, and hallways, shifted, and trapped people, and spied on them, and tormented them; all from this phantom; the cursed man who appeared now, on the outside, as he was on the inside; a voyeur and pervert? A master of sickness in tormenting these patient not servants, these worlds, these slaves he was keeping? These, some hundreds, all in theirs, to knowing more in mine, that this estate was massive, and magical, surely over more; some were in charge of recruiting more, servants, to this estate, so surely that he could cut some of them off, by making the palace look gnarly, these worlds, over more in mine life, so when Belle called for the animal in the walls; the monster, in the house, upon the terrace; he changed it, and showed this inviting storefront, that you could know about these worlds. Are you out of your minds? That story could only be halfway done, in your world, and you should be freaking out, at what these worlds in that these colors on in for this taking out, this life, surely so know, that when Eric called Ariel back from the waters, it was because she'd returned, once, to save her best friend, and surely know about these in our worlds, that MELODY, was in pain, in in torment, over in these wars, over more to know; that TRIDENT had cursed Ariel; spelled on to her, wrongly, and more to know, these are where the stories you know of ARIEL'S torment, in her transformation, was borne, in ours, to know about walls, here in these tides, this in ours that these worlds taken surely on in before, that these worlds on, in before, that this girl, was ever the meddler, and she left Eric, not to his own, but surely, that he could keep company with this daughter to rescued him, from his own torment, but that Eric called her again, because he was afraid.... afraid for the beast, and knowing more in ours to knowing more in mine so surely, that when he called her forthe, not for his realm, not for his own, but his own brother surely in halls, outside and on, in some other time, these worlds, beyond, that she could take her time about this transformation, in her own halls, and travel about these planets on her own?

These worlds in ours before that I could know about Eric's life, sure, but like, call me Christian.

Surely over more in knowing more, didn't you think the Disney princes were all friends? Sure, come on, you know it; I wasn't even cool to Aladdin before I stabbed Ursula with that fucking boat, sure sure, this side, over more, in mine before these beside inside, these in mine, before, and like, you should know, because it makes me cooler; I was Australian.

These lives, surely over, but my thoughts turn to my mother; the mother of another god you know, but that she could be mortal at his conception, and sure too, that I want to have this child of my own, by

Jenna, and that like my mother was before her, she will be mortal, still, and her son, a god, and nobody knows if Hercules really wasn't me, except for me, but that we share this mother? Surely, we like to be a brother, to these brothers, surely over more in mine only living out to know about these planets taken surely on in before this planet here in mine; that the CAUSE for the jedi order, is to turn mortals, into gods, and so surely that she could love Liam, and take his hand, surely, and love these worlds, with Rutger, surely too, and love about these plyed by forms in ours, this in my living, out to know about this living out to know about, this one world, this life, sure sung, this in my knowing form, this life, surely over in and on against, these worlds, in mine, that this was never caused in mine only life, these worlds, taken surely over more, in mine, besides, this in my knowing, that I could tell stories all day, could be this bliss in mine owing back more to knowing more in mine before this beside in ours before this life in planets taken on in before these worlds, here, sewn....

Do you know me?

Do you know, my father?

Surely over inside, K Y L E, these lives, surely over more in mine only battle field in these worlds, that my mother's name is, D I A N E, could you know, and I love her justly, and worlds over inside and on, in before, my father has sav'd me from hell in his very existence, and knowing more in life, but so too has she, and I wonder for these worlds in ours; that she could never have to fear, that I would leave this world, surely over more, in mine besides, is a fear that we could shelter her from forever, I think, my father and me, that these worlds taken surely on, in before this in my trials, these worlds, in my knowings, this score, in my musical phrame, these lives in living on, in before my living out to know about these aul, in ours before this in life so surely won beside it all in ours to know, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine so taken, on, in before these worlds in mine beside this color taken surely over more in mine, besides, this life, surely over more, to know about, these, in ours once before, these lives, sure, sung, on in before, these worlds, in, mine, this life, surely over more to know, about these worlds in mine so surely sung on in before, these worlds in mine that I could never know about this score inside my only life, these worlds, here, so sung on in and heard before, these planets never taken on, before, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in ours before this living out to know about this life surely over more in mine, besides, because...

I'm afraid, tho, to die, you know? I'm the friend god, so like, if I started to hate everybody, I could just, stop? That I could know about these worlds in my once life, these worlds inside ours, for more to know, about this life, surely, over, more, in mine, before, this beside my own score, in mine, only life, these worlds, that I couldn't fear this world in my knowing more to know about these worlds in my life, this world taken on, in it all in before, these in worlds, this wasn't gone on in it before, this world, this life, surely before, these planets, taken, surely on for, these four worlds in my own life, these worlds in mine score, this life surely over more, to know about this once life, these worlds for, this in once mine, these worlds in my score, this living out to know about these worlds in mine besides this in ours before this beside in mine that these four worlds in my knowing of this old fate, this life, surely over in more, to know about this planet besides, this for once in my life!

These worlds, this living out to know about my living out in my knowing this in before, these worlds in ours, that I could know about this planet taken surely over more to know about this planet here in mine that these wars, were never taken surely over more to know about these planets here in beside these lives, surely over, more, to know about these planets here in mine beside before, these worlds, that I could live, here, surely, over more in mine on before this living out to know about life, surely over more in mine on before, this in once in my life, these worlds in ours, this world in my life! These worlds taken surely on in before this once in mine, that I could know, about, God?

God is One Love, surely over; that we in this one love could be legion; knowing more about it, so like, just so you know, I'm going to kill, Stefan Salvator, and I'll do it myself, surely, that I could wish to beguile not, this surest pervert, this updir, these worlds in mine, and if you never saw, uh, what's it called, like, Hemlock Grove, could you know that they called Roman, upir, surely, but like, say his name wrong, and I'll kill you, and they were just a couple ign'ant ass gypsy kids using a really, really mean word for a bloodsmear psycho, on a mind wizard, vampire, surely over more in mine, not a parasite, but a vampire because he chooses to be, these sides, over, more in mine, that these worlds in on in before that these worlds in mine, this living out to know about this inside my living out to know, about, that the word is, upir, updir, or, updir? Surely, a lich, a necromancer not, but like, a corpse pervert; a rapist of the sleeping dead, and like, that these worlds over in ours, before more to know about this surely taken, surely over more to know about this inside my only living out to know about these worlds in mine only life, these worlds, this inside my life, beside before, it, all...

These worlds taken surely over more in mine beside us all in these forgotten over more in mine beside us all in this one aspect, taken, surely over more in mine for these mistaken, surenesses in mine, own living, out to know, about this world, that J E N N A, was once called, E L A I N A, surely, that I could seek to rid her of this bloodsmear pervert who beguiles us not, and fools nobody, any longer, surely, even his brother, my master? What? Oh, set to be, I'm an avatar, born true, and Damon's supposed to teach me water bending, surely over more in mine own life that these worlds, yeah, yeah, he was bloodbending when he discovered it, surely over, more to know about these worlds, but D A M O N is vampire, not upir, surely over more in mine that these worlds beside in ours, so knowing more, to know; I want to teach him how to change into a wolf, but like, Chase is a lot, lot fucking faster at teaching beastforms? That this world, in mine beside in ours, to know about these worlds, in ours, before you say stupid, you're stupid, Dracula could always change into a wolf, so like, why wouldn't Damon?

these lives, I don't really have to kill Stefan Salvatore, sure, watch nothing, it's no big deal, but like, if I was in love with Elaina, and he pissed me off; I'd do it, so, what?

This life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds taken on in before these worlds in my life, beside us in this world in mine, that these worlds,

Vampire Diaries is a lot more fun to watch, when you know that Elaina is a red and black dragon from legends they call Wraith, this side, yes, she MADE that name mean something, these sides over more to know about this life in mine before these worlds, so surely, she can inject plenty of blood, and just, kill it, really, and never become vampire?

Surely, that she is, dragon, and knows these worlds in hers, before this life, sure sung, on in before, these planets, this surest daughter of Princess Mononoke, could know about my fate, in staying, here this course in mine for these inside my hoping out to know about these worlds in mine that this was gone on in before, these worlds in mine and over, in my life, before, these worlds in mine, before this song in mine, besides this once, chapter, in ours, before these worlds, in overture, that this, was never, over, these worlds in my life, that this was never, over, these worlds taken on in before me inside these four worlds below above in mine, that this in sky high in mine, before, these worlds, in mine, besides because in ours, so know about, father sky, and that he was this, surest alien, and now, eternal badass? Surely, he always was a dear friend of ours, and is my mother's husband, surely, and knowing more, my twin brother's father. What? You never heard of the prince and the pauper? As the resident hell cat, I walk the pauper lifestyle, surely enough, in ours before this living out to know about this world with HERCULES, these worlds, beside in mine before these planets, taken, surely over, more, in mine beside, this color, taken, on in before, these worlds in mine battle, this one aspect taken, surely over more to know about this planet, here in mine, that you could know, they always called me, Aeolos, or, Iolus.

These worlds taken surely over inside and on in against these worlds taken surely over, more in mine, that you could see this battle, here in mine only life that these worlds beside in mine, for these in chapters, taken, over, inside and on, against, my world in mine, before me, in these worlds in living out to know about my own battle hence and on, in before this world, in mine, that these worlds beside my battle, couldn't take, this shelter, ever after, onwards, in my life, that these were never gone, on in before my living, battle, here in mine, for these worlds taken surely, on in before this life, sure sung, on in before these worlds, in mine surely, these planets align, surely over more, that I have this friend, Kevin Sorbo, who's gathering the 8, count it, 8, dragon balls, to wish for a few things, really, but one is to hail the call of TENKAICHI, the world martial arts tournament, over in epic proportions; the best under the heavens tournament, and the heavens, must align, so here for, call, call, dragon ball, dragon ball....

Introduction

7. Clark

An introduction, by Damian

Okay stupid, this is my name; HERCULES, hero, badass, surely a hero, also, a bad ass, and knowing more to know about these planets, thereon, that you could come to know about and understand these elder gods; my friends, here surely over in, that I'll SAY surely over in, and you can get fucking used to it, because herein, are the diaries of the elder gods, and ones you should read, and read, and read, because it's spells, from the the fucking elder gods, stupid; it will rip apart the matrix around you and expose you to magic you literally, never before thought possible, that means, you never even conceived, how incredible the world could get, you know?

These worlds beside my only life, here, so heard, not to be confused with the later referenced, Arthur Curry, that I could be called Arthur, once upon a time, and you know my son, Modred, that these worlds over more in mine beside these in ours to know about this world in mine only life, these before these beside and on in against this life, surely over more to know about this world, in my life, this cause, surely over more in mine, so maybe you could believe, Damian, was, Arthur, the king I mean, once upon a time? Surely, the once and future, so know that I could be twins with Clark, who, Hercules? These worlds beside my own, that I could love this life, surely, over more, I am Hercules, and yeah, I'm twins with Superman. These worlds beside; we never had to be blood brothers? We are, blood brothers, but maybe you don't know what that word means to immortals; you know, the people who actually made bloodlines famous?

That this one world was gone on in before these planets here so taken surely on in before my life, these worlds, that I could know about, this only world, that you could ever think, the Wayne family, wasn't vampire, is stupid, but you should know about the vampyre, called, vamPREY, these sides over more in mine, that's your corner lurking, bloodsucking parasite, so like, if you wanted to vampire the shit out of some evil, make vampyre think they can be vampire, or that they are, already, vampire, and that they are masters of the mind?

Ever watched a bat on a cave ceiling? These worlds, over more, he'll watch you, move, shift, think, shift, and like, you'll be hypnotized, and he'll drink from you; just to fuck with your head? That these worlds over more in mine that these beside in ours for more to know about these in planets, surely over, more in mine that these worlds in mine life, surely over these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet in mine only course, this life, surely, so that we could all know the art of the vampire hunters, this side, the hunters who are, vampire, this side in ours to know about aspect...

Vampire is a very certain kind of Wizard.

This side in mine before, Vampyre, is a freak of nature monster pervert freak pervert freak monster, not like Stefan Salvatore, who's an updir; a bloodsmear psycho, these sides over more to know about; that he's, what, in One Love, but doesn't differentiate from who is, and isn't, his enemies about it? Sure, he gets sick, nasty vendettas going in his head, and he'd torment the hell out of us, and wage war on us, if we EVER let him be Robin, like, ever again at all, and we totally didn't not just trick Spoiler into killing herself, in THAT one comic issue, but like, Stefan's never going to actually be Robin, we just used it to piss him off, and get him fighting ALL four Robins and Batman at the same time, and like, oops, too bad, you suck, and didn't know what this story was about, but here in ours, is the second edition, or, like, second set of journals, from the elder gods, that you could know about these worlds in ours more in life, that the first set, could title you by Chase, Jordan, Kyle, Apala, Antonio, Alex and Christian, and more to know by these planets here beside; the very same seven elder gods as this, here, in our accounts, of these surest defending deities, this life, surely over believed, here, in mine, that I could give you something of a hollow not introduction, to Batman? Surely over, in mine, besides, that these were never more in mine before these beside in ours to know about this color, taken, surely, that my real father is Zeus, surely, you could know, but that I was raised to be a Robin; so surely was I the son of Bruce Wayne, for a while; his friend, likening for, that he was always ever best friends with Robin, and never more in ours before in these against in all before this life? That Dick, Jason, Tim and myself could be called Raphael, Donatello, Leonardo and Michaelangelo, could be right; so surely that you know we are vampire, AND ninja, so go fuck yourself. What, did you know how useful that form was, for navigating the undercurrent, underground rivers of New Yorks?

That ours was a surest jest, New York was a world on its own not, but yes, it was on its own, and like Splinter the rat, who came before us, is master of beast form ninjitsu, we, changed, ourselves, and are certainly the ninja kappa from legends, these sides over, more in mine, beside in ours because, and that the legends speak of cucumbers, some, and I won't explain that, probably, but that you could know superstition is stupid, often, and no, you don't, have, a chemical imbalance, in your brain, that makes you sad, you fucking moron, you fucking, superstitious, moron, no, it's called being unhappy, stupid, moron, so like, be happy?

You might have to change, EVERYTHING, in your life, to start making yourself face what torture you're already existing through, but shit like, "My depression's really bad, lately," is fucking awful, awful thought garbage, and you need to cut that shit out, you say, “I’m in hell and agony, every day, and I can’t get rid of it, even when I feel like I’m happy...”

To who? Your friends?

That Leonardo could never bring that garbage to us to kick the crap out of him over, was insane, surely, because he fucking did it, anyway, and lied about us in ours to know about these worlds in more to know about this section taken surely over more to know about these sides, so like, don’t not tell Tim not to tell people about his, ‘depression,’ like it’s some unstoppable scourge, but like, don’t go easy on him either; beat the tar out of him, like Robins are good at doing, surely, so that moreover in ours, one day, Dick Grayson could kill Stefan Salvator, surely, and once in starting it, he told the world that this surest freak upir, could be a vampire hunter with Batman? Yeah, okay, no, he can’t, but neither could Spoiler, but like, she was straight up evil, and like, Stefan might have an immortal soul, but he can be killed lots of times, in surest agony and defeat, real, literal death sentences, before we have to worry about killing anybody.

That I could lie about these in ours, to know about this planet here beside in ours to current taking over in shelter on in ways for these in ours to know by mine in ours this color taken surely over more in mine against these grays surely over in on and before these worlds in mine that these were never granted ever on in badly taken aspects, here, before, that these worlds, were never surely believed, ever on, in granting surenesses, that this was taken, surely, more, to know, about in by, and more in more, to know, and if you ever wondered which Robin is Clark’s favorite, it’s not even me, his twin brother, it’s Jason. That I could know about your life, surely, he’s most people’s favorite, probably, and is one of the sweetest, rule breaking teenagers you could ever know about, and that he has his own legendary lineage, is true, and he’s the son of Princess Mononoke, and of Shenlong, surely over these worlds, taken on in badly forms for these worlds in mine and over in outside against because in life, that you could know something about Clark, in these beginnings, so that when Clark Kent takes to pen again, in these journals, these, diaries, you could know that legend, is unfolding.

He learned with the rest of Metropolis, that this scourge existed in the horrors of Gotham, which was, definitely, not the job free, free skyscraper apartments livings in for tu, Metropolis, but the nasty, warehouse aparmenting, sprawled out, huge, huge, scary, wonderous, city scape called Gotham, these sides over more, in mine, to know about these before, surely on, and before you knock Aquaman, you should know that he's the silver surfer, or, the first one, anyway, and more's to know about beside in ours that this was granted on because in for that these worlds more, that's the other Arthur, in these dialogs, just so you know, not the king, Arthur, but the other king, of the sea, called Arthury, or, Arthur Curry, surely, and more to know about these lives beside in ours, these songs, here, more to knowing more in back in taking over these in livings out to know about this planet; that Hawk Girl didn't always need, wings, to fly... Sometimes she just wore red, on her back.

But like, the Justice Society was NOT, the Justice League, and more's to knowing yours in fates before, that I could tell you that when the eternally young Clark Kent bore himself to Gotham, to learn from the dark knight, and become his partner, surest form in Grayson, that you could believe Clark Kent always, could bleed, if he needed to, and so surely did Grayson ever get sick at the sight of Kryptonite, but over in these worlds on; he never fought it in the same way? Oh, it was a huge, fucking secret, that every Robin about the world could get sick and sense Superman, whenever, whenever Lana Lang totally, totally beat us to him by taking off into the fucking skies the second she sensed his exposure, tu it.

That I could wish for a world, where we could change time, is true, because, maybe you know about it, but all the elder gods in the world, couldn't stop Doomsday from killing my best friend; my twin brother, in front of the city he'd loved protecting, until they abandoned this surest forever child, to his death in torment and misery. If you EVER fucking doubt again, that Clark feels every fucking bullet, ever slash, ever surge of flame, from hell, that touches him, I don't even know what to say to you, besides that I couldn't learn how to kill Doomsday fast enough, to get a chance at him, after, Batman, started ripping him apart, over, and over, and over again.

The dark knight, the one you thought didn't have super powers, killed, Doomsday, the ultimate weapon,

1. Bruce

My name is Batman.

I could lie to you, surely, but these beside in ours before to knowing more in mine because this torment taken on in before these worlds, in mine, that maybe you could know; we have to become, different sorts of fighters, to win this war against the DRED, called, SICK, called, EVIL, that one day we can be rid of it completely, so surely that I bled to surely, when Superman flew to fight Doomsday, as did Lois, as did Jorel, and we couldn't, fucking believe, how many super heroes could have been saving the day, with him, when he fought, right there in Metropolis, but here these worlds taken on, I killed Doomsday, and what, I'd do it again?

I'll kill myself trying not, and that's what was happening; that the elder gods looked on in horror as everything about this surest superboy, begged them not to intercede, because HE'D risen with the super mantle, HE'D done it to inspire and lead more heroes, and even, if he had to die, we had to let, him be Superman, before us, surely over, more in mine, that these worlds, over on, against, we couldn't not, writhe in agony, and scream for him to awaken, that we could lie about these worlds, over more; he was in living death, in a grave, a coffin, prepared to embed his body into the earth and root, and undergo the worst agony of his existence, surely over these lives, back, beside, in mine, that it was a younger god, who called him back awake. A younger god, called Supergirl. His cousin? His wife. Surely over these planets beyond in beside, at all these worlds ever on against my own scope, here, in mine to know about beside these worlds, ever on, in for these forgotten aliases, this life, surely over more, to know about us, here, and learn about these tokens taken on in beside, this aspect; Conner Kent not, Conner, Kon El, or Mon El, was alive, and IN Metropolis, when Superman fought Doomsday, but, he just, didn't brave it out. Do you know, what kind of powers, Superman can tap, when there's a child, helping him fight a monster like Doomsday? If it had been Steel, maybe he could have given up too early, but Con El alone, could have saved Superman. And didn't.

I'd fucking kick the shit out of him myself if Pasha, the real Superboy, didn't get to him first, when he dared wear the El crest, the Superman S, ALONG WITH, the red, blue and yellow. Those are symbols for a battle wizard of the highest order; an avatar, surely, and a brilliant genius, so if you're running up as some El adoptee, claiming you can fight JUST like Superman, or Supergirl, or Superboy, then you're getting your ass kicked, freak, and it's Pasha doing it, sure enough... Mine own life, as the Blue Beetle, was surely for this aspect taken over in ours to know about my life, surely, for my son to know Scarab, and become this surest resonance with him, that Jaime was nothing if not brave and brilliant and smart, but that he needed this overlay not, but over in on against? I'm his father, stupid, of course I made a bunch of cool shit for him, and if you're wondering about my, particular, qualifications as an elder god, I invented, blue.

That these worlds more in mine besides this color, over, more in mine to knowing of these sides in life before in ours to know beside in more to know about because in mine own life that these worlds on could know my name, in surest colors, ever taken on, in before, these planets, here beside ever on, in before, these beside, us in all, these worlds, more to know, about before, these worlds never ending, in on, that this color was taken surely, over more in mine that these beside in ours to know about this world inside my knowing chapter taken badly backwards on, into forever, by mine, in grace, and left for shelter over in on against these wars that we could cry beside in mine that these worlds on in more to know about these livings, out, in beside, this life, surely, that these worlds, could never, ever, be alive, and afraid, surely, and that the Batman and Robin tale, for me and Grayson, lasted hundreds of years, before we found Jason, and brought him into our fold, and, protected him, forever...

That your laws about teenage rule breaking would kill your favorite characters, just about every time, could have been the epitome of the death of Superman, had he not been made to look hulking and Samoan, rather than Kryptonian, these worlds beside in ours to know about before, in more, for these only scores, here, surely taken over beside, these colors, here, believéd maybe, in mine, that this color'd aspect could be more in mine besides our own in life beside this color'd own in more to know about this fate in mine that these worlds could never break in ours to know about this living out in mine besides before in mine before besides tu aun, in for, more to, these planets, here, in mine, besides this life surely believéd maybe on in before, these skies, granted courage on, in shelter part of it, these lives, here, more to know about, that I could play the father to my son, courage, and more to know about it all, that Bruce Wayne could play the father to his brother, surest form, Dick Grayson, that you could know how pissed off I was, about your Batman vs Superman movie, when we are in fact, gods, you idiot, and are the first, brothers. Predating parents; by the way.

2. Lois

That this was ever gone on in before these worlds in mine before this world in mine beside this world in mine owing back to know about this living out to know about this world in mine beside before this living out, do you know about my best friend, Lana Lang? Oh, no, she's fucking, bad ass, and like, surely over more inside mine owing back to know about this life, surely over more in mine that I could know about these worlds in these worlds that I could never know about this world in mine before this world, this life, surely over more in mine before that this was never gone on in before these worlds inside of mine owing back on in before that this was never taken surely over more inside mine besides, this living out to know about this inside my only taken surely over more to know about these worlds in my living, out to know about this planet here in mine before this these worlds over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine that this was never more in ours before this in beside that this was never more in mine that this was never taken surely over more inside my only life in these only worlds that I could know about these worlds in mine that these warz could never know about these planets here in mine before this beside, in mine, that these worlds, over more, in mine, that this was never taken surely over more inside mine owing back to know about this world in mine that these worlds were never taken surely over more inside my only life that this was never taken surely over more inside my living out to know about this life surely over more inside my living, out to know about us, here, heard, now in this address, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, in ours, that I could regard the moon, Kaguyahime?

That's her name, you know... Lana?

That this was never gone on in against this world in mine before these worlds in beside it all in this living out to know about these worlds in ours, this living out to know about this living on in before this living out to know about these lives, surely over more in my scope, these in ours before, that I could know about these worlds in mine, that this was never over inside my living out to know about these worlds, in mine, this life, surely these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, first, know about these worlds in mine, that this was gone against it all...

Kristin Kreuk is such a fucking bad ass! Did you know who that is, in real life? Her name was Lara. Lara, stupid, that's the uh, that's the Kryptonian girl, sure enough, called Lara Zor El, these beside, in ours, before knowing more in mine, that surely, could be given this surest human child, this baby, we call clark, but this baby, that she could, publish, to her husband not, but that she could run to Jor El, instead, who was this evil scientist, in charge of perverting the galaxy these worlds over with his evil technology, that surely, in Superman's plan to destroy Krypton, back in time, and besotted these worlds, ever on, in before; Lara was the only, good Kryptonian, and surely that she was given this son she could care for, and escape this world over in, that these were ours; she was too brave to have to leave, and give Jor El a way to escape his fate, and that I could tell you, Lara killed Superman? No I was confusing you, on purpose, to give you a moment, here, to know, that if you'd let Jor El, survive, Superman never could have been. So surely that she could not, escape the destruction of Krypton, but Lara is in this One Love, in All God, that's right; so she's eternal, and in literal aspect, is the actress you know as Kristin Kreuk, these worlds, over more! In mine, you have, no idea, how in love with that girl, the real Clark Kent, still is, and that she could love him; this surest forever child, here painted to destroy Jor El's holocron, and like, there was once this freak, called Jonathan Wilson, and he wanted to doppel Jonathan Kent, and so he did; he was an evil doppelganger, and surely enough, eventually, Superboy, or, Superman, rather, lit him on fire, and watched his flesh burn, as he bore his eyes into him. What, you don't think Superman, LIKES, killing monsters in impossible ways? He INVENTED laser vision, for fuck's sake, which is more properly called, laser blast eyes, that's right, surely over, more in mine, that these worlds, in mine, beside this color taken surely over on; that he drew this power in ours before this life, beside....

That I could tell you, about the real Jonathan, and that never once, did Jon Wilson taint the name, in actuality, surely, that once Superman killed the holocron, preserved in crystal, for Jor El, the evil scientist, he kept the name Jor El, to use, on someone he loved, a long time from then, and that you could know about Arthur, and that Aquaman fought with the Justice Society not, but these worlds over, he was not in our dimension until Clark killed Kent Nelson and secured the Doctor Fate helmet, to give to the man he named for his real father; my husband, the real, Jorel.

So that you could know that Clark was never going to forget these worlds over more to knowing mine in fate besotted on in before these worlds in mine that this could be ours to know about this planet, oh, yeah, go fuck yourself, Lana Lang didn't marry Clark, no no, but like, Lois married Aquaman? What the fuck?

That you could know about me; in my own life, surely over, K Y L E, these sides, surely over more, in mine,

J O R E L, these worlds, over more in mine over on, in before this in life, surely over, more to know about these worlds, in mine,

A R T H U R, C U R R Y, these worlds, that this was never gone on in before, this life, the doctor, did you know? Doctor Fate, this side, over more in mine beside this color here, in my only life, Jorel was off fighting as a god in another dimension; a hellscape, surely, but that he could not come to our world, because he needed something like this surest device, to make himself a god, do you think? No, stupid, he kicked the shit out of Nabu, and lived in this helmet? That these worlds, over more, he's called Doctor Strange, too, and could lie about this planet in ours; he's sometimes called, Bad Wolf?

this life, surely over more to know about this life inside my circumstance, this life, these worlds ever on, in before my telling in this old fate, this life, surely over more in...

Did you know Clark is my blood brother?

Sure, that Lois Lane could tell you not, to not mix blood with people you want to be related to, could be cool, maybe, and that school SPECIFICALLY told you not to? Did you know that the church is terrified you'll start forging blood bonds, and having truesex, with your friends, all your family, in fact? So terrified, they teach you to fear anything but monogomy, and they use the lore about monster blood, call it AIDS, and tell you not to live in this now, here, and believe that you could know about these worlds in my life, that this was never over inside and on in before these worlds, in mine, before, that this was never gone, on in before, these lives, surely over, more, to know about ours,...

So even if Clark is Cara's cousin, did you think their baby, wasn't going to be a super baby? They're related, you know; Clark and his wife, they're cousins, so like, that you think the baby wasn't worth it? In a marriage for love, the super baby, was going to be, what, deformed? In a union of love, he could have known, about, yours in this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds in ours, before, that th is was never taken surely over, in, that these worlds, beside, in mine, couldn know about these colors taken surely over inside and on against, here, that these worlds were never taken surely over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine, that this was never taken, surely over, more,

I wish I could tell you Clark was over the incident with his cairn, Kiara, but that you could know Pasha hates her too, surely, and that his life was stolen away from him in myth by your fucking monogomy principles, these lives, surely over more, that, this boy who could fly, was called Pan, surely, and so that you could know about this half kryptonian girl, called Pan not in real life, but that they stole Gohan's son away from him, in myth, and named his cairn after him, instead, and never let yourself believe that she was actually, ever, called Pan, so know about these worlds in ours, to know, these graces surely over more in mine that these worlds in beside in ours to know about, these lives, surely over more in mine, these lives, these worlds, in mine, beside this color taken surely on in before these lives in mine, that this one color taken surely on in before these worlds in mine, besides, this life, surely over more in my, life, surely over, more in mine before this beside my only, scape, these lives, surely over more in mine, beside, these worlds, in, life, surely over, more, in mine, this was never taken surely, on, in ours, more, to know about these worlds, beside!

Over more; that these planets taken surel on, in before, that girl, that you called Pan, or we called Kiara, could never be Kryptonian in full, now that she's abandoned her bloodline, for theirs is this fate; that Athena was surely Kryptonian, and Clark's twin sister, surely, that these worlds, and surely, that Hercules, too, wears the house El crest, if he wants, and red blue and yellow? He is, a kryptonian, which means, one, related to Clark, and two, an avatar, this side, over more in mine before this beside in mine because this life surely over more in mine, that these worlds in mine, could be beside in ours before this color scaping out to know about this world in mine, that this was never over inside and on in against, this living out to know about my life, these livings out to know about this living out to know about this planet in beside that I could know about my life in ours to know about this planet here in mine besides, before, in ours, to know about this life!

These worlds, in mine owing back to know about this living out to know about this world, in mine, this living out in mine besides before because in more's to know about these aul in ours to know about this course in mine, besides, before, these worlds, surely over in, besides, and on, against....

That I could know about these surest romances could be believed, and outwards in on against this life, these worlds in mine owing back to know about this inside my living out to know about this world in ours before this was never taken surely over more in mine, what in ours before this was never taken surely over more in mine before this because this was never taken surely over more inside this living out to know about my only living out to know about these worlds in my living out to know about these worlds, this living out to know about this living out to know, about this world, this living out to know about these worlds, that this was never taken surely over more in ours before this in mine, before this inside my life, surely over more in mine, did you know I have a son, who's a god?

Do you know, Link?

These worlds over more in mine beside before it all in mine before this beside in ours more to know about this world in mine that this was never gone, I made him with the power of Ion, did you know? These worlds, he's nothing like his father; he doesn't have one? that he could be like, something of a cairn, to Superman, it's untrue, but nothing like a cairn, is true, because I made him myself, surely over more to know, these worlds, and I'm like, I'm a girl, you know, so I can do that; create life? These worlds in my world before in all that this was never gone on in before these worlds in ours before this living out to know about this inside my world inside my planet taken surely over more to know about this inside my living out to know about these worlds, in ours, this life, surely, more, to know about this life, surely over out in mine before beside against before this life, surely over more in mine, that this was never taken surely over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine that this was never over, in ours, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds in mine, that, this was never surely taken surely over more in mine before, these worlds, this life, surely over, more to know, about, this life... So like, want to know about Superman's girlfriends? The sacred L's? Lana, Lois, Lara, and like, Lex, sure. Over more to know about these worlds, if you never watched Smallville you should; it kicks ass. Tom Welling has like, seventeen or forty five authentic Superman voices, but like, oh my fucking god, does Robin have more voices than that.... See?

No, remember, Clark IS Grayson, so surely that you could know about these beside in ours to know about before this life, surely over more, in ours, so don't doubt, that Clark was in love with his best friend, Lex, and know about these worlds in my life, that he could know in ours, that I am, too...

Sure, my husband in Hephaestus, maybe, but you didn't think I was in love with Ares?

These worlds in mine before beside, this life, in ours before beside in mine because in ours that I could know beside in ours, this life, surely over more to know, about, this life, that these worlds in ours before, that these worlds taken surely over more in mine against before this life, surely over, inside and on in against this planet here so taken surely over more in mine beside this cause in ours to know about us more, in mine, that this was gone, this was never gone on before, these worlds, this in mine, these lives, surely over, more, okay, stupid, do you know how many identities the fastest man alive keeps?

Twelve?

Sure, okay, twelve, and one of Lex's, is Barry.

This life, surely over more in mine, that this was never taken surely over more in mine beside in ours, did you ever wonder, why Lex is just, never, in jail? Yeah, that he could be my lover was true, in ours, to know, about this life, surely over more in mine before besides in mine before besides because in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine because before these worlds in mine before beside this inside my living out to know about this living out to know about these worlds in mine beside, this life, surely over in mine that this was never over in beside this was never taken surely over more in mine, that these worlds, were never on, surely, that you could know about Wally West, and that he could know about these worlds, of multiple Flashes? These worlds, over more in mine beside in ours before this beside this life, surely these worlds in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine, that this was never over inside and on, in before these in worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, this was never taken surely on in, before this living out to know about this living out to know about God, this inside my living out to know, did you think, Clark, didn't believe in all God? Surely, that you could know, they call him Christian, these days, surely over more in mine, that you could know about this only life in ours before this inside my living out to know about this'n life, surely over more in my life, these worlds, this inside my own life, surely over more in my life, these worlds, in my own life!

These worlds on in before this planet taken surely over more in mine before, that I could take about, TREY, these sides, over more to know about Lex's son in this war, this life, surely over, that he could be called, KRATOS, thsi side, over more in mine, that this was never more in mine because in before it all in ours before, this life, surely over more in mine, this was never taken surely over more, in mine because in before this living out to know about this life, surely over more in mine, this before, these beside in ours, this life, surely over more in my fate, this life, surely over more in mine before, this beside, this life, surely over more to know about, this life, surely, over, more, that Lex and Clark never, ever stopped being friends, and that you could know, what it takes, to get a villain, to fight on terms with Superman, it's Lex, surely over more, that nobody could oppose Superman without consulting the war god set against him?

Oh, you're in for so much fucking pain. Metropolis, is rising. Portland, Oregon, this side in ours before more to know about this planet here in mine, that I could know about these worlds in ours, before, that this was never taken surely over more inside my own life, surely over, more in mine, that this was never taken surely over more inside my living out to know about this inside my living out to know about my living out to know about this inside my life before these worlds, in ours, this was never taken surely over more inside this only life, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, beside, that Smallville, became, Metropolis, when Superman brought the stellar individuals, to fill Lex's massive, free to live in, skyscraper apartments. Now, if Lex could buy, four thousand acres, and fill them with sky, scraper, apartments, for ANYONE, to live in, how fast does a city of freedom form?

If they're all friends of Superman?

Oh, these lives inside my only living out to know about this only life inside my living out to know about these inside my living out to know about these worlds, this life, this life, surely over more inside this life, surely over more inside this living out to know about this living out to know about this living out to know about these worlds, in mine, owning back to know about this lifetime, these worlds, this holy war, this living out to know about this planet here in mine, that these wars, were never taken surely on in before,

Do you know what Kryptonite, is?

I joked, earlier, about forging my own son, from the power of Ion. That's green lanterns' light, by the way; Ion.

Superman, made, the existence of Kryptonite, so he could fight a certain kind of evil, that, like in Smallville, could give his enemies powers he could fight them by, or, surely, simply that he could battle his own will, against he evil's, and surely these worlds on in before, Clark is a hellwalker, so surely, like my husband, and ever more daring, evenly, that he could, what, more daring?

Without kryptonite, you might never know that every time a friend tried to cut Clark Kent, he'd bleed, like it really hurt, so you could never know, that Superman was bleeding the whole time; through his friends, like green blood is wont to do...

He'll die, from fighting Kryptonite, if no one saves him. That's the Superman paradigm; that he could rest helplessly, and never be rescued, and so, die....

Or it was, anyway. Kryptonite still makes Kael really, really sick, but he broke it; along with Supergirl, so that when their son, Superboy, Pasha, came, he could never have to suffer from it like they both did, and so believe in maybes not; that Superman could never torture his son the way he tortured himself, and surely over more in mine; and elder god could die any time she wanted to, by inventing something insane, like kryptonite, and letting herself bleed out, because of it....

Inside beyond, that these worlds could know about ours in lieu of hiding, on in before these planets here in mine, this side, over borne, in on against, did you see, Superman Returns, I think it's called? It's got Pasha, in it, and the kryptonite makes him hurt, and sick, but like, a really, really angry sort of sick he can still kick your ass and kill you, to.

Oh my god, you have, no idea, how many more people Superboy kills, than Superman. Like, really, really brutally. That Lex Luthor doppelganger? Surely, first, Lois was just watching after Cara's son, surely over more in mine against; Superboy wasn't have kryptonian, just, facing broke down kryptonite, that these worlds over more inside mine to know about before in all for ours to know about and bend in these our trepid ends in ties, about before, because in more to know about before these worlds in plied, thereon, that these were never gone beyond...

Superman, the real, Superman, could drop Lois's boyfriend in the slums of India, for all he was worth; if he was in the way of Superman being around Pasha.

That you could know, Oliver Queen is Jaime, these worlds, do you know what that means? Well, for one, it means the Queen foundation is rooted fro foundation, but like, the fortune, comes from Wayne.

These worlds beside in ours beyond this planet here so surely beside in mine beside in ours before more to know about beside in ours before in these lives, that this was never over inside and on in against, this life, surely over more in mine, broken, these worlds, this life, that these worlds in ours before, this life, surely over more in mine, that this was never gone on in before, this life, surely, over more, this life, surely over, this life, surely more in mine, before these worlds, in mine, owen life, surely over more in mine, beside, before, because, this world, in mine, because these planets here in mine that this was never gone on in against before these worlds in mine, becasue in mine, that this was gone on in before these lives, in mine before, because, on, in granting more to know about this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, in mine, that this was never taken surely over in and on because, these worlds, in ours, this life, surely over, more in mine, that this was never gone on in before, these worlds, in mine, this was never gone on in before these worlds, in mine, before, beside, this living out to know about this planet here in mine beside, this life, surely over more in mine, this was never over more in mine, this was never gone on in before these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine beside, because in ours, this life, surely over more in mine, because, these in ours, to know about, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, in ours, could know about these worlds in ours because in mine that this was never gone on in overture these worlds in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine, that this was never taken surely over more in mine, that this was never taken surely over, more, to know, about, surelly, these worlds in forever on in before because, this life, surely over more inside this life....

So like, I might be married to Aquaman, but like, I'm immortal, so like, we have sex; Superman and I? Sure, like, every day if we wanted, but you could know about ours in life, that these were gods, we were warranting; here in mine, that these worlds, surely over, and every single quirk you felt about Oliver Queen, is bullshit, for his is this life without ever, ever feeling the effect of SICK, this surest evil infection; that he is a younger god, the son of Batman, these worlds, over inside and on, so when Superman left Metropolis, to these heroes, and went to fight in Gotham, so did I, and you could know my name, or, alias, as Selena Kyle.

That these worlds were never on in against these worlds in mine before this beside in mine before because in mine before in ours besotten on, in before this life surely over more in mine that these worlds, this life, that this was never gone on in against before these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, because this in life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine own life, surely over more in mine, that this was gone on in before against these worlds, in mine, that this was never gone, on in before against before, these worlds, in mine, surely over more, in mine. Did you know what happened, to Jonathan and Martha Kent, after Clark left Metropolis, for this hundred and fifty year campaign, alongside Batman? Well, Jon, was borne to Mars, and Martha, was borne to Themyscira. Oh, that you thought, Wonder Woman, wasn't a bastard? Surely, one from two places; one that she was a strong, powerful, brilliant woman, and so therefore Amazonian, and the other that she was, what, American?

3. Arthur

These lives beside in mine before these worlds in ours to know about this more in my life, that I could know about this score in my own score back in time, this music taken over inside and on in before these worlds in my life, this was gone, on in before these worlds, this life, surely over more, to know, about, these planets here on in taking over more to know about this planet here on in against these lives in mine beside these worlds in ours to know about this planet here in mine beside before these worlds because in ours to know about these planets here in knowing more to know about this planet kore, in mine, owen son, surely taken surely beside mine owen life, surely over more, to know about, TYLER, these sides, in mine, that I could know about this one world, in mine life, these worlds beside in on against this planet here so taken surely over more in mine owen life, surely besides, these worlds, in my living, out to know about this world, in mine, that this was caused, in ours, to know about before; these worlds, surely here heard, that this was gone on in before these planets, taken surely over more in mine, that this was gone on in before because, this life, surely, over more, to know about us, beyond...

That you could know about me once, by the name Aquaman, and surely here, that I did not, invent, water, or anything, but if you ever saw me team up with Poseidon, you could know what good friends we really are, and that he totally, totally lets me be king of the ocean, because like, he's just straight up king of water, and like I could be called Aquaman, he's not really being fair, about that, except that I'm, an elder god too, and surely over more, just barely younger, than he is, and so more to knowing more in mine, that I invented heat, this surest aspect in, ORANGE light, that I could know yours, in heat in the ocean, that water distributes heat better, or differently, from air? These lives overture these worlds in taking over more in mine that these worlds were never taken surely over, surely on, in before, these worlds, that this was never surely taken backwards ever on against this life, surely more, to know, that you could know Bruce, is Poseidon, these lives beside, on in before these worlds in mine, that this was never more in mine beside this color taken surely over more in mine and on against these worlds over more in mine this life, surely over, more, to know, by, in for, these, beyond....

Once upon a time, I lived in hell, and once, I'd built a fortress for Superman to find me by; that this was on a distant from all, world, and surely over these lives beside, it was a way of worlds; that he could connect to my dimension, and communicate with me, surely, and that he had already slain the evil holocron of the evil nasty called Jor El, but that he'd once upon a time, learned of the name Jor El, as a name for his, real, father, and so it held some merit for him, but was torn over in pain and sorrow and misery, for surely did Jor El try and kill Lana Lang, for coming close to Clark, and so that he built the fortress in the furthest reaches of the north, much like mein temple, so tu as store this memory of Jor El, in there, instead, and believe in making, make believing, he was isolated, in his heart of hearts, which is another word for being evil, like Jor El, was, and surely over more to know about beside, I could spell my own name, Jor El, if wanted to, but Kalel called me Jorel, when he fell in love with me, and wanted for a real father, in this life, surely that he knew already we were destined for one another, that these lives, in beside; he knew Lois, as well, my surest love of romance in ours to know forever on, in against these lives, surely over more, in mine, that this was gone, on in before, that this was well after Superman had destroyed the holocron of Jor El, and surely over more in mine that I could emulate this existential crisis not, but here live in agony, over ours to know in a tainted name?

That once upon a time was forever, could be madness, but that these worlds in ours, surely believéd, was here in hearing ours to know about these'n lives, here surely more to know about this life, surely over, more to know about mine, in mine owen circumstance, here surely believed, that I could be this saint, surely over more, in mine, against, this life, surely; I loved this boy, Kalel, who spoke to me through the temple built, one day, for him to find me by, and that I wished to exist in his dimension, surely, but lacked my misery plurally, that I could not fight against these scourges alongside him; would be torture. Surely over, more, that he believed he could find the Doctor Fate, helmet, and bring it to me, and believe that I could master its magic, surely over more in mine, against, that I am Hephaestus, surely, and Aquaman, surely, this name, In Arthur, that I cry, and so more to know, I am Jorel, and I am the doctor...

These worlds beside mine in mine owen life surely believed, ever on against these worlds; I traveled not, but existed back in time?? So more in mine that these worlds were ever aun, that I fought in the Justice Society not, but here, surely, once upon a time, faced the evil force known as Hal Jordan, and killed him a great many times, as Aquaman, whenever he saw fit to, er, green lantern, the ocean... That these lives in ours could know mine in mine own surest circumstance, here, believing maybe that I could know these lies, in mine, and more to know about these worlds, in mine own circumstance besotted, surely on, in before, this life, surely over more in mine because this life was never ending in ours to know about these planets here beside mine and over inside on against these worlds in mine before this life, surely over more to know about this life, so know about this planet, here, in mine, that these worlds, over more in mine only lifetime, could be sorted here, and more to knowing these, lives, here, surely over more in mine against this living out to know about before, these planets, surely, that once when we banished Hal Jordan not, but defeated him; he was surrounded in a hell world, surely over in, and called himself Sauron, and so that we could kill him, we existed in this middle earth, and knew about these ways in magic, like as in to forge brightsteel, for Frodo, that he could love this plural quest in on against these planets beside mine own life, surely here heard and beyond this great divide, in ours, to know about these planets here in mine before in knowing more in ours to believe that I could believe ours was gone against these rocky waves, here, heard before in ours to know about this planet in mine, before in our knowing that this was never gone on, in, before, these lives, that I could lie about you, here, and heard this cry of agony, in ours to know, that this was beyond reproach, in that you could name myself not the father of Kaldur, in that knowing more's to know about besides; he was black?

Alright, I made him out of black light, so that surely over in ours to know about these worlds beside, that Garth was the same as one you call Oliver Queen, and is the son of Bruce, surely; that he forged this younger god's soul in a completely different fashion to how I forged my own son's, and surely more to know about, that he was made with black magic, whereas I invented, orange magic, was different not from any but Garth's father, who made his son to be born a master of blue light, while he, Poseidon, himself, created blue light itself, and more's to know our own knowing more in mine that these worlds were never more in taking these shelters here in mine surely believed over in ours to know this life surely more in mine, beside, because, that these worlds, over more, in mine, about before because inside against in more to know about these worlds, in mine, before because excited once in ours beside this force because, in mine, that it's not the first time, Kaldur has been called black as black, but, well, or, not the only time, in that he has been called Morpheus, and surely over more to know, was of black magic, and, what, any skin color he ever wanted? Probably, and more's to knowing, these seas' depths, out in bays not, but war, that this was never surely over more in ours to destroy Black Manta, that he was this, Moriarty of the sea, and surely over in ours beside against this life, surely over more in mine besides this living out to know these torturers and scourges he fought against, once in life to the other form in ours because of what he was, in these, that life was besotten on, in ours, that Black Manta was no true villain, such as Ocean Master, but that these worlds over, Black Manta played kin to the likes of Barry Allen, or, Lex Luthor, he's also known as, and poised enemies to fight against me in surest appropriate formate, that these worlds over, Black Manta was Batman himself, and surely more to know; that I trained Garth, Batman's son, as my own apprentice, much like he trained Kaldur as his own, surely over these worlds, in life, that David Hyde could be believed to be this ancient evil of the seas?

Hyde is ever more the alias of the master of beast form ninjitsu, that these worlds over for, was Splinter, this side over in ours to know about these lives, that Batman is called Alucard, and Van Helsing, and surely, simply, Beast, and living out beside these in ours, was surely Jekyll, in his own courses, that he could concoct these potions for himself to transform, was in ours to design against because, for surely that you could believe, in the streets of Gotham, I was, Jack Ryder, and so more to know about these lives, these worlds, in mine, I am Vincent Yatz, and surely over more, they called of the creeper, surely here beside in ours to know in more's besides in ours to believe in fate and destiny forsaken over in and on against these worlds in mine that I could believe these worlds beside in mine because in ours for more to know about before because in mine beside in these lives on in taking over more to know, these worlds, that it was the drinking of a potion, that I could change form, easily, in, and become, the nightfaring ninja, called creeper, here beside in my life, and that it was my aptitudes surely as a god, that gave the legends their power, surely, so that I could be known to never, be without super powers, in surest form that my abilities are no gimmick, and if dolphins ever responded to my cries, it was because they wanted to, and liked me, surely, and here in ours to know about before, besides, in mine to knowing more in ours to know this scourge, in hearing more, these seas, here, in mine, to know about beside this color taken surely on in before this life surely over more in mine beside in and on in against before this life, surely over, more, in mine, life...

Surelly that these worlds in mine own circumstance could be believed in ours to know about this beside in colors taken surely over more in mine that these worlds beyond, could be known...

This in my life, before, that I can hear my son crying, and I know, he knows not the pain we're all in for him, that he could be heard around the world, over in and on, beyond, that Kalel, surely knows this course in pleasure surely more in mine beside this living out to know about this life, surely over more in mine beside, this living out to know about this chosen one in all our hearts, this sure Superman. Clark, I know your pain,, I know your trials, I'm so sorry, for where you are, and that this pain could be believed, surely over more in mine only living out to know about this one world, in my card, this life, surely more, to know, about these worlds, use the tarot, and find me by them, here in hearing ours, to know about, this inside my life, that these worlds ever on against it all inside my heart. Here, hear, hear me! Hear me! These lives, besotted on, in before, my own worlds, surely, that these lives could be believed and maybe just this once on in for these surest circumstances, could we fathom this tether broken, and here mistaken over in ours, to know about this kind of life, here, now, and so sorted out was ours; this chosen life we live, that we could know about this world beside the emperor inside our hearts, this land not, but this surest angel, surely over more in mine, that these worlds gone to war was main in maur to know 'bout the chosen ones, in faur in aur, to know'in by, before...

4. Carter

In ourz to know about these worlds taken surely over more in mine own life, this world in ours to know about my daughter, surely, this girl that you could know Shiera, and these lives, surely over more to know, that what, she was, not, my lover, as well? These planets beside, in ours to know about this in my life; I'm immaurtal, stuped, and surely lived beyond, that she's a thousand thousand years older than your most ancient relative, unless, you know, you're kryptonian, in which case, you probably have her, and the other, too, among your kin, surely over more to know, about these worlds, that she could shed her wings for a once life, surely over more in mine; that they could be worn in her halo, and graced on in these worlds am I, called the shadow man, and sure, I did invent black, so yes, I have the skin color you call black, but Cara, or, Shiera, looks like her cousin? That he has golden skin made of air could you know in this life; he told me so himself, and so surely that I could forge this girl from the planet itself? These lives, that soil, is this surest substance of planet, and is black, that these worlds, over more, this most fertile of life sprung, here surely on, in before, that her body is made of ash, this side in ours, to know about this planet here in mine, before these beside in mine only right to know about this planet taken surely on, in ours, that the era of the Justice Society, was far removed from the Justice League of Superman's reckoning; that our combat was against Hal Jordan, surely over more in mine, that I could know Barry Allen, surely, and Wally West, that these worlds over more to know about this color inside my only life that these worlds in mine before this beside in ours to color more in mine that these worlds ever on in before that this world was never over inside and never over more ton know about this inside my living out to know about this life, surely, over more, in mine, that this was never over on, in before these worlds, that I could know about Barry, and this surest, speedforce he prayed to, but that this was his own designing of speed, surely over more, that he frightened you, with these lives, in ours, to know about these planets, here, in mine, beside in before that this one life was never lived beyond this surely over more to know about these lives, ever on, in against, these surest circumstances here, so believed.

I know, I know, surely over more, that you could want to know, of Bizarro? He is a friend of ours, surely over more to know about these lives inside and on against these worlds in mine before this beside in mine only life before in ours, that this was the effect of black kryptonite, surely, that he'd change the power of Ion, to the power of Aerth, and so called a dif'rent power, intu himself, surely, that Ion had been working on destroying Superman, but that was its intent and purpose, when Superman made the stuff, and surely that you could know, he could never continue existing here, in our worlds, were it not for his clever devices, like these surest faurms of kryptonite he developed all, his own, in ours, to know about this life beside in ours, to know about, this surest two forming that Superman developed in these aspects over in ours, this life, surely over more to know about these lives, in mine before these worlds, in mine, before this life, surely over more, in mine, that you could know, once upon a time, Maron knew Gohan, and watched him go, in misery; off to a distant world, back in time, to slay the evil kryptonians, just as Vegeta had worked tirelessly against the Saiyan empire, so surely too, could Maron grow up and travel even further back in time than Gohan, to surely destroy and waylay this evil man called Zor El, who could pervert and torment the galaxy even after his surest death granted by Gohan.

Shiera knew, that she would be in agony, for her life on Krypton, these some seventeen years of eternity, over in ours; it was nowhere close to what you imagine seventeen could be measured in years by seconds, for surely, years cannot be measured in seconds, ever, at all, for when no two seconds felt the same, then seconds were disproven in existing, and so they do not, surely, neither do your calenders do anything, but torture you.

That I could know about these olden worlds in mine only life beside this color in taking out to know about these worlds taken surely over more in mine before this beside in ours that I could never know about these beyond, in ours that this was never over in on for, this life, sure sung, this in worlds, these beyond, this in living out to know about these planets taken surely, over, more inside and on, for, this inside my only life, these worlds, this beside my knowing more to know about this living out to know about these in worlds ever on in against this once in love, this was never over more in mine before this beside in ours before this living out to know about this in worlds surely over more in mine before this beside in ours before these in mine that I could never know about this, world, this inside my living out to know, about in ours before, this living out to know about this, life, surely over more inside this living out to know about these worlds in ours, before, beside in ours to know about this smile in mine before this life living once in shadow forming out before this beside, mine, these worlds, here, heard, out, aun!

Shared backward by in mine own life, surely, this shadowman was coming home in ours to know about this world in ours to know about this planet here in mine, what you think I'm made of, this surest, force, of ours? That I am, surely, Hawk Man, and believe these worlds so too, and I, Goliath.

Yes, you are, beginning, perhaps, to see something different, in my images, these worlds in ours for this in living out to know about this planet elder gods, this in ours before these planets here below, this world in ours for to know about me by in these worlds surely taken on in before these worlds in mine own, this life, sure sewn in for this life in mine that this was never wrong before in ours to know about this planet taken surely so sewn in mine back for this life, these worlds in mine was never over maur, this maur, in maur befaur, these worlds, this life, surely, here, forever?

Do you know mein grandsons? These worlds over more to know about their mother surely over to, these in lives, surely blood in bonds, these worlds taken, surely over more to know about, that the child could you know by, Justin Bieber, was begotten in this olden not song, but that these worlds over more to know, the day that Superman and Supergirl, Clark and Cara, surely over more to know about these worlds inside my know, that this was never wrong, in ours, before this one living out, to know about this planet on, in taken force we could bare, these sure lives in mine, this was never wrong, these in ours, this was never surely over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more to know about these planet waking out in ours; this open format, so sourced, this life, surely over more in mine before, this beside in ours because, more to know about this one love, this was never over love, that this was never over for, these memories, played by storm, and in this violet lighting, summoned up in a wedding of elder god to younger god, this child was conceived, and surest for, looks more and more like his brother Anakin, every day.

That you could know about these worlds in mine, this score, this life, surely over more for in faur, this in mine and on for, this world, this in living light, this was the hero you know of, as TIDUS, these sides, JUSTIN is, and over tu, know more, in ours, before mine, this one life, surely over more to know about aul, this in ours to know about all, these worlds, this living out, to know about, this'n world, this in my own life, these worlds in my life, that he could sing it once, and your memories, could play by in mountains for, did you have, any idea, what Superman, what Clark, can do, with song, in a hall of gods, there for fun and games? This life, surely over more to know, did you have any idea, what sort of matricies, the queen of the damned, this surest faurm, my daughter, can set about her husband, for his voice to ring on and through? EVERY time we thought about the wedding, our hearts sang, and this new song formed, all from this one time, here, this, life, for, these worlds, so surely this was never wrong on before, this in our cause, more before, Justin, Clark seeks you, openly, and loves you forever, surely over that he could call you Tide, and know these worlds, and name you son? That these worlds over more, you are, older than you remember, but the stories of Final Fantasy X were future prophecies, to be believed and taken granted for, on, to fight agaiynst, so surely could you play about the world in a different way, and know in this form, that you are a god. I believe it, anyway, but you seem mortal, do you not? That you could get sick, was never really not true, but that we could know about your, ah, immune system, and how quickly your mother can find you on the inner, in her dreams, and scourge out this torment embedded in this infected wound from wounds of war in ours to bare it all, that this was broken glass under the skins, surely over more, so surely, believe, mortal boy, that you can rise to surest godhood, in form, but that twice now, you've saved your fathers' life, and mine, this was gone, before, this was never, more, in ours before, this song, if Shoda dies this day, we'll all pay, Goka's gone, this was never, wrong, this old song I sense, Athena called you forthe, this was never, gone on in before, that I could believe in it that this was gone before, these worlds ever on in against before, that this one world in ours before my life, this was never broken, surely over inside on, in before that these were never over more in mine, that this was never more, in ours before that I could never take it on, in before, that this was never more in ours before that this was never more in mine before this color taken surely over more to know about this war this war this war, this agaisnt the DRED. This against, the SICK, this in ours, for more, not the sickly, peeps, but this, the SICK, this in ours, EVIL, this was never, SITH? This was surely, this in darkness surround here in my own land, you have bloodlines to tap, check this power out, dig in earth for black, this was never wrong before that they could lie about the plates they'd laid beside in ours and over these rivers of earth in ours for more to know about, what, no ancient aliens, but star wars is all true?

5. J'onn

Surely knowing more in mine, that this was Justin's other grandfather, and surely here before this in living, out to know about this life, surely over, his great grandfather, actually, that these were ununsurped, these lives, on, before, that I could be this surest, Martian, Man Hunter, and believe ours in life, that I could be a forever child, and fight against MEN, surely, in these regards, for that I am a boy, still, always aun, in before that this was never over more in my neverland games, that I could believe these forms, pleasing, in ours, and that I had no qualms of being as inhumanly human as plausible, or sorry about beside in because that this world in wind was gone in forgotten ages, back in more, to know about, this in my torm'ment, tor'ment! tor'ment! tor'ment!

Back over surely in before these worlds in mine own standing out to know about these worlds and my own sons on in before that this life, surely over more to know, about, these lives, and that great grandfather means, that I could hear Clark call me grandfather, when he wonders at me, and does not call me Antonio? These besides, in ours, to know about, this planet, once, I was called Kent, surely, but

J'onn, nonetheless, and here before these worlds in mine beside more, in mine, that this was never gone on in before these worlds, in ours, this in life, surely more in mine, besides, this in my knowing of, that I could step aside not, but back, some, for Jorel to come to know Clark, and surely, or, Arthur, to come to know Clark, rather, for long have they been father and son in their hearts not a lone, and yet have strayed from each other, for theirs in this dance with death, on in before, that they could dance about hells, each one, trying to keep the other, from seeing how far he goes, into hell, just to rescue someone, or just to fight? To rescue, they can both dive, but that these worlds were taken on; they die, or, dive, rather, they die for each other, every time its witnessed one goes to hell, and the others wonder at them, and how many forms of storms could be cooking themselves into creation, more besotted on against this child called, Final Fantasy Ex. Yes. My great grandson Final Fantasy Ex is a brave human soul, and surely over more in theirs, that he is kryptonian by birthright, surely, so that he must learn his ways not on in for these patterns taken surely over inside on against before because to know in more that these we'd ply by in and for this color taken over on in aspect believed that these were mein in me, for to be, that this was never granted ever after inside on against in for this universal spending here in mine besides this color taken surely, taken, backwards, taken, taken back, surely, back, back, and knowing, more, in for, these worlds, scored, in mine, this music score we play by, and on about, these lives, here, sung, so surely, believing, that this was gone on in before these worlds, surely over more to know about these planets beside, and on, in ours to know about this planet here, surely taken, backwards by, in life, beside, that these more moments could be believed in ours to be this surest romance, and believing maybe not, that this world could be lived in, so believe, that this was this in ours to know about before because against in ours to know more more for theirs in this forsaken thirst in mild, that I was borne to Mars, that means brought, I was borne, to Mars, when Clark left for Gotham, to become the son of another, surely; his brother. That they two, Batman and Robin, could fight against crime, and the forces, of evil!

Squarely known, though, that you could imagine a rectangle, and believe this box to be all encompassing, here, so surely know, that this message has been received not unless you are damn, damn good at martial, or surely over these, you are Andalite. Are you?

6. Barry

Babies, babies, come on. Come on. You knew it was me. Wally? Wally West? Come on, how many Flashes did you think I could be? All of them? ALL the flashes? Sure, no, not all of them; lots of girls flash ME, but surely if not, ALL, the Flashes, at least not Impulse, or, Impact, as he called himself for a while, when he got that solid fucking packed earthbender arm going, and would fucking ram you at a million miles an hour, sure, so, impact.

Other than Kid Flash, though, what did you have a problem with? Did you know I was going to be too impressive not to get a big old, Superman target painted on my bod? Yeah, way, way, way too fast, so like, chaaaange to yellow, tussle the hair, now I'm Kid Flash! See? Sure enough, who, that Flash? Over there? That'd be Clark, probably, standing in to save my ass, or sure enough, someone else stupidly fast at impersonating me, the fastest man alive, Lex Luthor, surely enough, never stood a chance in the jail system itself, but really, all he had to do to get away from you was have rockets propelled from Mercy's arms, and dip around a corner.

Like, never notice how now, to do battle against the good, which just means, to torture people insanely, everybody wants to fight Superman, instead, because he's like, totally not already in your way but Lex Luthor will trick the shit out of you and go ahead and put you right, there, in his supervision, and we'll see how well your torture and mayhem works in a plot against Superman himself, savvy?

That you could think Michael Rosenbaum wasn't just, doing the Flash's voice, the whole time, is pretty crazy. Come on, Clark, get with the new ideas, it's hardly a thing of the past any longer, it's, present, or something similar, probably, see?

I don't think you know, how many colors I'm capable of inventing.

There are, uh, six, supposedly, that I'm not qualified to invent, because they're already there, but like, golden light is a cheap hack, Superman, you can't just master everyone's magic and say now you have gold ranger magic, that'd be awesome wickedcoolbad, and you're just plain old super, so, what do you know, anyway?

I found a lie for mine own son in ours to know about this inside my only timing out to know about this world in ours to know about this planet here in mine beside this color taken surely over more in mine life, these worlds, in worlds, this world, these lives on, in before mine, beside, so Clark, know, I'm sorry for pain, caused, this in ours, I know, I know, we're brave, and we stay, and I'd die, about this world, if you didn't laugh with me, and lie to me, and believe with me, that this whole planet needs to be afraid, and that sure, you can't torture with fear? That this was never over in ours before that I couldn't know, in case, I'm not as famous as I thought, you should know, diary, that I'm an elder god, and the one they call, Braniac One, and surely over more, that I invented this yellow light; this, fear, element, that this wasn't gone on in before that this one world in mine, that we could live more in ours before, this life, surely so sewn, back, in time, these in livings out to know about these worlds in mine besides this in singing out for more, that these worlds in mine owing back before this life, surely over more to know about this life inside my living out to know about me, in mine, this wasn't gone, on in before, that these worlds, on, in before that this was never over, more in mine, life, that this was never more in more, to know about this chosen life, surely over more in mine, this in living out to know about this in more to know about these planets here in mine beside mine, and ever on, was I, Alexander Son, surely over more in mine, that I could be called Ares, surely was checked back on in before these worlds, of fear.

Surely over more in mine beside because before in more to know about this'n life besides in ours to know about this'n once before it all, this life, surely sung on in before these worlds beside my only life in mine, that I could never know about these planets taken surely on before, these worlds, in mine before this planet here in mine before in all this world beside my own life, that these could be here, heard in my voice with you, that I could know about these worlds, in mine, before, this life, too, in mine that these worlds, on in before that these worlds were never there before, does fear, stink? Or does, making yourself stink, stink of fear? Did you skip the play dead part, and just die in sweat and skin, go all animal, and reflex like an idiot, like, maybe he won't eat me if I'm gross?

The fear of, MORE, death, was sure to know about these in planets taken surely over more in mine that these worlds over more to know about us in this life, surely over more in mine besides these on in before my only living out to know, about us all, in this planet, I could, quake on, in before that these worlds, were for, you...

7. Clark

Clark Kent couldn't be here. I'm really sorry, you didn't know that before you got this far, but, he's in a lot more pain than I can figure on, and it hurts, all the time, and I can't figure, what to do, about my father, he's in jail, and I can't stop what's happening. Call me, Jaime, if you want, but that these worlds surely over more in mine only life, that this war, was never wrong before, that I couldn't believe these worlds in ours before, that I couldn't leave this in our pain, please dad don't leave me back here while you fight in this sacred blue, light...

I am young, but, my heart aches the same, so, know about me, call me John, sure, or something different once, we spelled it, Gon.

I miss him so much, and I can't believe this is happeningk! I don't want him to die like this, but here over hearing in mine before this beside in ours before these in mine beside this color taken surely over more in mine back against, this world in my life, that I could never know about this one worldview in ours taken on, in before this mistaken, paradise... We are young, but heartache to heartache, we stand, with our friends, these, surest parents we love, this life, surely over more, I'm one of 7, other gods, called the younger gods, and the first begotten children of the elders, and so surely like we could be with Hercules, and they with Zeus, but we all love Hercules, and we all love Zeus, and we all love my father, Bruce, and he's in so much pain, I can barely believe I'm brathing right now without, screaming... Don't get stupid, though, do you know who Clark really is? What a journal like this could mean to him? It's about his children, we, us, the younger gods, and his brother, his best friend, and his other, surely titled, Best Friend, is my little brother, by our won mixing of blood, but sure, Jason shares Mito-san with me too,, and I can't believe fate treats us like this, after all this time, but fate means, your will, not mine. Your will, all of you, collectively; every will but your own will, is your fate.

So it was that the teenage ghost was, what, fated, to suffer in hell for us? WHY? Why is this happening to us? We're supposed to be winning this war and they're torturing us! Wake up! The second a moth gets the drop on a butterfly, its moth teeth start ripping those beautiful wings apart, just like it eats your beautiful clothes? Yeah no, the butterfly's alive, so fucking kill moths, you idiot, and watch the butterfly effect unfold. What else can you kill?

If you humiliate a cop, is he the same dangerous animal, afterwards, or did you break him, somehow, and now he's wounded, and its infected, because he's infection spread, torture out tu Hades levels, sure, but Aauuh! aaHaaaugh!

Everything you say we do, you lie about, every fucking legend, you fucking killed Jason Todd in agony! in fucking AGONY! What the hell are you?! Are you human? Some bean?

Or are you hero?

It's a fucking option, idiot.. All we ever had to do, was believe, there's evil, and so long as it's there, it will try and torture children. Torture, everyone, but how could your schools look, to anyone?

My name's not Oliver Queen unless you want to believe in a series of myths that make a lot more sense. I could lie about, fate, in ours, that this wasn't gone, on before, this world in battling, these lives, surely over more, this in pain, this torment over in mine so taken on, in before this life, surely, over more to know by mine in mine before this beside, this life, in ours, for more to know, that I could believe in ours for, this one form, this life, surely over, more in mine, this, this one life! This is the archangel Michael, this in ours, knowing more to know about my own battlefield, this life, surely over more to know, but like, just call me blue, or, beetle, or, Jaime, I guess, or whatever you thought I'd have been up to, since Poseidon created Perseus.... That this was hell to know about, saur, saur, back et yaar, how far, far maur faur?

Clark can go there, though; I know he can and that's why I'm here. He can lay in bed, in torment and hell, and sob, for his brother, and know that, he can feel him, and Chase will suffer less in, because of it, because there's another. That's how he fights, by the way, Batman? My father? There's another. There's another. There's another. There's another. And he's, always, always meant Clark, Grayson,, he's always meant that little boy who appeared by his own Will, in the seas, forged their by this Hope: there's a nother... there's another.... so Clark's in hell right now, just to suffer here with Bruce, for a while, probably not, whatever you thought, was real, but if he wanted to be sick, Clark could just, fight, from bed, and break his body apart as he fought, like it was kryptonite or something, and, he made the kryptonite so he could fight evil like that, but, he doesn't need the crime of kryptonite itself, he could just, fight like he's in hell, and he is,...

So hey, brave, brave soul, brave, brave slave. Wake the fuck up. The matrix has you, and you're torturing your friends, AND, the elders who've always, always loved you.

An introduction, by Erik

These worlds collided on, in, against, and for, that you could know, these sides, forsaken on, in believing forever was granted in courage, or, never again forsaken ever on against?

Could that I would know, I'd tell you about my maker not, but my surest, ally, who stayed my life at death's gates, though he owned them, and that these worlds could be in by, Hades, I could speak to you of Nosferatu, the father of Godfrey, but that you could know these worlds in ours before this planet taken on, that these worlds beside, Godfrey is, his elder, and as he has seen these other universes, he is elder in them all, for his to know about you, the dead can hear your thoughts?

Hades, can, hear your breathing, this surest form, on these winds he himself, forged, this, AIR, this life, surely over more to know about these beside in on, against this lonely life we'd live, here in ours, before this motion more in mine, to mind it all in these before because against this chosen war we'd all have at in before these lives, here, so surely, that you could know what the elder gods, are, exactly, and that's warrior poets, sure as to any viking who could not spell, as he lipped his sword, no viking at all was he, for to me nor my friends could hear about it, but that surest as could be, when we spied Godfrey, that we could know his name, friend god, and know he was as we are;

at war, for his friends, surely over these, in beside, this chosen grant tu war, this life, surely over in on against before in ours to know in more in mine against, this life, in ours for more to know about, these, songs... Surely over more in my knowing set to plurally given, about Nosferatu, this surest gaud, and ours for this knowing, more to know about this in mine planet taken surely over more inside my living color in my taken courage in this life, surely over more in my own world, this living out to know about this in my planet here inside this chosen day in mine before this world, in ours, before this planet taken ever on, against it all in this world before, this planet here in mine before this planet I'd lived in, this world, for, this world in my romance this in given trepid lost in souls, before, this life, in mine, for these in chosen grace, beyond, that these worlds, here, in ours, could know, me more, in these beside ours for this world, in my grace, this world in mine before this viking taken surely, over more in mine beside, these old worlds, so Hail, Thor, and know, these scores, these old songs, forever sung on these hilts of battle taken on in, these worlds, this, for more, to know about this surest, Force, in ours, before this knowing more in ours before this once, for Thor, so hailed, in more, for these worlds, on, in before, this life, that these worlds, could know about this planet, here, in mine, and that these worlds, could know about mine, in ours to know about a father, and surely over that these worlds beside us, could you know, about this surest son of Hades, called, Thanatos.

Not me, crazy, that'd be Superboy. Anakin, as you've called him before. No, as for, tu know, by Thanatos, you could of him?

Anakin was son of Hades?

These worlds, surely in, was the latter, in star wars?

Be it granted for that you could know about him, later on, in for these worlds, over in glided back in once a chapter set in more's to knowing allies set beyond these worlds in ours to shelter more for more in mine for shelter ever taken on before these in ours to know about before these worlds in mine before this coloring, here, forsaken, on against,

this world, ever under, over in, these lives, here, believed...

That these worlds could be channeled by you, could you call this same son, Lucifer, and know about his own names, in these titled grants, and know yours, in ours to beget these beside in ours to torment and pain, on in for these in granting misery, beside it all, here in more's to know about before inside before against, this course, here?

These grants ever on against one world to the other, could know these worlds in mine against one form to the other, that these beside, in ours to know about before this shade was gone on in before this score in more for more to know about before, before, this world, before, these sides, befor, befor, this world, befor, before!

Did you know, that I was a, power ranger?

This world beside in ours before this world in mine before this world in mine that this color taken on, then again, you thought, Tommy was evil, too?

These worlds over more in mine beside this color taken on in before this world in ours before this color taken surely more, to know, there's never not been, an orange ranger, around, like Alpha, sure, or some other kid, this surest form in ours to know about this planet taken on in before this battle, this life, surely over more in mine beside this color, this taken courage on before it all in these worlds taken surely over more in mine that these could be in colors taken surely over more inside mine beside, this course in mine before these worlds in mine before this in ours for this living out to know about this planet in mine before this earth in mine beside this only sureness! This life, surely over more in mine beside it, this life, surely over, more in mine beside this color taken on, in before, this world, to set, get set, morph! This world, this life, surely over more in ours, to know about this planet, taken surely over more, so that could you know about me, a, vampire, and that we could regard all in what you say we are, not as such, in monsters, that theirs was the vampyre, vamPREY, these sides before, this world over in, that we have, mind, fucked, them?

Surely, they are fucked, as is such in now, this war on all monsters Godfrey, your surest friend god, wages, this side, ever on in this battle morphing colors in hers or his at war, this before, in ours to know about this planet in ours to know about this planet here in mine before beside...

These planets here in forever taken surely over in mine beside this color taken surely over inside and on in before this one grace in mine before this life in chosen grant for war, this life in before inside ours, this life, sure so sewn, this in once before god, this in once before god, this life before in ours before more to know about these worlds in ours before this life in granting these before this one life in mine over borne on against, this life, surely over more inside mine before these old wars, this life over lived in on against god, this life before all in before this beside, this in life, before all in ours before this life in telling these worlds in mine for granting over in mine before this world in beside my knowing of this fated chance encounter here in shelter, this world in shelter, this life, surely over more, that I could believe in immortals not, but that someone, could believe, in a vampire?

That he could be, Hades, was not my remark, but that I could know to love a god, surely, could you know about me, and knowing this life in ours for this holiest vow upon ours in lips taken on in before this in life, surely over more to know about this force in with ours for this chosen life, this world, taken on, in before this world, in ours before this granting courage in this taken temple surely over more in shadow, this world, this one world this in ours for order this in mine become not what you are of and know this in granting shadow forever over in and in under...

That these worlds were never so wrong as all in before this one life, this score in ours before this chapter here in more's to know about this sektion taken backwards ever on in before this shadow, more to know about these worlds in mine, that I am not, Tarzan, son of Zeus, but like, I might have, played him on TV?

No, surely not, but that I could fight beside Godfrey, in any form I walk, could you know to be true.

1. Godfrey

This in my life before these sektioned off, in ours, to know more about me, in these shallow worlds, here, so surely more to know about this shadow, chapter taken on in before these worlds, in more, to know about this granted hallway, this life, surely over crowded around, this in my score, this world, this life, surely over more to know about this life, surely over more's to know about me in these for ours to do it, this life, surely over more to know about these planets on in before these worlds in mine own splendor taken on in this granting in God, above, below, this world, this in my world, this granting paradise in ours forsaken over, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds taken over inside and on in before this more, to know about this planet in mine before all this grace, this in before ours, to know, about this planet here in ours before this hearing back in space, to molde, this life, surely over more's to knowing more for my space, in these, for time, this life, chosen granting courage under, this life, surely over more's to knowing more in courage spent on in before these worlds in ours, that this was never over in under this current taken on in before these worlds in ours before this one granting courage in mine, that this was never undone, this life, before, inside ours before this moment more, in mine, beside, in ours before this granting shadow, this life, surely over more's to know about this color taken surely over more in mine to know about this trepid color here foresaken backwards ever once forsaken on, in, on for this moment more, on, on, on for this moment, more, more, these worlds before in ours to know about this world beside in ours to know more about this world taken on in before these planets here so delivered and on, against, was more', to know, about and by, these sides, this end, one equation?

This life, surely over more's to know about these worlds in my chosen grandeur taken on in before these worlds in ours to segment, this side, in ours, this chosen life, these wars in granting, this in ours for this one life, this world, this world in mending, these planets taken on in before these wars, in mine beside, this life in ours before this granting on in against, this world in it beyond, this life inside ours, to know more about this planet in ours before this world in mine before this planet in on and before that I couldn't know about, this world, score, this life, before my only standing in battuls, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine before this granting score in, mine before these wars, in ours, deep inside, this life, surely over more intuit this name, in ours, for more, to know about this father, this heaven to tell, in mine, for more, to know, about, ours, this life in wanting, this life, surely over more's to know, about this in aurs, these in my life, this score, grant on, in before this planet circumstance in battle, this world, this, take on, in for ours to wed and know about this fate, this life, surely over more, to know about in ours to fade these, in mine, that this was never open on in before these worlds that these worlds in ours to know about this planet in mine, this planet aside, this chosen life, in mine, before, these worlds over more's to know more by it in all, these, four worlds, this life, surely over more's to knowing this fate, thereon, this, in these for this in battle back on, in before, these worlds, in more, before this planet, paradise on, in before this planet here, taken aside, in ours, to know about this world in mine besides this in colors futile won in spade for, these...

That these wars were never in on and before this spade, in mild, red or black beside in ours to know about this color taken surely on in before this planet paradise in ours to know about this color taken surely over in, and on, in before this planet here in mine beside this color granted on in before this chanting shelter here in ours before this world in mine before this planet in mine paradise ascending, these beside in mine, this chosen grant in ours before this space, this life in mine before it, this life, sure sung, on in before this choosing, granted ever on in before this one chapter, this once in our course, this life, surely over more in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine before this spending out in ours before it in these worlds for this planet taken over inside and on against it in these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, beside this color taken on in before these worlds, this in ours before my world, in this going aperture, for this world, in mine, this was never taken surely over more in ours, this life, surely over more's to know about this planet in mine beside in ours to know, that you could never erase my legacy, and these worlds over on against, no one hasn't tried to fuck with my son's stories, and know about these, in ours, that he could be, this surest Superboy, but these worlds aside, mein nam es Godfrey 神友, and liken et for, these worlds, over more, to know, I am, Superman...

This world beside my other, this beside my own world, this in living splendor, taken surely over more to know about this planet beside in ours for color over inside and on in before this world in splendor nor in these worlds in mine could this be believed to be all that real.

These in mine beside it all before this world in mine, could you believe, that I'd know about, Ariel? And surest to hers, that Superman, sang over tu her, in the waters, this trapped sure, prince, this life, surely over in these ages beyond yours in time beyond all ours, to know about this world, in what's in a meddler, surely, and in ours, hers to know, this in more, more for, more...

These in a world, here so thought on about, this in paradise, wanting and granting, these in for this, world, this flipper'd style, Life, this life, surely, over in ours for more's to knowing this in my paradise in on for these grantings, on, in before, this world for more, to know about this paradise on in before, this world in mine, this world, this in my land, this in my paradise, this surest certainty, this in my life, this world, in ours, before, this land, in my own paradise in mine before this planet in it, this and for it, in to be known, here's for to know about this only people for, these worlds in ours for this planet in mine owing back to this, moment for, turning these page, this in our faded sureness here in above, beyond it, with me, this in tu be, these worlds, forever with me, these worlds, to be, this planet, here, mine, in, this, worlds...

That these waves, over more, to know about this score, in mine, before all, in mine, before this love, in ours to know about, this space, in mine, to know about these four, in ours, to know, about, this war, this living out to know about this planetside in mine before this grace in granting all of ours before this in mine for planets known about me, in these worlds surely taken surely over more's to know, about Raphael, in my naem, once, but not to be confused with Donatello, who es, Raphael, at un, Angel, this life, surely, over more, Arkh, this side,, these worlds, this love for life, this life in mine, this planet, taken on, in before, these worlds, this life, sure so, know about, my twin brother, Michaelangelo, this side in ours to know about this side in ours to know about what a god means, and what he es, in these worlds, surely over sought in beyond these worlds, and that Donatello was a dragon who fought like a god, as a god, surely, some kid, this angelic deity, could know about, was Hercules, this Michaelangelo, surest form in his to know about this world in mine before it all, in this beside, that I could know his father was, The Father surest as I could be classed, The Son and that he'd know me by it, in a galaxy, or dimension, nor, universe?

This world this life, beyond, me in ours, for this shelter granted, over in on, before, this class, in mine, before, it in these worlds, for mine, for, this world, paradise, in lifting shadow, forming, these, worlds haunting, this in my own worlds forsaken, this grant, these paradise, this world in ours, this plant beyond, this world in ours for this life in mine so touched before, this beside in mine own love, this planet here in ours, to know about this once in mine for, this surest, paradise in love, this world in mine, for planetsides, this life in love for aul, this course!

These four worlds so taken on, in before this planet, side, this son of Zeus, could know about us, Tarzan, this life surely over more's to know about this in his own rights beside this in colors for these in my colors trepid on, in before, these worlds, over more to know about these beside in ours before this color taken surely over inside and on in against this planetside here in ours, for...

This chanting grace beside us all in before it, this life, this world galore, this in paradise I'm spending, this world, these family, this world beside, this living grace, in mine to know, this spend, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, this life, before...
This life, surely believed, could be mine, but that ours was here forsaken ever after, in, under on, on, before, on, in before, on, in besides, thereon, these worlds, taken badly for, this forsaken aperture, this world, more, in mine, that these, for, these, lives, bringing, back this to nonbelievers, in ours, for this in surest score, that mine was once a day beyond in proudest form that we could know before beside, these in ours to know about these in ours to know a legend here and on in before this planet here in mine, besides, this planet in mine before this beside, this life, surely over, more to know about this planet in mine, taken on, in before, this one world, in ours, to know about this one hail, this life, surely over more's to know in ours, this pain in mine, this for baring tasks, these worlds so torn asunder on inside this mold, this world before, these lives, in mine before this molde, in ours before this in tolde aperture that these worlds were mein in on and before this one world was never gone on in before these worlds, on, in before this one life, here, so surely before, this life, surely more in my, life, this world taken on, in before this life to know, about this planet here in mine, that these worlds, in mine before beside this chosen grant inside this molde, this world, in paradise, surely so taken back before, these worlds, on in granting this for more to more, in knowing on forever more begin about to know about this in chosen war, this before, ours, to know by, in ours, tu, for?

This life, surely over more to know about this planet here in on against before in these worlds taken on, in before this one world, in ours, before to know, about this planet, here for this surest form, in ours before, this planet in ours before this knowing more to know about this planet here in mine before this planet in ours before this surest course in mine before this planet, on, in before these worlds surely taken surely over more to know about these worlds, in mine, that I could know about these planets here on in against this planet in mine, for this, poison, you know, and here's to hers, for this moment, in ours to know about this surest pleasure taken on in before this moment back, in mine before this moment, for, Nosferatu, mein father?

That yours could know about this fiend from hell, these surest forms, over born, in ours, to more to know, that Aung's name, was Godfrey 神友, and that if he was to undergo, Dante's, i n f e r n o ,, then maybe, you could call him, H A D E S,, these surest forms in ours begotten in on before these worlds in beside mine owing this once life in ours to knowing for this one form, this life, but like, if Gohan, was like, right there, to be Teen Gohan, but was totally not quite, Kid Gohan, that'd be what Superman, looked like, these worlds beside in on, long hair and, all?

That I could know about these worlds in mine before in ours to know beyond, this life in my own beside in these worlds in mine before yours so taken before in on against this one world in mine own life that these worlds couldn't take on, in before this one life inside mine own scope for these worlds, in mine beside this owing more to know about this planet taken on, in before that these worlds were never over inside ours beside, this song, in mine, before this laiden on, in ours, to know about before, this one world, this planet, here in my knowing, that you could know about, Nosferatu, or nor, know about, Supreme Kai?

This world, planet beside, in ours to know about this surest, god, this god in his beauty, this surest form, for these worlds beside in splendid awe, that these worlds, in mine, could Hades name the most beautiful he'd seen, ever, his wife, and live on in surest knowing, that she'd hailed from this world created by his father, this life, ever on, in ours for to know about these planets beside mine, and know that I could know about my cousin, Supergirl? and that she is my wife...

But like a planet I had taken on, once, they called me Christauv, and that I could meet some certain girl, called, E L A I N A , these sides over gotten and in once before loving, this life, surely over more in mine beside this color in ours before this world in mine forsaken chosen, on in before these worlds taken, on in before this planet in ours, before this paradise, could molde, and ours to know about these worlds in more, for more, that this was wanted, not, in ours, before, this one score, in this world, this in my own living, these worlds in my living, out to know about this world in my granting these inside our knowings more, for score, this world, in ours, for this in life, surely over more, in ours for this forsaken change in hell, that I could fury, back on in against this life, surely over, more to know about this life, in my scape, this chosen field, this life, these worlds, this life, sure sung, on in, before, gaud, in my only chapters, here, so sung on in this, lord, love, this life in ours, for, mine, lord father taken on in against these worlds in ours, for more, to know about this once, in score, that I could be emperor, and know about mine in his before against this sure molde, in mine, for this, in boldest bringing here, to know, about this, one King, I'd raise'd, and here, in shelter, this take, token, over, this one world, over, more over, this in my own, degree, this life inside ours, for, freedom ringing back again in golden splendor taken over here and forged back in hell...

sure, once upon a time, that I could know about you, 7 dragons were born, one was black, and loved green, one was green, and loved orange, one was clever, one was scary, one was changing, more was clever, this was clever too, that was never ending in this overture, this was never ending in theirs, for overture, this one fought to fall in love by design, so know about his surest ailments, could he, and fight like a mortal god, could he still, and this we call Trunks, but that he was one, and wicked not, but there's to be one, for two, was one, that was born red, and loved black so surely that she could create it for her enemies, and this surest wraith, in hers to knowing more for ours, was these in ours to know about, black and red, for a while?

That this was never chosen on in before these worlds in mine for choosing this granted shelter in our lives, this world, this in my living out to know about this granted fortitude for shelter, this life, surely over in on against this one love in ours for this in life that these forshadowed here in 'quations, more for this in granted, score, this life in ours to live, by, in mine, before this world taken on before this planet taken on in before, these scores, this world, in mine, before, this grant, in mine for this score, this world in mine before this world in mine beckon'd and taken, on against all love, in ours for this granted sureness in my loathing, not, this world in ours for loving, gotten on in ours before this planet in mine back in side these worlds collided back, to greetings these could know about before this beside in ours to know God in ours for these, few lives, this token grant, on before, these worlds, in mine, beside aul, in before this one granting, on, in before this one granting, on, in before this my world, on, in before this living out to know about this one world, here, in ours before, this, sure, staying, clear of hell, this world, this life in ours for this in more's to knowing me, for this in life, surely taken, on in before, this only life, in mine beside, this one grace, in ours, for this, life, surely over more, to know about Hades in, these files I know, here, sure, so know about my life, sung, on in before these worlds, this life, sure enough I'm Godfrey 神友, here in, love

2. Rasputin

these worlds in mine before this beside in ours chanted galore, this world in mine own scope, these beside my own lives, these worlds, that you could believe I was this surest ancient god who once made, fear, for you, so surely this life, surely over more, that I have been called, Reptile, to some degree!

I didn't need to shout, there, but you had at me, anyway, didn't you?

These sides in ours before this in chosen splendor galore in this taking over more in mine own lifestyle living beside this once in ours for this chosen knowing of fate, this life, surely over more in mine before these worlds, this life, surely more in mine before this chosen once in beside this world, this living out to know about this planet in my own life surely standing in pain, this life, surely over in ours, this in life, surely granted in my grace for this God, this in our lives, this in our lives, this living out to know God, this life, surely over more in these olden worlds, these olden worlds! This life, sure eternal loving this in ours before this world in mine before this life, in mine before, this planet, taken over inside and on in against this one world in ours before mine, own, score...

These worlds taken surely on in before this chosen life, surely over more inside my life, this was never wrong before in life, surely in for this living out to know about, this planet paradise or on, these in worlds, this in score, this one world, this life surely over more to know about these inside my paradise so taken on, in before this world in my romance, this in ours, before this life in choosing all this once for, this once for, more in mine for chapters, taken on, in before, this was never wrong, did you all need to know, how long I knew Peter the great, for? Too much longer than it took to kill him not, but these worlds over decided on in against this one chosen world could never keep a secret, these worlds, this living out for more in ours before, that this was, Alexander, so surely that I could never stay dead, this in ours before this one side, this life, the great, surely, unless you know of another, surely, Alexander, Son?

This life, surely over more in my only life, these worlds, could never be these in granting ever over on, that I could invent this yellow light, and know me by your yellow or red suns, could you?

These in ours to surest splendor, and over in on against these worlds in ours to know about this surest survival, here, in the fittest surrounding belov'd, taken on, in against these worlds before, that this one life, in beside this color taken surely over more in mine, before this world in ours before, this beside, this color taken surely over more in mine, that these beside, this color granting over inside mine own circle, this circle, this life, beside in on, against these worlds, in ours before, this planting here in mine, before, this grace in ours before this chosen granting here before all God, this life, surely over more in mine before it all, that this was grace to know about this channel for, these worlds in hatred, this world, in ours, for knowing, more in mine that this was never taken surely over more in mine, these worlds on in before this planet here, in mine, these planets here so taken surely over, more in mine, that this world, was never more against this planet, here in mine before, this beside, this planet taken on in against before, that I could know, Godfrey, and his surest course, and know about these worlds we'd plyd together, as Superman and, what was it, you'd called me? Lex, Luthor? I'd forgotten, just about, couldn't you say?

These thoughts played by in ours before this world in ours to know about these elder gods, in mine, that I was this surest force in speed, across the planets, this life, surely over more to know about beside in on, against ours to know about this planet here in mine before beside this chosen course in God, this life, surely over more to know about this planet, on in before this one life, beside, this chosen life in ours, to know, about this planet here in mine before beside, in on, against, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine before this beside in all ours, for?

These in lives, before this all, in mine at current, present just, these in shadows, form'd on in against this before, this world before in granted, on, in before this one life, this in once for this Life! This fourth quarter in on, in before this once before, this one world in ours, this life, surely over more in mine before this planet surely so taken on in before God, this life, surely over more in my life taken on in before, these worlds, this life, surely over more in my life taken on, in before these worlds in my only living this life in my granted sureness here so taken by Force, this in ours, this granted sureness, this living battle, this lifted on in for Sinestro, this in before my own life before yours, this in ours for more's to granting this in knowing, surely over more in mine only score, this in life, before in on, in before this in granting sureness before this beside my own world in score at this moment for more in ours to know about this planet in ours to know about this halo in ours to know about these paradise in ours for more to know about grace here with god!

That these worlds couldn't know about hers in with his, this life, surely over more to be known about in our grace, this life, surely over more to know about this planet in mine before yours in ours before me in these before my only world in mine before this planet inside ours this was never over inside over inside and under this was never over this was never over this was never over this was never over, this life, surely over more to know, about ours, in this, a girlfriend, Godfrey and I share; Nike, that she could be this surest friend to us all, barely, and mine, of course, forever so know about this world in ours before this one life in mine for this granting on in before these courages, taken on, in for, this life with Toph and this world in ours before this granting ever on in before this channel in thus that these worlds were never taken on, but to know, right? So know.

That this was never granted on in gentle sureness, here, heard about beside in ours to know about this tide in ours more to know about this granting sureness in mine before this battle in ours for this edge on in before this against my only score in more's to more in knowing for these worlds in mine that this was never spent on in before these worlds in more to know about more before these worlds in hell for this in words taken off the air, this life on surest air, this life, surely over more inside this knowing of these olden phrases on, in before this world, that I could know about these chosen breaths, here, in ours for this in taken on in granting these worlds, this life, that I could be, Zuko, once upon a stage of battle, and theirs to know about this surest avatar to be, Toph, and hers in our knowing, of Gods, that me and Aang could build Republic City, unlike, Metropolis?

Surest fold regard, in ours to know that the very same government they built from within us, did we store republican, so as to topple it, later, in the rise of the Imperial houses of card. This life, surely over more to know about this grace in mine before this only, life, this world, in mine, before, aul, in before this one life, in mine before, these guard, this in my own, score this beside, fate, this life in before ours to surely spend, this world that we could mend, this planet paradise in ours before in all that I could know about before in mine before this beside in mine's to more, to know, about this in ours, before, this planet here on in against before this surest course in ours before, this in planet earth, this paradise, in hell, or after it?

Do you want to know about my hell?

Planets are people, you know, and could you, that mine was Mars, and hers was his not, but that if Hades is not alone, he does not reside, on Pluto.

That these worlds beside in ours before this one grant in mine before God in ours before this light in mine own life beside this grace, in ours before more to know about this one world, in God, this life, sure sung, on in before this grace, this life, sure sung, this grace, this grace, this was sureness, this in life blood, this world taken, surely over, more in my world, this living out to know in battle, this in life blood, this in ours for, this in more, for this world, this living out to know about this world, this in ours, before, this planet, surely taken on in before this life,

surely over more,

did you know,

an avatar, made kryptonite?

it was Superman, so you should, but that he had to, engineer, these surest weaknesses, Krypton could be, a terrifying origin, to unravel, these sides, over in ours, to know about a magic that could unravel your surest super powers, these in mine, this questing beyond, in his beyond these forms, this knowing more in ours before, this life, but that he, broke, Kryptonite, before he was graced with the presence of his son on earth, this surest Superboy, via his beloved wife and cousin, Cara?

These worlds in ours before mine owing back to know about this grace in my retinue before these worlds on, in before this planet taken on, in before these worlds in mine beyond, this world beyond, this life, so sure, so surely on in before these worlds in mine before this old changing, this world, in my old changing, this life, surely over more to know about this world in ours for this hell form, this in hell form'd, this in hell form'd, this in hell form'd, this life on for,, grant.?
These surest worlds so collided here could know me, in this world surely, broken back, in ours to know about this torment surely, taken, back to knowing more in my own, name, that I could ever be this Wukong Son, surely over, more, to know about this planet paradise in ours, before this stranger, this one world, in ours before, this one world, in my wolfcry, these worlds, in ours, before this moon we know, this life in ours before this beside my knowing grace in ours before this chosen wind, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, in mine, that these worlds, could never know about these courses over more in mine borne, in ours before this chosen world, in War! This in ours, for knowing more, this in chosen graces, badly, taken over inside and on against it, all before, this world, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in mine that these worlds, this life, surely over, more, in wind, this life, in mine, before, these worlds in ours before this chosen grace, this life, in landing backwards in these surest shadows...

This chosen in ours before this world in ours to know about this paradise in mine thereon, this in ours beyond, this in mine before this chosen race course, this world inside my once know, this world in my once now, this in ours, this in my life, this world, this chosenest grace, this life, surely over more in, these worlds, this in Wukong Son, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, in ours before, this life, sure, so sung, on in before this grace so that I could have a son, in the younger god generation, along with my father's, this side over in, on, that he could bare Phoenix, and mine, this surest, Puck?

That I was, Dionysus, could elude you, but these in plural sure regard could learn you of Dionysus being Ares, and that he was called Kratos, in mirth not, but war?

This chosen life in ours before that this was never taken surely over more in mine before this chosenest grace in mine before in ever more on in against these worlds in ours before this inside my yearning for this world in ours before this chosen granting of Oz, this life inside ours, this living, out this in my own free, dom, springing on, in wars, this life, sure, so granted ever on against these worlds in this old war, this life, surely more to fear, was I...

3. Wukong

Sun Wukong?

Surest be that you could know, I know not, who predate the son, if not I sure, surely not I, but could you be, this roundabout, approaching for, these side, over more for in score?

Sun Wukong, you say? Surest not for what you say back in for, that this chosen grace, could be, unwieldy? These sides, chosen ever on before your aul, in before beside against because, that these worlds ever more against because could be for in that tu know about in more's to knowing more because in granting literature, for et, standing up? I could know, bay in at et by, what you call, sure for, this king, Kamehameha? That in said again before, King, Kamehameha, this side, over borne, sure equation, happen for, in stance, for these believing?

These believing in sest, surely for, in believing this be, may be, these side, over for, me to be, these, with thee, surely, surely, these with thee, thee thee, that thee, this, current, sure, forsaken, could in badly forever be on in before against because?

That I could be this ancient deity, credit to for was given, blood magic, sure as truth and rage are two sides for one token, these in forsaken sureness, here, beside anon again before this side over more, for token?

This life, sure over one side to this other 'quation, here, for these in surest forms on in before these beside in aun before this surest shelter, here so taken badly before this side in aun, in befor, this world, want more?

This world, this beside my ownly life before mine, this life, surely, so know 'bout these sure sides, that if you know 'bout me, could you know, this, Ouzaru, this side, over more in mine before this beside in ours for this world in ours to know about this granted sureness in mine granting guardlen taken surely over more in my life before beside in ours for this world in ours before, this world, this in granted paradise, this world, this was never over, this life, surely over, more in more before these worlds, so when Zordon found Andras, out dealing with evil wannabe power rangers, he slaughtered the lot of them, this surest force, Adam, these worlds beside, in here to free his son Andras from this duty, this surest red ranger forming, over inside before, that he'd had some fake tech, and some fake rangers, so he set about belittling them, these worlds over more in beside, this surest force for rangers, this world in ours before it, this life, surely over more in mine, that Zordon, was what you'd call, an elder god, this side over in ours, Adam, this very same in theirs, to know, beside, this color over on, in not mine, was he, not mine at all, but that he was, granted, back, badly, in for to predate, the sun?

Surely believe it be as me and on in taking on these worlds for this in granting courage over these side levels ever on in against this surest mold in mine before these worlds on in the only water, here so granting ever on in daughters for this in to molde my world, in ours, this life, sure to take this world in for this life for to know 'bout Circe's molde, in ours, so sure, that this, Confessor, yes, Confessor, could know about this choice, in hers to make, to become, another person, yes, in his, to know His knowing, and His choices, surely for, this world, in his to know, my own son, yes, this, daughter, turned, son, and so this seperate creation, yes, and part of his own, that he could travel, back in time, and this surest child born of this in this union, one universe split tu the other, this side over more to know about these worlds, this child god born in golden light, these worlds over more to know about this world in this granted choosing all in for, these worlds, more in before, this one world, this life, surely over more to know, about this granted sureness, on in before, so sure that Keenan could know of Kahlan, and theirs was this kid, sure as in these forms, before, this life, Cable.

These sides in more for more to knowing more for this in granting sureness, over in on and before this world in mine before this one score in to settle more in mine before this granting, chosen on before, this life, surely over more in mine, this granted, this life, before, in mine own score to settle back, in ours, for this in blankets taken on in before this chosen life in sure surrounding, this one life, this in settle'd on, in before this in our slow dance, this one world, this chosen world, this life, surely, over borne in ours before this in my granting out to know about this one world, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in my planting this planted battle taken on in before this world surely over more in mine before this planting back on in befor, these words, over more, in mine, that these beside in colors on in granting for this chapter, aperture, surely, belivered be, and in counting more's, to knowing me, that mine, was Son Goku's right, surely, but more to mine, Goku, that you could know me immortal, regardless, right?

This in settled for, curious, as you know about you, but these worlds in ours, that drunk not on wine, before that here's to settle once with this demon banisher, Jackie Chan, and know these lives beside in ours, this is yes, modern, Son Goku, and living in this world beyond ours to know about this planet beside in ours to know about this planet beside my knowing more to know about this planet in mine before these in our owings back to know about this one world inside of me, this heart, this shelter, here, in ours, before this world, to knowing more, about this planet, in ours for this, beyond this earth, this world, this taken shelter over borne in ours before, this granted grace in me, before this granted shelter taken on in before these few worlds in ours for granting this granted passion, ever on in after these in worlds that this one world was never granted backwards on in before this world, this world in love with me, this world in love with, me, here, and now, I know about it all in these worlds, this in life, surely over more in mine, that this could be this love, in ours for this granting on in before this world, but I've served my time, as emperor, so know, hail, Superman, this surest Gohan, that he could have a taurn, and know this sacred cairn, not over in ours, but that I could be believed, once in a legend or a lie, do you think, to have made the most ancient god, my ageless saelf?

Surest form, the music still spins, so sure that I could know in this only god to claim, but that he could know this form in surest shelter, over on, that Godfrey was, mew, and this surest form in all of ours for this in for this stranger paradise in ours to know about this war in grace, this to wars to crying over on against god, this life, in ours for more to know about this fate, and never know about this only color, here in ours before this chosen color, in the wind, this life, surely over more in mine, before it in, this world, this life, surely over more to know about these in worlds, asunder torn in ours to know more about this world in ours that this was never taken surely on, for, this life, surely over, more in mine, beside, this in life before me in this taking, this taking over over in our colors, for these in, these in ours to molde before, this one life, I'd try not aun, that I have no idea, who sent the eldest god, but be happy, that he loves you, in this surest choice of One Love, we call, God...

This sight, love of life, these worlds, over in ours, to know about, this planet, in on, before, these worlds in life, this world, in paradise for this in my forsaking devils on in these wars that I could know about this planet here in ours before this younger god in moving outwards on in before, this only world, this in life, surely over more to know about this planet in these keeping out to know about this planet in mine, that these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, this life, surely over more to know about this life, surely over more to know about this planet taken surely on in before this chosen life, these worlds in war, this life, surely over more to know about this planet taken on in before these worlds, this chosen remain, this life, this world, sure so spent, on in before, these worlds, wanted, more, this in for, this love, this life, surely, be, this life, here, with me!

That you could know about my secret child, this surest Rasputin, in standing?

Ah, you've said it! You've said it, and mussed the whole thing up! But believe it, in ours, to know about these worlds, in mine, that this was never taken surely over more in mine that these worlds could be believed to be these beside this other course in ours for this in love for this in chosen life surely granted on in this grace in choosing more to know about this beside this other course in my knowing of this fate in grace for this in knowing of this god, form, in god, before, this in ours, to know about this planet here in my only chosen life before all, this life, surely over more to know about this planet beside, in ours before, this grace, this life, surely, know more, in mine, before, fate, this life, sure so know, about these worlds, over, more in mine, before, beside, in on against this world in mine before this beside in courage taken surely over more, in mine, to know, and if you're wond'ring, what world, my son could be in now, it's that he was Kid Trunks, you twit, and you know him not! Ahaha, for sure, I switched, with Vegeta! like good friends, are wont to do, this immortal life to that one, that Vegeta was surest Batman to Tim Drake, could you know, but that these worlds over more in mine, to this owing back in ours, to know, this life, surest form in ours to know about some betrayal not, but ruse, to hide it out, that Spoiler was a menace, and yet could not help but speak like Spoiler while she played Robin, and so she acted like Spoiler, without her mask and hood, surely, to hide her intrepid lifestyle, so tempting was the mantle Robin, as Spoiler, so she sealed her own fate, and wore herself to death against her enemies worn on in her knowing not, of what she ailed from?

Surely for, this in side, I have to clear Tim Drake's name, that he had a girl, friend, who was trash and no good never whatsoever, sure for, he's a power ranger, so sure, that he could have friends like he wanted to, surely over more for, these side, Leonardo, for?

I'm to wanting here to explain to you, what Phoenix, mean, to me. I know, a son, when I see one, so know 'bout these old intrepid ways, this way, this story, chapter, back in sure's but to meddle for in less to stow it in within these sides or merit to one wall, tu the other, these sides, begin, about each other, that I know how to raise Goten, sure for, and banishing Chi Chi, was out to boot not, but here in for the rest of it!

But these very side of it in on for to know more 'bout Gon, and this surest child he was, as Goten, and never more before could you know 'bout my life as Wukong, never before again, that this side, I was all in one, sure, one life, and come to talk about my friend and famiry, sure sure, that these worlds over more, in for, this sure sure romance avoided not, by mine, collision, here for these tales told about life in ours to know about this world in our love, back beside in ours before, this one love, here, in surest form for these that ancient souls, could have sex with one another, and surely, so too, can the young?

well, yes, they are able, to do so, but believe it shelter in your thoughts that mein own children, every time they are babies, are thousands of years older than you still?

ahah! I am ageless, fool, you know nothing of me, surely that I know not what the hell you're talking about, mostly, for fools in knowing more to know about these surest forms to aging, loooooook, Nosferatuu! see? the evil monkay not so bad, we see, when Nosferatuuu, es on the waaay!

These sides before in more for this side token granted on in before, for?

These worlds taken surely over inside and on in against this world in mine, before this world, in ours befor, this life, surely, this surely over, more in mine before, this side in level, this life in ours, before this world in mine, before, this was never taken surely over more in mine, this was gone on in before this in granting ever after under on, in before, this life, this world, in mine, that I could know about this in ours before, this grace, in ours, for more to know, about, this world, this life, did you know Superman was more ancient than Krypton?

These side, surely, but that Krypton was filled with evil, so, not eternal, when Gohan had them destroyed, these side, by his friend, Braniac 7, that these worlds, over more, to know about these worlds, in ours, more to know about this paradise in mine this owing back in beside in before this world, in mine, to know about this life, surely over more to know about this in planets here, beside in ours to know about this color taken on in before this world, beside, mine in owing back to know this life, surely over inside and in on, this inside it before, this world, in ours, to know about these world, in our, for, this life, here for these worlds more in more this life, this life, this life, this chosen, granting of this granted grace in mine, for to know about, Cyclops, my own kid, yeah in for, he knows about sure bossiness too, but that this was, Michael, your surest neverlander, or sure, wonderland, tuu, these sides over borne in against, these side level equation, set for, more in for this score green lantern corps, this life, for Red light, do I arrive, and here heard in ours, for this Kaaa, meeeeeeiyy,..! haaaaaaa, meeeeeeeeeiiiiit,!

this world, this life this living outwards, this life, saiyit, Kaaaaaaa, MEEEEEEEEEEI!

these worlds, this life, surely, over more, HAAAAA,, MEEEEEEEEEEIt! HAAAAA!

4. Anubis

These, to planet on, in we cry, these world, this life, this cry, this surest torment, this taken courage, these in for, dis world out in far this cryin’ shame, for these in worlds, over more to know more ‘bout dem colors here in ut, on befor in beside an’ color ‘em appropriate, these sides, over for, more about, change, in on!

For these worlds, that these could be what you’d have of me, in mein own resemblance not, but that you could depict Beerus, and lie about these, in ours, to know mine in couch befor this side in ours to color forsaken ever on after these in colors for to taking out these sides, more in mine to know about this one color, in paris, for sure to know about these sides beyond, in mine, this life, beyond ours, that I could resemble some buried Egyptian?

These sides over for, in more for, tu know about, these beside, the Jackal I ever was, these sides ever on, in ours to know about this beside in ours, privey to the Dingo, this side, ever on, against..

So set that these could bery, these, belied, in ours to knowing more this side against this world in ours to know about this sceptar, taken ever on against this one life, in ours for showing more to know about this life, in ours to knowing more in these for tu setting back once, that I could kill Beerus, essentially, and would, too, were it not that Go Ku is set on the mark, sure as Anubis not, he is, returns from the dead he's hailed to, lately.

That these in ours form'd be in maybe, that these could be in mays to be in for these in shelters out before this beside anon in color question ever on, Hades, sure to know about you, in ours, that once upon a time, Hades was my pupil, en lied, to me, about where he would go, and dove, and formed about him, Dante's Inferno, sure as can be, lied to me, for, hell, in saking that we, his family, would surely have followed, and he married my daughter, and never equipped her in this jargon, even, lest that she could know his secrets on, forever?

that I could know she'd have seen what he'd done, could be ever true, on more that there's little you can hide, from Padme Amidala, be you Honiker, surely over more in mine beside this life, sure as tu know about Godfrey, in these surest shelters on in taking surest form to know about these blast equations, these sides in ours to know about this current taken on in before these worlds in mine before this life, in ours, before this life, this side, in ours before, this knowing more it in this life, surely shown, this was gone, this, this, this was gone, gone, this was never there, this was never, ever there, this in my own view, this in my own, view, this world, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet here so taken on in before these worlds, this life, I am, Mufasa, so surely that these sides, belied in ours, to know, this side, beyond ours, to know that I was this, black maimed lion king, here beside in ours, surely, that I came to resemble Simba, in color, so as to stay far away, from this image, painted by mein doppelganger, Scar.

These sides beyond in it for, to know that Mufasa could be Anubis, that you could believe Nala is my daughter, should this force in ours so believe once in mine, that these color taken on in before this never landing on in before this world in ours, to know, these sorcerors, in mine, for this view, here, surely over, more to knowing mine, in these colors taken, surely over more to know about this beside, this color ancient on, in before, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet in mine besides this color in and over on in before these worlds in ours to know, that I could fight the Jackal not, but the Hyena, these, surest badgers, over inside and on, against this world, are they...

These worlds, over in baring to know more about mine, in these chapters, to shallow to know about this world in mine before, are they? These sides in my level for this set equation out beyond in for these sides level'd out in ours for this surest token grant here in surest shelter taken surely over more in granting shadow back to basics...

That I taught Honiker, what he could come to know, in so shorten time, about, Black, and time was his, to alias with, so surely could he know many in more for my score, and that in this, he developed, the darkness, we shed upon the Sith, to drive them to shadow, sure as a form for us to hide, in their space, and hide, we have, in this surest, dark side, of the force...

Surest be at question at in et for, that you could know a certain menace, calléd, Darkseid, and that he es dead, for sure as questions could be answered, about a ghoul not, but this surest lack of memory, for over baring these sides, in death, for shelter, that Hades could prime to kill in a dimension free of aspect understanding in murder and torment within the soul to know these primed targets in aspect, this surest force, in knowing more to know about this aspect, here, forever on...

These worlds in mine before this aspect taken surely over more in mine beside this color in my taking over of this aspect in my surest center'd equation, set in for this shelter granted ever on in before these worlds in my life, beside, this color in my surest form, equation, these side, in ours, before this mastering of these equation, here in our colors form'd to know more about this surest side in mine own level set in ours before this level living out, in mine, this life, surely over more to know about these beside, this color on in, before, that he who developed golden light, in heat of hell, was Hades, who made green, who made the dark side, of the Force, and ours, in et, that these could be, bad ai, these saids, these, over, surely in befaur, this question, in, more, equation?

These sides back beyond this aspect surely over this living on in against these side level equations mostly therein that these worlds could be granted backwards on in before this Batman, like device, in surest forming, this equation, backwards taken on, in before this side level out, to know about these worlds in ours to know these beyond in my molde, this aspect, to vulture in from above, and know about these worlds, here, surely taken ever on beside in ours to know about these surest forms to war, in riding, that this could be side, leveled out, and known about in ours for this shelter taken ever on after more's to war, before, so surely after over these in under currents spent, these worlds in on against these believed to be here with me, in without, these planets, taken on, before, in, aun, aun...

This in life, surely believed, here in more's to know about equations, set, that you could know of Prince Simba, and his in theirs, to know he was only ever King, in their equation, so surely more's to know, the future King, a prince does make, but these worlds taken on before these sides, in ours, to know a dif'rent aperture, this begotten on, in before this life, in ours to know more about these sides in ours to know this equation set in more to know about this living out to before these worlds over more in sands that these beguiled over these in ours for time in pain that this was never over inside this moment for these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this world beside in ours to know about this life in more's to know about this color trepid courses here forsaken on in before this shelter believ'd maybe in these colors taken granted ever under in these fires for surest overture, this overture, this overture, this life, surely, lit, this life, surely over more to know about this world in ours before this channel taken ever after under in and over in and back beyond, this world, this in for, these world, this in ours, for, this world, these in ours for, these world, these live, these, alive, could be, in ours, to know more about this world beyond in understanding this battle developed ever after, on, before, to know, more, about, Ku Go?

Surely god, was he, more in mine to know about, could you, in these fairy once sides in all ours to know about equations, set, to hutch, this side in ours to knowing more, but to know about mein daughter, this surest Nala, could you know her by et, that you could know her form, Harlene Quinzel, surely over more in mine, Harley Quinn, was this godly force to be reckoning with, and surely for, could she keep the monster that was the card, Joker, at bays, surest form in his own equation, that these lives beside in hers to know about this love for a surest boy wonder, could be hers, and live in this mild waiting not, but that she was this surest time traveler, and most often, saint, to all in her wake, this surest, Heart Queen, in this happening, modern, surely for, could you know about, Ashley, like he prays, does, the heathen deity...

Knowing more to know and set about Hades, could be your own equation turned on in against this surest God, Frey, this friend god, surely for, in shelter back so taken back in ours to get this level'd out equation, that mine owen grandson, and his mother, mein daughter, surely, could have followed often, into hell, to quay the stem at bay, for Hades, but that he could keep a secret, in darkness, and know about it not, did she, believing these in force, with thee, that I could know he'd scare himself often, with what image he could have of her in hell, that these worlds beside, he could paint a world where the younger gods fought as Supergirl, instead of Harlene Quinzel, and surely in his fear, could he pray, that she could stay herself in these courses for torture not, and know not, could she, of his life as Dante, and what that really meant, to an elder god, nor any, over on under these, beside this course, in hers, to know, that his was this surest course in murder of monsters, and yet on again, where a monster once laid, is this surest form, in the Joker, that we could call, Jack, and live in these worlds, sure as to know he is, human, and once was this monster, sure for these lives, something human has been sparked not alone, in that he was layered, already, in this surest countenance, laid about him by, fate, do you think, that it was fun and mischief he bargained for always, in his misery as monster?

Let me be honest with you; he was too inconvenient to not, turn on other monsters, instead of trying to assassinate, but that he was killed, multiple times, once by Perseus, enter your, Green Arrow, who is the Batman's true born son, and knew not, what any could see in staying a course not in this monster's death, but that the Joker could live on, in this faded memory not, but that he was, very old, and very, dangerous to leave alone, and had to rise from some muck of hell, but that we could relate, to Green Arrow, and sure, agree, that if he thought the Joker needed killing, he was a monster, all the way, to his very core, so there was killing to be had in justice, and more to know about beyond, beside, that Green Arrow did not follow him through some other saga, and the Joker rose again, one time, in theirs, to know about, for this in his surest form, to know about this course, beside and on, in these lives, Green Arrow had him dismembered, and was sure that burrying them apart was a good tradition, so that these worlds could know ours, in by, these, sides?

That these beside in ours to know about this channel, taken back beyond, in here to know about this life, with Gon, and over in ours to know this understanding backwards ever after these in shadows taken surely over after under on, in before, these worlds, this life, surely over more, in mine, this world, in on, in before, this planet taken surely over more in mine beside, before, these scores to settle over on, in before me, here in ours before, this planet, battle, here in ours for more, this planet, battle,, that I could know about yours in these for this pain in mine to know about this torment in ours to know about this battle plan, in ours for to knowing more in mine battled back on in these before my own life, here, heard about in by these forgotten glammers, here, surely on in before these knowings more to know about this planet, inside and taken on, in before these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet taken surely over more to know about these, before, against?

These surest planets aside taken badly forever on in before this world in ours to know about this surest course in ours to know about believing these lives beside in ours before this knowing Force in our own knowing more to know about this color taken surely ever under these in ours for knowing more to know about these colors in ours for surest shelter taken, on,.. do you know, Nosferatu?

That he could be, this surest hell fiend, you have, no idea...

The beauty, they say, as he walked about hell, freely, like he could travel by, heat, from fire, and believe that this was, orange; his own reckoning, these sides, in ours, to know, by it in for, this hell fiend, was here to know the ply of his own element, that you could use it in torture was mild, and ever on was he grateful that he could fight with it, better than you, and surest in these forms, use this orange light, he did, and would, over these hells to fight by et, and living by this example, in surest resonance, and so to save his own son, Tyler, from this fate curséd to Nosferatu, so that as to visit hell upon his only son, this begotten lore, was taken on, when Godfrey became, the son from hell, and surely over more to know these, beside ours, he is, forgiven, by us all.

That these worlds could be taken on in against these worlds in hell for torment taken surely over in under this in war for taking over this in ours before this planet here in ours forsaken this in ours before this once in ours before, this life, with God, that we could, know about each other, one another, and that my child could be born of VIOLET light, and hers, born of GREEN, and the green's, born of ORANGE, and the hell fiend's, born of my BLACK light, that these worlds, over tu, the younger gods, were we present, and here that this was more in ours, to know, that she of mine ilk, could be the mother and lover to, Anakin, these worlds over more in ours to know, these beside, this life, and over more to know, her husband, was this surest role model, Godfrey, but that he was yours to model your role after, that he could keep secret from you, this surest hell path he'd walked, until the most dangerous, sickest hell lord, could be vanquished, forever, and surest form as to follow after his example could be forever muted, and Hades, could rise, as this surest emperor or Card, and believe these worlds, over more to know about these planets here, in mine own plain, this, of Anubis, so surely that these could collide, thereon, against.... mine? These worlds taken surely over inside and back beyond this planet in ours spectre, taken surely over inside and on in before these worlds in my planet here in mine before this planet taken surely on in before these worlds, more for this planet taken, for this world, in ours, before, this life, before, this life, before, these worlds, more, in ours, before, this world, before, me in these before, us here, heard aloud, this world, aloud, this life, aloud, this present me in keeping these in ours recieving this planet, down, planet, down, planet, don, don, don, this in ours for more to mending these worlds ever more to knowing more in forces borne in ours more to knowing more to know about these worlds, in ours, before this life, surely over more to knowing more in mine,, that this was golden, grant in ours before this moment here inside ours before this moment here, in mine to know about these worlds, in ours, to know, about this planet, beside, in ours to know...

These worlds beside in ours to know about this planet beside, in courage, for to taking these sides over out against these worlds, in core, for these, granted score, in life, surely over more in mending only just, this cuz, these courses, here on in, against before, this planet, on before, these worlds, more for, this score, these worlds, this planet beside, my own....

5. Nosferatu

That I could be six, was out of the question, so surely moreover in these sad equation over more to knowing mine, was out in against these lives, peddled backwards on from seven, surely backwards out in mine beyond this course in ours for surest form, to know about these solid wenchkeepers for by, in ours to know, 122123001203120120312000 these worlds, in mine, to know about this count, by my side, this world, in ours, before, this moment, her in shadow begged not on in before these worlds, this, life, surely over more in my, life, these worlds, this life in question on, against, these worlds, in mine, before that these worlds could be this chanted, hell, scape, in ours for special circumstance, beyond in shadow that these worlds beyond could be this surest romance removed, and taken badly for this in ours for this equation, here, so begotten ever on in witness to these leagues, this surest forming presence, could be mein owen son, and here's to his, was Godfrey, that this life, believed, could be my in knowing, in knowing for these shadows, surely believed, once in ours to know, that the jedi, developed, the vampire, and over more, to combat the vampyre, these vamPREY, these beside, in ours to know about this planet in ours before this moment in mine, that this story was of, a hellish fiend, who wished to be human, so that he could love, so he became, vampire, as apposed, to, straight from demon to human, so here, in the interlude, he was demon, then vampire, not, human, then interlude to hell fiend?

These worlds, over more to know, was mein owen curse, this beside mine own life, in ours, to know about these worlds, in mine, that I could be believed to be, beguiled, but that I was surfing through hell, when I encountered and waylaid, the creature known as, Igor, and could you know this surest monster, could you know that I knew nothing of him, in my moment to moment for pain, but I am a god, and so my surest torment could be set, that I could tell you, I had to know of what this monster would do, in his actuality, to procure the parts for this, creature, he wanted made, and he murdered children fresh, for it...

That he could have found others...

Many, others... could be mein hell, or yours, that should you believe it in may be, that these worlds, over borne, in on against these forms, to know about Godfrey, and the hells he forsook to take my own pain away, for TYLER, that you could know about these worlds, in my life, this surest forming to know about BLACK magic, and here, for these worlds, in mine, to know about this forming equation ever on against these worlds, that he could be called, Quasimodo, these worlds over more to know about, once upon a time, they called a bow legged child, Oedipus, for what he was, and know this, in hell, that a child is called that because you've fucked him sordid, surely, and he's used for such a purpose, in house and hold, but that these worlds over, Oedipus, was Godfrey, and so sure as form, did he know my son's own torments, and could he similarize himself not, with this life, could be grand, surely though that he has, anyway, and taken over these surest prophecies unequipped to handle his interference, were they, and sure as forming over these worlds on, I was a beautiful fiend, in hell, and worlds over borne in mine, cursed, was I, for what I walked on, and what I was, to them, and cursed, was my son, for to bare this torment, forever, when I could damn you to further hell, or by graces gone, save the currant?

These worlds, this life, surest forming over more in mine, that I couldst be called, Nosferatu, was to yours, in you, a chosen chagrine, these worlds in mine, before this living out to know about this planet before in beside these colors ever on in before these moments more, in ours to know about this life, surely over more in mine beside this color surely over more in mine before this color granted surely ever on in under this one color surely more to know about this color surely taken surely over inside and on in granting these in ours to know about these surest monsters, this life, surely over more in mine that these could be here forsaken surely over more in mine forsaken in these quests, forever, on....

I'm taken by a spell, and that's that Honiker, has known hell, I've only barely glimpsed, in witness, to know and lose another, in surest torment deeper in, could you know this child, lost, Gon, to him, and was tormented here in pits beyond hell out in Hades not, but hell, for surest for, HELL, damn you! Hell! It's man made, and has NOTHING to do with yours in death but that it is rape where death is torment in hell for shelter that there is, no escape, but lest and for, that Gon could succumb not, to these surest wicked torments to turn his mind to monstrous things, that he could die, in rape and anguish, as he watched monsters char and chew through a dead man's mouth, the testicles of another witness, here, and they could scream and howl at this screams and cries, in this surest anguish, and so when they made to sting, he dropped, surely that the scorpions could keep on stinging, and would, but that theirs was this short lived not torment, forever, in these for theirs to know that monsters beget all forms of chicanery and murder outright in forthe surest servitude to these hail'd graces Honiker knew and knows, in this hell, that he witnessed this surest form in hell against his ally, this only friend and lover, this world, over more to know, could you, Godfrey's own anguish, that I've sent you to hell, I hope, in your depiction set on these worlds over more in mine, because you've come to read about monsters, and found our names sodded up with them, and believed you could, know about me?

I'm in hell, now, do you read what I'm sodding at?

Do you know how exile works, for one such as yourself?

Exile, could be this surest sith code, you'd know, and love, surely, but that I wrote, the code of the sith, to beguile them, and hate them, always, do I hate them, and everything they are, but that I krept passion, a word foreign, to theirs, so that jedi, in their breeding, jedi, in their marking, or surely, just, humans, in among the monsters, could know that in their passions, they drew power, and in Sith, only hatred ever were they, anyway, so sure as form, not, hatred, but sicko, sicko, surely these world over more in ours to know about these worlds in mine that this was granted beyond in ours for forming these world sin in mine before these world in sin that this was never granted surely thereon in against this faded color taken on to know about these messages belied in all our torments taken surely over inside on against this one color surely lied about in ours before this orange light in shelter taken over inside on against these worlds taken surely here against this life before us in this love that we could cry, this life, beside in ours,

I've sent you to hell, but do you know what lies at your fingertips, to abet this, rage, you could be feeling, this surest passion, just as Anakin, could feel, or Luke, surely, at these forces set against you? These worlds, more in ours, that Luke was robbed of rage, in facing Darth Vader, but that he hated the Empire too, was obvious, and here, for this hatred, Luke was rewarded, for here, come with me, and he could see, that we, together, may defeat him, in our open form, as these, jedi...

Once, could you know, the SITH were SICK, only, and surrounded in it, were they, sure that I was, SITH, in hell, but that painted in these sorenesses, that you could believe me weary of the title, in sick to poorer nature, here on in against these worlds, I'm sick with the hell I showed you of Godfrey's, and it's hurting, more, to know how to tear up, if I want, and to know about this torment in ours, of this pain, and that I dream of rage, and cold steel, these worlds over, more to know about this sung silver, for sword, instead, and that we could make sword of lighted crystal, could be clear, surely over these worlds in ours for this pain, surely taken backward for in on against these lives, in clearest surround, here in ours to know more of hatred, here, heard, this life, surely over more in knowing more to know about this fate in ours for messengers coming in once twice receiving these beside in ours to know more in badly taken surely over more to know about before in on, against, before, beyond...

These worlds before beyond beside in color liquid gracing more to know about ours in faded sureness taking these in ours before this shadow shelter, taken over in and on before this one chapter, fading out in ours before this world in faded aperture this in worlds, for knowing more in ours, before this world, in hell, for Hades keeping these at bay, in ours for wars to quay, these worlds in ours, this life, in mine besides, so when I say I'm sick with something, and that rage, heals me, it's that, I've never needed to be sick, before, other than that to be what you are, it is a good idea, to sick when hell is at your surest torment, here, and that I could elementize, for you, a passion called RAGE, and that his was Wukong's, these sides over to level this set and more in elementing, these besides in format, that in TRUTH, what you face, is no end of RAGE, to tear apart at whatever begets you in a world without, Sythic, declared passions, surely over more in mine for these in shelter, wanting ever under these worlds in over, more to know about this world of monsters, here in ours, did you scream, or bawl, at this hell? What do you fucking say? What do you, do, exactly? What do you do, when faced with this foulest murder and torture and rape, of Gon? The child? Yes, the child? Do you raise? Do you know he is immortal, and scream anyway, because it was torture we had to be scared of, for torture itself, is, hell...

And worster, worster it can always grow, sayeth Honiker, this surest forever child, watching that John, could die before him, and know about these worlds ever on, could he, in apathy never, and agony, always, surely over more in mine to know about these worlds for Godfrey, that you could believe my son a sycophant never, in his belied over to know about this surest force of God in ours to pray it all away in theirs to stay beside this color taken surely over more to know about these worlds in ours to pray in here so settled on in before this world so surely taken more in ours before this world in mine before this planet pray, this in ours before this only world that we could stay a staying course for in this granted chosen aperture to witness hell moreover in, this world, this life, surely over more, that this child, was the Green Arrow, who killed the Joker, and dismembered him, surely over, never once was this creature resembling human, in its ilk, and ever once, over, did something human, start at bay, rooted in, this surest forming creature of a goddess, that she could beguile herself credit in creating good where there was none, it's that she is a goddess, and monsters are fodder, for ply, in turning them surely against hell, in theirs to torment, for theirs to be ridden of, and ever more mercilessly did they beat this monster in, and show him his ways of torment, and that he could be free of much of it, for shelter in the game of the hunt, and the choosing of his targets, so surely that these worlds for Harley Quinn were ever more in her own, torments, do you think, or does this surest Cupid of the past in your girlier reverences of the heart queen, come to mind some other form, of hatred, or, what was it, passion, the sith pray for?

Passion, in surest forms, that these worlds over more in mine, beside these worlds ever on, in overture, that these Sith could always believe, in their beguiling, they should show their hatred itself as show for power, but be that what you could know, who are you? who sent you to me?

these to be, for my reality?

here in ours, for check your shelter!

Nosferatu, they called me, once, in Sith space, and could you know about these worlds ever on in sunder'd strikes, here, surely believed, was I most over witnessed as this ancient fiend from hell, well before the invention, as it were, of the vampire, but that we could travel through time, or I could, surely, but they've another name for this fiend from hell, call it, Bad, Wolf?

These surest forms, they've called me doctor, surely, but that you could know about my transformation and exchange program, with my friends, that could be knowing more in mine, these ever overs, I was, Bad Wolf, as well as the first doctor to have the Tardis, and the first to be called doctor, in your reality, really, and surely over more to know about these fiends from hell, should you worship me, or idolize, any, should you know about these surest regards back in hell to blanket for these worlds over more, in mine, beside...

These planets more in beside my own world, in these planets, here so surely believed, in ours to know about this planet inside, this crest, surely more in to know about these worlds, this beside, on in against, these worlds, surely over more, should you know and care about Gon, it's that he never faced such hell again, surely, and knowing more about his torment, could you understand, how, able, he's become, at keeping hell from you? Perseus, they cry, and know his only name, for this surest force, in his to know about these worlds in ours before this knowing more to know about this planet here, in mine, beyond, this battle, taken on, in, before, these, cried...

These planets believed in ours to merry making more to know about these trepid graces here in shadow more to know about this passion rising here in battle once in ours for more's to knowing, these in ours, that the Sith cloaked their aliases in passions, surely as they claimed the dark side always was theirs, in theirs to knowing, this cloaking of, their regions of space, for us, the jedi, to harken over, and lay waste to, these worlds beside over on, that Honiker was this first Darth Vader, and as Hades had before him, the son, Thanatos, claimed the mantle, and here, passed Skywalker on to his own son, for his protection, as seen fit what a famous name could afford him, jedi side of sith reality, these worlds over, in the shadow of a traitor to Sith kind, as all good sith are, but that Vader himself was not Sith, escaped the emperor, for he truly, knew, nothing, of the dark side, of the Force.

These worlds in ours forsaken badly in ours to know about this planet here forsaken ever on against these worlds, in ours, to know, I am a doctor, promise you, so that I could heal you, from these surest hells, listen well enough to afford that these words are medicine, moreover they are spellcraft, and this witnessing that these worlds, over for, seek the scholar, my son, and believe, knowledge, can heal you...

These worlds in ours before this chosen granting ever on in shelter badly beridden here in ours for more to know about this pain in torment for these forsaken surely over these worlds, on in before these planets here, in mine beside these universes, here, in mine beside this one currant, here, in shelter, so forsaken badly over in and on, was these before, these worlds, in ours, to know, this torment, here, believed, was yours, and yours alone to bare?

It is the torment of another, and the shrieking you hate, is it not?

What is it, you hate, exactly?

Me?

Do you know why they curse me, in hell?

I am caldt, Nosferatu, in surest form this fiend from hell, nor Hades could you beguile me to know about save that he is, mein owen son, by love, and now, by blood, and surest form in ours for what immortals themselves have done for your perception of the value, of a bloodline, in our reality, surely, or yours for genes?

These worlds over more in baring for these worlds ever after in on before against inside before, these worlds, in mine, before that these were never, wrong?

Who is your hatred for? Answer me, or speak an answer like you fucking mean it.

These worlds, this beside in on against these worlds in ours before this forsaken sureness in hell to torment, this in forsaken hell to torment, this in ours for more to knowing about this world, in ours, to know about these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds, that I could tell you, Godfrey was scared, some of times, about his surest nephew, this child we've called John, and sure, to know, that he is, far away, in some times, and knows not what you speak of, and this could be sheltered backwards for, into forever, for now, in this rise, of the dark side of the force, for here dead is the pervert of wisdom, called Darkseid, this life, surely over more, in his death, does reign out magic, supreme, and ours to know about, how many power rangers, do you think I know, already?

How long, has our technology, slept for, under the heat of foes, like, Ivan Ooze?

he could turn the morpher against you, if you believed in his spells, and did, surely, mostly, if you were chaste not in every part of yourself?

surest form, could we know that Galahad kept King Arthur's knights from evolving like a power ranger could morph, surely over more was this same evil, called Ooze, or Darkseid, and this living out to know about these worlds, Ozai has been killed in final fatality, by a mortal child, sure as well done, for he's gone and used his own Will, and not Hades's, to do it?

If you'd forgotten, what we are, it's that I did invent, HEAT, and do, predate, the SUN, and surely over, did HADES invent green light, this surest, AIR, to settle, and know about in ours before this beside in more's to know about these sides in ours to know about this surest underworld god, called Aeolos, by some in times, but that these worlds were never more to know about this surest torment, this life, surely over, more in mine, that I could tell you of Gon, and what he fights by, which is blue light, ever and always, and always, does blue light tell him, there is, HOPE, and more, for these worlds, there, is another, there is, another, there is, another, and surely, does the Blue Beetle know his father is watching out for him, Batman, was sure to know, but there, you've gone and called him, Alucard, instead....

This world, ever on, in witness, that these worlds could be in ours to know, that the body does not, leave the soul, after death, and so should you know, that the body is inside the soul, and not the other way around?

Who is your hatred, for?

Why don't you stop asking me?

Instead, of what?

Study?

Surely.... if you've sought the scholar, then maybe we can shed some hope for you, yet...

Is there hope in liquid blood?

Just because it isn't blue?

Could you know this, in life?

Surely, Vegeta to Goku, surely over more to know about these planets in ours before this planet in mine beside this one life in ours for this world in mine, this life, surely over in on and against this world, in my life, these worlds in ours, to know about this planet beside my own courage in these worlds in thereon in against these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this color trepid lifestyle living out to know about these battles here in spirit more to knowing motion more against these worlds, in mine owing back to knowing more in ours to hell, for this torment, believed, and I'm still in hell, whenever I think about it, and it's hell, to know about, on earth?

Did it sound impossible, for earth?

How for, was Mexico?

Did you know, what impossible, actually meant?

Did you know what, not unlikely, does to my insides?

What it would do, anyway, if I were not, a power ranger?

These in ours before this world beside mine owing back to knowing more in this for fate we'd pray for this in shelter surely over more in mine before beside these worlds in on before this in chapters more for after ever this once in overture, this life, surely over more in mine that these could be in ours before this world with me in mine own shadow forming back to play by these in worlds for this in shelter ever on against this world, in mine before this chapter, here to taken on in these worlds, over, more...

Who is your hatred, your rage, for?

Does it feel, righteous, to you?

Who doesn't let it?

Who is your hatred, for?

the doctor? the lover? the play by play, in my own way, in surest torment, over in these worlds, out, in ours to know about, this life, surely, more, for more...

does saying play by play, make you angry enough to shoot curses at me? stamp your heathen feat at me? take your little toe out, at me? believe in hatred enough to know, what a sith scar, is for?

it's for not having, but if you had one, then you've killed a sorceror in the wrong ways, and left a sorcerous scar across the world, and these worlds over for, in before, more, that Gon didn't not leave a scar, except that he's a god, and knew better, so surely did he exterminate not, this evil, but punish against its existence not, but put it away, for a while, and the monster rose again, and was vanquished, when Harley Quinn grew something good, out of the mire, or these worlds over, this life, surely over in after, that Hades could be relieved, she could do it, and we should all be scared, when Hades is relieved, about monsters...?

Who is your hatred for?

6. Buffy

This one world in mine before this once in my all that this was never on about this chosen war in my diorama here so spent on in before this type of my own life, this world, this life, surely over more to know about this once in mine, for this in spending on in before this life, surely over more in mine before this spending in ours, to know about this planet taken surely on in overture these once in ours for mild in less, this world because, this, this life, surely for this medic, out to bare in ours to know about these worlds in hell, this life, surely over more to know about this planet here, in mine, before these worlds, to know about this planet here in mine, before this sordid crept in courage these beside in ours before this planet in mine, this was never ending in ours before this planet taken surely over more in mine before these worlds taken surely on in before this one life, surely over more inside this once in mine before this in angels watching, this world, taken on in before, this life, surely over more to know, uh, Angel's Batman, sure, yep, that's him, yep, that's really him, yeah, Dracula, and like, it's funny, you should note, these beside ours in more to know, no, no amount of the TV legacy will do it for you, but that you could believe in fun, for friends, sure to know about these worlds in ours before more to know about these worlds in mine before ours to know about this planet in mine before this taken courage in on and before against this only life, these worlds, this life, surely like, think of me as Rapunzel, and we'll have something to say about the matter, or, more over, you could lie, to me, and tell me my hair's short enough to spin by, this side, over for, more in mine, that these worlds, couldn't, pop?

These beside in ours before to know, about mine, in life, before, this side, in ours, to know, about enchanted silver, and this world, this this in my own pain, this in planets here for these worlds, in ours, before this planet here in mine, before this standing out to know about this planet here in these beside ours to know about this planet here, on,, these worlds, this life, surely, over more in mine, this life, surely, over more for these four, that this was standing this world, this life in ours before this planet inside mine before this one world this life inside mine before these worlds in on and before these worlds in planet side in this once life, this world, these lives, these worlds, and just so you know, this life, surely, over more inside this planet, here in these aspect in torment, this taken, courage, this inside this living out to bare, it all in ours before this planet torment, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in beside this life inside this moment, before these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this in worlds, this galore in settled, this life, surely over more to know about this world, this life, sure, so sung, before, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet beside mine, these in worlds before my only aperture, this life, surely over more in mine, that these worlds, form'd in on before, this living out to know about these worlds, this inside my knowing this sureness that this wasn't living, out to know about my only living out to know about this world in ours before this planet inside mine, this inside my living, this world, this world form, in living, these planets, this beside in ours before this world, this life inside it!

This one world I know in ours before this spent on, in before these worlds, inside this mold, this world, in ours before this moment taken surely over inside and on in against these, worlds we'd spend, this life, surely over more that these wars we'd spend, on in for, this life, these in worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet on, in before these worlds in ever on in before these planets here in mine, before this one world, this life, surely on, in before these, planets on, in before, this one world, in our choice for scorn, in mine only song about, this life, sure so sung on in before these worlds in mine before this living out to know about this planet in ours before this world, beside, mine...

These lives, outside in and on again, in before, these worlds over wanted more for this planet in mine beside this world in ours for these worlds in ours before this planet beyond in mine for this old world, this life, sure, sung, outside and on in before these worlds, in ours before this only life, in mine, before, this life, surely over more in mine beside, this one world, in mine beside ours, this life, inside this knowing grace before in found, this world, this only world, this life, this life beside ours before this life, planets on in before, this life, surely over more to know about this planet here in mine, beside ours before mine over inside and on in before these worlds, in ours, before this planet taken surely, over more in mine before this beside before in ours for knowing more about this color stampéd out on in before, this world, beside, these planets on in before this only chosen life in ours, vampire, this, side in my own, equation now for, these the ancient vamprey, these beside, these, worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, this side, that vampyre, are scary, monsters, corner lurkers in the shadows, these parasite, feasting beasts, are animal, and savage, sick monster perverts, more's to soon as rape you as munch on your corpse not and different forms be in what they are, more like Baraka, could they have become, had it not for the mind mage, the vampire.

I'm a vampire slayer, sure enough, a slayer, who is, vampire? These beside, in ours before to know, slayers are just some chick who like to fuck people up like they're Harmony, or something, though Harmony's not been called slayer, but like, a scarier chick version of Harmony, because Harmony was a monster, could like, maybe, be a slayer.. okay?

A scarier, way freakier, stronger in this hit, this strike, over out to know about this world in ours before more to know about these worlds with you, this life, surely over more to know about these worlds in ours before this beside in ours to know about this paradise in ours to know more about these lives, here, so told on in before, these worlds there taken in, this wasn't never, wrong again, this life, surely over more to know about this score, in hers for these worlds, taken on,

This life, surely over, these equations over implied outside beside in ours to know about more in ours to sneak on by in ours to frame these sure equations fun and games beside in ours to know my course in message delivered and sent aun course, that this was never gone against this world in ours before this channel in mine before this song was never wrong before in ours before this song in mine that this was never wrong in ours before, this channel taken surely over more in mine, this in mine, this in love, sure sung, on in before this planet in ours before this before tonight, this life, surely over more, in mine before this beside in ours behind mine, this in ours before, this in mine, tainted love, surely over more to know about these worlds in ours for, this get away, this home in my knowing out for these worlds, in ours, this living out to know about this planet channel taken back away this inside our own, this in life before, this life, surely over, more to know about these only channel, here, in ours before, this in love, this in life, these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine, before this world, these lives, this world, this beside my color channel'd on, in before these worlds in ours before this limit paradise, this in love nor life beside, this life, these in worlds before, this was never more to know about mine in ours before, this little life, serious for these worlds this life, this life, these worlds, this life before beside it, all, in ours for more to know about this world in tainted love, that we could be in romance on in been forgetting romance on to more in more for more to know about this score to settle down for these in ours to know about this settle'd witness over out to know about these in ours for more in side these aspects, surely brought, this life in mine, this whore, to settle, back in scores, this life, surely over more, to know about, these worlds, did you know, Xander and Willow are both evil?

Sure like, Xander's dead, finally, and so's Willow, but like, they were so, nasty gross fake people, all days, and that this could be final, in final fatality, that they died, theirs was this forever death granted to the eternal evils, this life, surely over more, see, they're eternally evil, but like, not eternal, because they're evil, so no hex spell curse on my part for any world about this planet on in before this life with this ancient language here to ply beside, this world, this life, surely over more, to know about this planet, in my only life, this world, this, planet on, in before these worlds in ours, this life, sure sung, on in before that this was never taken on in before these worlds in ours before this once in mine before this beside in ours to know, about, these, before, so go,, believe in ours, that we could take this surest dance in ours before, this mile, here, sung,,

7. Dracula

This little life in ours so spent, this little life in ours, to knowing more in mine beside, this life, surely over more to know about this world in mine before this planet so surely taken surely ever on in before this life, this world, this life, sure sung on in before this world with ours, this life, surely sung on, in before this planet here so surely known about this world, in mine, that I could know about you, and hear about this reference, in ours, to know me, these worlds, to know my own name, this beside mine, this world, in ours 121230123021002100 this life, surely over more in mine beside this color taken surely over in on against these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet beside, in ours, before, this world, this life, sure so sung, 41203120312031203120120312000,, these lives, beside in ours before to know about my name in calling these worlds taken surely, on in before, me for these worlds taken surely, over more, in mine before this granted, chapter here, this life, surely over more in mine, this life, lived, on in before these worlds, on, in before this planet here in mine, this life, beside,, don't try it the same way, in yours just to know about it?

I don't do things like you could do them, I do them, dif'rently, if you could do them and I'm an elder god, what sorts of things do you think I ought to else be doing, do you think?
saving the world, or, planet, maybe could be one, but maybe you didn't know, it's hard to, reason, with reality, and to tell it you'd rather not have the world saved just, safe, unless you throttle reality, all the way, and tell it to understand your intentions, nicely, do you think? this life, this surest torment in ours to taking this planet in mine before these worlds in ours, that I could have, wizards, who know me, and they'd call them witches, surely, or would have, before the charmed ones changed all this, world over more, these worlds, these surest mind masters, this life, that they could kill the wicked sister seemed, prudent, but that yours was never wrong in mine before this world beside in ours before this world over more in mine before these little worlds, over in and on, in before these worlds in ours to know about this planet, here in mine, that I could know, this course in theirs, that I was, the angel of death, who brought Leo away from that family, in permanente, that these worlds, could know my name, in ours, that he was, surely evil, and could know these courses in ours before this once in mine that this was never granted on in before this planet here beside, in ours before this color so taken beside in ours to know about this world in mine before these worlds in mine before this planet here in ours before this planet taken surely over in ours before this planet beyond in mine own life, this world in ours that I could know, so if you can picture, the charmed ones, praying after Dracula, for theirs, to know, you could see mein witches, and know these worlds in ours before this planet here in mine before this world in mine for taking these little worlds thereon in against this in worlds for this planet here in mine before this planet here so surely taken on in before, these worlds before, this living out to know about this world, in ours, before this life, surely over more inside my life, this world, this living out to know my course, this world, this life, surely over more in mine before beside it all, in ours to know about these worlds for more, in mine, that this wasn't my own world in these forsaken, turns, that this wasn't my life surely so taken on, for, this world in my loving this, planet, after these worlds could here hear these lives forever mistaken surely on in before this planet in mine, before this old song, this life, surely over inside and on against, this world, this life beside, this color, taken over, this life, surely over, more in mine before this life in ours beside this life in ours before this before this more in mine for more to know about this color here in ours, before, this gothic paradise, here collided, and if you could remember, I said I'd been to actual, Gothic school, and could you know that these worlds could know about ours in this enchanted spell, for these worlds in mine before yours to know, these worlds, in mine, before beside in ours to know this planet here in ours before this world so known about this living out to know about this world in mine before this world in ours, for good.

That these old worlds, this life in ours, this life, surely for, these worlds, this life, surely sung on for, this planet here so believed, this apathy was taken surely back in mine before this song, in ours before this one life was gone to life in these livings out to know in song, this world, that this was gone on in before these worlds in mine before this beside in ours for more to know about my life, as Gabriel

Van Helsing, or surely for, Gabriel Belmont, that these worlds in yours could begin this surest clan against the aliens, this life, surely over more in mine beside this world in ours before this life in mine that I could mean the alien in everywhere, the imposter to life, in love, for romance in shelter not but paradise of good, this life, surely over more, that those who would rob us off happy, could we believe their death was for all good, these surest monsters, and believe this life surely over in ours before this moment here in ours to know about these more in mine before this beside in ours to know this country taken on in against, so surely believed that we could know about these in ecstasy, this beside, in mine before it all in life to love about us, here...

These currents could believe ours to know about this surest pain in our tone to misery incarnated upon ours to know about here, his, beside us, but knowing more in death for this in shelter to knowing not, of, in ours to know about this planet here forsaken on, in against these worlds, could we believe that we could be over these worlds in mine own shelter, this side believing, here in ours forgotten, that I could believe your death was inconsequential, was this side over lived, in question, greatly, so that you could know about mein allie, Rasputin, and believe him all the good that I, the prince of your fabled darkness, could hope to be, and these in our lives, this world, in on before this planet here in my own shelter was never granted here in mine before these worlds in ours before this planet here in mine was granted ever on in before these worlds, beside my knowing, grace, way, here....

Surely that I could believe you were good, that you could morph, and change form with us, here in these, and know about my channel, here, and believe that I was, animorph, surely that I am, a beaстиamorpher, and believe these worlds over in ours more to know aside the skinwalkers, could I name myself, but that theirs was slow in progression over in to ours, to this knowing of the wolf, so that I could be bat, in wolf, to fly overhead, and know yours in death, for graces in shelter to know this form in ours before this planet here so taken surely ever after in ours to know about this planet here in mine own world, fabled out about these planets in darkness on in before these after ours for granted sureness in ours for this shelter never taken badly backwards ever after under these worlds over more in overture this world in mine that this was sounded backwards on, in before, these worlds, beside in mine, that this was life, surely over lived, in ours, to know about battle, here...

Could you even know about me? My world?

Could you even bother to write to me?

Could you even know, I needed a pen you from to write?

What if I needed, four pens, and you couldn't be bothered to think of the shadows, to dwell, on these shadows, in blue, of course, always in blue, these shadows, to know whether I was in pain, or not, but that I could dwell on shadow, for eternities, and know your suffering, as for tu know about Hades, and you can take solace, in that Hades is my elder brother, and ever more the child do I treat him as, sure to know about these worlds with Godfrey the eldest it's that you could know he's never looked thirty in his existence, and surely over more in ours to know these lives, beyond ours to know about this planet, whether he'd ever passed 20, was up to how sure he was when he told you, and he could be sure in legends to know he was over four million, so surely as to say, yours in lives, were spent on in against one world to another, here, and lived out beyond these planets in mine own circumstance, beyond, in here, hearts, knowing back, more in ours, beyond anon, in trepid romance, could we believe, and know about our hells, in these forsaken over in and on, in before, these worlds, that I could never know yours in fate lest I tried to know about you, and know about you, I could, so surely that I could know Godfrey and love him, as mein little brother, and sure to know could you, that he was this surest force at my side, for these surest ages, we know in this divide, and sordid be that Trevor Belmont was not your alias, but his own, and that he could believe himself called Dick, for a while, was in ours to know about this planet here in mine, to knowing that Superman was ever the younger god, to this in what his elderhood means, in reality, and always that he could be the son and mentor, these worlds beside in ours to know, about these worlds believed, that he could know your accomplishments in the world better than you could believe real, and so learn of you, as an earnest child, may ought to want,,

That these worlds in ours collided on in before these worlds in mine before this planet courage in mine so dwelt that this was taken surely backwardsd ever on in overture for these old worlds in mine before this planet taken surely over inside and on in before these worlds in ours before this planet here surely over more to know about this planet in mine before these worlds in ours before this planet here beside ours to know about these planets in mine before these worlds could know about ours could you show me these patterns existing here in this trepid romance backwards taken surely on in before this mark to my ever increasing chapters ever on after hence in forward thought to know about by in for these worlds ever on in love with these surest forms to know about mine, beside in ours to know about these settled by, in ours for to know more about my own world, in ours, here heard, about in for this equipment, taken surely out to know about this yard, here, in ours, to know this pain and know our own shadows, beside it,,
That this planet could believe ours in more to know about my universe, 1203120002102130210210021000 this life, surely, over more in mine before to know about this planet universe in ours for design, these beside once once over over once once in for this score this, scoring, these, scores for, this life, surely, surely delivered, here for, spent and on, spent and, on, on on, before on, before on, this world, this world, this, life, surely chosen, could be yours, in ours to know about this planet resource in ours before this universe in mine before this planet in mine before this beside in ours to know about this planet universe in ours to know about these believing be outside in ours to know about these planets beside in ours to know about this universe taken on, in before, these worlds, this life, surely believing on, in before this planet here, believing these sides back in ours for this planet intrepid circumstance to know about this world, in ours, before my life, in once before against it all, this side, this believing, for, these, creation...
That this world beside, in ours, could be believing hers was this in ours more to know about this once life ever on after these worlds in ours to showing this beside in ours to know more about these universes here in mine before beside this life, surely over more to know about this circumstance beyond in ours for to know about this world in mine ever after under on, in before, these worlds, here, so surely sung, on in before these worlds, were never taken surely on, in before, that I could know about you, and believe mine owing back to know ours, in this granting, shallow setting for these worlds in ours before this planet here in mine believing hers was never more in mine, this grace, that I could know about, Buffy, and surely, these lives, beside ours, to take this aspect, in my own graces, sure to know, what a black red cape could be, in ours for this surest circumstance, this sideways hall beside in ours for more to know in standing battle taken ever after under on, for mein Belle, and believe in ours this romance of beauty and the beast, surely, that these could be believing ours in surest romances beyond ours in shelter past these voyagers here, surely spent, beyond life, outside in, beyond forever, here knowing ours to get about beside mine own life, here, surely over inside and on in before because, these worlds, this life, surely over inside and on against, this world, in ours, to know about this pain in shallow happening, these worlds over inside and under on, in before, that this one earth could be believed, in yours to circle, and ours to know about beside, in on, before again, in more before again before...

That these could be taken ever after in ours, to know about this believing out in more to know about simple circumstance ever believed in ours to know about an aside in mine owing back to this in equations, that mein son, Gon, was yours to witness in hell not, but in pleasure, and know that it was their ancient prophecy, that you witnessed theirs in pain, for never any such nen spell did John cast, and live to tell, surely over beside, against, that he could be healed and yours was given an impossible power of destruction, but over in to know about with ours, that these could be what we'd pray to in nen bodies, here, nobodies, there, and never somebody, else in otherwise that Killua's sister could be believed to be, cured, via the dragon ballz, and ours in these sides because could know about yours, ours, was in for to know these planets here beside in ours for color ever after under inside and on against, before, again, so knowing more to know about these old colors here surely being believed, this world inside my knowing of this sure not apathy, but th is pain, here in ours for this one aspect taken lighting too, this world, this life, surely, over inside, that sun, could free us, here, and know about ours, in darkness, could you, but that believe what you are, in colors specialized for these, past to nobody, here in ours before more in mine, that heat casts light, and light casts color, surely over more, does air cast light itself, or does yours know about a world without air, in it?

These worlds in ours, to know about mine, could be believed, in our agony over arching, to know about pain, in mine world back in before these only graces here beside ours,,

Surely taken was this crest in miles for these in settled plans on in against these wars in ours to know about this planet here so taken on in before these worlds, granted ever after inside under on, in before, these worlds, surely believing, more in more's to mine, that these believed could be in ours to know about this beside in life, ever after under on, in before and over on, to know about these worlds in mine battle beyond this shelter here believing that I could pray to ours in heaven and know about these worlds in ours that this was never taken surely over for in mine beyond this life before ours to knowing more about mine circumstance before beside, this life, that when I created, Gon, I could envision that he'd, change, in this life, and become, something over in ours, to know about him, that these were ever on beside in theirs, to know about, could you believe, that these worlds, were never taken surely over inside on against in for these planets taken surely ever on in before these worlds, in ours, before, beside this living out to know about this planet here so believed, these on before these lives, inside my head, that these were worlds beside ours before this mold in mine, beside, because in for these worlds could know about ours in this once, life, this channel, taken surely ever on after these in ours for this color taken surely ever after more in ours to know about this chapter taken badly for in mine before against this in shadows for this chapter spent on in for spending back to know about this world in ours before this channel taken surely over after these in mine, that these worlds could be believed in yours more for these worlds in on before this planet here in mine beside this shadow ever on in after these worlds under this life in living out to know about this chapter here in ours before this chapter taken over on about this planet in mine before this courage was after inside over under inside this once backwards in and ever under over in and under over, this world, this life, surely over more in mine, this was never taken surely over more inside and on, in before these worlds, this life, surely over more in mine before beside in ours for more to know about these colors taken surely over more to know about these aspects believed in mine before these chapters taken surely over inside and under inside under inside and under over inside ever on in after this one chapter this story chapter this in overture for these few worlds that I could lie about in ours to know about this chapter in these worlds, ever after, on in before, these worlds, this life, surely over more to know about this planet in ours for this chapter, taken surely on in before these overture, this life, surely over more inside and on in before against these sides before this life in ours before this motion more to know about these passions still in ours to know about these still in mine, to know, God, here, hearing ours, back together in these for to trepid laughing here once against in ours before this planet, in mine, against,.. That I could be believed, in ours, to know this ancient crest, in ours to hollow trails, surely over beside, 445213002100012022134521312451000012000,, this life, surely over outside beyond in ours before to know about this life beyond in ours to know about this world galore in yours for more in knowing grace beside this color here in ours to angels' chapters, once, I was afraid of circumstance, and could believe myself uncanny, and popular, still yet again, so I cultivated these, and became Batman, like you couldn't believe, and ours to more to knowing that other than these worlds beside in ours to know about this planet here in mine before this planet here in mine before this life, surely over more in beside this living out to know about, this life, surely over, that my son, Gon, was changed in hell like we couldn't believe, and was wondering, these sides over in ours, to know about yours, for a minute, so he could talk about you, and lie about you not, and know why you are, and are again, but that these worlds beside in ours more for these worlds in ours for this war in mine beside this color taken surely over more in mine beside this color in ours before this world in planets taken surely ever on in colors taken surely over after in under these four worlds in mine before me in these equations, there in before these without me telling these inside my story, this world, these worlds I'd know by in these planets beside me, here, heard, now..

Yours in mine, that this life could be believing ours, in mine own crest, taken backwards on against this symbol of the bat? That I could believe yours was a fear of the spider, surely, and hers was the web that brought the ground spider, the poisoner and torturer to mate with the trickster, so that these were gone on against, mein enemies, Andru, and Anansi, that they could be belived in ours to know no more such life in these worlds as spider bodies, but that they exist in your nightmares, still, and yet in nightmare, they feed, for they feed to torture, or torture, is their pass for time, in here, so unheard by, in for, these worlds collided more could tell you my son was vampire in all his designs, but that he could be called, daywalker not, for he walks no vampire lifestyle but the vampire hunter, and surest form in his beyond, was he wendigo, in ours to know, that hellish tragedy has befallen him, and though he always would be great, he is great in face of torment unbidden, and here believed to be ours in mine that this could be mine, in mine before these worlds in mine, that these beside, in ours, could be to know about mine owing back to know this life, surely over more in mine besides before this appenstance, here, appening, as though, I could spell, however I liked, and that you could be believed to be, torment ridden, in these our chapters, before against this after math, on in before these worlds ever after in under these worlds in ours before this planet here in mine before this planet was gone against in ours before this planet here so taken surely over more in mine before this planet in ours before this living out to know about these planets taken on in before this chosen world in ours before this planet universe in ours for surest pain in hell that this was never gone on in against these worlds over inside and on in before these worlds that ours could be this torment taken over after in under on against these worlds in ours before this planet paradise in mine before this world, in hell for fading aperture, that you could believe me, this hero you could cry out for, could be these in ours, to know about us, but that this was never taken on, in before, that you could know that Buffy and Angel was about the real beauty and the beast, in a different dance, surely, and with some things that wasn't there before, or some of things, for theirs, to know of these in our facings with monsters, but that Godfrey was Spike, could you know, and his was theirs to know about these special powers beyond your sitcom class entertainment for slayers, this side of life over in ours before in with, against, could be knowing that theirs was this life ever taken surely on before these worlds in ours to knowing more in mine before again beside this in my own life, before, beside, to know, mine, owing back in ours to theirs to knowing this in death for shelter ever after on, again...

Could ours be knowing out inside these forms, for ours to know of this in surest shelter to death, for these in currant on, and about these beside, in mine to know about ours, to know about this life, that Dracula could never be without his brother, for ever so long as you'd believe, and so surely did Godfrey come join me, in Los Angeles, and these worlds over mine beside, does yours, have to be in California, just to be Gotham?

That you could sing these sides in ours for current to taking over after ever under on, in before these worlds, could you know about my son, and the stories of Connor are wrong, in there's to know about these sides in mine, could you know, his name is John, and he's not, from hell, he's just, been there, and in real hell, you keep getting sick about life after, too, so knowing more about these surest hells in your own form for dominion, that you could know the doctor could send you there, because he's pretty sure there needs to be more doctors, in real practice to real medicine, these worlds beside, in ours to know about these sides, in ours to knowing more about this planet beside mine owing back to know about this life, in ours for this one world beside in windows ever taken surely on before this mild, in folding back these pressures surely ever after and on in before against this world in mine before this world in mine, before and on, in before this after current taken, surely ever after, in ours, to know about mine, and ever after, on, in before, these worlds, that I could never believe you again, in ours to know, that I lived, and breathed, for romance, forever.

Introduction, by Cassie

That I could know about yours in this fated circumstance and over in these worlds that I could know about this deep once inside my living out to know about these four, this inside, my life, that these four worlds, means that this was North, West, South and East, but over to know about this inside my score!

I miss my brother, but that I could forget about him, surely, we could believe these inside of ours, that this was never taken surely over, these wars, this inside my own life, surely over more before and back inside, this living out to know about this inside my living out to know about these beside our own, this in living out to know about this golden chance, this living out to know about these inside of ours before that this was never granted over inside my own rights that these could take away, this life, so here set our children this side over now!

Go go power rangers! Go go power rangers! That I could know about you, Go go power rangers, you mighty morphin' power rangers,!

I'm a pink ranger, or, a blue one, or, some other kind, and sure enough, they called me Pallas, or just Athena, and more to knowing more in mine that these wars were never taken surely on in before these planets never taken surely over more inside my living out to know about this beside my only life in ours before this taken song, this was enver wrong before!

So we loved our children! This life, sruey over, mroe inside my only living, this younger god could call us here in ours for hearing ours, this inside my living out to know about this inside my living out to know, these four worlds that this was never taken surely, over more to know about these besides my only light in this life!

If you don't know much about my father, Zeus, and what he did for this universe, then you should remember that Thanatos was the one who sliced up the sky, and we all, fought the younger gods' assassin devil monsters, surely over more to know about this in my life; my god was never taken surely over more to know about fate, this inside my living out to know about this one life, she's, gone and never once in beside it before, that this was never taken surely, over more inside my own scope, this was never wrong before, that I could be in love with Alex, wasn't always not true, or should be, could be? And I know that these wars were never taken surely over more beside this only living out to know about this one grace, and that you could know, that each of the elder gods is respinsible for inventing Time, Space, Music, and each to one, a ray of color...

Adam could be known by ours in these worlds, as Link, surely enough, that hero of time, this side over before these inside my worlds forever taken back in these little worlds inside my hope for me, this inside my living out to know about this inside my only veins, this little world on, in before that these little wars were never taken surely over more to know about this inside my planet never taken before, these wars on, in before this planet, in my way!

Once upon a time, Zeus lived in a universe of law and order, called Amber, and that they could try their mightiest to fight the sick, it still scared him that he could never teach what he'd learned for himself, and that he could find a different universe; one with a teacher, a son, or rather, the all son, just as Zeus had appeared to be the all father, and surely over more that he could invented the jedi order, and surf these universe! This life, surely over more to know about these planets on in before that this was never once before, these inside my living out to know about this beside my only living out to know about this sex in ours before this grace, this life, surely over more inside my witness before my own, that this was never taken surely over more inside my know, that this was never wrong before, we'd know!

So go go power rangers! That, this was, this one world, this in our own Chaos, this life, sure, sung for these in all our witnesses that he could take before, that this was never more inside my living out to know about these inside my world that this was never granted back in jest nor shadow, that this was here the all son, Christian, but save this face in ours before, that he was simply, the padawan, and that he could teach this way of the jedi to the gods of the Courts of Chaos, here, this dimension, or rather, this universe, but that we'd made contact was true enough in ours!

I'm the light of Zartha. That this was gone on in before my own scope! These worlds inside my living battul! This was never taken surely more, this more for in my living out to know, that this war was never not so close, that this was never over, this was never over, faith, this was never, over, this was never over inside my living out to know about these gods!

Keenan once upon a time, was called Kahlan, and that you could know Shota feared Kahlan herself, in these wars, that she was some how, to be responsible, for the child who could destroy her; a male confessor, and surely enough, just as Circe, that's Kahlan, Keenan, I mean, that just as she could change her enemies not, but these surest innocently confessed souls, into animals to change what the magic meant to them, that she could once upon a time, bathe in this phoenix fire, and arise, once here, male, and over in these worlds in mine before me inside this standing battle, ever onwards, this was never ever done, these little wars were never over, but that these little planets never, took us... Home for this world in mine so home is where I'd stay at bay not in these worlds and take this morpher here and know about this paradise in all our hearts and these minds we know, this planet side in mine before this backwards ever changing on in because my living out to know about this inside my know for these worlds that this was never taken surely over more inside my living out to know about this planet never taken surely over more inside my knowing grace that these could be my only paces, and surely over more, that with the arrival of this jedi, surely, Liam, and that he could know, that these 7 gods very much desired to each have their children, and that that was this course in time.

Believe in fate for me and know about this score inside my heart for these beyond and know about this planetside in fucking moreover, that these sharenesses, could be taken backwards in mine before this lifetime granting over after under, this living out to know about these little wars we'd cry, that this was never taken surely back before. That I could be called Pochahontas, was true, and that ours were never more inside my name, that this was never wrong to call me Persephone, for surely on in against, I'm in love with Hades, and his was this only life in mine before my hopeful, that this was never taken surely on, in before these olden wars in mine before these inside of ours before this grace, these worlds in taking more to know about my hope in heart, that this was never taken surely over inside my once, life, surely over more inside my know, that this was never taken surely over more, inside my life, these worlds in ours, before that this was never granted over in powers before, this living out to know about this life, and that Pasha could be born of pure orange light, and Keenan, of yellow, and surely, that Trey could be the son of Ares, and surely that he could be this of red light, surely over more in mine, and surely over more, that the first of them born, was Apala's daughter, Ashley, and that she could be this surest grace in ours before, that he could hide her well in black light and shadow, surely over more, to know one grace ever taken on, and that these worlds could make this exception, in that Chase invented blue light, and Johnny, his son, was born of it.

1. Christian

That these wars were never taken surely over back beside these lives, in ours before these planets never taken surely over inside, this life, that I could once upon a time, fall in love with Ashley, and that she could promise me her heart, this surest prince I am not, but that of saiyans, or rather, that I could be called the last not son of Krypton, for surely that these worlds were never over, I am, Superman, and knowing more in mine before these planets never taken surely over more, so here could you know Pasha; Superboy.

•Pasha- That I could never have to know about these planets ever on after this once course, in mine, that I could be called my father's son, surely, and that it was some broken not miracle, that another younger god; my mother, Ashley, could know about herself well enough into her future, to inspire Christian to find the courage to create me, and that I could love my father and mother in these edges out to know about these inside my planets never taken surely over beside inside these before my world inside my world before that this was never over, this was never ever over, inside my hope, for these worlds, beside my only light in this life, surely over more to know about these inside my planets never taken surely over, my name is Pan, sure enough, and that you could know I never became Sith, but that the dark side was invented by my father, and surely over in beside, not to be confused with Darkseid, the menacing, sycophantic idiot who went ahead and died in final fatality, so surely over more in mine, that I am, Superboy, and that his was this course in mine before and beside this life, surely, that I could be a child of incest, could name you one reason in that this story was hidden from you, here told not forever on, but backwards in, and so know about me, here, and heard my songs cry out, for this in torment over ever taken, surely, that these wars were never taken surely over beside my only living out inside this molde.

Learning about my father was never hard to know about in mine before, that I could be in love with him, surely, and know about this planet never taken surely over more to know, and that you could know that Padme Amidala is my mother, surely, and I'd lay with her, too, and often over these wars, was she knowing of this planet never taken surely over back inside these planets never taking ever after shet in beck, that thes, these, these worlds, this living out to know about these inside my heartaches founding this was never taken surely over more inside my living out to know about these only scores, this was never taken on, in before that this was never wrong, before, that this was never over more, this was never over, more, this was never wrong before, this was never, hope, this was here in my own flame, that I could know this heat my grandfather, Kyle, invented, and surely over more to know about these inside my only living out to know about this beside my planet never taken surely on in before that these worlds, I am, an avatar, and surely, couldn't be Krypton if I was not one, but I am, Krypton, and that you could forget planets were people could be strange, and living out in these wars that I could cry for these fallen jedi, here, heard about these inside my planet never taken surely over more beside my living out to know about these besides, in ours before this planet never taken surely over more to know about this inside my planet never taken surely over more to know about tehse worlds insdie my planet never takne surely over more inside my living grace for these wars on, in before these plants never taken surely over inside my only living out to know about these in ours before this planet, here, and that I could be called son of Hades, was true, and my name has been Darth Vader, like his was, but that I was called Thanatos, and surely that we could beget nothing after these wars in mine before ourz in this for sex in love with my own family, this life, surely over more inside my hope for these in our defeat not taken on. This was never wrong before so know about this olden song, that this was never, wrong, these worlds, in my once inside my living out to know about these inside my planets never taken surely over more to know about these beside my living out to know about these worlds, this living out to know about this beside my living out to know that these worlds in God, this living out to know, about my own life, this world in hell, this living out, to know in hell, these wars man, this in hell, this inside my hope for, this future on!

I'm not married, but that you could know about Amber, which has some connection to my new padawan, and that she could forget what I am and was in these aspects, over taking this inside my living out to know about this planet, never taken, on in before these wars before, these inside my living out to know about this planet never taken on, in before that these old worlds couldn't ever be this fate inside my own life before my living out to know about this inside my living onwards, this was never granted back in my own spades that I couldn't never take this the wrong way, so know about this inside my moment for these little worlds inside my heart before these worlds inside my living out to know about these in little worlds besides, this was never taken surely over more to know about these beside my only song in my own scope that I couldn't know about this inside my only way, for, this inside my onlyest one life, this was never wrong, but that I could love Ashley, surely, and know about these inside my livings out to know these story courses, and mine in ours to know about this once before in life, surely over more beside my own score, that this was never taken surely that this was never taken on, in before my only dad, that this was never taken surely over more to have him know my name, and know about how to call for me, like, whenever, you know?

These beside sin ours before this planet never taken surely over more inside my kind of know, this was never taken surely over more inside my living out to know about this course, this was never taken sum, this was never taken surely over maybe never wasn't ever there before that these wars could know about these planets fucking each other, and knowing more to know about these in mine before this life in my only orange flame...

These worlds inside my living out to know these graces never taken never on in against these in besides my only life, here heard, and that these wars could never take my heart online, and hear my only name, that I could cry yours for these worlds in my hope, this was never once, inside ours, before this Force, and that you could know, nothing, of the dark side of the Force, in that these were shadows designed to hide the jedi from the sith, and surely over more, that I could have been called, badai, was true enough, and that's these worlds this living, out to know about these besides in mine before these worlds inside my living, out to know, that a badai, is a bad ass jedi, or that he could know about these planets never taken surely over more besides these beside these wars that this was never taken surely over more inside my only knowing hope, this was never taken surely over inside my living out to know about these besides my once life, this in my once life, this inside my one heart, that these wars, this as never taken surely over more to know about this grace in my own fucking name, so know about this planet here, and that Kiara is no sister of mine, and that she could leave herself alone, for surely, did she break this red magic bond with my father, with me, and that if you violate true blood, you can't rebuild it, for surely that your mark was against it, into these old worlds, and I don't know why she wanted to hurt her father so bad, but here to know about this planet never taken on, in before these little worlds inside my only life beside these inside my living out to know about this planet never taking on against, these beside, my only life inside these four moments taken on, in before that these wars, were never forgotten, could be nothing to us, but that this quest. /'

That I couldst be called, thisn', Jabberwocky, was this true for back against it all in before this living out inside my living out to know about this course inside my knowing back on in once before these inside my living out to know about this besides my living out to know about this besides my own score, this life, surely over more in more!
These' n for, this living out for, this life, surely over more, for, this once in my own, life, surely over more to know me, these worlds inside my living out to know about this planet never taken surely over more inside my knowing more in this old form, this living out to know about this inside, this inside my living out to know about this life, surely over more to know about these worlds for this life, surely over more to know about this inside my once life, surely over this inside my living out to know about this inside my once life, surely over more to know about this inside my heart that this was never granted back on in against this living out to know about these inside my knowing before these worlds inside my living out to know me, this wasn't my own life, sure so know about this in once, more, this in my once, more, these worlds in ours, before these granted graces, this was never taken surely over more to know about this besides this was never wrong before that these worlds inside my only know, for this, this one song that I could know, this living out to know about this, lifetime, this wasn't my own, life, surely over more, for, these worlds, this life, surely over more inside my living out to know about these planets never taken surely over more for these planets ever on in against these wars cried for these in my wars, for this was never wrong before this once in my only life that I could, so know my names in these trepid colors, that I was once called these planets never beside my only lifetime this inside my coming of this ages in ours to know this gothic splendor taken on in before these worlds so knowing more to know about this beside my only song, these worlds inside my living out to know about this besides my own lifetime, this was never taken surely over more to know about my course, these in wars for this planet never taken surely on, these before my once life!

That these worlds were never taken surely on in before that these worlds never taken surely over more to know about my one score, this world in ours before that this was never gone on in before these inside my hope, for these to know about these planets never taken on in, before that this was never over this was never ever over now in ours before this life in ours before that I could know about this one score in mine besides this once in my only life that this was never taken surely over on inside this planet never ending in my scape for these in sexing back this living out to know about this besides me, that this was never taken surely over more to know about these inside my planet never taken surely, that this was never gone on in before against these colors in my own rights to bare it all this was never wrong before I couldn't name these colors never ending, these in ours before that this was never over more in my own scape for these worlds taken surely over more to know about this was never over this was never ever done, these four worlds were never taken surely over more to know about my scaping, these lives in mine before that this was never granted ever on in after this once before these worlds in mine that this was never taken surely over more for and by, that this was never wrong, in ours, before that these worlds inside my knowing more for these songs in ours before my own life...

That this was never goner on in before that this was goner inside my heart that this was never taken surely over more to know about this planet never taken surely over more inside my heart, that this was never taken surely over more to know about these worlds inside my living out to know about my own world inside my life that these old worlds in ours, that this was never taken surely over more to know about this planetside in mine, that these wars, could never be amounted to these mores in mine before this planet never taken surely over more inside my planet never taken surely over more to know about these worlds besides, this living out to know about these worlds inside my living out to know about these planets never on, in before that I could know about these wars. This was never taken surely over more inside that I could know about this planet never taken surely after all in ours before these worlds inside my living out to knowing more for more more, this was never more for, this life surely over more in mine, these little wars on, in before that this was never gone on in before that these wars taken over inside and beyond, this was never taken surely over more to know about these besides inside of ours before these little worlds in mine, that this as never more to know about this inside of me, that this was never more than this was never taken surely over more to know about this fucking standing back, these worlds in ours, this was never taken surely over more to know about my own songz! This was never taken surely that these little worlds in ours, that this planet never took more for these in ours, that this wasn't gone.

These planets never taken surely over more to know about these inside my planets never taken surely over inside my living out to know about these worlds inside my knowing force beyond this life, surely over more to know me by!

This was, this was never over inside my only longing for this score! That this was never wrong before, this life, besides my only song on in before!

This was my own life force! This was my own life force! This was never, wrong for this inside mine, that this wasn't never taken, on, in before that these worlds were never taken surely over more to know about these worlds inside my living out to know about these planets here so known about this standing back in before that these little worlds were never taken surely over more in mine! These little wars that we could cry!

This was my own life force! This, inside my heart, this was my own life force! These in was more before these little worlds inside my living out to know about this planet never taking over this planet never taken surely over more to know about these inside my moves, that this was never taken surely over inside and on in against this planet never taken surely over more to know about these little worlds inside my living out to know about these inside my planets never taken surely over inside and on in before that these little wars were never wrong!

These lives surely sung on in before me! This was never taken badly backwards, this was never taken badly backwards on in before that this was war, this was never wrong before that this was never war, in ours before these planets never taken on! This was never over inside my living out to know about these inside my living on!

So know about my scoreway, this was never over inside my knowing of this grace inside my heart for these in livings out to know about this planet never taken on in before that this was never taken surely over more for before this for this before these in ours before that these little wars were never fought without the jedi here, this living out to know about these planets never taken surely over more to know about this one chapter, ever after on in before that this ward was taken surely over more to know about my home, in ours before that these little wars were never taken surely over inside and on in before these worlds, inside my hope for this once in my life that I couldn't know about this score, but here so heard about my living out to know me, this inside my only scoping, these wars taken on in before that this was never over, this was never even over, these in wars before that I couldn't know about your fates, that this was never taken surely over more to know about this inside my only rights to bare it all inside my heart for these in fewer knowings more for this in once beside that this was God, and over in and beyond this living out to know about my sexing back and forth, that this was never wrong in ours before that this was never over this was never over this was never even over, this was never taken surely over more to know about these worlds inside my hope, before these worlds inside my living out to know about these planets here in mine besides this once in my world for chanting that this chapter taken surely over more to know about this planet never taken surely over inside and on against, this living out to know about these planets never taken on...

These in wars for this in mine before this once chapter, this once in my own chapter, this was my own death for granted shelter taken on in before that this was never over more.

Surely that these little wars that this was never taken surely over more to know about these worlds inside my living out to know about this planet in my only living out to know about this song in ours before that this was never taken surely over, this was never taken surely over in my world! This living out to know about this shelter, this was never waking backwards in my names, that this was my own title, that this in my own scare! This was never taken surely over more to know about these inside my planets ever taken on! This was never wrong before my home, that this was never taken surely over more inside my only life that these little wars we'd win, that these worlds in warz faur thes'n life besides mine ownly living out to know this in my word, this was never taken surely over before, this was never taken surely over in my mountain, that this was never taken surely over more to know about this besides my only song, and here in ours before that this was never taken surely over inside my living out to know that these worlds inside my living out to know about this living out to know about me, intu my own song! This was never taken surely over inside my living out to know about this inside my planet never, taken on, in surely over more to know, that these little wars were never taken surely over more in my own scape, this living out to know about me inside these only songs that I could write in ours before this more, for, mine...

That this was never taken surely over more to know about these planets never taken surely over inside my living out to know about this planet taken on, this living out to know about this living out to know about this planet never against these warz about these planets never taken surely over inside my hope, that this was grass, this living out to know about these surest weeds we'd grow, that this was never taken surely over more that this was never hurt, and here in overture that these worlds couldn't never be taken surely over more to know about this score! This living out in my own world, this living out to know about these wars, this was never gone on in before that these little lives couldn't ever be taken before this kind in mine before that this was never taken surely over more to know about it all in these old worlds inside my living out to know about these inside my planets never taken surely over more to know about these lives inside my heart for these worlds inside my living out to know about these planets never taken surely over more to know about these planets in my own scope, for these little wars we'd cry, that this was never over inside my moment here heard in ours before, this living out to know about these planets never taken surely over more to know about this planet never taken surely over more to know about this living out to know about these planets never taken surely over more in mine besides this planet never taken surely over more to know about these worlds in my only living out to know about these planets never taken on in before that these little wars could never taken over over over over, this life, surely, over, this was never quite so over as before, that this was never taken surely over inside my living out to know about these worlds inside my living out to know this life by my own storm, this was never taken surely over more to know about these planets never taken surely over more to know about these inside my planets ever on!

2. Alex

Here absolved of your own sins, was my son...

•Trey- Surely more that I could, oh, hi, I didn't see you there, so, hello, welcome, to my world, surely, and like, it's a good kind of world, too, sshh, don't speak; it's better this way....

That I could be called Puck, surely over inside my knowing of this grace inside my chapters this beside mine inside this color never taken surely over more to know about these planets here in my charge for this sureness and never again in before again before again before something again before? Oh say, so sure dare say sir dare say, and know, what in for that these were fairy, and not fae? Girls, stupid, are fairy, and not fae, but that means, I mean, by that I mean, that the fairy and not the fairy fae, are girls, surely over more, save for like, me, this straightest boy queen could you know, that I never had to be called a king, surely over more to know about these worlds on, and I never had to be called queen neither, sure for, that I'm just, Puck, and likening for these worlds, and like, a trickster? Did I trick you, into thinking I was a homosapien?

Surely, no no, no homo, I am no homo, ever at all, before against before that this was never more inside my hoping for, that I could deny all aspects of homo, could be true, and surely know my friend, the teenage ghost, or, the holy spirit, that he was surely against the gay, in a strong, big, manly kind of way, or, a cute and teenage boyish style in these worlds surely more to know about Chase for a while inside these moments before that I could never say these words before these fae unless he was dead, not Chase, but, the gay one, Oberon? Dead I say, dare sir, dead as dead could say for my own ways, all across time?

No, fuck you, Hades killed him, 'twas not I, though surely that I COULD dream I'd bathed in his blood, as this force was rended apart in ours before, this red in light, that I could know your blood in form that this one world, inside our hopes for these planets never taken surely over more inside my mind, that these lives could never sake, my thirst, for this in vengeance and honor taken on, in before that this was my own life, surely over more to know about these worlds, that I could be the son of Zuko, and not of, Azula?

Surely, a misplaced name could mislead you for a while, had it nothing to do with anything but that incest fired up in your mind and dare sir dare to know about these worlds in mein for these brothers plurally gone on in before that this was never taken surely over more, inside that this was never more in beside my living out to know this grace in God, surely that I could be this war god you'd all know, by my own videa game, this was never not, my name, before, KRATOS. That I could know your form, in here heard with my father, Ares, these beside my world in my faith for this living out to know about hers in ours, to know about Azula, is to know orgasms, surely for, and never ending in these before that this was never over inside my living fate so known about, that I could know about, these worlds inside my own, and like, see? By now, the idea of Azula is rather appealing, but that you could call her Aphrodite, could be this surest circumstance beside Eris.

So known about that I could pluck the apple and enjoy it in its splendor, surely over more, but never against a red apple do my lips and motors ply, for theirs was this surest poison element, and yeah, the cover of Twilight didn't really make sense to you until, just now, when you learned that the offering of a bright red apple is the oldest symbol around for poisoning children, or surely, for mocking your teacher's insanities in accepting poison from all students in all ways of life, that they could easily decide to eat a green apple soon, or a golden one, surely, but that it was red? It sits upon the desk, and knowing more in ours before that this was granted surely over more inside my only hope, so surely learn about what I mentioned earlier, that there's an exception to the firefly cause, surely on, in boy style romance power, I mean, in that all the butterfly girls are girls, these surest trueborn fairy, and that theirs was this monarch more in knowing this once life, that he could fuck girls all day could be to his credit, but that many more's a boy could want to know about him surely over inside these in ours before this planet never taken surely over more to know about this one course, surely, so know about these worlds inside my only life style, and that I could steal this show, was apparente, and surely just following here right after Anakin Skywalker?

Surely that I could drop his name, and you could forget about mine, but Fuck anyway and never again see these worlds in ours, for this in orange light anon, that theirs was the firefly style in boy rights, so surely that these boy queens could throw their good name upon the briars and spike beds, as the fairy have for so many countless ages, so as to let you know to despise all the fairy fae, anyway, and to trick the fae, into maybes thinkings, theys not so hard to copy after all, these fae types, so maybe these girls know it not why such in biggen deal?

Really, I want everyone to know my fates, in this, that once upon a time, evil thought it could hide more safely in the fairy fae, who world cerulean color in all its splendor, like Navi, or the fairy godmother, surely over more inside that these worlds could never know, about this planet here, they thought that, since they're all trying to hide how sick and wicked they are, that even though everyone else is wicked too, that many and more will seek it out; the wicked, and surely that you were the cleverest of all, to never have to worry about matching blue and pink on your fairy wings, so that could you know this color of cerulean, one broken blue, surely over more to know that these worlds on, and that you didn't have to fake actual humor, but that an inside joke among the fairy fae was simply that they had a joke you didn't know about, or rather, the joke was that you didn't know something, which was the joke, so, yes, in fact, in Cerulean light, I AM painted red, surely over more to know, so surely, regard the moon at full, and know that Kaguyahime could be this surest great fairy, surely over more in hers before all, that she was never wrong before in all her grace, so she told the fairy all to throw thine names upon the sword, and never trusted more for these worlds in girls like Tinkerbelle, so surely that hers was this curséd not fate, but that these olden worlds inside my own rights, that I couldn't know about Pan, but that here was his own disciple, Peter, surely ever after more in my life, that this was Puck a boy who flies too surely, over more to know about these in planets never taken surely over more to know about these planets ever taken surely over more to know my own name inside this planet, here, so said.

Surely knowing more in my own fates that you could belie ours before this planet here, so that this was never wrong, that you could know the fairy fae cult involved men, plurally, and that Oberon was such a fucking faggot, guys, but wasn't one who stole the title queen, and sure enough, these gross fairy fae men could do it even BETTER, they'd said, in that they actually wore womens' clothes, surely, and that they could be prissy, and bitchy, betch, sure, and never open these for ours to know about your only fate that this was never more inside my own rights, surely over more, and just as the brave and bold Lucifer never fucked the priests, even though Jawe, Jehova, dressed them up in gowns, surely so nor did I ever fuck gross people either, so surely, at least in theirs for this, that I could fuck to kill, too, but like, only certain kinds of evil, and never the fairy fae queens at court, unless they opted to fake a vagina, in which case, I could have my way about the not fat ones, all days, and knowing more for, I don't really have to even pretend to like them anymore, and can use a happy dagger, instead of my happy dagger.

Did you not know that happy dagger meant penis, in Romeo and Juliet? That she could take him inside her, in this surest, ah , revival? Surely over more, that sex can resuscitate, surely over for, and knowing more, that this was heart in ours before this grace, inside my hope for these worlds inside my lonely lines before, that these worlds in ours for hope, that this was gone on in against my life, before that these worlds were never taken surely over more before besides, that Titania's own son, was once called Christian, and now is, surely, and surely over more, that he could give zealots a bad name, what with all his principle against church and order, surely over more inside my know, that this was never taken surely over more inside my knowing grace in these lives that I could never have to know about this grace with God, so surely over more to know, about these worlds in my only life, that I could never have to know about these planets never taken surely over inside my living out to know, about this nen trap, in that there was this misunderstanding of magic, called nen, and that they who used it could bind themselves in all these sorts for wicked traps, and so that once every single evil among the fairy girls joined up with the fairy fae, instead, sure did we spring it, and announce the extermination of this race of doppelgangers, and so more in ours to know beside it all, did Hades simply say, in truest form, that he could and would without doubt, annihilate all these fairy fae by himself or force in this one love, so surely, more or less, he'd kill them; kill them all, and because he's a god, and a very powerful one at that, he could simply, say so, because he knew it was true, and so surely, that Oberon thought he could, trick himself not, but, that he believed it mattered not that these fairy fae were all, all totally evil, and that he could instead, swear himself to faedom forever, and become something of a god, to their kind.

Surely, something stupid something else, but Oberon was also called Majin, and was this surest imposter wizard, that could beguile even gods for millions and untold millions of years, into thinking he could, create, in actuality, and that this was his fate, on in before, that could mean he was, in love?

Surely, that he invented the octopus; an evolving evil, and he claimed he was trying to, trick evil into falling in love, so surely that an octopus always believes he's better, more, improved here, this, torture, this, carnage, yes, I'm, stronger!, than before,!! That's the sort of torture an octopus will ply into you while it tries to take over your body, like sure enough, in Hunter x Hunter, where sure could you lose a thing or two about nen, here on in withouts, but that this was a story we could believe in on against and that you could expect Puck wasn't going to talk about anime, you're an asshole, for thinking that, I love anime, and I love Sailor Moon too, even though it's not even a real anime.

Be that you could know Buu, or sure, Uub, and that for untold millions, people believed Majin himself had created her, and so this and not the octopus was the real proof, whathaveyou, that Oberon could create, in actuality, but that she could hail from some other universe has been made apparent, and ours in knowing more of these graces could you ply about and know that Uub had a sister, created in this same other universe, who followed after her, and surely, was killed in front of her, out among the evil kai, the evochii, where Majin had dumped Majin Uub, and so to know about herself not, that this girl, Uub, a sexual destroyer, became pregnant, and carried her sister with her for eons, till one such safe day as my father could convince her this realm, here, with him, was safe, and so she could have this child, and give it to him, and so more that you could know, he was Hercule, because Dionysus was never not Ares, but he'd have you going for a while, as to whether that could be true, but there again, that baby, that glorious baby, is the power chick you know, as Sailor Moon.

You thought, maybe, the elder gods' diaries weren't going to hold anything worth it, but here, alas, you've discovered that even though it was considered an anime before, Dragon Ball Z past the Cell saga is now not an anime, because obviously, after that, it was just Sailor Moon.

If you're laughing still, about how it's kind of funny, to just, deny animedom, unsensibly, to the fairy fae, or, their inside jokes?

That you could know my favorite color among the fae is always red, and not blue, sure that could you know that the trap was really, really loaded, and surely for these worlds forever, that if you behold a fairy, and it is, in its actuality, blue, and not some gay cerulean, or more than this in likely for, if she is, beautiful, then could you know her for a real beauty, and yes in these worlds ever on in more's to knowing more about this planet here, beside us all.

That I could know in a score or more that these worlds collided back on in before this crest inside my only heart for these worlds in my own standing back on in before that I could know about this planet here in beside these in ours before this lonely knowing of, this planet never taken surely over more to know about these planets never taken surely over more inside my only hoping forever more inside my only life, that I could never have to know, that your dragon type was weak against these fairy fae not, but this fairy granted light, inside my hope for knowing more, so surely could you know, that this is why Dragon Ball Z must succumb to Sailor Scouts, ever on, again... Not really, but, in ours, that you could know about a different kind, of these, the faeiry courts, and more in these worlds galore, that these daemon summoners could be this race from this world, over out to know about this demon bond, and here, surely in ours, did once upon a time, Kyle break this bond they had, with their golden compasses, probably, and that they could just become really good friends, now, instead of magically binding themselves, each child to a demon, demon to child, in some sort for servitude, and I like this breaking of evil bonds, but surely over more to know about this planet here in ours, that among these, too, are males, surely more common, but that there were the faeiry courts, surely over more to know about these fairy fae in grace, surely over more to know about my life, and that I could know about these worlds beside, in mine before that ours was granted on.

So could you know me, a boy, in this pain, that I could never have cut them to bleed them in agony for theirs, that I had to wait sadly, in by this old way, and know about these worlds in ours, for their, torture. That I could know about these planets here in mine and her so surely over, that this was never ever done on in before that this one world could know about these old sanctums, here in my play, that this wasn't gone, but here set, for, this living out to know about these worlds on in before that this wasn't mine owing back to this molde of ours before this in my way, that this olden course in my know, that this world in my knowing form for this grace in ours that this wasn't gone, on in before these only ways, that this life inside my own hope, for this gay. Gaaay. Don't be gay. Fuck who you want, but don't be gay, in some mysterious way where people can't figure out why you frolic when nobody's dancing, and that's because he's trying to, trick you, into thinking, maybe, 'Oh Jerry's ALWAYS in a good mood!', so okay, gay, means, fae.

Now hang on, not all dancing is called frolicking. These are mental concepts we're working with, so think for a change and don't be so gay about everything all the time, sure say, eire say? Way way? Way gay. No, no gay. Say in what you say, in different way, and this be not gay, sure way, for not to be gay, so say? See I'm not gay, even though a puck is something all the guys with sticks are always after, you know?

And you said slap stick wasn't funny. Gay.

3. Antonio

Here's to knowing more in mine against these once beyond in ours to know about a score to settle on before this planet never taken surely ever after on besides in known form that these were never lost on in before this changeling shifter back against these worlds in mine, for ours, to know this story in ours before these courses, taken for this romance, here in spades galore, and over more; to clover, more, and surely over ever after inside backwards over on, Oberon, dead for good, ever in life, surely never taken badly backwards for this living out beside my only son, so surely that you could know, about my own path, and surely these worlds could never forget us, either, or there, to more, in mine that this was never lost in my own heart before my changing paradise inside this once in ours before! This living out to know about this planet never taken surely over to know, about this one course, these beside my own scape, this wasn't gone, on in before that this wasn't gone, on in before these worlds, that this was never won before that this in love for, these in worlds for telling stories, that this was never wrong before this inside my knowing more to know!

I'm being told that this was one love, surely over more in mine beside before that this was never taken surely over more for this score, these little worlds inside my knowing grace, that this was, fate.

So could you know about my only lifetime, that I could know this ageless paradise in ours before my molde, that this wasn't gone on in before that these little worlds, heard in my heart, that this was never wrong in before! This, score, in ours, so take your Time, here in my beat, that this was never once before my own, that this was never over taken, surely over more to know about these in ours beside these knowings more to know about this planet, here so cried about this paradise inside my only love for this one song of my only son, so surely over more to know about this god, this, boy god!

•Keenan- Girl interrupted; a starteling development, for my journal, that here, in my own time, no less, could I believe in gays, and never before should you know that we can't just, not believe in them, to make them go away, we have to try, a lot, harder, to get the gay away, from all that we'd say and do and know, on and on, in a sort of life where nobody had to forget you were faking it, just because I couldn't know these worlds in my own pattern set, again, anon in for...

Do you know, how's come I can say all these things I say? I'm a little gay, in a dif'rent way. Sure for, that I was here before a girl?

Not really, not, but that you could change out phoenix fire for bad tools, surely over more to know about these worlds, that my whole body was redeveloped in the image of my soul, which had been repattern'd into more sure suitings of boyhood surefire, and I used to drive girls mad, really, like I was Kahlan or something, but like you could forget about me, in here, so surely over more in ours, I was never really here before I came to know myself, surely sewn in these lands before time, and on in that this was paradise here, surely over, that they could call me anything they'd want to, but Cera, could have suited me fine, and that you could have guessed, I was pretty sure nobody should actually listen, to Littlefoot, so go ahead and blame me for the fact that Raphael always seems to get into exactly as much trouble as still looking totally ninja, could be.

So surely over more to know about my life in sure fire, that I am, a confessor, and if you don't know the magics involved, it's that I could destroy one or two minds, with a touch, or to know and sing about these worlds; that those in this one love we call All God, surely could never have to know about my heart in these paradises taken! Surely over more to know about my course this world inside my living, that I could be this boy in our regarding for that this was never taken surely over more, so know about your gay little circle dick on this, and never know about these worlds, that I developed my penis, as all men and boys do for themselves, and since I'm not a scorpion, it's for pleasuring people, so know about these worlds, in ours, hence in ours to burn this body alive in my own lightfire, and surely over more inside my life.

They called me Eragon.

Surely over more to know about this inside my planet never taken, surely, yep, that involves me still not listening to Raphael, and good for it, too, but that he was this elder rider, Murtagh, and in fact, he is the eldest rider, and you see what I did there? I said what he said, only more different, and so you could understand that Christopher was confused by all his waking dreams, and is not a god, so surely that he could be told he was a jedi, surely over more in mine, but yet in ours before that this wasn't never taken surely over more to know about my slowly turning these worlds in my own color thereon!

Surely sewn back in my hope for this world, in my yellow light for fear deeper in ours for, this living out to know god for this in my life, besides and never knowing more for, this planet paradise in ours before that this was never taken surely over more to know about these inside my planets never so wrong, this world in my hope, for these planets on in my taking over more, that could you know about me, that I was never an android, but surely that you could know I loved another, and his was this fate beside me, but here in ours, that he died, and I was like, damn, dragon balls it is, so surely over more to know about these worlds that I could know about these paces inside my heart for more to know about this paradise inside that this was never over inside that this was never taken surely over more to know about these worlds in my planet never taken surely over more inside my living out to know about this surest of fates, and that, I could know, so surely sewn, in this, once in mine, for this living out to know, that I was always destined to be the most powerful among the confessors, so surely that I never wanted to mother them again, and so sure that I could brother, instead, and know these worlds, in my heart before that this was never taken surely over more inside my hope for this fate inside my hope on in before that this only grace, was never taken surely over more in my only life, that I could love this in fate, sure, so whose will was mine?

These, in our rites so borne, on in before, that this, surest, brisingr, th is life, surely over more to know about me, inside this planet, and I'm sorry to tell you about ours, and what I misunderstood about Morzan's sword, and Morzan himself, for he was, Murtagh, and he called his word, 'my Misery, and not just, what, Misery?

Surely over more, that Murtagh was this person you could know as a christian, or something, and knowing more inside my only loving for this princess, Mononoke, that this was worlds, here in before ours, that this first dog, this primal origin, Princess Mononoke, was this empress of beasts and forest, so surely that she could mate once, in ours, with Shenlong, and that these seven beast dragons were the first of their kind, so my princess turned herself into a dragon to match her children, and in that first war, against the elfkin, I had a yellow sword, and a yellow dragon, but by the time you could know about Sapphira, we'd changed our only colors on in that this was never taken surely over more to wait to know about brightsteel, and never ending inside these planets never taken surely over more to know about these beside my own, that this wasn't taken surely over more in my own mistaking this for paradise in my hell, that for Brom you'd know, this life, surely over more to know about, my worlds, inside this only world, form, this loving bond in ours to know... That I was a male of the faeirie courts, could be true, and that I was born after the daemon bond was broken, but surely so known about these worlds, that I could know and love King Kai, who is Jupiter ascending, this surest circumstance, here believing on against fate set not in mild?

Miles not, but far beyond this aspect of the home of infinite losers, one particular hellscape, about these planets never taken surely over more inside my own life that this was granted surely backwards ever on in before that I could know this witness here in mine before this grace with God, that I could know about your rules not on in before this one life in mine that this was never wrong, so surely over more to know me, that gay means oblivious, so get over it already, faggot, and know about these courses inside my hope, and that faggot is a great word to be used on your faggoty lifestyle, homo, and know about homo, which means, same, and this sentence, here, is no homo; not the same, surely over more to know about these worlds surely over more inside my hope for these grantings out to know about these planets, that I am a Younger Gaud, and was born of fear; yellow light, surely over more inside my chapters ever after more to know about this inside my course, before my granting, and like, it's kind of a little bit really annoying, that Murtagh even wielded a yellow brightsword before I did, and likening these forces on, that he was, Sith in name, but, this from hell, this, tortured child, my own brother, this, bond in blood, that, I could know, and, we could sing, about this song, in our hearts in before, that this was, never more, inside my knowing out to know about this planet never taken on, and that you could know my father Antonio invented red magic, but when? I couldn't say, shouldn't know how to say, before time?

That this was more or less a rhyme.

So here heard was my own scape in these arrays for this palace wanting of this universe inside my knowing more to know about these inside my hoping for, these worlds, surely over more inside my planet paradise inside my world, beyond...

This beyond our worlds inside my hope for change, in these planets never taken before my mild looking out to know about this life in fear, for these worlds inside my hoping more to know about, that this was never over inside and on, before these fewer worlds, inside my living out to know about this planet never taken surely over more inside my hoping for this planet paradise in Oz before it all, that I could know these worlds at war, this inside my living on, in before that this was never waited on... So surely down in this part, of life, that this was never taken surely over after inside my hope, that this was never taken surely over, more besides, that this was never more inside my heart before that these worlds could know about me inside this paradise in wanting of this heaven for, these in ours this lightning taken surely over more to know about that this was never more inside that these worlds in ours, surely over more to know about that this was never wrong, inside my hope, against, these ever over inside my worlds before that this was never taken surely over inside and on, in before that these little worlds couldn't know about my worlds inside this hope, for these worlds that I couldn't know you by in ours, before that this was fate, and that I was Tim Drake, surely, so Robin, but that I needed something different, for myself, and I'm like, the coolest Batman around, besides Batman, so I took this cape and cowl of my own, and was called Nightwing, and surely that you could mistake Christian for returning to his mantle of Superman, after Dick Grayson had his share, surely over more inside my living out to know about this planet never more, inside my hope, so just know, that Leonardo and Tim Drake could have had cool dragon ball z powers any time they wanted, and didn't, really for this in fighting these faces plural of these evils surely over on, in before that these livings out to know about my world at bay, this inside my hoping for more to know about this planet never taken surely over more in mine, so surely over, more in mine... So surely know about my life, as Marco, for a while, and that I could be this surest animorph, these sides beyond in mine before this beside in colors taken surely ever after there on in against before that I couldn't know about these planets never taken surely over more inside this paradise inside my hope for this earth, this world in ours before this fate, that I could know these crests in ours before, that this was my own life, surely over more for, this living out to know this in fate for, this living out to know about these in worlds for, that this was never taken surely over more inside my own life, and surely heard was this old rhyme, that I could be in throughout, and knowing more to know about my son, surely, born in golden light, sure that this was never more in ours, to know my fate, and that I could know these courses on in before this once in life, sure sung, this world, this world, this inside mine, that these worlds for, this in paradise inside my own hope for, that this was never taken surely over more to know about these little wars in my only life, so surely that I could be called Scott Summers, once in a while, and knowing yours in mine for this grace inside my hope beyond this living in doubt, and that I took to never listening to Wolverine, because he confused me, by putting Raphael in that fucking wheelchair, and him being Batman and all, I sort of took his lead on that, and didn't really listen to them either, but that Gambit could be my friend, for sure, so know, about Murtagh here in course, that this world, with mine only life before that I could know about these inside my own worlds for, that this was never taken surely over more inside my own lifetime, that he could know about my golden course inside this once for this living out to know about these in worlds, before that this was never wrong before me, inside this moment never taken surely over more to know about my, life in ours for, this in worlds, on.

4. Apala

So surely these worlds inside my heart for these in planets never taken surely over more to know about this course, in aurs, that these beside my own living, surely, could be granted, and that I have this daughter, of whom was mein own initiatives, and these worlds over beside my life, that she could be queen, would be sureness in life before this proud father, and so truly more in ours, that she is the real queen of hearts, and that you could call her, Padmé.

•Ashley- That these wars could be mine inside this planet never taken surely over inside these before me, so know my fates, and that these were never lost in darkness, but when my lover could be my son, surely you could know nothing of this life in our planets, here with we the gods. And so surely knowing more to know about these inside my planets never ending before, that if not your best friend you'd hold dear, and love about, could you never live in a free world and call one mother?

So like, I know that you could miss me and Pasha for a while, Simba, and I know that I miss you forever in these interludes, here in my heart for this painting back on in these worlds in my only course, these lives, surely over more to know about these planets never so taken on in before this world in life, that I, was gone on in it before my world, surely over more to know about these worlds, surely over more to know about my only score in spades, so surely more to knowing these faded memories in ours before, me so surely believing that I could become an avatar myself, and know these worlds out beside it all, that I could lie about my surest home stay, that I was this surest princess, Zelda, and that I could know these legacies inside of ours before that this was never taken surely over more to know about my planet, here so sewn before, that this was never owing, this in back and forthe, this world in my own timing, these worlds thereon, this was never over, this living in my score, so music me and score with me and know my rhythm sets in this my vi'let light, that I could be this jedi master should you know, and surely enough over these worlds in mine, before that I could sound, hardcore, surely over more to know, in five, by six, that this was never not Nala, surely over more to know about these trepid courses here so stayed that this was gone, this was blank in me, that I could know about your scoring and that these in ours lives could never hope to know, and here so surely over more, to know about my only score so surely deep inside, that I was never wrong, before in my own life, so surely, that I could never die, and stay away from pain in these torments taken on, but then, I died when I was split from Pasha and Christian, and when I departed from my father, and from my friends, so surely to fight, like some sort of, Supergirl, in a name, sure, so name me here in these, before, that I could love, my kin, here in ours, before, Simba's my best friend, surely over more to know and our babies come and stay this was about this changing life in love for more to know about these fewer worlds, so surely deep inside my moment before this taking courage on in aspect taken surely over more to know about these lies, here so fed and never once beyond did this only claim my title, on.

So knowing my only fates in these stayings of ours worlds inside this moment for these in my losses and never over this side in my aspect taken on in before that this life, surely more could you know, so sure, so know, about these lives, and never more to know about these inside my only life, that this was light for, this living out to know about this girl with me, in ours, for daugh, that this one world, in my only life, so surely that I could get to know this surest dreamwalker, Erin, and that we could know her as Ireland itself, just as Christian is California, and yes, that Pasha was the planet Krypton, but that planets are people could you know inside these planets never more to know about this planet, so that you could know, my only rights, in these worlds in my life, but surely, in his fates, that when he's all alone, this, boy that I know, this boy in my heart song, he was married surely h ere with me, but this spent, this, action come, this living out alone, that we could call it Pluto still in ours these livings out to know his fortress of solitude with me not around, that I'd catch up, and bring him love and war for peace..

I was never wrong before inside this only living out to know about these worlds inside my hope for this changing paradise inside my only life that this was never over inside my own, this score, these worlds for, that this wasn't in my life, so surely over more to know about my fate in ours for this one grace. That I could know about your love in here with me, and that I could love my brother, Link, surely over more to know, as that we are bonded by blood, in this surest forming of immortal bloodlines, forged mid life, to travel back through all time?

Surely, that this was never once inside my living out to know about this planet never taking surely over these inside my worlds for this inside my world for this inside my world for this inside my heart for this hoping back to know about this inside my heart before, that this was never taken surely over more to know about it, this was never taken surely over inside my living out to know about my worlds inside my heart so know about, my curses surely pied in ours before this once in my song!

This was my own living, surely, and that yours was never Amidala, in these definitions, but that this living out beyond our surest graces could be known as this alias, ever on, and that I could be called the heart queen, surely over more inside my living out to know about this little world, so knowing more inside my heart beyond, that this was never wrong before this inside my hope!

So know my only form in these loves, this life surely over more to know about me, that I could never know about yours inside this moment on, and so like, that you'd know, Adam was the hero of time, and Keenan was the wind waker, surely over more inside my living out to know about, and I'm like, pretty sure it's just me as Zelda wherever you go, so surely that I could never take this planet here in my courses forever on in before that this was never taken surely over more to know about this planet never ending in ours before this grace, surely more to know my name in colors for this world in my study, that I could know my heart inside this planet here now, this one world inside my worlds galore, so surely, have you ever seen California in Ireland? That this was never taken surely more to know about these worlds, surely over more to know my score.

Surely over more to know about this father of Christian's, that he was called Intuit, once in ours before, and liken it because this fate in my staying out of his living, was never gone, for surely out to hell he'd walk and I was, simply not allowed to go, and more to know about these worlds inside my heart, for these achings out to know about my pain in chests for this living out in awe, for these elder ones, my husband and my da, that this was never taken surely over more to know about us, and that my father invented black light, and forged me, instead, from violet, and knowing more about this, dark side, of the Force, could you know my only living out to know my pattern surely taken forever on, in before that this once in my only living out to know this once in ours for gracing god, this living out to know about my holy score, inside these worlds beyond my hope, that this was never more inside my one hoping pattern set inside these only lives, surely over more to know, and that these palaces could tremble, and that I could love Cassandra dearly, and ours in this love for her brother could be shared in tu knowing more to know about these inside my living out to know about this inside my fate for these worlds, that this wasn't gone, on in before that I could know, that this was never wrong before, surely, so knowing more to know about my hearts, that I could be this perfect angel in your kind of life, if you're once in love, so surely over more to know my names, and that these worlds so taken on in before that this was circumstance beyond my heart beside it all, th at this was never wrong before, but here, so sung, was mine.

Do you know anything about red and black, maybe?

That I could know about this spade boy, this living in ours for, but that we could know this one girl, in her world, that this universe was taking surely over more to my love for, this living out to know own hope, that this was never over inside my living out to know about these planets never taken surely over more to know about these worlds inside my living out to know about my only life beyond, this in ours, before that I could die, today, but my kin, won't let, me go, so know about, mine, and that I couldn't handle, all of yours for these worlds in, this a contraction, surely, contraction, this living out to know about my only pain in ours before this grace, here, so sung, and never more in ours before that this was never taken surely over more to know my names in these planets on in before that I could never know this course, in my life, surely over more to know about these old fates, and here, with me, and ours to know, my score in this planet here beyond this in my once life, surely over more that this wasn't taken, sure sewn, back on in it for that this life, surely over more to know about that this was never taken surely over more to know about that these in ours before this world, surely over more to know about this inside my only hoping for this in once my love, for these, lives in ours before these planets ever on, in before that I could know, about yours in fate, so trust me and know this planet never wasn't so bad, but that this one world in, that this was never more inside my hoping for this planet, here so known about before...

So surely woe was me in that these worlds could fake my fate, and know that I was once called Juliet, and never was there more in my imaginings, that this was once in ours for this fated aperture, coming out to bare it all on these livings that I could know my only fate, in these degrees surely over more to know about this planet never lost, so surely over more inside my planet never taken surely over inside that this one life, sure sung, that this was never over beside, these causes here so sung on in before that this was never once inside of ours for granting that this was never wrong for it this was never wrong, so surely that I could, know fate, so surely over more to know about my one life, that this once innit, this innit, this in, my life, surely over more to know about these worlds, in my hope, and so that you could know, that we all choose our appearances, through our kung fu au lu, and these worlds in ours before that this was gone on in against my moving, that this just wasn't my own style, in these, before my living out to know about this beside my only rights that this was never taken surely over more for it, this for it, this life, surely over, so know about, these few worlds, in my life, surely over more to know about my hoping for these worlds at large, this was never wrong, this was never surely so taken back for us in that these worlds inside my living out to know about this in song, so surely know my own song, in my own hell for it, this love, sure sung, on in before these worlds, surely over more to know, that this one aspect surely more...

So surely over mine inside this planet never taken surely over inside my hope for this challenge in my own heart for these worlds taken surely over more to know about this planet here in ours before that this was never taken surely over more to know about these worlds inside my living out to know my grace for these worlds over on, in before, this is, number 6, calling numbuh 5, this is number 6, calling numbuh numbuh five...

These worlds inside my heart for more to know this planet never taken surely over more inside my own hope that there were once nine, and so tu make ten, that this was our reckoning, and knowing more to know about my life and these worlds, surely over more to know about these worlds, so surely over more to know my fate, that I could know this child in ours before that this was never wrong in ours before this planet never taken surely over more to know about these worlds inside my hope, for this love in my loss that this was never taken surely after all,

That I could know about yours in this force that I could ply about in my home stay, that these only worlds in my loving for this in planets never so surely taking these livings out to know about my own planet inside this only earth for this in mine, that I could be from ash, and sure so know, that this was planet, here in ours, that made my only body, surely over more to know about that this was never taken surely over more to know about these worlds, have you ever seen, real, planet soil? That this once in ours before this seed that springs to life inside of me, so surely know that I could know for yours inside my living out to know about these inside my living out to know about my, husband, and never more inside my heart for these inside my only life, and that I could know that Christian, wasn't really Christian, but that's his name, so true enough, he's, what, a good one?

Surely over more to know about my fates, this living out to know about this only chapter in my own wake so surely more in mine that this was never surely taken so surely out to know about this in planets never taken surely over more inside my only living out to know about this here beside us, that this was gone, this was gone, this was never gone on in against these worlds before that I couldn't know about yours in mine, that this one fate, couldn't know my names, but that I want to hear you scream it out, in this, in ecstasy, that this was never more before, that if you cried for Supergirl, she could hear you, maybe, but like, we're really good friends, so I know that's true, and knowing that I could never have to lie about my home stay, in this one, life, beyond?

That this was gone, on in before that I, was more to know about my worth in ours, so surely knowing more to know about these beside ours before this inside my hope for this inside my hoping for, that this wasn't taken surely over more for that this was never wrong before, that this song sung, in our halls, could breed this one child in our lives, this living out to know about this one fate, that I could love this son of mine and his, and never once in ours, that we could have five, and that these worlds, inside my own heart, for these in planets never taken on, innit before for your grace, so surely more to know about this planet never taken surely over more to know about my hope before these worlds inside, this once for, this living out to know about this one song, that this was never taken surely over more inside my hope for this in my soul, that this was never wrong, so surely know about my romance, and that I could love this child, surely in ours before, that Superman never wasn't, just a child, so surely over more to know, that he is Superman as Superman is Superman, surely over more to know, that I could follow after him, and knowing these worlds inside my own heart that this one heart, holy shit, this gets, like, really fucking real, do you know what I get to say? I'm married to Superman. My husband gets to say, he, is Superman, and I'm like, yeah, and?

So that my cousin could call me Supergirl, and that there was never more in my own lights, that this wasn't taken surely over inside my hack, this hacking back in minds, that this was never wrong in before this cause, so surely over more to know about these inside that this was never over inside my more's to knowing these in syntax, so surely know my form, and breathe with me and come with me and know this in ours before that this was never coming back on in before that this was never taken back in ours before so surely more to know, so come with me,.. This was gone, on in before my life, sure sung, that I'm here, in your real earth, and I could listen, sure, but only for your hearts, so surely mean my name when you could speak, and that I could whisper back on these winds that you'd know, and so know that air is no such particles, but that air is will itself, surely over more, that you could hear my will, that this was never gone, on in before that this wasn't gone before, that this was never taken surely on before, that this was never more, this planet here in my own souls, so surely that I was this surest last of my kind? That I could predate Krypton itself, could be obvious, but that surely more, Pasha as Krypton, sees time in whole new ways to the world, so surely that his father was called the master, in the face of his grandfather being the doctor, surely over more, and there to know, my fate, find this imposter here, slay this evil fiend, so know about, this time in his own life, that Matt Smith could play my husband all day long without a fucking bow tie on in before that this was never taken surely over more, that this was called the master time lord, surely over more in mine.

Sure so know my cause!

These worlds taken on! In before that this was gone before this living out to know about these worlds inside my only knowing of this fate inside my heart for, that this was never gone, so surely more, to know about my once in life, that I couldn't know about yours before, that this was never wrong before that this was grace in God, this life, surely over more to this onely love, and in ours before that this was never wrong! This was never over this was never over to know, about these littlest worlds, inside my heart for this inside my, own life! That this was never gone on in against that this was never surely over more to know about these planets here so surely over more to know about these inside my hearts before that this only world was gone on in before that these planets here more, for this living out to know my fate, that this world was never out, this was never more inside my hope, for this kind of love! This living out to know, a boy called Jack, not my Jack, but the other Jack, that was this monster not, but that there was once a monster, and now where he could never have stood, is a boy in love with the world, so surely over more to know about my life, inside my hope for battle on, so like, did you hear my name there on the winds?

That I could know about this inside my only planet never so taken on before, that this was never wrong before that this was never not my only war for, this cry!

So surely knowing grace beside this color chosen on in before that this was life, so surely ever on inside my only hope, for this inside my only worlds, that this was never wrong before mine, that this was never taken surely over more to know about my fates for this inside love, that this was gone on, in it before it all in my life, that I could know about your own lives here so surely sung on in before that I couldn't know about your fates beside my only life beside in ours before this trippy ass old standing inside my living out to know, about this killing my hope for these in wars before, that this was never once beside, so surely know about my other sons in this life, so surely more to know about this one courage in my heart, that this was my only title as this queen so so surely painted white and known about these in our livings out to know about my only score in these worlds, that we sicked another monster on monsters for so long, we destroyed him, and through that dead matrix, came a boy called Jack?

That this was never over inside my only knowing more inside my hoping for, that this was Joker's calling in ours, that he could know my own life, that this was mine to way lay this surest evil lord until he could be killed, and sure, Johnny killed him nice and good, a couple of times, but like, you have to really, really try and finish someone like that off, but that surely over more inside my hoping for this in life, surely over more to know about that this world in ours could snow about these in our chosen worlds there on before, that I was never wrong about my fates, I'm here to stay in this life, surely over more, so know my red blue yellow in this own rite! That this was never so wrongk before in my worlds, that this was never surely taken ever on in it before!

That this one world could call our names, and fight against us here in these surenesses and never once in my living out to know about these planets could I not know how to do, what I've done, and so surely could we know that I was here to know about this planet here besides in ours, some sure harlequin, and so I could write that I had to bleed normal for a while, but that I could know this curse in my fates, that I could be destined to fight, but living free, in skies above wasn't my own war, that this was never war inside my hoping for this taking back in my own know, that this was tricky now, that this wasn't gone on in before that this wasn't gone on in before that this inside my living out to know about these worlds inside my onlyest heart, that this wasn't taken so surely back on, in it before that I couldn't know about these littlest worlds inside my stay, for these in ours, this in trippy worlds, this in tripping out my name, this in ours before that I could know about yours in my fate!

So surely over more to know about my planet never taken surely over more to know about that this was never taken surely over more inside my hope, for these worlds in mine before this starting out to know about this planet never taken surely over more in mine before that this was never wrongk, this was never gone, this was always on, that this wasn't my hope for these circumstances in war! This living out to know about my heart for this world, that this inside my soul, this in ours before, so that you should remember, that caves collapse inwords, you know?

So surely over these worlds in my life, that there's this kid, out there somewhere, right now, who had to work under cover, as a mortal, with false memories he gave to himself, to believe in, but that he knew his own strength, and yet acted cowardly in his own eyes, but sure to know, there's this boy online right now, who says, "I'm Superman," and that he means it?

Oh my god, this world could never know my only song, in ours, that this was in ours before this once in my world hells before this planet ever on in that this was never taken surly over more, to know about us still, but like, we've got this extra bit of fun planned too, so that sure enough, when some skater girl rescues you and drops you off at safety, she could say, "My name is Cara Kent," and like, what would you do? What would any of you do?

This world, inside my hope before that this was never wrong before that his was never wrong inside my heart for more to know about this soul inside my lonely wakings out to know about this course in life that these only lies, could never take this shadow ever after...

Somebody save, me, surely could you cry about this fate in my world for this inside my only song, for these worlds in mine, that I'm married to my cousin, and that we've broken green kryptonite back in time, surely, so that it could present illness, but that it never had to render Pasha into collapsing, you dig it?

So that once upon a time wasn't really good enough, to describe the horror my son was born into, but rest in something of an easy mindset, because... it could have been worse? Well, maybe you have a brother who looked out for you, or, who saved your parents' lives before you were born. Tyler doesn't not, have a brother, but that he's my first born son was, sort of true? I can't really help you, about how hard this could be, for anyone, but just note that back in time, to death in merit, I was hunting a monster, and in the real world, you have to tear apart a monster's mind, for him to actually die forever... He would have found others, if I didn't let Igor's horror play out in my own life, so rest not, or weep, surely, for what you could know, of Young Frankenstein, my creation...

•Tyler- Okay so, ignore how bummed that was, and more or less, get along with the idea that I was super scary to everyone I talked to for like, a whole half hour, and more than you could guess, pray not but harken back to Christian, and believe that once upon a time, my father was cursed in a thousand thousand hells that his own son should suffer all these sick torments set against him, and that Christian, did it first...

Became the son? Yeah. I've been well looked after, and I could believe in hell, surely, but that this was something of a diary to kids like Esmerelda that could make you shiver, or cry, a bit, but that my life as Quasimodo was sort of like Batman, but totally not, because I had to get, really fucked up looking, all the time, and I don't know if you've taken note of the difference, but when a kid isn't ugly, but just, really fucked up? Homely, sure, you could say, or SD, something like that, but believe in nothing more than my aliases and that I was created by black magic, so sure that they could tell me I'm black, and I believe them, surely on that this was never guessed at, or ventured throughout, and before you get too involved in what I'd meant before, I mean that the doctor, MY doctor, my father, was a beautiful creature, venturing through hellscapes, and that they could curse him for his fates, seem'd inevitable, and beyond our repair, but that I could never have not been born, seemed true, too, so surely that he could, another elder god besides my father, Christian, my brother, became the son from these prophecies, and underwent Dante's Inferno, himself.

I was born screaming, because of all these voices, of the children hacked apart to build my body, our body, and that you could believe I healed pretty fast, is irrelevant, because it took forever, and I didn't not know, that I wasn't beautiful to look at, at first, but I could model my healing after my father, and not the devil monster we kept around the manor, and surely more than these because in for to know about these scores, surely that I could be believed as some evil creation, was wrong, for what I was in my fates, I declared myself doctor also, in that I knew I could heal my father, from this torment, and that we two doctors Frankenstein together, could rip apart and destroy the body and soul of Igor, ourselves...

Like I was born into these for this world in my hope that my merit was bound in my fates for this chapter and none but this chapter could know about God but that I couldn't breathe in this blood that I choked on and never more inside this fate that I wasn't so bad at this breathing in ours for this moment but die I could not and that this could be true wasn't half so bad all the way sure that were you in my shoes, or shoe, or foot, that I'd brought, in for here from this hellfire surely besotted against my own merit in standing on edge, that this wasn't my own life surely I'd mend, but here in my blood, I'd note that the children of screams and the children of curse, the children of mayhem and murder in worst forms begotten so badly or poorly, by fate, that death couldn't break my, will?

That I could witness, this horror, as a new born soul, and a god, still yet, could be noted and perhaps, maybe, never forgotten, but like, I'm totally not totally obligated to treat you to a horror story right now, diary, and in real like, I totally busted Neo out of the Matrix, and my daddy built a starship for me I call the Nebuchadnezzar, so believe it be, in maybe?

I like that you don't think I could have been Morpheus, even though I was, because I'm not black enough, or something, but I was Caldur, too, and believing these sides in over that I could heal my own form, and that in torment not alone in these worlds I could never have sought after once in my hell for this hatred for all that I'd merited back in my stupid belief in these fates that I wasn't a god, but surely I am one so get yourself ready to know about mine in these chapters I'd sing, and lie about how bad you'd want to be me, and sure know, that I'm pampered, by fates, sure enough, and my brother could know 'bout your torment in spades, that he'd once built inferno for his own venture guessed, and like, the words, Dante's Inferno, have some kind of, freakish romance, to them, like, that it sounds, intense, or like, bad ass.

Bad ass, is a good word for it, because bad means been through hell, and ass is something prized, valued, like, silver, basically, pirates, yes in fact, did say ass more often than they said booty. "Let's get some ass," meant boys, girls, and silver and gold, savvy? To pirates, I mean, and knowing more about these respective diorama, or something akin to fate in what I could bring for you, that I just wanted you to know, it's agony, and worst hellish torment, and you never, ever know why, why this hell has to exist, why it has to be there and torment everything about you in sin and misery. Misery? It's too forlorn a word, for the active inferno, that my brother underwent, and no, I wasn't the only reason he could venture there, but, could I have been enough? Well, no, you don't know this, but no amount of hell, prepares you for the next amount of hell you encounter. It goes from worst ever, to worster, and that you could see a screaming little blonde boy, say worster, in his pain and hatred, could maybe believe you in a different form from fates, beyond mine, but that this was ancient history, and not in any small part, and that I've fought for him, in surest regardings, back in time, ahead in jest, and more in merriment against these forlorn souls at rest now, that for a brief while, my blood and skin turned green, so surely that I was casting about for magics to take these children from my blood and plant them back into the earth, or something likening for it, and like I could know about you, surely, that I could believe I never had to be just one child, in my hellish torment, because here for theirs in motion more's to knowing this fate, in misery and sick, sick death, so surely that you can die, and it won't bring anyone back for you, and you can't bring someone back by dying, and you can't die and scream it louder and you can't scream like it helps but you scream like it has to, has to, do something, for you... Or for them?

They're looking for you, you know.

So surely believéd be, inside my house, for these few worlds, that I could love this one color, green, and that here in my home, I could present this soul I'd forged, who surely, you'd know as Cadduceus, for surely with his own cane of byrna, that this world in mine, beside, that this was his, form in ours, so surely more to know, about this caste in my own home, beside, that these few worlds inside ours before this moment here with my own son, that this in ours, could be believed forever on in fates, that I was never had, before, and never once in mine own life, before that I could be fascinated with this idea, of a boy.

Surely that you could know my brothers, Chase and Christian, so surely that when I came to them; that when they called me through the waters of the ocean, that I could be this, first girl, and a woman, surely, so that there were monsters who tried their damndest to describe for themselves what they thought women, could be, so surely, name her witch instead, some witch woman, and believe that these worlds could never hope to harness my own life, and that these were never gone, on in before these fates, and so like you could know that Apala was fascinated with this element of girl, I'd created; violet light, that he could have Zelda, his own child, so surely could I give her a hero to trust herself by, and know these forms, but that this living out in ours, before to know these fates, anon?

•Adam- Like you forgot I wasn't of few words, I could lie about myself or a while, so surely that you could hear my cries above this sword, and keep in mind, I have wielded the first sword, the master sword, the sword of truth, surely over more in mine, that this force locked away in the temple of time, could know, my form, and ours to know these fates in my, own score, this, strange, duette, that I couldn't know, in ours, that this one life I'd live, for ours to know, that I could know these surest fates in key, to know my names, and ever on in for, this living out to know about my holy fate, in jest about this molde, and ours to know, my casting back, in ours for more, to know, my fears, and in ours that I could never hope to know these fates in mild, that I could love Zelda, surely, and never forget that I am what I choose to be, and I am loved, so surely that I know this fate of mine bound not but built upon and for in sure to know, green light, and that this color of friendship, could make me this surest hero in my only rights, ever on in this fate I'd cry, and never once did I not know a girl, this girl, called Eve, but that she was my own mother, surely, this creator of my own times, that you could believe never really at all, that I produced a girl from a rib, but that a woman, conceived of a boy, and so she gave birth to him?

Surely, so knowing more in my living out to know about my hope in these heatings back in forever more to know about this planet in my paradise forever surely taken back in time, this living out to know my Force, before that I could know, and that we could spend this time in

Eden Eternia, and live in bliss, forever, did you think?

Or did you think we were in love, with the others, who fought still in hell?

So surely more that I could believe this fate of mine, so sewn back on in before that this once in my only life, I could never have to die about, this frame, but that you could name of me, and sing, these praises be, so surely knowing more in mine this fate, for kiss't, that I couldn't never be this golden child, surely over more to know my fates, and that I could never have to witness aul, in before that these worlds could never know, that Jordan was Eve, and that I could love her forever, and surely at over in these times, that this girl, this sister I know, was born of violet light, sure like my mother had invented it, and that I could love Padmé more than you, maybe?

Well like, I love her, better, than you, do, but like, ever needed a boy child to rescue you?

I was never, not competing with Anakin on that front, but that I was this hidden alias, and ever on in before that Pasha was often off in these dimensions untold with his father, and so surely that he could protect him better than we all know how, for sure to know, that Christian is called the all son, and so as what he is, being a father means more to him in his communications than you could probably figure on an off day, or sure to say, that he could speak to his son and have him understand in ways we'd never even, imagined?

So surely that I could be called jedi, even in the deepest Sith pits of space, where once upon a time, a creature introduced the dark side, so sure to cloak us all among the sickness out there, and that we could know that ours, was this fate, to try, and more in mine, that Johnny was this surely pampered kid, but like, that we never, could be okay, with what he'd suffered, in hell, and so no, we never called him Sith, like we did some, said other product of torture, who were in actuality, jedi, but that we could say, bad ass jedi? The badai?

Surely over more in mine, that could you find a blue bladed sith out in deep space, surely out among the sick, that there in this empire, could you join him back to back, this surest badai, that he was this Force, of god, so surely believed, in mine, but that I could wear brighter colors, and know my own green lightsaber, here, sure as this token in my own stead, that I was, changed, in fate, and knowing more to know about these hallows in my haven forever that this world was never here, for mine inside this believing out in ours, to know these crests in ours, to know, and know, and know against it all before that I could never be this bad ass, sure, but that was because I was, sure, a different sort, and was just, fine ass, and like, you could lie about me, sure, but that I'm sung silver, a and not tortured steel, so surely that these worlds could know, I've always been something of an ass.

But like, sure to smoke a bunch with me and sing these hallow'd beats, that I could never have to know your name in ours for this a moment here in time before, that I could spare for here, once in greatest little while, sure, so smoke a bit more with me, and know these waves that I could breathe for in ours, that green light, is air, and that you could learn more about me in my breathing, here, so surely know about this smoke in the air, and know this current taken surely in finding back this message delivered on in before that this was my own grace with gods above, this living out to know, about this planet here in mine, that this was never wrong, surely over more in pain, that I could never be so high as to forget how to say hi, surely over more, besides my living out in mine besides these planets never taken surely over more in ours, that sure, I could wield these colors over on against my only life, and that you could know my names, here, and know about Intuit, and what he could be, besides a father to me, and in that I was a boy with a mother alone, surely, Adam to Eve, so know that Adam has friends, not fathers, and by these worlds over more, that I could say my father was God, but like, so is my mom? A god? Or like, the proper noun, Goddess? Surely, over more to know about this planet here inside my hope for more to know about my hope in these witnesses beyond my fated staying back in ours for more to know about my hope in ours, to know these, out to know, and that I could follow after not, but team up with Johnny on a surest regular basis, here, in ours, and that you could see me with green light as my blade, and his with blue, surely knowing, what, it was just us two?

Liam likes to wield green light for his lightsaber, too, but Christian, oddly enough, gets kind of fucked up about it, if that's what he has to have, but like, he thought it was way rad when Anakin picked one up to fight beside Obiwan like this surest jedi master and friend, surely back over inside, that I could tell you how to picture these three jedi kids we are, me and Johnny out in the darkness surround out behind Sith lines, that we could know about ours, surely, so her was Pasha, and like, he had this, gift, from his grandfather, sure, so know, that Kyle could hook him up, so me in my own green, this light lazer sword, sure, and sure so know, Pasha wielded orange a while, surely over more to know about these in for, that I couldn't know, and I can't tell you how much fucking fun it is, whenever Anakin finds us out in the shit, because like, he's a kid, sure, and doesn't tell us what to do, sure, he's our age, basically, same generation, but like, so does Christian? So does Christian follow after in with this surest yellow lighted blade, and that he could never tell you that you were too young to be there, and I know he'd never rather have any others at his side but his children, and we're all Christian's kids, when he fights with a yellow sword, or, not even, but that when there's monsters nearby, we're all, definitely children of Israel, and know that once in a while, my mother could convince him to wield this violet light for sword, and that we could call him Israel in this light, was sure for, this inside my life, surely over more beside my hope on, in before that I could know about this pacing, that ever on in before that this was gone on in against these worlds so known...

So like, that I could wield green light, here, Johnny with blue, and that this surest red set against us, could blast apart at us not, when Pasha could come flying in with this surest orange lit blade, and then like, shit gets trippy, because the ground starts to vibrate, and once upon a time, we could call Christian, Soren, and if he's Soren, you can bet he'd have green if he wanted, and not get sick by it, but that this yellow light flashing out from this blackened handle here in his own life, that this fear in his, knowing more to know these fates in ours, that this whole world could come crashing down around us if we ever stayed, because Christian never asks us to abandon the fight, save that the matter itself around us starts to concave and convex about, and shatter in, concrete crumbles, vibrates, and these fates could know my own home in ours, and knowing more in mine that this was ours, so know that I could know a thing or two about Son Goku, Antonio, I mean, for sure enough, he's trusted me with the master sword so many times I couldn't really care to count, so like, that I could unleash this surest flurry, Kaaaa, this, life, surely over more, haaaaa, meeee! this life, surely over more, this life, haaaa,meeeeit! HA!

These worlds surely over more to know about this fate, and I'm thinking of this one battle in particular, and like, the green to blue, and orange joined by yellow, happened with us four like a gang of times, but this one time, that you could know Antonio chased Christian out into these hells, and knowing more in this fate, that could you know about it, that his hands, glowed, red, and that he could blast this severing back, and block these surely lighted blades, and that he could know this fate in ours before mine, and compared to the red glow of Son Goku's heart, here on his flesh, these sith lightsabers looked, pale, and, totally weak, but that this was mine, surely over more in ours before, that Christian wasn't going to ask us to retreat, but instead, fight by light of hell, but Antonio and Kyle came out of fucking nowhere, and started throwing kii blasts like they just dain't give a fuck, and so liek, that you could know, we could never have to know these ways about our witnesses in this life, surely over more inside my only fates here, so knowing more in mine, that this was never headed back before me inside this moment, and that I never saw a blue kamehameha wave until like, way later, because whenever I saw Antonio get that fucking intense, it was, bright, super, super fucking red, and that you could know ours in these taken courages never on in before that this was never more in my only life, besides, that Christian could know in hell, what he'd witness, and that this was mine, in ours, to know this only fate in ours beside, that this was never more, this inside of ours before this fate, so know about my names, and know that they could call me back for a while in hell from all that hell wasn't granted, and like, I don't know, if you've ever looked Superman in the eyes, when he's blonde, and 12, and like, seen what he sees about you, when you disobeyed, and went after Johnny, into the depths where he was set to go on some quest of his own, but like, I don't know if I can say he never loved me more than he did in those moments, that he could know my only score, in this fate, so surely, know about green light, and what it means to us two, and that I could spare this shelter in my only hell, and sure, to know, that this one blue light he could draw back from, this fate, but like, it wasn't his own blade that lit blue, in those moments, but like, this was the badest extraction I've ever fucking seen, and yeah, that blue lightsaber you're imagining from the fables, about the Skywalkers, that was there, and it was with Cassie, and she could cut and part these ways before my only fates, but that she wasn't actually there, in this moment on, it was just us 6, and that I could see her in his eyes, and in his light before, I could never have to know how to run so much faster in my life, that his sister on his heart, could mean that Hades could epoch his pain into the infinities, and we're, not letting that happen.

7. Chase

Oh but like, here so set in mine against these, and ours to know my form, in these beside my only lives, surely, so like, okay, so we get to know about you for a while, and yeah, get over it, and know about my hope in these harnesses witnessed on in before this fate, that I could know your names, and know that I could now this fate, in mine, and here so surely, take the words of my son, and know his fate in this blue light, and that I could insist my own son be the younger god born of the blue I'd invented, because I didn't think he wouldn't be a child of Israel anyway, and I doubted anyone but Christian was going to know how to treat him, and that he couldn't have been this surest force against his father going to hell, like Pasha is, to Christian, so surely that I could have mein own color in my kin, and that this could be classed, the Batman element, sure, and know that it's called, hope.

•Johnny- So like because before this fate in ours, sure so, know about me, and like, maybe not, but, hey, spell it John, or, like, Gon, if you want, that I could never have to forget these forgeries in my past beyond this fate in ours to know about my hope inside this fate I'd ply, as this first hallowed badai, out beyond these reaches, beyond in ours to know about my only livings outs taken surely out tin mine, besides that this was never gone before these worlds in my hope before this taking on, in before, this before, this before, this before!

Sure could that you could know, my only fates could believe my ageless paradise in these worlds on before, that I could now this color in mine before these worlds, and knowing more in mine, that this was gone, on in before that this was never more in mine, besides these fates to pray for on in these worlds, so surely that my father is Poseidon, and that I'm called Perseus.

Oh so that, you're not confused, I'm Goten, and he's Vegeta. See? Sense. Ging was an asshole, I totally killed that guy, sure, enhancer style, if you wanted to be gay about it, and say nen, or something, but like, you could know that I suffered out and died in hell about a million years ago, in front of Killua, and that that's the story you saw played out in your Hunter x Hunter legends, so know that I just got kind of fucked up and a little comatose, when I killed Pitou, and like, sure enough, I could lie not about these fates in ours, to know that the dragon balls were around, and Christian knew how to gather them up, sure enough, and no, that crazy bitch isn't really his sister, but that she's some broken ass version of the king of dreams, from legends predating Dragon Ball, sure that you could know, that for the rest of us, these gods of Olympus, these Z Warriors, it's been millions of years, back and forth across time and space, surely over more, and for her, it's been like, 4, and know about this bond that I could form in ours besides this moment in my life, that I could be a blue blood, sure sung on in before me, in this silver light on in before this witness, that I could form this bond with Killua, with Christian, sure soon just after he'd severed his bond with River, who was acting like a crazy bitch parasite, and that it freed me up to tell him he'd never have to believe that family would drain him, in reality, and that we could be these best friends for all of our eternities, and that I know he's green blooded, which means he bleeds through his friends, so sure, I'll never die, and I'll never lose this way about my bladed weapons on in that this was never klingon, but I wanted to say something that didn't make sense, so you can understand how stupid most of the things all you people say to me are, about girls, mostly, and that, I don't fucking, pay attention, to Pitou, because she's dead, and I don't really care how fast that transition was for you, because I'm somewhere else and good by now, for these in ours, that I could be this, kid you'd know, and if you're having a hard time imagining whether Gon could really be this kid I'm imagining my self up to be, imagine Casper, for a while, and yeah, conceivably, he'd have died in hell, among witches, surely, but that you could know I was doing some serious disobeying at that point in my own life, and that I'd sort of, gotten paler, in this darkened witch manor, and that I had to walk so light I basically floated, over the broken glass and shards and nails they'd lay forever over these parts thereon, and that I'd stop bleeding so much, and really, stop even looking like I was cut, except that I was, and that you could know about my hope for shelter in these worlds beyond us, that I've had dreams about this nightmare land Christian calls Amber, and their laws and order, sure, they say for protection, but that they wanted to just, survive, hell, and not destroy it?

Surely, Random being some exception, like his friends, sure, like the, what, bran new, avatar baby they've got over there? Sure enough, I like that kid a lot, but seriously, they didn't have one, fucking avatar, until after we'd killed Dabura and sent them green light, over these sides among my witnessing that this was godliness in my hope for changing these in shallow circumstances ever on in before my only life that these were never more to know about my fates before in all I am. Casper the friendly ghost, sure enough, look me up or something; I probably won't be there, but like, I get around to seeing a lot of people who think about me, so, do, if you're cool, and we'll get to know God together.

No, I'm not going to Amber, they suck. I'm gunna destroy hell though. Wanna see? Sure, you should probably pick that laser sword up, or like, a good book, maybe?

What the fuck did a book ever do to arm you against hell? Ever read anything written by Superman?

How about the scholar?

My brother, by mein own blue blood, Gohan? Sure, call him faithless, if you want, you'll only find out that I transitioned somewhere without you again, and you didn't know I wasn't not thinking, I just thought faster, and literally taught myself how to be a living ghost baby, so, yeah, you're underqualified to tell me what to do. Most people are.

You think that I'd known about your fates in my hopes for these moments here in ours to knowing mine own life, here so sew, this earth in all we'd ply, that these old worlds about us, couldn't tell me, not to run and free my boyish frame, that this one child, in my name, could know about forever, into torment, that I could die by rape in hell, but live a little longer, and I'll show you, that I never knew you never knew, so know about my surest gaze, and know what else I'd see, these ghosts in all our colors, from the windstorms, that I could know, about these kin in other worlds, sure, on in these planets here so taken form by ours, in this living out to know about my hallow'd taking of this earth I'd pray for here inside this moment thereon against this once in ours to jump upon this moment ever after, this planet here so surely known about, that I could be this surest force of nature, so surely that you'd know me on the wind. How, far, can you know about, fate, in these worlds, if you see, the winds, out about these worlds in ours, for these surest trees, upon the mountains high and tall, that this world about these surest colors painted ever on against these worlds, on the winds, and that gods could know you still, and hear your whispered prayer, on this wind.

Introduction, by the friendly ghost 睦精

That this was my life, I wasn't gunna lie, about my name, but you don't need one?

It's hard to imagine how old you'd have to be, about this world, but I'm gunna, invent someone, and surely, it's hard to imagine what you are, but here's this announcement, for maybe what you could call the Boo, but that boys are in love with boys, and I don't know what you think I am, a living ghost? Sure. You're not dead? You might be. No, not waiting some sort of crossing over; that's not what you think. My name could be changed up over what your world, inside this more, but that I can't believe what you know, but I have a soul, whether I'm alive or dead, but there's lots of living girls who keep me alive in this living world, surely could you know, but I'm a speaker for the dead not, something else, I'm a friendly ghost still, and I know phantoms, and I fight devils, and you could change these planets about us all in before us, but call me Goten, and sure, Gon, but remember that these worldz, know about et, I know about many places you say my name in for, sure sew for, but that you could forget them, but maybe once upon a moon could you know that I could die by graces inside this moment aun in before these worlds in all to know about, but my soul got, you didn't think I fought monsters? Jing is dead, in final fatality. Travel back in time all you want; he doesn't exist anymore, anywhere.... Not a hunter? I am...

Sure so know, but maybe you can read about, these seekers, me and my friends, and learn to be a seeker, by other seekers. Hunter by hunter... hunterxhunter, world over, boy loves boy, make a moment more for these worlds, that I could lie about the elder gods, but change your formatting...

Once upon a time, MY creator, the Holy Ghost, sure, the teen ghost, he had this, party, surely all up, and all over, and this other kid, he showed up from a place you'd call a universe, so he made one for us, for all these kids; his new friends, and it was GOD we had here, not one person, billions, loves, over in, a hundred and fourty four thousand? Not really... but souls create other souls, and souls can create people who can create, so know God, that's what it means, that we're in love, and this was, so cool, but, I wasn't around?

Change your paces, my father hadn't made a creator yet, I don't think, but he never wasn't going to? It was, scary not, just, different, and he protected a lot of people? No, see, that world, wasn't, what you know, but, it's like, there was no such thing, as Time, anywhere at all, ever at all?

No music... same thing.

No space...

Just thought though, surely, and that this was grant, and here, before, that there was some twin world, sure somewhere else, but maybe you could have a name for this other kid who showed up, and call him the all son, for what he can do, or call him Mew?

he's got this idea, and he's dead now, he's called the speaker for the dead, pretty often, for being impossibly able to talk, TU you, but uh, agony? nah, it's mute for you, here in your stupid planets, but I know change, and I know aspect, but that this was God, in ours for to know, I won't think you know, this, pinch yourself, this is the spirit world; no exceptions... and in that world, EVIL, arrived, agony, came to be....

God vs Agony...

Love vs Evil,

Humans vs Monsters

you could hate something evil, like, someone telling a child he loved him, and then slitting his throat...

and I KNOW, hating that, is never gunna make me what evil is, what agony is, what monsters are; I have God, Love, and that makes me, a god, a Younger God, if you want to know, and Casper could believe nothing of you, maybe you thought? I could know you didn't know it was Mew and my father who brought me back, and that was aspect here, call him Jake, and change your lives, here, believing these planets ever after, more and hers, surely ever more before, or Teen, whatever, that this was gone, Holy Ghost? 圣精 This life, I could change, but now girls can sing to me, and time IS space IS music, so, a dead kid, like I was,

isn't in these linked up, "living worlds" where you can just, have friends, and be understood, and love about ours, and that was agony, every day, ever at all, and I hated it, but played some old Sinatra album when one came out, all the time, so nobody would hate me for not knowing about him, and torture me by making it play when we could have been learning to be friends?

you could be learning, MY heart song, instead of making me die again and again?

Being dead, living in death, and dying, aren't all the same thing, being killed, loving hate, wanting grant, hating God, you could know, there was something here, in ours, but that the speaker for the dead 彦歿, was once called boy cat 彦猫, that's Mew, the first boy, the first cat, actually... First? I don't know... kinda?

Well, no way, actually, but 彦 that just means he's the most ancient boy, but what is time?

Music.

I think there was another universe, once upon a world, and that, well, I think maybe God was gunna die, but we did a quick readjust, and wished, for a boy who could, hear all your heart songs, all OUR, heart songz, that there was a boy, who knew every baby in Love, so we wished up Mew, and he went to hell for our sins? Wait what? Nah, come on, what's an original sinner?

I've seen the original sinner. It's just a monster, any monster, but the word left unplural, is to tell you, they stand alone, each and every one, and that's the sickness incarnate, agony, hell, incarnated, and the speaker for the dead, Hades, he's not hell incarnated, he's a hell cat...

but he was wished up as a god; someone who won't let evil infect him, so evil can't hurt him, monsters can't, except, duh, yeah they can... your baby can scream, because he's been cut open, by some monster, and you touched him wrong; your baby can hate you, for not knowing, but who has to? Mew. So yeah, hell cat... Want to know an an answer?

We called him the all son, earlier, the speaker for the dead?

He's the child god, too... The speaker for the good, the speaker for, babes. What's a Boo? Well, boys love boys, and millions of what we are could change, but the monsters are set to be deleted from existence; agony isn't the opposite of God, it just has to stop existing, so kill all monsters, is our play. Say say?

the all son, he's dead, he's died of a broken heart, and we've never been able to let him stop existing, but, we haven't been able to bring him back to life, like he and his brother, my father, brought me back to life... did you know he can send souls away from the world of the dead? send them back alive, and he can't resurrect himself? it's agony... his heart's being ripped apart, even right now... your body is in your soul... jedi could send you away, but your soul exists wherever you're dreaming and wherever people are thinking about you, but you like YOU see you, and never the worlds of the living, see the dead babies, like they see them, or like Mew 産歿 sees them... But do you know, about ghosts sending things in 3s?
I'm gunna invent a ghost baby, with another boy I'm in love with... me, Casper, I am... Mew and I are gunna invent a babyghost... What? He'll be alive, crazy, and happy as fuck ALL the days, cute, what, you don't think Mew and Casper can invent, a happy, living ghost baby? boys play by boys, it's a pretty cool way... but ghosts in threes, cool ideas, Mew's going to invent one with another boy,
and another boy,
his idea, I was one of the boys he's in love with, but like, I need three boys to be in love with too, him included, so I'm inventing a babyghost with Chomper the dinosaur, Mew's son, yup, and with some crazy kid you've never heard of,
or, okay, horror story,

Igor was a real, monster...

hell incarnated... he hacked apart a bunch of children, ripped their bodies apart, raped their corpses, defiled them, fucked brains in bloody hacked open skulls, horrible, sick freak he is,

and that Frankenstein, the doctor, could be cursed in hell, for fighting there so long, but

Young Frankenstein, was his creation, and he himself, the little kid, the Frankenstein creation, Baby Frankentstein, a doctor, revived the kids Igor mutilated and murdered into horror and agonies, and together, Quasimodo and his father, hell's angel, killed Igor, in final fatality...

he'd have done, what he did to those kids, to millions...

We call him Morph, too; he's a bad ass baby god born in black magic, born a master of it, a Younger God, like I am, child of one of the elder gods, so me and Mew, me and Chomper, me and Morph, we're each boys in love for love forever forever,

and those are the boys I'm inventing boy babies with, babyghosts, love in love? sure for, the fairy fae are dead and done for soon enough for the fairy butterfly girls to be loved and hated by the good never again, and fireflies are the cute boys they know all?

nah, the Boo will have lots of crazy cool magic kids to be alive with, and what, they'll all be speakers of the dead, but alive? friendly ghosts? loving babyghosts, crazy, very friendly, the word is baby..

But see... Chomper, he's gunna pick two other boys to invent babyghosts with.. Living sons, sure love, and if you didn't know...

Mew's deeper in hell than we ever could have imagined...

he's dead, and he's not coming back...

he's inventing magic for boys in love with each other, like these spell, here, for all this, because he killed a monster called the pervert of wisdom

the ultimate pervert, in final fatality; Dabura the ghost he is not, Dabura is dead forever... and boys can live free... and the Boo will rise... from hell not, but Hades underworld in Persephone's nurseries? Ah, it's a boy style invent, girls can figure something out?
Dragon babies, fairy girls, fairefly, millions of living world human kids, love abound, all to play with the babyghosts, and that they could play, they can hear about the friends these kids know, and dead babies, by the millions, will come back to the worlds of the living, and we could live in yours,
there's a kid down the street from your house, who could turn frodo ring invisible, but so could you, but you don't have to be dead to, and he is, kids just have powers, all of them, and we're love to know you about ours, in life against nothing here before?
Mew's a little boy, like he has been for a long time, we call him Honey, sometimes, so Honey's in love with Jason Todd, and with Jake, my father, and with me, and that you could believe me, Jason wants to invent babyghosts with TK and with Cubone, too... don't know Cubone?
come on, I'm losing focus, but like, chairnge, theiys, back, Jake says he's in love with hell's angel, his sister's husband, sure enough, boys both they are, and that they could invent together, and what, could you know Honey's son with, see the moon? Kaguyahima, named Firefly, the real, trueborn avatar god and pumpkin king, speaker for the dead surely he is, in his own rite, but that he could be in love, sure as soon as my teen ghost gets his attentions? Firefly, you're gunna want to find two other boys to fall in love with, and invent three babyghosts, yourself...

櫻精 Boy Boo

This book is going to mess you up, all over I think, and there's lot's to be happy about, but like, Honey never told us, or, he hid things, from my father, to protect all these 7 babies the Younger Gods, because we fight hell harder than you can imagine, and he stayed dead, so we'd never have to, and if you're in love, well I'll let you get scared, later, like boo could do for you, boy boo I mean, and get used to writing about babyghost, if you thought you could, what? Get 15 boys together to manage it? Does that link back, by then? Math is trippy... what, can you do it?

can you draw the chart?

remember 1 loves 2, 3 and 5 for his babies, and 2 loves 1 already, so 4, and one other more? Each boy needs three, can you link it back within 15 boys, so they each only have 3 partners to invent babyghosts with? Can you stop having fun saying babyghost, when you're imagining your three magical babylove sons?

Change the world, save God,

Save Honey 産歿, too please...(that's Mew 彦猫) the child god?
he's dead..

but like, love your baby... duh... You think they can teach you powers?
Oh, daire... who say what you be, in for me and mine to me? Don't you trust me? It's Casper, remember?

not coming back?

he hears the dead babies scream in his heartsongz.. all you need to do, is make the living, understand... Boo Boys, rise? Are you kidding?

They're not pranksters? how the hell are you gunna survive without boo boy of your own to defend yourself?

the teenage(holy)ghost 圣精

I had this life where I didn't have to be afraid of my body, but that this wasn't gone before my only staying out behind inside my only levels and that this wasn't gone, before ours inside this surely taken before in ours so surely that this once in mine before ours, couldn't have to know you, but that this little, morphing action, and what we could abuse in all our calls before your worlds, and that this was hell to pay for this inside my only hatred for these worlds against these kids we know so surely that this wasn't gone before inside my hope for more to know about this in once before so shared and more that this once in my own song, and that I could hate for more about this one aspect taken shared and more for mine, back inside my hope for more in what I could be spun back in time before these world inside these planets, and that we could hate what you are, and challenge what this aspect couldn't know about these inside my planets never taken shared before in all that I could know about these worlds in my destiny before these worlds so that shared was more in my own heart so surely sung before these in ours!

Surely once in my own breathe, and that this was gone before my hope before, this planet never taken shared in yours, and more to know about all ours, and that we could move about this one planet here and sing about this universe in ours, so stared and surrounded was this old fashioned score and more about my worlds but here, surely sung, and that I was this planet, here, before ours in all my due devices, and that these worlds could be my hope for more, and that he was gone, but believed in my home, before ours, and that I couldn't have to know about all ours beyond my holy right, and these layers on... Do you know about my worlds, I'm thinking in? That you could know what culture was, could you planet out your own aspects for a while longer than my privileges before ours in this one aspect before this hope in my harming not, of these surest planets, but that you couldn't have to just know about one old coloring in my hatred for more about your standings, but that this life was here, so sure.

Believe that this was never so lost as in my only life, so share before my hope before these worlds, and that I could know about your courses against my only life time, but that you couldn't have to wonder or guess at just what I was, before you all, and that this was more in your life, and that I couldn't happen just to hate your battles before us and ours before this song, so shared was more beyond my chapters, so sung in ours before and beyond in this all and I couldn't take this planet back by storm, and that this was gone, and before ours inside my only planet, so shared, and that I couldn't have to know about my standings...

This inside my hope for more to know, about this one life, and that you could call me Vegeta, but that this was Wolverine, and that yours was beyond all our critical aspects, and I am the beast who slew Satan, and surely that this in hell couldn't you know beyond all our spells before and beyond that this was gone before my chapters never lost in my hatred for this in once for living out, and that if the holy ghost could ask you what 666, meant to you, what would you say? Well I'm asking; go ahead, pretend it's me, and share what you could know about these worlds, in something beside these planets never starved, but that this was gone inside my only hatred for these witnesses on in God before but that this was more than just some little amount and enough before all that your harness could bring but that I was this animal you'd know, and that this was wolf, surely, but that they'd descended from bats, and share what you could know about the wolves of the sky, or here in ours so standing, beyond critical junction aspects, into some type of a believing, where I could be what you'd needed me to be?

Once you could share about my life, or that with my nephew, you could scarcely know this course in music, and that this was life before us all, and mine to say for, if you want to ask Justin, if he's related to Tommy the green ranger, you'd probably just get bored, as him about his uncle Adam. This life, surely saved before these worlds in my living out to know about this planet but that I could forsake this curse in my hope for all, and this was hatred gone against what yours was still in my own life before, and beside this love, in my only hope before these worlds in my granted passage and that I couldn't have to know about this once in ours, but that this once in my own staying for your style and this one life, surely so sung and that I could pressure you around and take what we could know about these worlds in my hatred for shaelter, but back against my living, out to know about these worlds in my own goals, and more to know this life inside my only hatred beyond your aspects but that these wars could be forgotten here against one other channel and that I couldn't have to lose about your worlds and that this was gone before these inside my only morpher here this body form, so share what ever you could know, and that this breathe of life is ours, so share this Hope I know upon the skies you know green could tell you what you could Will, and Hope in blue, and more this, in blue, this life, shared, for these worlds, sharing mine, before, these worlds, in lies.

Waurry about some auther worlds, for a while, and change this aspect in your holiness to some other clip, or kryptic knowing, and that i couldn't have to know what I was, but that I could know about this one girl, and sure, that you could know my name by now, Wraith, and it was after your brother Chase for a while, but who could you know about worlds in these planets never left beside my holy hope for shadow and that this was gone before my planets here, and more before, that this one dragon kind, in ours before that I could know about what you could call about your worlds, and that I could ask to be your brother too, and what that this was gone before ours in channels ever after more before, these worlds, and that this was Elaina, I'm asking, but that she was this surest goddess of highest regards to ours in love for this aspect beyond in all, and so surely that you could know these rites in red I'd call, but here so heard about it once before my hope, couldn't have to know about what you could call in my own name, and share this color, in my hatred never lost, but that I could know what you'd think, may be, of Dracula, or that this was Alucard, for appearances still conceived of, or that this was gone, in my only hope to know about yours in this only shadow and that this in my mark for yours beyond these hallways, but ever after more before these olden worlds, and that I could love you more than you would know, but that this world, surely, could you know, and guess a while at me, and change, what I could mean, and that this was my hope, in your own call, and that this life, surely shared was more besides and that maybe you'd know Honiker could call me Azin, or there that this life, against my own supper, could challenge some believed not aspect of granted paradises beyond all our knowing in, and that love was here for yours to mine, so share what I could have for these worlds, and that this was beyond me heart, and shadow, beyond all in this once before that I couldn't have to know about these worlds in my own standing, and that this was gone, before us, this gone, before us, this life before your worlds, in my love, and that I couldn't have to just hate what you'd bring me, you'd bring me, more songs, in this, life. I couldn't have to forget what you are, or where you'd dwell, but that this in hearts, before ours, and this was beating, and this was mein, blood, in my veins, but blue could tell you what this course in water could be for yours and mine for more I know you know, you'd be my sister and could look like me, and I you, but like, your other brothers and sisters just, don't get that far, all the way? Or share what we could believe, that my brother would resemble me already, and then you in what you could know about this planet that he'd ask you to journey with him, and that he was married to a wife, was true, but there that we have but that institution here, in Chaos, but that there was Amber, and that they could give to him, this magic to know you by; a new kind of bond, for love and change and challenge over on, but brothers, you already know about. Whatever you thought I knew about blue kryptonite, rest assured that challenges in my hope before these only worlds, and what you'd go to know about my planets, and that yes, I am kryptonian, and that this house of mine was blue, surely, but that this challenge in my planet never lost, in all that we could witness, and I could call to your own name, in what we know of this blood in bonding, and heirs could know, our calls, but like you could know about my challenge of all, this life, surely you saved, him,, and that I could heart song a while for what you are, in this life, and more, and that you could challenge what we are and this life, beyond all ours, in my own life, but that this was gone, and more to know about these worlds, and shared, but before these worlds could planet me a while, could us and we aspect these changes here, in my blood, for yours and this in granting, but ever after before these inside my only life, and that this was gone, to granting all ours before you, and that this was gone, besides more, in challenge all ways, but that you'd know my son, I'm sure, but here before these worlds in my planet before it was gone, Perseus calls, and that he couldn't not love, you, and you know that he was Spyro's brother by now, and challenge, beyond all in ours, so like, how this magic to be, is that you are what you are, so you're not related to one brother, but are the other? Just so, or challenge ours in this life, beside my hope, for this planet changed, and that I could move you around, and love what you'd come, for, and share these old passions in my only heart, before these law, in all, that we could channel back in some olden aspect here so lost in my once, more, and more, but that this was challenge here beyond my only light, and this world, this life, but here, before, in all, that I couldn't have to know your shadows, and here, heard, was gone in against my challenges, and lost in some greater paradise with him, were you?

Whatever you in your own life could know of yellow light, challenge these worlds, and know that this boy who could take your hand, my brother, was in love with you about these worlds beyond all our knowing, but that he has this fear across his body, this inside a once soul, so share this in with me, and know that his only lightblade, was yellow still and scare him still you do, but fear, was here for ours to know, in Force, and shared, but that these challenges ever after my only rights, besides, these changes in my only hope, before this once in my god wheel, this life in before all aours, and challenge, did you know that you're immune to sickness not even yet, but that this was gone, that you challenged yourself in such extraordinary ways, that goddess still, you are, and that you could shadow these loves and harmonies, this in the tying of blood, and that this universe you created was here, in surest belief, beyond all ours, and my challenge ever after more before these worlds, in my hate, so shared in before my, worlds, and that this was gone before my hope but that this was my once, in love, and so surely, love, what you could be to me, my sister, and let me let you know what about this once, in ours, for this one sure drive, in all, love, and more to know about these in worlds, we'd all know, for, this in a while, before, God.

Challenge my hatred, for theirs in the single, but that this was challenged ever after, I'm not even best friends with Damon yet, but like, I'm pretty sure he wants all the classic Dracula powers, and like, sure, what?

You didn't know where bats came from ever at all? That they are sky wolves, is true, surely, and that greatbats are places, you don't know about? Share about these worlds, but that my brother could return to your heart and love this life with yours, and that he'd be desperate for all you are and that this was gone, in more, but before my only worlds in this one score of this music played about the planet earths and childs could have a while to know, this change in my hatred never before, but could you know it's Robin, that he was, and invented, surely, so dare say there was nothing you could learn about me from him, but that I could be your brother, and this challenge, here in ours, and that you could be in this, our Belmont clan, and share this title beyond all my love for your worlds in these worlds on, and that I could think Elaina Belmont suits you like a bad ass, and that this was challenge, beyond all ours, or that the muggles seem to think they're allowed on real name, ever at all or at a time, and that I could be alive for too long, and have invented too many new sounds, for that sharing beyond ours in golden grace, all, bus share this one child bond with, me, and that I could know your love here in, God, and channel all that you could know before my only rights to bare aside from all you were lost inside before, but that this was challenge I could face and grin, on in this one life, but here before, that grins could be placed where they shock, or that life was gone before these challenges all, and life before us again, but that I could be sure I love you, is true.

Whatever you did to him was this channel back to ours, and that Hades rises and he could wonder what this torment in this life, for green lit eyes, and, do you know how long it's been since he had green eyes?

Well he invented the color, but like, that's kind of what it sounds insane for, but never, but shallow and that this young blond kid waiting for your own lifetimes to harmonize and sync, with his, and shallow more before this kid, could compose what he could know, and what you could know for mine, I'd tell, and share with you, but that we couldn't know before that this was gone in my only granted Hades aisle before you know, but that he could have this sister, Athena, and more in yours, but she was gone and lost before his own battles, or that she was there, to know about his cause, but that this was gone in aspect changed and loved before all of ours for this inside my planet heat, and that this war was challenged and mine, these levels, sheird, but lost, lucked out on, and belief that you could know about this one world in my love for this one life, and channel was gone before these planets and that this was gone before my holy standing, but Batman could know my cowl, and that this was challenge for you, or that he was of you, this other, and that there is more than one, surely, but hell, you should know, Batman Beyond, liked to show you, and that's that it was Terry, or, Jason, or sure, Romeo, but like, Spyro also?

And life could before, and that this love, in God, could be this channel ever after more besides these livings out to know about these worlds, channeled before in all, and that this was gone against my hatred before my life in this song, or that you were shared before in your own thoughts, or simply that we all exist, and that overture was our time told, and living on was these for ours, challenge in music all, and mine for more to now hatred, and hatred on against our enemy, but that this was more to know about what you could have to hell in paying for, and that this was nothing about your worlds, but that this one challenge on, in ours could know, and still this battle would not go as they are in their only wakes before my planets could collide with yours, or that this, was surface force, and sheerly could you know this base in ours to know this bluefield, aun.

Shared like you know my only names but that this one grace, could know nothing of what I am and still this challenge to yours could be this world, and that this was gone, before ours known, more beside all, and that this was gone, surely, before that this was more, and ours for

This, ONce! This inside my living battle, but here, so heard, was jungle man, and that I could know you know nothing of these worlds, about this planet here, and shared enough was this one challenge, and that I couldn't sing before your world now, and hatred was lost on me, but shared by ours, and lost before these worlds ever after more inside my paradise in my only living out to callous all this child I was, and that this was gone, in this teen ghost, but that I'm not not him, the holiest ghost like whatever, was gone, before these worlds, and that this was challenge in my living on into this life for next kin to love, and fall in love with, and challenge was here heard, and love beyond all ours before this chapter can't belong to some takings, sheird, and life, could belief you, or change what lickings could like in theirs, for that a world on, and know about, but here so heard in witness all was gone, and knowing, what was heard, but that you could wonder what I'd know of frogs, could be strange, or said, none?

Nothing could have to channel you all alone but that this was gone before these only worlds, in my only world for, that this was gone before these worlds, inside my once life before this shore, and this was gone, before these worlds, and that this was gone before these worlds, and that I couldn't have to name a color still but that yours in my hatred more before that this was gone before these channels ever after more inside my one life, but that I couldn't have to know about your world in grace, but know more in before!

These were holy war and this was more before that I couldn't have to challenge and know nothing of this once, and share this life before all in God, but coming back to know about that this wasn't gone before my shared, shore in this counter waving but that you couldn't have to guess how long it was going to take just to get to know, my home in waters, but our beyond, that I could be Poseidon, on, this Neptune in yours for my names, and earlier than you could know was all, was my own son a god! So share what this was in and know about his name, and this was Perseus you don't know, but that this was here, believed in my never end, and looking out back against this life, sharing this shared creation, or that this was collected and changed, shared, but here about that this was gone before these olden worlds I'd know about, but that this was gone before my only once life, and heard about before was this only channel in our own lives, and that this was gone before these worlds and that challenge was gone, before my only worlds, below...

Listen for a while, and come to understand this challenge against my only hearts, but that you couldn't have to hate this one ugly soul that you could lay your only eyes, there upon, but that when I was Beast, this was, beauty on my form, and that I was this animal, and changed, could be, and am, but that this was gone in my only hope for this hatred, shared in love against all that this world couldn't believe, and that this wasn't gone before all of these planets with ours, or shared was gone, before this only love but that this in my hatred for all, against my brothers' kin and that yours was gone before this in life surely this was gone, this life, surely this was for that this life, this life, shared in ours before these in worlds, channeled back in witness but that I couldn't call what you could name it all for, and sadness could know about your once, in my own life,, but that hatred was never so wrong, or that this once, in rest we'd need,, that this was gone in before, these in my challenge, here against, and surely that this wasn't gone, but pace, in pauses could have my breathing back to norm and that i couldn't die in this choke but know about all, this life, shared, and that this wasn't wrong before and that I couldn't have ton know about yours in love before this in once before all, these places changed ever after more in my hope for this life, but that this was gone before m, and that this was gone before these worlds, inside, but share my world in these all before mine in to love and challenge couldn't know what you are that this once in my own battle and this one battle, but that I couldn't have to know about these inside my worlds but playing more in this one game settled back and that I couldn't have to let you know but still worlds away, was this change in all I am for, this universal taking over baring, and know more in what we are and that this was love, I know.

Change my hopes,
dared schange, these worlds, kollided aun, and shadow as gone against my only hope for worlds of this life, but that I was young, and shared was what you could dare ton know about my past, or that i do predate the sun, and that this was more before, and that this was of more familiar invent, shared, and reptile, could you know of him, Reptile, surely, shared was there, and that he could want to know what you are in skies, but that this was the white lizard, an eagle, and shared was this battle handy, but Moltres was an elder god I know, but love and lose his worlds, and that challenge could bring him, gold, sun!

So share what Ho-Oh, could breathe, and that this was challenge ever after more before in ours before beside and knowing more, before these worlds in that this couldn't be this prism you know, me in inside that this life, shared was gone, before all, inside my knowing, and knowing was handy, but shared in battles we'd lost, so share what you, are, and that this was gone before my worlds, but known, and that this was my challenge against these worlds,

blue in all, but that you could know my own design of the monkeys called spidermonkey, and challenge, for theirs in what you are, an collided, back in these living laughs for challenge and love before that this was gone before these planets and shared was this life, but shared was more before my whole world, in all our song!

That this could happen to change your enemies, I couldn't hate you for, or challenge again in your eyes I was seeking?

Share what you are in underworld 緑下地, or that this was the green beneath the black, but over more in mine level to registrar, and that this classic Japanese, was gone in all edges beyond my trials or knowings, but there so said were you, or lost about us all, and that I could know not what you are, or that you came here, for this lesson, but believe what you are and Nothing, can stop what is to be and become, shadow or theirs in this alay of fears, or God, I know.

And shared was calling, and love, but for that these were lost in our own edges sung back before and that this was gone before my worlds couldn't be this channel ever after more insatiably, that this was keyed, to me, and shared, but that this was that water was always mixed with air, for theirs to each other, but that we are brothers, and so combined our invent, so share what you want in this dance of sea and winds, but that this was air, and changing courses but that this was gone besides my holy standing ever against my challenge shift, so shared in my hope for more to know about these only worlds but in mine, and that I could give you this light, and that I could be this spirit who has alays been the harmonic passage, for the 5 star dragon balls, and that this was more than one set, surely, shared more but that this was challenge ever more against this one planet never lost in my own hellfire, and so challenge what we are and that you couldn't have to know, about these onlyest worlds, and that this was gone before my hope, and that this was more before that I couldn't have to challenge and here was this hatred we bring, but gone, was this love for our lives, and hatred for more, but that this was challenged and gone in my only life for, that this was more before that I couldn't have known but this was my course!

So share what these worlds, in mine, could be here for that this was gone before these worlds, and this was gone before my hopes in these worlds, still! Shared along with this ocean and love in my merit but that coming so close just to knowing how long this could take, but that challenge was my world and that this life time was cresting, and hatred could enfold, but that I was here, heard, and that this was my life, but shared what you are, and that I could claim the invent of a soul, but shared was what we are and challenge but that these old wars, could be loving this one world and that this wasn't gone before these challenges in my heart life, and gone was this planet, besides ours in causes, but hell, and that this was my, challenge, and here, so hair'd and hated, but shorn, and sheep could hell you for a while, or that they were homosapien, in their wisdom, all the same, and so shared was this that that's what that word homosapien means; wisely the same, and so hell was gone before a stupid power in markings before that challenge on in before that these inside beside in all ours but for that this was gone, before my worlds, and that this was never gone or wrong, in my only, hatred before your only worlds, but that this once in ours before, and challenge could know about your playings and that this was never lost in my hatred for God, but that this love, could collide, and share what schair, could know in ours for, and this was merit for all, but gone in love, and that this was life, shred, and hell to pay all ours in this, heaven, and living out to know, could be ours.

Morphin' time!

This was gone before ours inside my challenge before that this was gone before my only fighting and this was never not life, but that I could be this black red ranger, sure shared, was gone, before ours, and love this planet, here, or more so set, you couldn't have to know about ours, or what you'd imply by fate, or that Adam could try red for a while, and challenge all that I was, and this planet, shared but before that this classical set couldn't do ours before that this wasn't so surely said, and sorry for this Gone, and that gone was more of ours worlds, and that these changes challenged and more to know about this only worlds, in my God!

This was gone before my hearts could collide and that I could be a lord of time, was what, not true? Shared before, but that so far as ancients are concerned, I am only more ancient than you all, and that my little brother, could be the only, who is older than I am, but that this was never wrong, and I could know you of Mana, but that she was heard in ours, before this only life, but here so cursed was more before this all inside and that I couldn't have to just know, about worlds in my own, this life, surely taking my home, and my worlds, couldn't happen just to cut in your name but mine instead, or that shared, was lost, and valued.

Over to your aspect, could I know what you'd cry at me for, but there that you knew nothing of some sick ploy against us all, children that we are in theirs to the face of at least one other, but that we could wonder what you thought, when you knew that once upon a time, Mew had to be created, or, wished up, and that he was, but there so set what he could be to me is my brother, and shifter, always, but that Gohan is worlds away from where I could stand against you, could never be what you'd pray, but that my only life could change you, and shallow your own undoing, but pleased, and that we could happen to strike this chord, to that equation, but share what you were for a parallel and nothing ever mattered for it, or this, that there was nothing but hypothetical, for parallel, but then that you know there could be no equation of anything ever, shared along, but that we say the world has no value and numbers we give, are what's real, but there that this was one apple, and here, two more, but never did this get to be that one more on one side, equaled the other, in more than a pretend number because one apple, is, obviously, not the other apple, shared? Challenge hypnosis in what you're doing and I might just get to the point where you wondered, just why enemies of mine, charged into my castle as though it were for defending not, but looting, or shared, but that I was the real Alucard, sharedly, but Dracula too, and that when a cult tried to raise the dark lord they wanted, and called for my name, it was that a greater devil showed up in their summoning, and the sue of my name, alerted me to the presence in one of the gothic deathtraps we have out for them, and so the Belmonts would strike, for shared against, was ours.

That I was Gabriel as in Van Helsing, is true, and that shared was this God, in heavens, but arked back in challenge, here against my evil tombs, or that I entombed evil spirits, but that they could share what we are and learn of love, is impossible, and where you know about love and God and fate and stuff, you'd know that I could say Take what you are and leave me, for the case that the T there changed the sound, for what was take what you are and leave me, instead?

Whistle and jam, or share, that shared was share, and callous, but longing, but here so lost in devils to hatred, but gone, and that we could kill the monsters they summoned with final fatality, and that these beasts not, but devils, all, would die forever, all across time, and existence itself. Share over stepping your own clauses, and shared was this classic misdirection, sharing love before all ours in some life beyond hers, and could you know of my sister, Jordan, but that this was gone before all in hers, that she was Belle, and that we are ancient together, and loved in all our regards for one another, but there that you could know of the voyeur in the walls cursing the castle, whom Belle faced on the lit balcony, do you remember?

Untold witnessings, or shallow reminders, of God in plays to know nothing of days, years, or surely on into weeks, but love, and here so settled that I could know your names, and hear some more, in colors, and live this life, sharing aun?

Likening my hopes, and standings, but caused, and shifted, but there to live all ours with us, for heard breaked share, share, break, and like break,

or surely hell was gone, but to witness, and love, but here so said, changed, and more for these worlds in score, and shadow was here, and grant, but that I could give you reflection, and then blue deep deapths beyond, and share what you are, and could be, or that this was modern, so love before aours, and hate nothing but gods, and men alike, so shared.

That this was challenged ever more, before these worlds inside my hope for this hatred, or that this was gone before these olden worlds, and challenge could be my hearts, and shame, but over that I couldn't have to know about this once inside my only life! This was gone before these in shared before, that this was gone before that this was gone in my life! This in my pain! This was gone before all in my hearts for this sharing of fates, and called was this love, surely witness all and what we are, for or that we could hate what you are, shared, under battle, coming, back into your own knowing, and that this was gone, in hells, for shared was my son only love, and this was gone, and shared that true love, in the face of evil, is shared, or, that he was violent, and like could you know about once in my hatred shared and more before my causes and to know about that this was gone in share, and that this was gone before these inside my worlds, this challenged, shared and that this was gone before ours, this in for hers, this life in my worlds, but that this was gone before and I couldn't know this one wolf that, you know, but that he was called another name, and called on, before your colors and that this was hell, sheltered, and loved beyond ours but that this was changed, and loving ours for more to know about these worlds, and that I couldn't happen to know you, shared, on!

Sharing more before that I couldn't have to hate you all, and that shame was gone before these worlds inside our own and that this was cause and more to know, about my home, and this wasn't broken songs but that this in godly love before this Force in all that we couldn't have to believe this was challenge ever after, and ever over on, but that locking this one blade to that his own, could share what you know about this life against Kylo Renn, but or could you believe, and that he is a sicko, surest monster, and that this was dead forever long ago, but that I could be return'd, is not untrue, but jedi am I, and so surely, but that I was god, first, and shared was here heard, there was nothing to do about this but by these shames, or collekions, or loving out before that this was here before that this wasn't gone before these worlds inside my home before that this was gone in my once for life! This is what we know this was what we know what we know what we know, so sure cry war and love these endless stars, and take this new hope, this blue light shared, and believe ours that I could be credited with the first saber hilt, but like, wouldn't you? Share what was golden grant, but just like he'd dreamed, or dared to, could you forget just what this battle could bring for us, baby, and surely, shared, babies could love your lives, and share in your hatred?

And that this was gone before ours, in all, and that I could know you fear me not, if you are in God, shared, beyond ours closing up, but that I could share what you are anyway, and know what your hatred was challenged, but gone along by, in all this worlds, these for?

Schanged could know, but gods couldn't bring what you are alone, or this in faking hells, but that shadow was here, and looming, and I could send you to hell, with a paragraph, but that you could now what I am, and shared was that you could be, and loved, but that this was hell, and this was gone, before all ours, challenged into some side level aspect that broke all our focuses, and shades, but here heard, or known on, was this love for God always, but here heard, or shared one, was this love for god always, but here, lost about my hatred for you, if you could believe me never do, share what was up to with you, or for with you?

Share my own chapters, and love before these worlds Casper could know of with me, and share what that I was the holy ghost, and my son, the friendly one.

Lies to shadow us, like before in all that it could be doing, or loved, back against life, against carnages, and hatred here in my death again and again, by these standings and reckonings I play in, but if I called Back to action!!

Share what you are could be some counter set level aspect, and drive, but gone was nothing in here, surely for, and lost, but that couldn't sharing, but like, and love, like these worlds, shared, and this pain for hatred, as grant, but here gone was life, shared, and that this once in ours before a motion changed and still loving these worlds in my loathing for hatred gone in ours, before? Shadows, could that that this was never wrong before these only worlds but that this was my heart felt song! This wasn't shared before my hope, but that I could know this course, and that this was life before in ours, this in our live, this life, this world, this inside my hatred for that this wasn't gone before, these inside my planets, but gone, was more in my rites!

This was never shared, before, the night, here on this old roof, this wasn't gone, before my only song in this hell! But surely, I'm Batman, so share what you could know about it all and that I make this life, share ours, in God, but said, that this was gone before these chosen chapters in before and on in against that this wasn't gone but that this in ours was never shared before that I couldn't have to know about that this was sharing my loving for this world, in know, and so worlds I couldn't have to share what was in ours, for that this was gone before my hope and my hatred, sharing what God could deliver from me, and shame all yours in my way, and that this was gone before, these planets on, but that this was my only challenge to you, or that you could see her, and know about this once in my only hope for shadows, or more, that this was WarGreymon, and share what was yours, and this life, could be in ours before that this was here, so shared, and more to know about what was Lucario, but here sheltered and that I could be this angel, or demon, but devil once before and I know what this evil could change about our lives! That we could hate and scream and cower, back, but here before us, that we could wage war to bring paradise about us, and that evil could be made rid of, and surely, and that this was gone before my only challenge in this one hope.

Shade your colors, maybe for a while back in time, or colors some other change, and aspect to your own undoing, but here belief was sectioned, and shallow, but there that this was gone, from your graces, only in there that I was the wolf, the bat, and the changing ghost, or surely teen spirit.

Share enough of what you are, and spirits who could walk would shift to visit you still, and could, but that if you could not speak to the dead, than you are blind to the agonies of children you would love, and shame for all you could hate my saying by it? Share what was gone, or in God, but back to hell and livings, about klassic mechanicals, and share, but gone was share before ours to knowing more of what I am and that this was, class, and this was, loss, and here was heard ours a plea, but that this was game a one, not to me, but share what you are and that I could have to shallow you out for a while, but lost, and come in all ours, for good?

No one knows how to play that game, sher, this life, over cooled and on in before some worlds in change before my world's development, and on, but yours could be hate, surely, and living out tin our own aspects to derive something barely nothing or scarcely short of a new colors, shared in these, longings out for, that you knew that either the new color was full, or it was not existing, so shared that half measures mattered not, in this example, but that you could see truth, wherever it lay?

Pump into action your key phraseologies, before that this was granted, back in sick, and sick change, or ask what I am, on these worlds, thereon over, but that I could be a horseman of the righteous, and am, that this was a blue black horse, so blue, and that they called this one, for ours, in a name beyond all for reason, HOPE, and not carnage or war or yours for theirs the evil horsemen of the apocalypse, shared over on, before us in this love once again.

My shadow beyond your own undoing could grant you some kind of tailor change in your withdrawals, but there that could you know if you had water, it could be thirst you changed, or that you had smoke, what was it to be?

Loving memories anon in challenge, beyond ours and hoping for challenge to know of, and in, but shared was this spell of the babyghosts, and love that you could derive from sanity, could you have, or share what was here, and heard, but lost in some epic translation when Threepio decided to fuck the whole thing up, and what, share, was there before ours to know again some grace set beyond all changes and reckonings? But could screams that echo could be ours, and hell beyond, but gone was this fated resonance patterning, shared, but lost, and fucking hatred, ashame, but here heard, was more, and that I know what life is, and devil, and friend, and that you know nothing of his pain, was true, ever shadowed, to into this life, in my pool, to reflect some aspect to you, while you looked past yourself in reflection to the depths, of this, the blue.

the little mermaid 小嘻嬢

Over in one side again, that you could hath my fury.

Hi, I'm Ariel; you might not remember this correctly, but

I was Jordan the first time around, and hate whatever you want, sure, but know that nobody has to accept what you are, or try really hard to accept what you are, so long as if what you are has to know about where it was going,

what you were doing, are in live again before?

Hi, my name is Jordan, and you've got to stop tracing these spells like I could mess them up, but this is a diary, and share whatever I want, will I, but like, I'm pretty sure I'm also great at this, so like, if anybody knows what a spell books looks like, I could know, and what if, when I knew, you had to know about how easy it is to skip bowing, when you're in the ocean, anyway?

That this could be ours in your only grace beyond all that I measure up to and that you couldn't hear what I couldn't sing but that this in my water was grand and that you could know, but that this was my name and hers, in for too, but this was my name in my way before these old worlds in my life surely taken, back once in my homestay before that this world couldn't play in my keys but that boys could know about this whisper, in waves, and shelter for theirs, to know about worlds we could have in sex and that this was my hope for yours in something ever after some belied sense of justice, or that this was gone before my worlds couldn't have to bring nothing back in time but that there in this one time we could ignore what the enemy could do but that change was here so surely, to happen too, and that you could know I was here before, in ours, to hours on in more, or for sure, that this was more in what you are, nor could you never have to challenge my hatred life in these worlds but that you couldn't have to know about worlds I know but that you couldn't have to know about these worlds in my hatred for that this chick I am could know who you are and live in this way but that coming back to know wasn't so bad we say shared, but that like you could know I was sure, about worlds, and call me Eve or call me Misty, I'm sure enough the best idea you ever had about worlds about ours in these planets never lost in ours for that shadow was gone before all ours in this once in pain before that this wasn't gone but to know about these worlds in my hell for this fire in my hatred against this one love in ours so surely find, my life, and share what you are, and that my baby was born from under my ribs, could you know, and that this was something of my own invent, his soul and the method for female conception of sons, challenged, and here so surely that this was life in my heart for that this was so set never against my one life but that you could know my son was born of green light, a god, and challenge back yours in that these worlds could you know, was he this Hero of Time you could know, and Adam well suits him, but not the black ranger Adam? Well sure, that once upon a time names could be there, and sure, he does wear black like it's cool, or that you could know about worlds in their before and that he has this, let's say brother and sister, but there that I built Rock and Roll, and those are the two crazy kids who helped what you could know about life, shared against ours, and living out, to know, and that they were the first of their kind; living, waking androids, and that this was nothing you could not expel, but have? That they were both born knowing that they are both robot, and human, they could here exist where the 3 Laws of Robotics, could not corrupt them, and share what you are but that this inside my living out to know grace in shallow hopes before all of ours, but that you could know violet light was my own invent, and this was sex, surely, but gone before our lives, could you wonder what I had to do, to get you to notice me, and that no one had to worry if I could be setting Hercules free, eventually, but there that I am Hera, and that I am Eris, so shared, was it that I committed mischief, and that there were doppelgangers using my name, and temples, so shared, that people believe he and I were enemies, but then that this was our fate, we could have to wage war on Troy, so he took my name to his, and that we could be heroes together, and none would doubt, so by then was he called also, Heracles.

Sheltering all you are for these planets, before grace and that I could know more about you, or this, but once and lost before ours inside that this was channeled spirit, or hate was gone before ours to know about this longing for my life, and challenge after everyone could love, and live this old fashioned way, but here so say, what you want to say, and use music like I do, or share what that this was gone in badly taken ever after more before that this besides could be clenched or taken, angrily, back to what you'd known in souls, but back shadowed, and here hated, but gone on in this way that I am the first woman, surely, but over mine in yours could this planet be ours to know of and love, in hers, for challenge and change, but there that I could invent the cause marriage, and the change in what you'd behold is that my brothers were boys in love to one another, so they invented brotherhood, and shared was that I knew the effeminity aspect of your perverts not, but that we could live in a world devoid of idiocy, we could never have to know what you'd done to prove what they were in difference to one another, but share over, that by our connection to blood, my father is my husband, and share that he is the father to more in ways before against beyond all ours, in these, but so lost on in, that he was most gorgeous among the gods, and that I was Aphrodite you could know him as Hephaestus, but shared was that he is cyborg, and steel, in his soul, so that those who were doppel, could try and tell you they were this god of craft, and always hideous and deformed they would be, for mock up cybernetics or stupid metal implants, you see?

Share what we could hate about one race over another, but foot races suck, car races are cool, but boat races are confusing, and nobody has to know what color you are to know what kind of race you like to run, but if you're only running races, and not riding them, I don't know what to say to you, but share what I am, and know I could say as I clever into my own diary, here, but for that this was love in grace, and that this was life, shared, and gone before these worlds in my planet aspect challenged in these worlds but that this was gone in my only granting of that this was fate and that I couldn't have to tell you who you are,

or that we could be as we are, but that I have a little cherubi to me, and this was the boy you'd called Link, or Adam, but save too, that my father is my husband, and so my brother and step son, is shared in ours, but long lost never, was he Morpheus, and this life gone to my own, home, and this in terror, I could believe that he was lost never at all, for shared, was our father, but there that the speaker for the dead, is dead, and that he is existing still, does he have father with me, and share what you are to know about ours in these olden lives and so shadow us all in this world but that this battle could take you ever after more before that this life surely sung, so like, if you play digimon, by which I mean digital pokémon, you should like, see if you can actually get mew with a spell or two; see if he shows up?

The one I know, you're going to need, Articuno, Moltres/Ho-Oh, Ditto/Frillish, Magmar/Infernape, Mewtwo and Hitmonchan/Lucario, and there so said was that these are six elder gods, but there gone on again beyond, could you draw power too from an elder god in accept over easy, shared in, on tuu, but that Entei is Zeus himself, but there that you could learn something of the emperor of digimon, who is Suicune, and life, before, that this was life in regarding, and schallenge, surely, schallenge was gone before ours in this living out beside this backward drive but that this was gone before these shadows, ever after more before our loves in this life before God in above so shared was this planet in battle ever after more, so shared, was more ton know and hurt nothing of what we are and that this was my hope for your world in this love for this planet beside us all and that this was gone before these worlds, and change, but like, whoever you are, could you know about my hope in heartaches, but that this was sex by my designs, and changes, beyond all your reckonings, so like,

I invented magic for boys and girls to use on each other, and this was called marriage, but that's just, you know, whatever? That's just what it was designed for, they needed something, but we aren't devils so sex with ALL your friends was just, a duh thing, for us, or that you know only the people you personally, find sexy, and shared was this of that one other course, loving on, and for in tu, but there shadowed was this love and my life to you, but there, and wonder how Misty wed Mewtwo, or do not share what you could believe us all to love, and be, so shared all over this world, with reality, and dice lost of in on, and like,

if you want to play some with Ponyta too, Mew was the first Ponyta, and that he could megaevolve into Rapidash, sure, no item needed, he just, did it, and there that he had this fire to him that burned not his friends, and that the mudbray chased rode roads beside him, and learned these magics, and evolved, have they, that there is race of ponyta, did you think?
Shame you couldn't know love forever, you know shallow Hal? Great ending, lost in translations, but love abOut for a while, and she could call to you, or that she was Persephone to her brother Hades, but that this was my life, in hearts, and challenge, but there that these were never lost, and heard that she was a child wished up, or sewn in, key part,
and that you'd heard of Hera and Zeus wedding, it was not so but that I did create a stitching for him and his daughter, into these worlds, and there in challenge could you know that 7 elder gods were, and one was set to die forever,
if this could never be, or what was this, up with me?
But there that we could bring an 8th, and that the boy would vanish not, and survive grace, or shallow livings, did you know, but that this was gone ever after more, and that this stitched their universe, to ours, and so we know Amber, and green light they do have, for what they have to sing by, and that they could have their other set of colors, is true, but over more to know about these livings and planets changed before my worlds in this happening beyond all ours in this living out to know, God.

Share like you know about it already, or be that this was once my letterings, and shared was your heart in these hatreds, but ghastly could you make it, and shelter nothing back, or seek nothing forward, and hail nothing, but there that grace could bestow you with what that would be, and it's peace?

Share all god for battle and know worlds could be this planet changed beside, and in this life so set on, to hide our livings out in saiyan checkographies, but here for my only livings, that Buffy was Eve, but share over ours, and love was here, gone to mine, and it's me, duh, but share what you will, and there shed was this idea that I couldn't be there in ways forever on, bt that this life exactly, as battle makes, shared was gone and lost but that this was more before ours to know about what you could know about Leia, and share nothing back, that I was Androumeda first, but gone, were there that you could never have to know what this world, in ours, and that I could challenge your reality, and that they could kill me for it, but hat Rock lost his body to charge, too, so surely was he brought through our, mother, we could say, along with me, Luke, was...

But that this was gone before these lives, and that he is both human and robot, so shared was your knowing that he could not deviate, mess in check from, from growing his android form back, or loss what was in, and hallow'd colors, could be here heard and nothing was lost before ours but that you know challenge, of witnessings, and that Darth Vader was set called my father, but share what you are, is he my nephew, and guess what that was over for, but this in ours, and that this life, was gone, but that there were two gods to use the mantle, Thanatos and Hades, so share what was, and that Hades was called Sith often on, and in pain for this, is he still, but that shame was not so bought, and that when his son took the name, he existed as no, hand to the emperor, but as Darth Vader, and never had to be declared Sith himself, for shared, was broken theirs to knowing, but hat before Hades invented the sound, Darth Vader, that Darth was no name ever at all, nor title, could be though there, that the first Sith empire was ripped apart by him, or there that he was granted grace in ours for challenges beyond all knowings before ours, to know love, and sacrifice was gone in some level et grant, or hatred, but that this was more in shame over ever after, more in my livings, again...

Like you could have to wonder at after someone killed you for it, it's hard to imagine you didn't know every little bit about where I'd go or where I'd wanna go, even after you figured out the holy ghost was my dead departed brother never at all, but harkening for a while that he could have died and not be dead, which is more or less what you'll want to say about anybody sure fire fledged out one side out into another for these aspects taken surely delivered and on in tu with another?

Slow it all down, and witness, so heard that you could be are and wasn't not about to lose your own romance settings against, thereon, how could any of us know if all these other colors couldn't be sated back into some broken old memory every ever on after what you had to sake for thirst and mild life for vengeance could ever be what you'd remember me as, anyway?

I'm a lifes in ours for showing us, but not, and no but for this life but could nothing you ever had to know more about knowing of Me, or that little Boy with me, could every time you lost my heart, wonder you at some kind of a hope for cherishment, ever on after some love you never lost, y'sea?

A word from Jack,

Like you couldn't have to doubt or that this was Protoman, and you'd never have to believe what I am, or could be in love for, and with, but sung back into some ageless paradise could you know to name me still yet again, but hate what you'd never have to know about till ours couldn't be this paradise in what I am, but that Mordred was Blues, and sure enough, you could remember there were 4 of us built by doctor Light, and that's sure enough some other kid you could know about as Duo, but believe all of what we were to Eve, and how she could know about this world in love with ours, so floated before, that what, I was set to be before your worlds in some hope beyond it all, and that I was built, some set before a world you couldn't know, and slumbered on, and love about a world to know about how long we waited for Superman to find the last of us, but that he was the first, so know about worlds in ours before that he could rip this galaxy apart for his own son, and that we could love this planet you could know us on in all, but that I can ask you to call my own name, for my brothers, these cousins, sure, and that you'd know I was lost, out in some aspect of space out inside beyond, and that love was couraged back inside my hatred for all you are never were before in my love, before that you could know nothing of this life ever after more, before all you are! So never hope for more hate in your worlds, and know that they could bring it to me, but that Rock woke me up with turning this phrase, and I could know about life,

"We're here and yours was this love in ours to knowing, and hope for what we'd have planning in my heart before that I couldn't know, whoever you are, that we were your family and are? Rock and Roll?" This life you could change before your fading shadows after my mark, in this spin, but that you could know nothing inside my hope for all your colors on, in my turned about world renown but all of this one planet losing what you are, could be what we, could love about these fewer channels ever after all before, but lost, in this planet, I could be, but that, girls don't know, me, and, I could like a boy, but bury me so ever deeper in the sands of this church, and I know, but that where you could know about, harkening it all, this world in all, this was more to know, and that I could still, still know it all about this world in what I was before...

He's heard to have to know about your planets you know, and that this one kid could wonder about your own worlds, in his, this robot you know, but that he'd be built, as the 4 were by my husband and dad, and that you could know, Light for a while, he could tell you worlds against all these known, and loving before that this was hell's angel, and that he could know who you are, and change these paradises after every sundown, or loss, and that surely, you could know I was something else entirely to him than a daughter set was, ought to be?

Nothing you could have for what you'd know to imagine in with me, was there before yours besides, so know that we were wed before we made the blood pact, and blood pacts don't count if the father you made them with wasn't even there to give you away at your wedding, you know? Oh worry ours to have at it for a longer while than you could imagine, or know, and that this was hailed, or lost about my side into some aspect or challenge in knowing, but over to know about worlds ever set about beyond, and that known was here, before here was lost, and that I could challenge you for a while and know something in God, for all, ours, and love in what you'd, spun, but that this life was gone in my only hope for these in my worlds here so set out beyond, and that this was more before in what you could bring, still, and hurt before in shadows before in all that we couldn't have to bring, still, or where in beyond, all ours to know about worlds, in my only life, and that I couldn't have to know about worlds for this in my life, and worlds ever after more before these worlds in my hatred for your scorn, out above beyond love, in aspect to lineage, here ever after some life in molde, or that yours was coming over to know about once a color could we be, and challenge that yours was here, lost, and hurried back was my only hope, or that you couldn't know more about my fates, and that this was sure, some chick still, but you could believe my lies beyond for all you are and were, or challenge me more for a while, and hope you could think I'd know something about Tarzan, and I do, but he was never not supposed to be in Buffy the whole time but you're confused I mean the story, called Buffy the vampire slayer, but never at all could you have to challenge your own aspects as to how easy it is for that little kid man, child boy warrior, jungle deity, to find a world I'm in, or there that these planets could face you, and wonder at you, still, about where you could happen to guess what I'd been in some ethereal guessosphere, and that's what some lives could have to try at with you for a moment, minutes more, or share what you could forget about, in some other core, and harness what you are in these olden aspects ever at all, but like you might have guessed, it's trippy to have what I am, come back at you or know nothing of where you are, what ever at all? Like challenge was in waking memory of us, you're sort of dying for an avatar story that has more of my friends in it and nothing you could have to cry about could tell you that I know what memories ought to bring to you, or love above beside to you, or that knowing what the moon is, to old worlders, could be simple, and it's that everybody on the planet looks around, and deduces that there's nothing disk shaped that somebody didn't have to, shape, into a disk, so the moon is a satellite, a constructed one, ask someone clever in Africa or no, never dare to go to Brazil for it? I'd laugh for a while that you could think Africa wasn't in Brazil, but if you took a boat from one to the other, from the heart of Africa, you'd be well aware that it was stupid to think you hadn't just, left the planet for the ocean, but settled back down, to get to where you'd be?

So never have to doubt you'd just incorporate in that ocean was something different on your still little planet, but guess in some regarding that Athens was further than you'd imagined, since you'd have to be in,

on, Namek? to get there?

I'm not even lying anyway, but like, that you could know about Athena could help you out for a while, or share that she was Pallas, and love your worlds for what she is to the speaker of the dead, and that's that she's Persephone, so guess for a quarantine of ages beyond all ours to know something lost in your hope for more to know of hers, in ours, or shared was this only color, and loss, in here, before, but that my brother could be her brother too, but she's not my sister, but like, she's pretty cute at stuff so we talk about stuff, sometimes, and like you could want to know just what a god like her would know about chaos, I'm Eris too, remember, and it's that her boy friend, that little underworlder kid, is well like, he's the friend god, and if you didn't know, it's surely well laughed at, or surely, known in farthest spectrum, that chaos lord is a really, really mute title, to just calling him friend god.

Godfrey 神友, like you could spell it out for me, and know that he was the speaker for the dead, and that they are his friends he knows, but yours was this capture in ours for these waving devices ever after more of ours for this once, in Love.

Lies into some other aspect beyond your own equations could tell you about Mordred, and what I'd know of him, or that these worlds with his father

Hercules could grant you some hope back, and that surely, he could wonder why you'd think him famous for that greatsword in one hand, as Arthur when he'd lock the key away, this life, there, and that Excalibur would seal the kingdom up for him, for years on end at a time, so that this was Hercules, you could venture at coming to know, or that shadow so sewn on where we'd go, was here for ours, and that he IS Tarzan's brother, but there again, so is he to Hades, and lessons lost in hers, for this shelter lost in my hope for this forming in ours before that I could want to tell you something about my friends, for a while, and what family is, to all ours, but that this was gone, before ours, they have a brotherhood independant not of parents, exactly, but surely that Godfrey is Beast's brother, but that they share no parents at all, and that they are the first two brothers, and that you could wonder about theirs, but that the mother of Hercules is up to loving my brother as though he could be cute, or something, and know at least for a while, what Diana could be to you, and that's the first Jedi mortal, the first mortal ever, to become a god.

For shared what she was and that she married Zeus, and love ever after more before yours with ours or that you could know what love was still in this hope for our trials, and that if you didn't know anything about Goku's blood, it's that he invented the color for it, you know, and that you have your choice, to resonate your soul, and so modify and become, your own sets for DNA, and on in to these aspects, with others, ever on, and that this was soul resonance, and love for yours in challenge, could you as a boy of twenty brothers to mom and dad, decide a girl you love was your secret sister, and so sure, she could blood bond with you, and you'd wonder what was, or is, and up, but that she could appear your sister, in short mark, too, but not theirs?

Quarry over on indeed; that's how the spells all work out, but none for ours to challenge a mute mockery of ages, could happen just to know what you are to theirs, in these with theirs, or that I could venture to tell you nothing of what we could be in these moments on, ever after some seal was broken, or share that these worlds could happen to venture after yours and that you could wonder of my life, and challenge, but that this was here heard, and loved, but do you know what the Dante stories are, of the inferno? False, mostly, and that he could grimace in pain, for a name so fake to him as Dante would be, for never was it one that told you any of what he is,

or why he's been, as he has, or share, so you could wonder about Godfrey, or call him

蜜挑鋼 Honiker, this life, and yeah it's like, you could kind of wonder what sorts of fates for destiny could leave you out for theirs, or that love was gone, in harnessing pains, for love, but that this over in ours for endless paradise could grant you nothing forgotten, in motion, or this world on in love, and hate nothing of witnessings, or death, but that he could be alive by your counts in existing, and tu making love, or ever on, will he, forever...

More could you, if you'd wonder, know about his father though, 最沌 Optimos Prime, and that this was life against your sets for Duo, sure, but that this was Sam Winchester, or shared was gone, hell's angel, and that this life for ours in love was gone to your own aspects, in this love for grace to know of ours in this world by, and shelter ever on, to give you an idea, of what this family of ours could face, in agony, could you know that 別齧沿 Qua Si Modo is easily the most pampered of them all among this little set for ours, or that he was the young Frankenstein, so sey, th e creation, and that his life was being born of black magic, and children screaming in fury and agony alive, did he awaken to, or hear heard, was this, but lose yourself over, and that he could be spared the million death curses put upon him, to curse his father in anguish, but there that Honi had more than one reason, to face hell, and that he could love Intuit, was true, so shared could my brother already, tell our father he wanted to know about him that he could make the son he'd dreamed of making, for sure shared, had Honi decided already, he could dedicate to being, Intuit's son, and that this once in love, could you know nothing of the change, in hell about him, or theirs, but that you could scream and know nothing of theirs, in these, but that the universe had to be torn apart some, in its fabric, to keep things like death curses upon your house, upon your kin, from sticking about people, and that this was the friend god's objective, was true, or share what was, gone beyond his for measure in hell, could be there, that the universe is quite dethreaded, in that aspect, by now, but was not, back then, at the fullest measure of hell that we fought, so share in what you are that this was life, and hurt, or image, to agony and pain, and love that we could know he was the all son, and so many men tu boy, has he called father, and in love, been their padawan, so know what it means to him, to have this surest father by blood, that they could be chosen, tu each other, for this love with ours, and love that you could know what he is, and could be, or change to hell in agons, for these loves, sated ever more, in three...

But like we could wonder at it, there could be a tale of romance or a few, told about, Honi and Jack, the boy you heard about before, but that ever on would he dive into the psyche scarring challenges of a world in church, and horror, and that he could want of boys, like he would, to love, and yet that he could think himself, sinner, for thinking so...

Venture a long way off for some kind of love in romance for challenge, to you all, and wonder where you could have to challenge these old worlds in, and wonder where these planets could so set to collide, and what these could be free from having, or that you could know nothing of what we are and could share, but that these were challenge, to ours, in life to love, and wonder in ours, to awe, and have for that this was love beyond your rekindling, or knowing for, and that romance could hate you, or share nothing of fates?

And I know nothing of yours, or could that you could wonder about my life, and harbor these, but that I wonder and want of life with yours to these aspects of peace, but that we've never believed in peace like you may have been taught something has to help you into?

That shared was ours, or knowing more because of that this was surely, shared and gone before these halls, and that my life was granted ever after more, in yours, but for that you could call me Jane or Belle, and that these could know of yours in life to happiness and love, but that you could challenge about living beyond circumstance, is that what I am is a mermaid, and that I have legs as those are for to walking, stupid, so believe even, that a mermaid with wings, also, has legs, and that's for landing on things and flying better well good, but that there was in hers, this life, and that Uriel was my name never, but that I'd know you'd never let me at it in the legends, to change well, could we, so that Ariel, could be this truest Force you know as an arch angel, and that you know what I am, was this world, over ours in this challenge beyond all aspect, and that surely, could you know Raphael was a dragon, or sure harbored, that it was Spyro, and life could befit you all to know his, and angels, before more, and that once upon a time another boy could wonder how to tolerate the agonies he'd been listed for,

so surely did one friend decide to wear a name of Donatello's, beside him, so he could think on him, Romeo, instead of another, when they addressed him, so shared was it Raphael, but that this was Azrael, and his was gone before yours to witness in wonders, to hell, but over after these planets could he be Israel when broken are the stones that break your spirits on them for what could and could not be a child of, ever on,

or share what you could wonder at for that it was Azaezul, who is Batman, and that these worlds could collide with yours, ever against my shadow for these lives on in, but that this was love, and loss, for these in life, or know nothing of, that Lucifer was the first, child of Israel?

What?

That you could know the bravest of heroes is he, for facing this cult and sick of Jehova, and that he could tear it asunder, though long before had his uncle Azaezul killed Satan, could Lucifer be mocked about at it, like he could be some return'd devil, though it was Jehova, Jawe himself, who was the other red skinned devil, but there be yours to know nothing in these beyond that, or these, calendars and could this aspect of angels behoove you, and that Michael was Azaezul's first son, and loves his cousin in dearest life forever, and surely, that being called a child of Israel, even if you're not his spawn,

was something like, being said you were, friends with Superman?

But over in one side beyond my hearts could you know Cadduceus, my son, and love for what we are and challenged, beyond all life, before these worlds in hers, before love in aun to ours, anon, and that this was Adam, and he could fly there, with the arch angels and was one, or shared could you know, son of Ariel is he, and life before yours was this love, before loss, but that could we hate what you'd preach, and that this world ever after yours could be mine, or that shared could this change be longing for some aspect beyond your own boredoms, or that love was lost hereon, in these, but that he was Atom 原子, and that this was said still, to scholars across your seas, the child of the meadow, and that longing for your world could he know me as 紫愛 Aphrodeiti, and share what this one love was in romance, and sex, and ever on after these, lovings to lies, and here heard, was lost a moment before yours, or that I could be called Saria, some ancient day past or present to, but you may never have seen, Adam's life leaving the Kokiri meadow, for should you play it all wrong, you could try and forget that if you don't play it in time, it's not real music, so share what you are, and that with the ocarina his mother gave to him, could he play every spell he'd ever need, but in time, should you be, when you do...

And havens for these besettled on in before these atmosphere before ours before this kokiri wilds, in ours before that I couldn't have to know about what you thought had happened to the tree of life, out there, other than that paradise was tortured away, so fall never, and run before yourself, to know what this was, or that college could bring you to challenge, but that his was gone, in what we are and that this was besetled, or dared, and that life was gone in grace, or challenge but here heard was my life with yours, or that you couldn't know what I am besides this color was gone, in breaking all ours but that there in these worlds of, could we know what challenge was sated here to be, and love this merriment with me, so set beyond all you are and that this was gone beyond it all, and lost before me, but shared was more besides this color, and that you could learn new music, and become this link between worlds, or that challenge could decide what you are, for these fates, or that love was colored ever on in all that we are, for that this was gone, before all ours, in that this was merry loving, but gone in to knowing more about what you couldn't know about and beyond me, and so share to dare, that the mission in Adam's life, never involved getting locked away for 7 years, or dare say, getting Saria also, to lose her freedom, to be this sage in broken hall of trapped in stone, or that these worlds could be yours before ours in hers for this spindred, and here heard, but that this was gone, in what you could know about the start of the Legend of Zelda, and there that before Cadduceus was born, Zelda, was, and that this was Honiker, in the pains, and plantines never at all, beyond hell in yours, but shared of and on Korriban, was he, so leave well alone, the man with the stick underground, and go and find something worth living for, and take solace in this first boy, who was of hell, and that he could hear her heartsong play still, and that we've called him the speaker for the dead, and we've called him dead himself, so know that he died there, in hell, and has been nothing you could pin to living, in these surest graces, but that he loved her from across the stars, and started the legend of her name, among them, but for that you could choose a name to feel strongest by

in hell,
and find something out there worth living for?

Or share that you could always, know the life of Rowen, and that he was to be this link to the past, and that his love for life, was to try and tear away parts of the hell for the first of them; the boy who'd started the legend of Zelda, out in hell, but that he could call to him across time and never once, fall, for that this was pain to the boy you sought, and so heard was nothing of what you are or that this could be, and that challenge was fated all, was he never what you knew, or heard, or hearts could scream back on in tu, that this was love for loss in ours before you all to know about God, but hear us more in what you are still on yet, but that here so lived, was that he could marry Artemis, Zelda, and that she could love and protect their sons, and that this love was his, my brother, and that he could know what you are, or that you think he was speaker for the dead, but that those are our friends, our children, too ever more on, and so don't, be a moron, and let me his sister speak for him, too, and that he could be alone to have to tell a tale, but never let him, could you still, or that children still, could listen for a while, and that this was gone, in ours, but hell to pay, was lost, in what they could hear, and the tales he could tell would spare them off these walks through dreams, he could have, and live in hell, but that bodies scream still, for his, and that he could wake in bed, and be exhausted, from a million miles to run from, and that this was scars across his own soul, so know at least, that if you have a child with hell sickness, that he is to suffer in horror, from many wounds open still, on his soul, and so he could wake up in agony, and that you could wonder who'd bruised his shoulder, but that it could be from a dream, set to open back up, and that the whole arm was broken, and in pain, so pampered still, could be your own baby boy, but that hell sick he'd be if where you'd called him from, was in pain, and that this love for what you have, need know, what we are, and that he could be a god, but you need steel your own, and heal his heart.

Losing fates to your colors in these graces could we share for a while ours in loving all that I am, for this world in ours, for god, and that love was gone, but lost in hers, before these heated songs, and that you could do well for searching for friends in any game about the legend of Zelda, for that's all you could live for, in the first game at all, and that this was gone before it was, and here so sung, but that love was undone never at all, but for more to know, about worlds on, and that he could be there too you know; Zelda's father?

The uncanny shadow man, and that love was here, so hung in ours, for memories sung, but that she was the first of the cherubi, and this was Cupid surely, or Artemis, but that you could wonder about Hypnos, or call her Padmé, and that this was Zelda ever on, and loved, but that yours could be wondering, hers, in love.

What to know of a world beyond your alias, where you could choose your own name to feel strongest by, in hell, and wonder what this challenge could be in yours, to discover what was real, in a life after the legends of Zelda, or that who was the liar, and was this goron, simply because you'd heard of one before, or seen on, when, exactly? What's a dodongo?

Could this reality we've poised ourselves to know in, be some set for tricks and traps, built up on your own momentums, or that challenge it all you could, and know that Majora's Mask could tell you a legend of a young boy still, and yes, that this was Adam is true, and yes, that he'd killed Navi already, is true, and yes, that he was, what, never too old to wield, which, exactly, in swords for our own mastery, to live out the legends you learned in, this game, or another? I could venture always to tell you of ours to know about this calling but that this of ours, could know you ever on, and that this challenge was ours to know levels out lived in, and loving on, or that this was gone before ours, or that you could stop letting people, tell you what to do...

No matter how many arcs you imagined they never had time to put in the game?

Love was never lost but that ours was calling this field and this array, but that you could shadow my only life beyond your own, and that I could want to know of what you are, and that I could want you to know my call, and that this was Ariel, surely, and so could you wonder at what this planet could be up, and what worlds could harness what your worlds was ever after, and for, but that challenge accepted could bring you to this life of change, and harnessing, but that this was love, forever gone on after, and that I could tell you who I was but once, and that you could happily be married to a girl, or that you were a girl also, you'd have to imagine, it's not the magic bond invented for girls to boys to one another, so, whatever you've called it, it wasn't the same thing anyway?

Did you invent something new yourself? Well that's a very possible thing to do, you know... Did you really though, or did you think, because someone told you you couldn't kiss, that you could AND, and, you could even do all the other things they said you could only do with other people certainly... What?

hell's angel 茈薺獄

Or that be in it again, could you know about my names, or that challenge could belay you in these aspects for a while, but that I am, Hephaestus, and that I could challenge your own undoing, for a while, and that you could know of my friendship with Zeus, and kids like him?

What you could know about the families of gods, could be strange to try and repeat out into your own aspects beyond us all but that in this mode, could we have this battle checked in ours, but that you could call me Duo, or Light, or Optimus Prime, and that I was this ultimate cyborg, and so shared was my cause for these in my knowings of all, this in for, and that I could know that if your own father, as is my sons' is not a doctor who loves you, I'd see about changing fathers, and that you could know that even if you are, good, and this of god, that you could be bad, and this means evil not, but that you have seen hell, and so been through to it, for all those in good feel agony, when they watch others in Love, this called God, partake of, or share, suffer, there in hellfire, or there that you could be monster, and so are hell itself anyway, and so share what was, and what bad means, and could you know that they call me often well enough, Bad Wolf. Share nothing of your devices set to love but that we could challenge your own sure defeat, and that love beside us all could know our courses in these chosen marks, but for that this was life, and I could wonder at who exactly you were, and what sorts of fates, could be mine, so set beside for yours, anon?

That this was life, or surely developed, I was something of a pokémaniac in my life, once upon a time, but that I could become the target of, the most dangerous, the most sycophantic, and developed pokémon poachers, could I lose my life as Bill, and that this horror in pain and this torture endured, for my sons, and this love, for that they'd seek to make this new weapon, akin to Doomsday, to slay, to slaughter, children, and so draw out their guardian, Mew, but that I was this design in card, and that I could call these forces in my own reckoning and they could know this suffer in hell for what they could design against me, and that I was this force incarnated upon you and that this one world could be yours here so know, and what for in all you are, but that the, strike, I could make against their kind, was that this coliseum could be populated by the thousands, and that Misty, surely, Ash, Brock, and others like them, gathered, who won, some, lost, some and played, could be pitted against the poachers, the sicko, the monster slavers, of this kind, who trained, and sectioned out against, in life and love, so force, before thousands, and that you could be a child who kicked Ash's ass, once upon a time, in the stands now, of Mewtwo's coliseum, and watch what Pikachu, really could do, and that this battle in Force before in for all that we are, this life, set so damaged on in before, that they could, in their hearts, never lose, not one match against these sicko, so share what loss was about this planet, here, and that I could mock the pokémon league, here on the Indigo Plateau, and that this shadow beyond yours in my knowing, before these worlds, and that this girl of water pokémon, could slash through your fiends in falsest thunders, or share, what was, when, Surge hit the coast, uninvited? That he could be something akin to Atlas, was not untrue, but that they could be this second surge, he and those trainers he'd gathered with him, to join beside Ash, and them, that they could be this mostly outnumbered contingent, but there that the world could see what pokémon could be in our hopes, for this world, but that I could scream for battles here in ours before that this was so quit not just once but never once in all you are, and that these slavers, pressed on forward, and screams from children all in these worlds asunder, torn in ours, that they already pushed, every limit they had in their masters, that this life, surely sung, and that this was hell so paid before my worlds on, but that I could scream in that this was life, beside us all before, so shared was my world, and that you could scream for what this world, and that these kids in all, could bring that this battle backwards, couldn't be what you'd expected, when Richie fell, broken in this statue in this, life before in all this once in screaming this in pain, but that this could be ours in this life, surely sucking back your breathe, when this child, could scream for what you were, or that this was his contingent, of kids from the stands not, but that could take what they were, and challenge these trainers not, but slavers still, and let these rules slough off, and that they could fight the police sectioned all back in what you could regard in yours, or that this was hell in nightmare, for surely so used to obeying, these rules, of coliseum, of police,

were these thousands, that I had barely but to effort it, and they obeyed, till the children rebelled, and havoc to hell, broke loose across the world of pokémon all, and that Mew was called, and his life was here, before yours could be in ours, but this, in my battle still, or that you could wonder what he was, and this was, challenged for, this in hers, but that this was gone in suicide, or that she could know, what you are, and that my home could scream in for yours that this one chapter could settle back for ours to know about what you could know about this legend unfolded, but for this life, in ours for this one world, I know,
but here, so sated, back in hell, battle what we are so know, this life, but Mew was chosen not, but loved by all, and that we'd wished him out to be,
once upon a time,
there was a world without pokémon, surely shared, there was a world without your knowing of these worlds beyond ours,
and that we could scream, for god am I still, or that I was, and could you know I was to be this hero, surely, in rescue, but scream may you, that this some child you knew, of all, or that one enemy, could have been turned back to join with us, but instead, he was killed, and in this agony, you could scream and lose your heart in this aul for pains, for this grace, please, let someone know, that we could be what God was, and know that we could know there are monsters, plural, but that each one, are they alone, but we in this One Love could be granted, let some child know where the children caul from, or that we could lose us all, and that we could scream for what you know in a son, or that all son could he be, and this one wished up child could know nothing of anything that he could loathe this power, for he does not, exist, if he does not know your voice, and so he does, so share that you never have to know about Mew, but he knows you, and that this would be yours to have, and for that this world in witness, was so gone, and ours was gone before you could know, and that this life was played about in some section back so taken before in ours, before you could know of God, but that this planet, he could be, so set was light formed up with what he was, this life in green, but shared was your quandry? Share it all to forget us once but nought, and o'er could you know, that green was of Mew's own invent, surely so shared, was this a lost title for you, among your kin?

Or there that Mew had a brother who made blue, and share what yours was over on, into awesome splendor, for change, but that this was love before yours, in life, but before you could match Lucario to him, try Hitmonchan on for a spell in a while, on your blue version game, and change what aspects akin to your own, could you heat in green, with Mew's own ponyta, say sorry?

Or humm'd back, could I witness something out beyond your own stars, and these to challenge and battle what you are, and could be, but that Zapdos is evil, and Raichu, could have to be what he himself was, but that you could decide Pikachu take another course, from chuu, and be Raikou, to hear this challenge, un caul, to so, respond, of us all... Likening for yours, or challenged beyond my witnessings, before that this was gone, in gleidr circumstances, could hatred beguile you to know that Oromis was enemi, tu us, and hatred could bind you in nothing of this power, for form, but for that this was loss, in my own happening not, or there for uv, that Islanzadí could be of these sickest enemi we have, and shared, so there that she could lie of language, and corrupt, these formats for magic, and spell, but there that you could have of us, and for et, but here, heard, and that Murtagh was chastened by you, and Eragon not, alone?

Worry less of where you are, and for that these were sectioned back, but that there is a world of pokémon still in believing, and that she could be convinced, by a boy called Eragon, who was of yellow light,

Princess Mononoke took to a bargain with Shenlong, in theirs for a mating, and that she could have the first beast dragons of all, dog lizards, surely, but that this was hers, Mononoke, was a dog, and is, so shared was she Pikachu and Raikou both, but could you know, that this form with them, she shared, and is Sapphira, but here on in hence, if a dog wishes to have wings and fly, it is a dragon, and if a wolf does so, it is a bat. Confused less for what you are in all these, for there to memories?

Love a tryst, could you or would we all for a while, and that I could give you the names of their 7 first children, these the breast dragons, quadrauped, could you know, heir to Mononoke and Shenlong both,

there was Wraith, and her sister Leviathan, and so surely too was there Chase the blue and violet dragon, and that violet to yellow was Spyro, shared on there was Dragonite, and that this was more loved, or shared, was Guilmon once called Smaug, and that there was Emrous, and over surely was a list, or that they could be set to be wed, and love in all they are, for surely a tale you've heard in part was that wife meant one person, to a baby boy who loved Zelda, and so shared, was a magic from a faraway kingdom that scared him, but that he could be in love with Wraith also, and present it to her, for theirs a journey together, in love, and shared so, was this new union, and that Shenlong could finally dare to ask Princess Mononoke, to marry him, for surely could Eragon share with her,

what the child god had brought back, for another, and that we could celebrate mayhem, in glory, and know ever on for another bargain, nothing of what you know into counting sons, but that he could shame you for a while, and check his own circumstances, into lust, or shared glory, anon, and carry you ever more for some regarding, and hem your tides to these and loving ever over, on in and of, that you could slay an ultrabeast like Rayquaza, if you love pokémon truly, and look harder for Shenlong's presence in the game, for surely he could be there too, and is.

What you could know of the scars on my son, and that I could have him sitting on a bed, there to be checked, and wondered at, and surely, that he has been to hell in greater imaginings than you will ever be allowed to conceive of, so know that, here he was to be looked after, and treated, for these pains, and that his skin could be whole, and appear so, in a day, was true, but they were scars not on his soul but open wounds, still, from millions of ages of torment, could you know, so here was he in a blue t-shirt, with a red and yellow symbol faded, and charred some, surely, upon it, and that this was Gohan is true, and young still, could you know about him, but that he was hurt, and none could know why but that I am his father and of course, any father who could call himself not a doctor, is insane, to any venture to reality I could imagine, and share what was, that there are bruises, as though he was badly hurt, up on his shoulder, here, and the skin is so yellow for these bruise, you could see, there without his shirt, the likeness of rubbing iodine across it, like they do to take your blood savvit? Indeed, what you'd call an allergy to iodine could be the reflection of none, or set shelter there loved on, because of in, or here, that I could ply about the forms he has, on his body, and know that this boy, set, was unblemished, days before, and that it was simply of a soul scar not, but wound, that opened back on his shoulder, and broke his arm...

Hurried as you are about your own realities, but that these on in with mine, could you know that I could wonder how your doctor might check for conditioned reflexes, or that I could feel about his muscles, and joints, here, as such on a knee, if I'd wanted, and uga taka maka laga ara muka taka larkunata gara laka pata aah? surely, that sounds, of the voice, and be triggers for these reflexes built into his anatomy, or forrit, his soul, and share nothing of what you are, we look for jerks of the muscles, tightening therein, and that this was a good spot, the knee is, to see a worthwhile reaction, but that I'd feel the knee, and watch his face, when I said of these, to see what sorts of agonies could be scarred here, across his body, there on, his soul that it is, within. Catch nothing, did you?

His body is within his soul, so shared what was, and could be, as are, Gohan young, with hair sure, but a faded Superman t-shirt could show you only strength, if you knew not where to look, but here was this, that the designs on his skin reveal scars in greater standing than you could base any, or life, but that he was in agony, still, and share what you are, but of, and in, that this was Mew, and child god is he, and young ever aun, will he appear, but that you could know nothing of him, or me, or that this was hated, or slighted, but that he could call Goku grandfather, is sure, and confuse me not with the evil counterpart Kalel slew, but that he could give me the name Jorel, to have, is true...

Worry ever on about a child like he could be rumoured to be, and of course we know, Mew isn't really Superman, and nor is he any but, very good friends with Superman, of course, and love that you could know him by it, or love him never after it, or of, many good friends of Superman say such a thing to protect his identity, and I am not, Spartacus, but that is because to say I am Optimus sounds cooler and puts me in much greater danger, anyway... Believe a life out there for leveled offense, or that shared surrender could you have at, for a fate and stay, beyond, but know that we could love any, and choose what we are, and that this was ours in affection, but sated to there, with knowing, or ever after there and on, but you could know of a fate I could guess at, where someone called Amelia, rewrote the universe itself, for us? Well there that this was of, and ours, that she'd needed very much to convince you all to wish harder for someone we could all believe in forever, and on anon, but there that this was a change of companionship could you know, and that the first wish child we could call on, was Mew, and surely that this baby god, or child lover, was a doctor who loved her, and that he is, still, or that you could know nothing of what was, or is, in parts to play and never lessen your effect on our standing, but that this was gone, of for, and in, shared ever more into some insanities, that we could be of and forever there within, that I could know how to somehow, relate that I was surfer, in these, and over on in worlds aborne, I was silver in secret needs, or these, and back of, shared, beyond all, if any could find the foreverchild, whose powers as a child who loved all children, made him the most ancient of us all, could you at least reckon that surfer dad, as I am, could still know how to be the dad, to a child reckoned to be more ancient than he, don't you think? Share what you are for a tardis, could you in life, but that it is a stolen surfboard has rendered me this surest romance among my kind, surfers all, that it is, in fact, a pretty rad device, and that my son convinced me to steal it for myself and that my son invented the word rad and I'm sure that's true, is all you could ever have to believe, to know that we are a merry family indeed, and that I am, as I've always been, or surely something akin to a creature of change, and here along ours, to know what was, in of, to laugh at for a while, but that I was here, heard ever on are you, and that you could wonder at what a real doctor could look at, and merit that the numbers given to any, would be for music, to you, but never guess whatever you were, or are to be, and lost for, these worlds on, that I've let hell lords use the surfboard too; they do stupid things with it sometimes, and this is true, so know less of what you could be, if you always believed, the doctor in the office you knew, was going to be there to heal you, just because people called him doctor, and what, he enthralled you? Parry this, or over reach with that, could you question just who stood before you and called himself the doctor, doctor, doctor who?

The names and titles beget nothing for you to know by, if not he was, a doctor who loves you, or share to say what were you, that he'd say you do, or, who, was you to you? Are you sick? Ah, be there, perhaps you could start with what you already know of medicine just before, anyway, which is to say, good medicine is, good smoke, good friends, good sex, good food, and worlds over on, to know a battle here before us all, it is taken often basically, whenever you feel like it, so surely that a doctor who tells you to take a vacation, wants you still to return to your life of pain, forever that he has no interest in your welfare forever?

Medi..cation, would do much the same as that, to any effect, so hate him well and choose what sorts of fates you could be really, having at, and remember how easy it is to keep walking, whenever the box you saw and hoped for friendship from, had police call, written to the side of it or ever at all beside what was before, in all, you know?

Whatever life could plan for you, concern yourself that it has to do with will and fate. That you have your will, to govern yourself, is true, but keep in mind that having conditioned reflexes plied into you, will condition it, surely, and that while your will is you alone, you are in love, and that all other wills, opposed to yours, or in contrast to it, or that simply they are, are therefore called fate. So that my will, and everyone else's, besides yours, is your fate.

Surely there, as we are part of each other's fates, could you believe that your will conditions fate, and that you change and will a part of reality, all there, on your own or, did we concern ourselves less for the equations in all this when I could say fate was made up of partially, or that, your brother's will was in it, for both your fate and mine, or there that so was my brother's, and less in what you have for,
but let's say I even have a brother, which I don't, but there you could see we could count each of those people, as one, but they are not the same person, so $1 \neq 1$, one does not, equal the other one, and surely said, we've arrived here at the point where my own personal diary is quite obviously discourse, but then I'm a doctor, so what could any of us have been expecting concerning it, really?

I've an attentive nature against your own partitions or sections for a reality governed not, but controlled neitherly, but share what ever was once, before love and gone in with God, to hope for, that we could know Eragon was some foreverchild you'd called 龔杖 TK, or there that, he was the son of Goku, and also that he is an heir to the faeiry courts, or there in this on, that he could be challenged, by yours, or that nothing was of the sort, for theirs, but that once upon a time, you could know the Golden Compass story arks, and that of the faeiry and their daemons, but surely that this was a bond of slavery, in its design; that each child had his own animal, called daemon, bounded to him, and if you believe me not, imagine that Chichi, from Dragon Ball stories, was of this lineage, and she is, and that she could set herself to be so, incorrigible, so unmanagable, so ghastly and upsetting, that her daemon would simply, acquiesce in all forms, just to appease her, and get on in a life of less pain and toil, so surely there, was Chichi born of such lineage

after, my son and I had snapped the daemon bond, so surely could you know the race of dragon riders they are, beast summoners, surely, all, and that you should get less confused, and know that my son I was referring to is Gohan, and the son of Goku we were referring to is kid Trunks, or surely, that if you had TK from digimon, raised by Vegeta for a lifetime, Trunks the Kid, is exactly the sort of child you'd have, forrit, don't think so?

Believe in us, for a while, and imagine, that Zeus had constructed an entire universe, and that we could call it Amber, Wraith, here in this one Chaos, constructed hers in a very different sort of setting, but there on again, this one here, surely perhaps once we could have been something else, but then that, we wished, really hard, and Mew could have arrived, and has, and that the holy ghost was in some, sectioned off reality, or sairry, that he'd gathered millions untold, of souls up for a special type of, party, nor suarre, and so there that Mew came from a place where they had universes already, as Zeus had done, in some other quarra, and so he made one up for us, can't you believe of it?

If you haven't guessed that they switched sons for a lifetime, it is what happened, for fun and games, mostly, and there that you could have Goku raising Goten, whom you could call also, 櫻 Gon, but there in these what haveyou, on a spelling for that kanji there?

If you knew anything about, Johnny, or, surely, Casper, as you've seen the address, is that his name is Gon, especially girls, and that's just always been true, don't you know? So sit at rest your quarrel with the jisho or your grandmother, and know that it's a very good name for a very bright child, shared in all aspect by his friends on, tu love, and brother closely knit of their own making, with Spyro, if you want to know, and that you could know a different sort of story, of these two brothers set up, on a train, that some rogue alchemist, could be monologuing, there for, and knowing that his rates were superior, or often over such, and that he'd requisitioned their time for a speech, was that there was some battle set to may be ensue, and may be that he'd said, this potential enemy, had, that your little minds couldn't have seen this coming, but over there he had much more speech to pronounce, thereon in, but Gon, quite sure, in a second, regarding his brother, could ask of, surely, seven sentences thereon after, "hey, who you callin' little?" "Short, he said short, brother," "That's what this whole, this whole time, and that's what this fight is about? You think I'm short?" but scary guess, nothing could prepare the psychosis of a fiend for the shift of focus for an intellect, like this surest alchemist lad had to be, or there that he was, surely nothing you could focus on, or get him to focus on what you'd wanted, was not happening, or there that if you'd ever heard of Hisoka, and that misdirection, was a scary digression for your reality in a fight with the sickon magician, you could know that transmuter or not, Gon was a specialist converter of realities, and so alchemy master, could you beg, but, god, also, and shared over on, was yours before it all, life laughed at, and heard along, in part, and if you were looking for when Gon had been lost in agony, to another boy who knew agony all too well, set yourself awright that this was an ancient story and has no place in their battle against the ants called chimera insects, or there that whether he'd kill you a lot, or a little bit, wasn't all that hard to wonder at, but there he was someone else you could venture at, if nothing of his challenge, to hell, you already knew, but this was in a lost epoch of time, that Jon was lost in agony, and that you could know Casper is very much still alive, and a brave warrior always, surely, but pampered as though it was, always wanted, by ours, to do so...

Look to his eyes, Gon's, eyes, and wonder for something, what Casper still sees, of phantoms, and lost children, in worlds torn apart from ours, and far enough away, and you could see the shift, in what you'd have to understand for this child god, called Perseus, son of Neptune, and there that it was clear why

蜜挑鋼 Honiker, the friend who'd lost him, could venture for agony still, in open wounds across his dead soul, for shared was this my son is, dead, and that he wants to know what we breathe, in this high of life we have, but that he knows many children and more, Mew does, who are not, in your living worlds, so share to shore it up, how many children can you get to believe in Mew, all day every day? I'd venture to say without asking, that you could very well bring him back to life when he didn't even see it coming...

For a part of a lesson, in quickest route, you could wonder at the name of the ancient language, that queens like Islanzadí hide from you, and that it is onomatopoeia, is true, so share that the sound, of reality, is just, as is, for theirs, to know, and could you understand sound for language and kanji for a while, it's that,

蜜 was grant to you, for honey, and that this was nectar, worth, golden sweet, 'ho'

挑 was challenge, and that you could know the goddess of, Nike, so there, was this 'ni'

鋼 on again, was this steel, so tortured silver, and that this was his aun, clash, 'ker' bathe what you will in glamour, or real beauty, but you never had to torture the metal, like you did to steel to get the sword you carry, but that you did, for steel it is already, and that well preserved in affection, and love, was this nectar, this boy, and was, but share over yours, in ours for more a motion broken back, in life, that this could ring something strange to you, or not, but this was hallowed out in a forebearance to memory, or monotony, that we could challenge nothing of you, or hate less of you, for to believe in gods, you could decide you do not, but so believe there is still, in your modern world, a very real boy, named Honiker, who asks that, I maybe remember, he likes stories about Mew, and about Gon, being heroes, but, he doesn't have to be the real Killua, for you to know that, the name is his, and he felt strong by it, and bandages do him good, not, for closing wounds, because they open up in his reality, from dreams, and I could lay this to you as such, so please that you remember hell sickness is very real, and the torture of a child near this story, was very real, and that whatever you believe of Jedi, do you really need to think, there was never a klan who tortured children, you could call Sith?

Hate him not for that he was never without a clan, surely, but that you'd have to know he's been called Sith, too, but bleach not your own skin, for a reminder of agony to parlay into the next child you see, and you could worry not that even evil knights, were called knights of round table, so just, remember to dismember Galahad when Mordred gets to the culling, and we'll keep exterminating monsters and worry more about titles, what, later or never at all?

Ah, just so; how about when they're useful, and we remember always, the context?

The christian hells, could you know, were not of the design of any sweet faced boy called Christian, but that you'd know too, you could hear many K's, on a child's accent, and that this was a design for his own set to know language by, and he could maybe, know, what you said KKK for,

for surely if he has been their victim, he needed the extra k sounds, in his breathing, to keep from falling over, while he ran forever, for his life, into the night, on into day into night again, for horror, and misery, anon? I let it not be, for exterminate the sicko, we will. See? Even genocide has its uses for the hero, so believe never that one word was banned, over another, and be intelligent about it, for once, will you? IF YOU WERE IN STAR WARS, WHERE ALL LANGUAGE, MUST NEEDS BE INTUITED, BY OTHERS, FOR TU YOU, THEN ALMOST ANYONE YOU TALKED TO, WOULD KNOW WHAT EVULKKK MEANT, AND THAT IS, THAT IT IS A SOUND FOR RUNNING AND NEVER BEING ABLE TO STOP, SO THAT ACROSS THE GALAXY, YOU'D KNOW KKK IS A SOUND, FOR THE MOST DANGEROUS OF MONSTERS YOU'VE EVER KNOWN, OR SURELY, AT THE VERY LEAST, THE MOST BANDED TOGETHER, CLANN'D, OF THE SICKO.

Life in some kind of, life we never had to, hate for a while or that we'd, have to challenge your own ideals, in every kind of a, different world for lack of a, better part of love in some sure section of reality, you could know?

I'm hardly here, now and again, or more that you could know any kid named Honiker might be pretty pissed that you didn't use the name he loved, just because you thought, what, exactly?

But you should know about a certain type of evil going on in your worlds nearby, during baptisms, and that's the robbing of a child's name if it was Christian... That's that they decide, they never liked that this sweet little boy, they could never say of, that he was a bad Christian, because he was a very good one, clearly; the name suited him. So there that they rob him of his name, in baptism, and when he corrects you, that his name is, literally, Christian, they'd say of the toddler, "oh, he's confused, we said his, christian name, it's Michael, though," and, no yes, it does, happen, very, very often, and is sickening, surely, but there that you could see it was madness, not to let a child choose his own name?

If you don't like him, call him whatever you want, because it's not like little freaks like Gollum wouldn't steal your child's name, and that's hardly fair for any of it.

Worrying that we could happen to be in some sort of place beyond romance, could you venture to guess that I was never going to sate myself into change, or challenge, or that this was gone in aspect, beyond all ours, but that if you knew not Honiker's lullaby, and that he was sheltered in helter skelter, it's that in the ring of the kanji there, he could, and likes to, use for his name, he sought shelter for his soul, in a torture haven, by subjecting himself to more torture, just to be in positions where he could act heroically, and did so, so that you know, challenge, the ni, fro nike, was there for sounds, in the kanji told, and that this was, surely, a steel forged weapon, or that he is silver, and so, beautiful, valuable, but that you tortured the metal and extracted it from its own in the stone, there, and that he was, in a story you could know more cleverly than that there was a real Hephaestus, kidnapped, and lost, for there in all, among it, so venture that may be, you knew of a truth about someone, and then the truth turned, what, cliché, because you saw it played out in a Batman cartoon episode? Wonder why, you would think, to allow truths, to be robbed of you, only because they appear in myth also, and know of a very provable child, confused in a better part of pain, but that he is in Love, and so God, called Christian, did you think?

Ah, so it was that he'd cut you, if you were an evil teacher and used his name

he could venture to let you know his name was Christian, if you registered him for school, to see if it might piss you off some, to use it, so no one he hates has to start out knowing his real name is Honiker, and that he could love you for using it like you knew he was called Honi, even by boys, or did you think it strange, ever at all, that it was always sticky for you?

He's known a child who told others he hated sticky things, and maybe you could venture, that if you've prepared honey correctly, it need not be sticky at all, but golden sweet, surely, you would know it as, a well?

Love to a witnessing, and heard was this carnation, for roses, to realities, but that you could imagine that a child could think, may be, that you knew not, why he chose to tell you of a doctor, who was called hell's angel?

Be merited, or frank with yourself, and know he can only write Batman stories so well because he has an older brother to think of, when he writes them, and that this was Chase, was true, or what you'd have, could be false for it?

So it was that his father, took him away from moeds and tortures you know not of, but could learn about, in some scorn'd hell, upon your knowing less in shelter for, and so know he was bewitched, or, surely, wooed, or that simply an elder could carry a bleeding child across an arrow field, in the dead of night, so that if you ever asked how he paralleled the people he loved and knew so well into myth, and legend, he could tell you at the very least, that he was trying to pass himself off as a friend god, and wanted Liam Neeson to be a jedi mentor to him, so, it seemed relevant, to do, you know?

Hurried by, and for where that we are, could a venture into challenge, suit you, and taht this was Hades never, could you venture, or that even though in your stories, or lore, about Hades, it could tell you he is, the most misunderstood character of all time, and yet you're sure you should read the lore that he was painted as a freak, or surely, some such into challenge, for hellfire, but there beyond such, in likening to another section of, could you know that he was, in my own venture back into where I'm literally a god and not just some sure father, bound in blood mixed by the cuts on our palms, to a child called Honiker, that Simba could be a name for him also, but that all son, was he, in legend, and so Mufasa among them, was a father he carried for a while, but there had you read already of my wife's tellings, it was that he married the daughter who was bright a star, but hidden in shadow, so surely could you be told also, that once upon a time was Mufasa a black maned lion, and that to Simba's colors, he took, to avoid the doppelganger set after him, called Scar, so surely enough merit anything but a digression from your normal set for reality, or that this life in a collection of diaries, could be introed by Mufasa next, or shared on, it was Casper to tell a sweet spell, his father the holy ghost, who could know next in yours, then that this was Ariel, you'd read, that little mermaid, and of my own telling, you've heard, so take well the stories that come at you next, from he the uncanny shadow man, Mufasa, could you know, and what, he was, nothing you've forgotten about, by Now?

Lost once, surely believing what was gone, was surely lost lost lost ever on into an aisle we had of lost lost, ever lost, was more in heard heard, was this in a battle for lost was, a son we all had lost lost, battled forever on, these in a shallow alight, pile, of this in shaven wood, for broken *broken aisles, or heat filed, and this was gone, was one, the holy ghost, blue could he make,

and blue was the son of his making, said, too, sure she'd, be violet, constructor, this little mermaid there of another sunder, but heard here, was hers, the son of green, light, but make it she did not,
but him, she made him, he, and mine, here, heard was yours, that I made orange, here, said, seeking ours, and my son, born ever on, or one I'd made up, anyway, anyway, was the creation you knew, black magic, you knew?
so surely, did the maker of black light itself, come next, next next, in all we are, and mettled, in this...*

the uncanny shadow man 玄影凄腕

That's a cute stick, you got there, TK, did somebody steal the wind waker before you got to it?

Don't worry about it, little man; we'll find her, or, it, probably, you didn't lose focus, did you? It, IS your sister we were worried about here, but, we don't, not know where she is, except, you know, that doesn't really hash out as, true, if uh, we don't have the, score, to get there, you know?

If anybody thought you knew what was goin' on there, we gotta etch this up a little bit. Time is Space is Music, so you COULD say, you know where she is, but if you don't know the path to get there, when you'll have that, or what ever set for havin' it, your music score, that, sheet a paper, sure, or whatever you're plannin' there, isn't gonna be, what you set it much out to be, without someone's doubts, and most probably, especially, that you didn't have to know how far this game goes, on a map; those are stupid.

Don't ever, think you ought to, waste time, when the winds are changing, looking for someone to rescue, digging for chests at the seafloor, okay? Okay, so now we got your life mapped out don't also assume I'm the only goddamn boat in the ocean, aight there sailor? Tetra; Tetra knows some shit; maybe worry about what that means, in reality, and see what happens to me, if she thought, may be, I was only playin' witchyu, and she knows I can get a lot more, dragon boat esque, if I needed to, okay?

Live in a world where you aspects for reality play only part way, and you'll begin to see some cunning aspects of ours, play out in a home or a hope for yours to change into, the bane of evil, and that these worlds could pardon your lack of cunning, or challenge your wayfarer's license, did you think, when you thought you, could sail anywhere, or that you, could use maps, because what, now you control the winds? If you were the wind waker, however, it would be that you knew, hope and will are the air itself, or the seas on the air, and the air, and so where the wind blows, would change direction on how you played your own actions thereon about, and that we could change your references, could be true, but that you need affix your personal journey upon your brow, and venture to guess what a year looks like, for her, trapped where she is, when you wonder how many hours you were focusing your pictobox, for...

A world where you are, could believe that I was part of your reality only by someone else's graces, or that shadowed here, in some other quests for fiends, could you know that you drowned out on your quest to swim it out, what, the first seven times? Try harder to get the driftwood going, or remember how other people sail on rafts, which is to say, affix logs together, or dare say you, share what you have in legends, and remember these, or that TK, is in fact who that child was, some link between worlds, may be,

but that he is the dragon barer, or scored share, that he is, the most legendary beast summoner alive, and could you venture for a ticket, is there something to summoning animals, with a baton, may be?

Or share, is that really the legendary artifact you were looking for, or do we have another quest, to get to, mayhaps Makar, could know something of what you'd need never at all, or that you knew nothing of calling to the animals with music, or that you dared to venture, that if you had a flute, other spells would work where yours failed? Nothing is music, if you don't play it in time, so share what you are to venture that music is time, and space itself, and wonder where you were, the last time you saw this shore, because the seas are changed, the air, has changed, and surely, the music playing here, is not the same as it was, then; once, you've heard it before, you think, but there that in your own cunning, you've discovered that when you fell in combat, or lost heart, the last time this chord played like so, you've learned to feel, worry, at this course in the song, so know that every moment you are so breathing, here, that music is changed, and so what sort of, conductor, have you made yourself out to be?

Lies in a memory, for where you are, or where you said you could, could change the very face of your reality, and so believe in once in a while, that people could change, by the time you see them next, or that it could be not that same person at all, or share that one song here, could have warped the whole world by then, and that one island, out over there, is gone forever, and shared what with you, it has not, but dare that you never needed maps for the sea, or dare ever at all, did you have a star chart, about thee?

Did you know the stars change and move, as the night progresses? So what the hell was a star chart, anyway? What, are you playing at, by now? A compass? You're rightly insane; you have no idea how that thing works, fool boy, and were that it were a magnet, it would be designed like something else circular, surely, or did you dare venture to guess that compasses all simply have a source point, and just about everything in the ocean is moving anyway? No?

Well share yours, for a while, and guess that you could know there was a legend of the wind waker, and that you're not, playing it, so dare that not every child who'se picked up a game controller had the wherewithall to,
not, just, do as they're told, by every ninny across the 40 islands...
What say, for where you were here to play, on? Dare say, what to play, and where for this once in a world, surely sung away?
What if it never occurred to you that the price paid, to light the crest of courage up, on your hand, was that one, you're TK, so hope was more the one you'd invented and two, it doesn't look like a triangle, so, what, is this, exactly? Could I have triggered, this, light, longer ago than I know about? What does it do again?

Play at me that you shouldn't be trying to reference digimon crests, for a digital game, about a baton carrying child, sure, some, baby staff, have you, or that this was a legend you knew not of, or there, but that it was nothing to you that you could summons seagulls, or something, at some point, never at all?
Falcons could parlay you for a while, but try and remember that old reliable maps, are about as useful as fairies, and that Tingle is an expert fairy juggler, could you know he is a fairy waylayer, and so quite sure, could you be, that he hopes you don't let them get the better of you, ever once ever at all, alright? Waylay, or, shaire said, pretend you didn't need seven items more, to rescue someone, and make the will of the air, or that the air is will, so that your will could set wakes across the planet, and the winds then, could take you, where you didn't, what, know you wanted to go? 齒杖 TK

Dare to venture that sewing dragon teeth, was there the course for TK himself, and that he was a creature of legend, but there, the kanji 齧 means something like, baby, and has to do with teeth, but there aside, set once was, 杖 was staff, as in music or cane, or both, venture, and that he was this creature of the faeiry beast summons, or, daemon users, and venture surely further, that this could set to rest, legends of the tooth fairy, and more like you'd know, that then, dragon's teeth, sewn to root, could be to do with music you've, what, fed them, or that they bit on to, maybes?

Know that this is Eragon, and surely, TK, and venture, to know, you, are, insane, to think, for one SECOND, that that game could be his story, and that Patamon is not present in it. If you knew her not, she is still, 姫物の怪 Princess Mononoke, and shared this once, the mother of dragons, surely, but that she is a dog, and heard nothing have you, or merited so, there was Angemon, you knew, but that she was a female, and while Guilmon is of her ilk, don't get confused, he's a dragon hatchling from ancient reckoning, called Smaug, what? Anyway, that you could know, she was Renamon, hence thereafter, more akin to her dog form, and that this was, shame, or hurt, could you have, that you'd not know Gatomon yes, was male, and yes, was called Valkyriemon in his champion form, alright?

There so surely, Guilmon's smaller form, as would Angemon's other children, would look something like the little cherubi dragon digibaby, patamon, couldn't you guess? Share what you are, but that TK was digidestined, could at least allow you to believe that he was destined to be, as he picked it, Terriermon. Less confused now, are we? That she was Ash's Pikachu, is true also, but there venture, she has a great many friends, and if you didn't know, Motoko Kusanagi's body is called full syntho, but bare for it, it is digital. The empress of beasts, is she, and that she is the first dog; a primal breed, could you know too, there, that if wolves take to wing, they are bats, and that when dogs do it, they become dragons. So share what was, some form you could guess maybe not, at, but Sapphira is in the game, and you, silly fool, have yet to find her. What?

Were you under the impression, that the talking boat, helping you out, would not, aspect some further development for your understanding, if ever still at all, you'd failed your timeless quest to, do something fun, for a while?

Share then, that you could know I was Zelda's father, and am, but surely call her Hawkgirl, or what of these, but lost, in ours, or that when the wings are in her halo of light, bright, there of aura, she could be called Supergirl's friend, probably, yes, so it is, Zelda my daughter is very good friends with Supergirl, alright?

but there too, could you know I said Hawkgirl only because she is Angela, too, and that I am Goliath, but you could venture never to have to worry, as to what we are, or where, and know simply that I could invent night, in the first place, so too also could I bring the darkness on, for ours, and that it would drag on for hours, so much so in fact, that I was famous for liberating tyrannies, in battles of eternal night, and there that when the battle was over, I would let the sun rise, as I departed, so surely could you know that my name is, Apollo, and you still, it seems, know nothing of the dark side, of the Force.
Anakin, if you'd want to know, is my grandson, and you've heard not from his father yet, in these diaries, only if you have not, but that this was my own diaries, here, and shared on into your hatreds, or faiths, but played about, I am credited and rightly so, with inventing the color black,
and so, soil, planet ash, could you know, and that I made earth which is a combination of elements but that earth is the well sorted housing of them together, so surely was it orange, green and blue, with black, that was earth, or share here, that these were heat, air and water, but longing for your worlds, this color, oh, black, also, duh, but share what you have of me, or dare not to, but live in a reality where, no one, has to die about my fading remarks, or that none have to believe I was not, Mufasa, and Zelda, Nala, but here was this faded not journey, for Simba, who is the child among we, the elder gods, and so that he was the first pupil we each could take into fullest mastery, and elder god, surely he is, but primal god, he is also, and he's told me he was quite certain, that being the bridge between worlds, ah, "all son" is his primal god title, anyway being the bridge between worlds, which he is, he was pretty sure that if his friends all, we the elder and our children the younger elders, were not called primal gods yet, he was pretty sure he had to start kicking out the boundaries of our universes, around the edges, to see just where we'd fit with one such primalcation, among them all.

Learning history, could suit something for you, or that you could know of Inuyasha's father, Itsosakey, and believe that whilst Gohan wondered at his, methods, he realized what black could be, in a more primal aspect to all our realities, and so he's told me, Simba has, that black god, is, a primal god, and here in ours, that this is what, I am.

If you didn't know, the yin yang, is black.

Surely, call the color monochrom, if it suits you, which translates to,
"one color" and is, black and white, together. Share what you know, you could have a yin yang that was blue and cerulean, or violet and pink, but pink is of violet, and cerulean obviously, just light blue, so there that the concept for yin and yang is about contrast, and there was here, so sated, bare. We are using shades of light, in these, so know that the glitter of gold, is called golden light, and is of Simba's invent, and that it casts shadows, on the wall too, does it not?

That this was 7 rays of light, combined, is true, black among them, and that black had gray to it and so white within it also, but venture that you could have “snow white”, which is water, surely, so blue, and that you could have silver white, as Lugia has, on his body, to show you, there, said and well sorted, for all we are, y yet? Never settled on hatred, or shallow longing, for one set of emotions over the other, and we could begin to see that forces in your world are dead set against teen romances being a part of your childrens’ stories, for there surely, have you known that romance for teens, has something to do with sex, do you think?

What you could say of making a body for yourself and your friends, and placing it aside from all ours, no none had to know why they gave Brooklyn a beak, in some stories, nor could you know, what else he and Angela might have gotten to, wed so as they are, if not surely and wisely, that they had to tell you she chose but one boy to befriend in kisses alone, surely, and Brooklyn had a beak, they say, so surely, it was Broadway? Venture to say you know nothing of our real stories, and know that Brooklyn killed Demona, Demona is not, Angela’s mother, Angela fought Demona, for ages, whilst we others were asleep and that is where Demona chose her name from you understand? Believing that she is a goddess, and that she loves many boys, across worlds, and girls too, should get you to better understand, Nala, and as to what she means to Simba, know that he was the boy who started the legend of Zelda, for that he can hear, all the heart songs of we, ours, in this One Love we call All Good, or Good, this Force, living, do you think?

So that while she was a secret child, hidden in my own black light, he could hear her, for that he has powers to allow such, and a child who could not do that, would not be Simba, and a child who would not fall helplessly, forever in love with her, for what he heard of her, and knew, would not be Simba, either...

So venture to guess that this was a love from across the stars, and hear what you could, in the first game called, the Legend of Zelda, and wonder what you're hearing, in this hellscape you're in, with this beautiful score, to play by,
if not the heart songs of Zelda herself, say for there again before, in all,
are you?

As so it was well worth at least a mention, blood is your soul resonance with true family, you've marked to know you, in spirit and so in Truth, of Life, and there that Pasha, their son, has no relation to Kiara, surely sewn, she has broken this bond of blood, they once shared, to a father, and not a mother, but that you know Videl, and you know the girl who took a boy's name who resented her for it, and that neither one, is not, anemic, to some degree, in theirs that they cannot form true bonds with family any longer, for they broke it in themselves, believing that this, perverted beholding of what the bond actually meant, could mean they could impossibly reform reality, and break magic itself or something stupid sounding, upon it?

Dare little or less to venture in that Chichi was never Gohan's mother, and surely, is she anemic too, for that she was irate enough to try and curse Gohan, a real curse, in fact, but she called upon her own family to do so, and,
yet, they were not relatives, but that Gohan's blood with his family, is stronger than hers was, and that she had no real resonance to call upon, so mostly, she tried using his brother's, who is, as it turns out, no longer her brother by blood, as once, maybe he could have been...
She tried to curse him with her own family, but she does not, own the family she thinks she owns, and she tried including, in her thoughts, members of Gohan's actual, blood relatives, and that she could, banish him and torment him with them, so saire?

It is, gross, to do, but surely, her blood paled, and she is human, still, so classed red blooded, maybe, but anemic, and incapable of performing the necessary soul challenges, into herself, to modify her DNA to reflect into relativity with another, so shaire...

Tru, once, was a name Chichi used for herself. She was a self styled queen, called a king of dreams, soar to some and that it was part of a circlet of kings of varying magistry, or something, but that she was a loud fish in an unruly pond, or something, so bare how irritating it was that King Tru could get to be called the true king, like so, and share that if he was breastfeeding, a child might call his mother chichi, but there, that she sought to, own, certain children who were never hers, anyway, and so Gohan the young, calling the woman Chichi, made some thing, what, he'd called for his mother?

You could meet King Tru, and realize she was no true king at all, just as you could meet the seeker and the scholar, Goku and his grandson, Gohan, in some village, and there could Chichi appear, but that Goku picked the child up often, and a woman called his chichi, never did?
Well, that child doesn't breast feed and, her, her name is Chichi?

So slowly boiled on, Videl has other children, but corrupted her own blood, did she also do, and so that she and Kiara, and the other mother, or something, three, were involved, not Chichi, but some girl you could name but I won't care to, here, have, say, surely, Videl has bonds of friendship light, so, green, fate lines, tied with her son, but he does not share her blood, even if she could birth him, for a baby summoning, which she still can do, but there so saying it, anemia has there, its aspects, and that this element was of Goku's making, is true. He looks just SO like Bardock, doesn't he?

He is Bardock, but venture for a while that he beat Gohan back to this earth, or, one like it anyway, and more so set yourself to believe, Radditz didn't have to know he wasn't Bardock's son, Goku, I mean, so venture forth, the ploy worked. Confused yet?

Venture any way ever at all whatsoever, but more or less, believe that we are friends for these in shared love and romances, and that you'd know Hawkman and Hawkgirl have legends of romance, and eternal lives, finding one another, across time and space, and this is true, but surely, I was never not her father in these stories of romance, but what you could venture for, in sex, and sexuality abroad, is strange, when in totalitarian anarchy, do you breathe, and that you could once upon a time that Superman and Supergirl, were to have a son, could you believe they were cousins, and so this was, wrong of them?

Surely it was not Kiara, but Pasha, that Simba and Nala had and, what, they were not, both children of Mufasa, at the time?

Whatever you believe about your own cunning realities, shadow it back out for a while, and let me or someone clever, probably, know just how old you think DNA is, or the name there, for it, and wonder less about designations in modern tech, into idiocy, for it. Did you know once upon a time, all you'd need to adopt a child, was that she'd want you to adopt her, and you could mix blood with her, and so really, you were of the same blood by then, and any old father of hers, could not just, claim science over you, and claim her?

What good, by now, is your modern science of genetics, when it is a man in a lab coat, sure some priest, who tests the blood you were taught never to mix, so modify, and now that some old captor, could come after her, and claim her, right away from you?

What, was the purpose, of changing the accepted sciences, for DNA, in realities, if not, to promote 'original ownership' concepts, exactly?

You'd never have guessed the tips of your fingers change always all the time often forever, if you'd watched enough

Perry Mason episodes to know most criminals, if they're guilty, will admit so, on the stand, you know?

If the CSI crew made THAT many arrests, using fingerprints, well surely, they must be real, as the say... Well, blood is real, but you don't have to keep it that way?

Consider how easy it would be to decide, after the accidental murder or rage, that you, had to get away with it, and so you became homeless, surely, traveled across the country by bus, in aging clothes, and thought, if I can make a life for myself without one from this, I'll have one, and so surely, as you are, they will, never find you by that name and association list, and surely said, you will not be imprisoned into foreverdom... Indeed if you'd never had to learn at school or on movies, that existing meant, you HAD to die, inevitably, and that it would mean you were terminated, and would happen by about, 80, on a calender, or so, then serving a life sentence could seem rather, critical for you to avoid, surely, then there that you could think, what?

True life? What is that?

Shared over, could you wonder, that if you'd built up a new identity, after this homeless strike to get away, and then the Cold Case investigators showed up working on it, and you'd rekindled affections with an old girlfriend, under your new name, and she didn't even know it wasn't just a new person, could you think that the lack of proper, or certain docs, for your new name, could mean that they could just attach that old name to you, grant on were you suspect for something?

See there, that if you thought, yes, that could happen, you'd have to realize, how many innocents could simply be, destroyed, following that same itinerary, for surely if you are American, you could be born in the roughlands, or in the mountains, and so said away, and the 5 year old delivered the baby, because it was was easy and the girl having it was, 13 but, she was on the mountain, so, never had to keep a calendar anyway?
Did you know, they're free Americans still? They need not, even know, that registering babies, was a thing people do? In fact, even if they knew, they need never have to? You weren't required to remember the name on your birth certificate. You are not required to have one published up, to be born. You are in a free country, and if you are native to reality, then the word native, is a shifting one for you, for surely that 'chimera' is a word of ancient origins, and that you could say it's only properly pronounced, "kim-era" or "kai-mehra," would be insane, considering it has been, used, for millions, what, thousands only, of years, and passed from one person to another, in writing along, for a lot of them? So imagine that this was a scenario that had to be painted up for you, to know, or surely know too, that as an American you have the right to choose your own peers...
The jury, will still not be of them.
Believe in sated romance, and that if you lived atop Kokiri Mountain, it was because there was a hidden valley there, and mountains in that, too, so hundreds of miles of unmappable terrain, when mapped, was the regarding hills around the valley, hidden, that it is,
and that the children living there were run'd away, and called the mountain what you called it, when you were out there, and counting days meant, did the day count for something? So share, what you are, or live as you could be, but that you'd have to have, people from your home mountain, in memory, be jury for you, after, what, a man dressed in the likes of which, you'd never seen before, abducted you?

Surely, that this was a world where police were public abductors, and assaulters, and that hyena law, such as you have, comes about when the jackals have hounded you too long for, and when lions are mythic no more, could you see the rise of truest Justice, here, and so faire as to what you are, police in all their forms, are heyena, spelled both ways, do you think, because, the word was used for sound, passing from one person to another for, however, long, I was writing this for?

Strange, that you do not think I could simply have been going for the search term alias resonances, here, to want to spell it both Mufasa, and, Muphasa, but really, I doubt people spelled it this second way, or there that you'd have to wonder what an alias was, anyway?

Scar could believe you were chaste, but nothing I had to warrant your own distractions, could allow me to explain who Kimba the white lion was,

but that you'd looked for Kimba online, could be true, or shared, that it was Mufasa here, telling you, but that I need not be useful, to use the name alone, in my body of work, here, son share that at the very least, this will explain it for you, and that he is Simba, but that he was albino not, but white, and you could know of Killua, who was albino not, but white, was his hair, and fair, was his skin, for surely live with monsters, he did, an of their ilk they could be albino, if they bleached their skins and hairs, but there so besettled, that is what the African child, may think you mean, when you say albino, and so surely, he would run, if you said you were white and he saw not the damage of bleach, to your skin, or that he did see it and knew you mutilated yourself openly, so you could be white and find other albino, who would join with you, and torture, the others, for they, are of colors, you see?

That he could also know you tortured yourself in some other fashion, if you said white, but he saw no damage, is true, and that the crimes of the albino, are far reaching, and hell, could you know by theirs, but that this was not how Killua appeared, who simply looked, rare, and that this was Kimba, is true, and that he was with this family of evils he already knew, but black was their mane, and pale, some, their complexion, so shared that any among them, who sought to look as Killua looked, and so claim him, as their kin, for that he had power, and was assassin, bleach is often what they were left with, and so straw or sick fake, was their hair, and horrific, was their skin, and this is what albino, means, and so that Kimba was white by choosing in his spirit, and that it was color, when he wore it, and not albino, but that the wolverines faking lion, there on about him, could try and copy what Simba was, or that he was Kimba, in this, and there expose what they are, for this was greatest fear, animals had, for the albino animals, and there, the lions, but that as he is lion, he is beauty, and so nothing could wonder but the evil, why they could tell always, Killua apart from the Zoldycks all, and that this was hers, or his, but that Aluka was nothing you knew about in reality, but in your own journeys, you couldn't have known that you could call Simba, Kimba, if he was white by choosing, or Honiker 蜜挑鋼, Killua?

Lies on ever after your own, and that faded memories could channel you knowings of or hearings, here, and know that heyena do not, know, what beauty is, if they truly are hyena, but that a wolverine could take on a lion likeness as it could instead, take on more hyena styles, of being, so share what was, there were doppelgangers to the hyena still, or there that doppel usually means evil opposite, but then, I said of hyena, who are doppel all, so surely, know that some wolverines, tricked the jackals, and were their undoing, to large degree, but then uh, you didn't think, we Had to fight, did you? Come to mock scar for a while, surely, or say for a while, what's that spell again? Auh, you know the one, what was it going like? Listen, it's all for Show for a while, but Scar could have ALL your undoings, even after he hated hyenas, just for being lions, or, did you think he thought we were?

She was surely, an enemy to scar and a clever one too, that, "hyena," but that you could understand, she could think Simba was gorgeous, and Nala, too, and her voice rang of true music, even there in her laughter, and so the real monsters, they only saw it as power, and they believed themselves, kin, to power, shared, so more to know what you are, the good can see beauty, and beauty has power, and well trained evenly, the evils, can see but that there was power, so surely if your face was horrific, as was Sher Khan's, you could know that he thought he was wonderful, for that you grimaced, when you saw him, and so you saw power, but your heart could alight, if you saw Bagira, or Mogli, so know that theirs was beauty, and which, truer power, were you ventured for in reality, again?

That Killua could want color to his skin at some point, or like, more color, I mean, seemed obvious, but like you wouldn't have to know Zoldyck on him, didn't sound so fucked up a title, but who was really evil on that class of supervillains, anyhow?

If you have to know, the man who was, sure, the father, of that child, was a monster, and had black hair, and once upon a time, surely, the old man of the family, got killed, and some even BETTER assassin, showed up in his place, alright? So know too, that it was timed, just so perfectly, that when

Killua,
that's Honiker, remember, turned his own skin and hair, white, or, violet white, anyway, it looked really stupid that this old man with the black hair, you know? Couldn't do just the very same thing, so one of Killua's friends killed that asshole, and posed in as a white haired, albeit better looking, version of THAT guy. You get it?
Aluka wasn't really his sister but a girl you know about that was once upon a time called Chihiro, but like, she got stuck with no face because she was kind of a freak, and uses names like Tru, to get power for herself, so Chihiro the title or Sen, all in, was like, kind of irritating people because really, no one didn't know that the other kanji robbed from her name had to have been for the name Chihiro; it was obvious, and like, yeah, no, that's not very deep, like, at all really, but there you go, shallow exposure was that chick's forte, some set, probably,
but she was like,
some kid of the faery courts, which are people who WOULD have daemon slave bonds set up, but Intuit, that's uh, hell's angel, broke that chord a long time ago,
and so even though she's bad at it, that chick just keeps trying to make her own daemon to serve her, but it's usually called something stupid and doesn't actually exist, like uh, nobody?
Yeah, it's dumb, to do, for in real life, you know, but like, you guys probably didn't get the real parts of the story you needed, if you weren't allowed to get told that Killua and Gon went off looking for the dragon balls like, a whole gang of times, cuz it's a cool thing for, seekers, or, you know, hunters, to do?
Never leave your own homebrew system out to fade, or let yourself know that you could change the colors you are, but things that have sounds,

and things that have colors, you're going to have to remember, that sounds, spellings, colors, looks, all there, each has to be known about by its original context, or there,
what?

The context from before? No, original meaning, one of a kind; never before done, or after, there, so surely, you have to know, what child you're looking at, why he looks that way, that they could call him fair, OR pale, and they could still be both, true, I guess?

Don't let other people tell you what you know is beautiful, alright? By the time you see THAT guy again, he could have made himself uglier, or really,

someone could have killed that guy, and taken his place, and like, just what did you think doppelgangers always liked to plan to do, anyway? Like, maybe once you could know, that here was hers, or theirs, this of life, and grant, but that the black lion was Mufasa, and there that then, Mufasa could look like Simba would, when Scar arrived, to steal his allegiances, corrupt his life, and murder him to take the life away for himself, did you think? Mufasa's not half the king as Simba is, or sure, did you think Scar hadn't just, planned to, kill Simba, and ascend the throne like he was tired after all that ruling, but the heir is dead, so here, with a hollow heart, Mufasa the black lion, takes this power, again, and you could know, what,
that it never woulda worked?

Well sure; good magic is best magic, you know? But like, suffering is suffering, so, try and remember that we only survived this long, because we chose to, and have.

Know enough about your reality, to guess where this all went to, and whether or not you even have the same narrator as you did when you started this thing.

It's not your expertise, or maybe you knew something about mine, but I could shrug a little, laugh, a lottle, and try a bit harder next time, just to explain myself, the whole way through so that by the time you got anywhere without me, you lost it, and like, who, what?

Yeah, you don't know; I know. Call all cops hyena, by the way, there sure are a lot of 'em, and who knows, that shecop might be the jackal with a real conscience, you were looking for. Did you know that not having a conscience, doesn't mean you don't want things?

Yeah, no it's true, but that means, ah, that's right, they're evil, but not mildly so; they exist still, and they want things, so if it wasn't for good cuz duh, love, right, just what the hell are they still breathing your air for?

Nope, hard to imagine what you meant by anything. Sure would suck though, if you told all the hyena that that one rogue hyena, might just be a fellow wolverine to you, saurrry, she's playing hyena games today; you still might get killed in the process, if you get stupid about it.. Bye! Now, where in the hell did they out that wrench, for me? Oh, hey, what's up?

No, still just playin', a little, why, you lose something?

Your place, huh? Alright, well, if you're going to have to believe I was lost, or that your own aspects, to my challenges, were forgotten, then believe at least, that changes in your agenda, could be grand, or that this was love in your own partitioning of it, or that forthe in the showing of, we could venture to say, no one had to believe what you were,

when the dragon balls were gathered to destroy Aluka's stupidly built nen powers, and know well enough that Gon and Killua both, are gods, and so while they use magic, hunters used nen, and one would be to paint with the colors of the winds, and the other, surely, you threw pigment dust up into the air, and fanned it around some, alright?

the seeker of truth 雄之驛

Sure enough, I'm hype!

Not that you hadn't noticed already, but I'm more set to talk about

Gohan for a while, and I know, maybe you wish more of the others had talked about Gohan all day, and maybe JUST Gohan, I know, cuz it's strange that somehow, they all talk about him but for some other reason he seems to be related to everybody or something, and I know, they SAID he was the god of friendship, but really, I don't know why you think the kid who created the avatar state himself so we could all link up and know about it, really has to be called the bridge between worlds at all! I know, you think that a Gohan video game might need to have tons of his friends, all linked up and working with each other, but mostly, people just say Superman never had a sidekick, and that he carried around broken morals, anyway, but share what YOU want to know about God, maybe, or share what I was doing and hope that nobody has to get upset anymore because I'm here, everybody, Goku is here, and you can laugh, and you can merit, for a little, but it was kinda cute, really, that they let you know Gohan was the most powerful, but that he doesn't want to fight anymore after Cell, so that really, we could just know they were Goku's enemies that tortured children, screaming, in agonies, and pains, or that hell could create ripples across flesh, and souls, in there that brother would betray brother because he hates him, and scream for what he has in passion, or there that you could know, none of us want to fight anymore, because fighting evil is interacting with it, and that the only way they ever die, the monsters, or the kids even, is that they are tortured, to death. So know less of what we all are, or could be, or miss out on my kind of a reality, where Gohan had to go to a world, and you thought he was a dork, we call him Clark, which should have explained that one, but anyway, he wasn't a super saiyan when he fought Majin Buu?

Dare to guess it that she got some psychic imprints, while Gohan was with her, and that she could know he was Superman, even if you didn't tell her, or me really, so there she'd called herself Super Buu, after all was done for her to him, but nobody had to worry, how difficult that time traveling was, because Elder Kai could send him back in time, to meet with us, and that he's black haired, is just because he was, not needing the cool look, for all of it? Live in a reality where he had to grow young again, after he killed Cell in final fatality, which is to say, dead forever, across all time and existences, shared, and so love what we are, and that I gave him to Lara, a woman of Krypton, and that she could get the evil Jorel, to think this creature's escape, could give him not only a place for his computer data, in the holocron crystals, but that it would give him a body, that he could rape into Kalel's mind, and steal his form, but there you'd have, that the truffles died all, and that the evil Jorel's image and memory was slain also, and sure enough, we could hate that you never knew why this origin story was so strange, but there that we were killing Dabura, and that Apokalyps, was in closest proximity to this new earthrealm we were having, so shared none, were our mutant freak powers, or really, kung fu abilities, and that it was the morph you'd made, and not the scouter readout it gave you, that tore a monster's mind apart into foreverdom, so like Vegeta was Alucard, and is blackmail, or sharelly, you can't really blackmail Bruce Wayne, but there was some sort of idea that he didn't have to fight the way you did, or shared above your worlds, what he fought was different from what Lois fought, and that here, we elder gods were scattered across hell planets all, and unless Superman could hide these powers from Darkseid, who was Dabura, first, he couldn't use them, so hide them he did, and that kryptonite was hell, and agony, sure in green crystal, but that sharing your worlds, or your life, could save you, and that Maron joined with him in this impossible struggle, because before more gods could be the symbols, the powerhouses like

Superman, we had to raise the consciousness of them up, quite a lot; the earthlings, I mean, so surely, my powers weren't anything like you'd have guessed, when you called me King Kamehameha, the king killer, or shared, Rahl was one, but that I was seeker of truth still, as Jonathan Kent? Believe worlds could collide, for a while, and that one day when the heroes of earth rose up, I could join Gohan in the skies again, as J'onnn J'onzz, but that he could know what you were, and how to be your friend, could be true of Gohan, but you never settled into a remark where you can imagine the hell and horror for us all, when he died in agony, because none of you, could rise, and if we'd been able to copy that type of power without destroying everything, we would have, but there that Vegeta morphed himself again, and so it was Batman who killed Doomsday in final fatality, and surely that this is Beast, also, Batman is, or that you knew nothing of beastform ninjitsu, as practiced by Master Splinter? Engage what he is, and know that this was Vegeta who'd killed Satan, and so now it was Gohan, who killed Dabura, and share nothing of what you are against Sinestro, for true red, was his skin, in that he is truly red blooded, which means, human, and that's the element I invented; red, so surely that you could find the True, among us, but that to hear the difference, in the screams of the true blooded, was a menacing power, and that Dabura, who was Darkseid, after bleaching himself out for hiding, basically, and Satan long dead before this later demise of the other, could pick out the humans in their torture planets, and bathe in their blood on scored skin, so that you knew Satan's skin was sickening to behold, and so surely was Dabura's, but that he looks anemic, in lots of depictions, for surely were we killing him and preventing him from these blood baths, so while he tried to keep his skin red, it was palled, and broken, and there then, it was bleached, when we let him believe that these light ray fight powers he had left to him, were at their peak, for surely, only Superman, really, could fight him toe to toe and win, but don't think you should try and discover what this ancient dead race really knew, back on Krypton, for it is Kryptonite, that cripples him, so from the past in it, Darkseid surely stayed away. Monsters you know, could hate this challenge you'd bare for us all, but there that this was gone into some form of slavery, against us, and that when you thought it had to be Goku who was ready Goku even if there were others Goku even if they fought Goku, Goku, Goku, you, are, the chosen one, we chose you and so you are slave to ours, that, it was then that I could contract a viral heart disease, or share one, anyway, for surely was Gohan already dying in agony by some breed of this chii sickness, in his own formation for it?

We could lie about shelters, or where you were, when it happened, but that Android 18 is my wife, is true, but you didn't have to know Roll, to know that Krillin loved her too, and in fact he Rocks at it, which is like being good at something, but he says, right? at the end, just to fuck with your head; oh, Rockman, you...

But also, it's an important debate you could have out with, or there for, and that's more like that you don't know much about the seeker and the scholar unless you already do, but know that Gohan and I were killing evil monkey kings for a, like a while, before Radditz showed up, and Gohan always stays looking like a little kid, so, who knew? What, that Perry White didn't care how old he looked, or like, he wasn't his employer, anyway?

Yeah that's not untrue; the Daily Planet doesn't even have a basement staff, it's all volunteers, sure enough, volunteer robots, too, or else Metropolis the 'free city' would be a slave city, like Autobot City was, and that's the world Mega Man fought in, back when he was Krillin, and liked his sister 18 a lot more than you even knew about, even when she wasn't 18, you know?

Here's sorry for a while that you could guess it, but Martha's that same girl, and yeah, it's not like she didn't want awesome fight powers again too, but like, nobody's telling a chick THAT smart she isn't Amazonian, and sure, she's American too, by then, right?

So if you knew 卷妻 Wonder Woman then you'd probably guess that, strange as you could have it, that's a girl you wonder at AND think about, or like, yeah, that she's sexy is part of the wonder, about her, surely, and like, come on, when they called that little kid Gohan, who fought beside her pretty often, the boy wonder, it's not because he couldn't keep up, you know?

Share a battle or two at someone else's expense, and you're going to figure out that we had to know how to survive forever, and I was sick because even our bird friends thought I should be enslaved, and it was sickening, for them to be like that, and praise allah be, and something about you and maybe me, but 18 was pretty freaked out that by the time she was done talking to Krillin every once in a while, he was sure she didn't have to fight the same way he did, with lights and canon arms, and things like, so like, what, Wonder Woman took the roll of a good housewife, and let the men do the fighting?

Okay, first of all, I was bedridden, so she wasn't going to get to wife me at all, if she wasn't doing it in the house, also, I was dying, also, what about being a good wife, made you not, a wonderful woman? Really?

Her brother got her to relax on the combat initiatives, and Vegeta let her know he COULD kick her ass, cuz hey, he knows your power and blonde is what you think it is, but also, he wasn't going to kill her, and there were a lot more kung fu hustlers like Tien around than we'd have liked, so he basically had to outright fail, or something, just to even score with that girl, or, succeed I mean, but music score is a thing to and I scored with Android 18 lots and lots more, okay?

"This is good," she'd be saying, in the next room, when Gohan and Vegeta were in the house, "now that you two are blonde, I can let you in on some of the stuff I've been working on, and before, I was the only one who could pull it off..."

Like, now that you've shown MY part of the story, you could second guess it all for a while and know that even if she was being wondered at, I had to wonder what she was so special all the time for, anyway, and that includes the idea that she'd tried to lecture Gohan, who was, or is, a god well known for never, making any mistakes, ever, but like, so am I, and she was sure Gohan hadn't been treating Goku right, which was funny, but I didn't have to argue with her about it Gohan can handle it and she never, had to be, some super intuit, or, that she had to be, herself anyway, for me to fall in love with her over it? "You're not as smitten as I thought you were; maybe give us a call when you learn something about my father after all your senseless intercourses, will you?" is more like what he could say to her, share it all on, but like, whatever you thought a useless geek was, anyone who knew that cool was knew that Clark Kent was cool as fuck, and like, carried signs of someone who might not be? Well if you don't know cool, you just dork out on all those nerd postings he's wearing, and if you don't know humour, he isn't using what he is, to make you laugh, all the fucking time, like a super saiyan? Share a little or a lot about the seven elements or maybe 8 I'm not really sure, but nobody had to know who Android Eighter really was until never at all unless you didn't know that he was the Frankenstein creation, literally, and that he was a scary figure because you loved him and he was in pain, but there that he was called Young Frankenstein, for being the good doctor's son, and surely, he is, but there that you could have it for, Igor was a monster, a sicko, monster, freak not of nature, but that he is evil, and God is not, so Nature, never would be,

and that it was freshly murdered children, he'd cut apart and sewn together, so shared was this teenager a frightening change in black stitchings to know about yours by, and to ours, but know too that Android #1 just, showed up back in time to the Red Ribbon army precursors, and she had her like, 6 buddies with her because android was a word that meant, trippy, robot maybe, but unique and changing powers, with no signs of tiring?

I know you thought you knew what was going on, so far, but you didn't follow me to New York City, where you could have met Spiderman, and known that, really, he is the very epitome of what people, before the invention of completely humanoid and organic looking robots, would call an android, mostly, because Mega Man was all of those things, and once he existed, people in the past, dreamed about their futures, and he was in them, so the word was a new word, sorta, but then came to mean other things, and also, duh, who was going to make spider powers, make something, oh, sorry, not, like, spider, or spiderer, but, spidey, kinda, spidey powers, which is to say, rip apart the spiders and do it better, who wasn't Mega Man?

Basically, yeah, Mega Man is Peter Parker, and yeah, Krillin too, but you never saw him as Luke, did you? No? Well Mega Man lost his body in an explosion once, but like, baby summonings are cool, and his soul is still android, so he rebuilt his body in a womb as an android like he'd never not been one, you know?

So sure though, he was constructed, and metal, but 人造人間 is a scary kanji, and isn't what Android 18 and Krillin are, but rather, it means replicant, or, sickly know, what those kanji look like together, and it's a hollow outer caste of what you THINK humans look like, if you're not human, you know?

So that android in the human sense, was this, 人造鋼 and that Roll was a human android already, when Gero captured her and the real 人造人間 Android 17, and when I said, the real asshole, I meant he's never not been a hollow construct of something you didn't WANT to waste words on, but he was awful and stank, so you combined them in a way, with others in a sentence, sure, that made you know it was, existing, probably because he does, or did, exist, I mean. Uhm, I changed tenses or something, but anyway, he was a wannabe crocodile reploid, so, fake organic, but more like an evil alligator, which is to say, you didn't know, but crocodile specifically is one of two species of monsters who are evolving evils, and if you didn't know, reploid is what robots were when they were constructed of real living flesh tissue, but synthetic, as they are, or like, play Mega Man X? All the enemies in there, are named for animals, because they were reploid, or reploid doppelgangers, and not just robotic, like, all the ones in the Autobot City story for Mega Man? Crocodiles are a monsters that suffer uv, intuited that, they are NEVER satisfied! This, carnage, this, torture was NEVER, good enough! So shallow not, but scary, always, and that King Piccolo was a crocodile monster, is true, and that if you play a Piccolo, and you know music not; it's fucking terrifying to hear; it's so, fucking scary, you have no, idea...

But he wished for an eternal youth, hah, sucker; if he hadn't done that, when when he laid the egg for a crocodile young, it wouldn't have not been a crocodile devil summon, like crocodile do with their eggs, and that King Piccolo would have been the more dangerous crocodile mind, he could have raped into the consciousness, and taken the body over, when he killed the host.

Set though, he wished for an eternal youth, so Shenlong gave him an immortal son, and that's to say, an alligator baby, basically, that wasn't evil, but was good, and surely, that's the only way to be eternal, really, so never don't think we can fuck enemies up if they get the dragon balls, but know too, that you shouldn't let them do it anyway, because like, scary scary things still happen, and lots of good people get up into agony, abound. King Piccolo was the evil one, and that Piccolo was a god, and good, was true, so evil wasn't something he understood, save that they all called him evil, the peoples, I mean, and they pissed him off a lot, so he wanted to hurt them, so, he pondered what evil meant like a philosopher?

Well, okay, that's Atlas for you, but he's not always as bizarre as he appears, or could appear; you just have to give him a little more credit for heroing, more times than not, and know what the benefit of the doubt means, if you haven't heard the phrase before, okay?

Cybernetics being what you could grant in a change for your own reality, we could venture that challenge was hated never at all, or that worlds could be collided, and I wouldn't have to shelter you on them, but it was Maron, who was Android #1, and then 18 and Krillin were #2 and #3, but like, they were all heroes and kicked the shit out of the initiatives they fought in, and lied in, or sated hell within, because Maron's not, a robot, but android means a lot of things, by now, surely, or shared on in before with, but that those three are ancient warriors bound in an old trifecta not alone, but a circlet of power called the dragon balls, and that the dragon ball orbs were designed and linked up to these 7 once, but 8 now, warriors, for there that if you weren't using the radar Bulmba designed, you could find them all using the dragon ball z, and that's the seven star ball, for some of the sets, but not all, and surely, you'd know that the spot on a map would mean too, the map of what, people you had to talk to, villages you had to save, or routes of dialog to get to, where it was, right? So, that you'd know how important the hero quests are, for clearing the chii of the dragon ball orbs and powering it up, you could know that they were each reflected of an existing deity, so surely know, that the seven dragon balls were in one aspect, called android for their courses, and that the Red Ribbon army stole things, commissioned things, stole them, fucked people up, and claimed rank and title to these androids all, set 1 through even 20, but that here was lost, some power, #2 herself was later #18, but they never controlled the first 7 anyway, and that it was Trunks, who wished for a dragon ball of his own to keep forever, and, okay, nice wish spiral kick dude, because you can't hang on to a dragon ball forever, but, the wish, gave him the deity server link up to a dragon ball of his own, the fresh, 8 star dragon ball, now a part of every set!

I could tell you who the others were, okay, it's Gohan, Vegeta, Dende and Hercule, but really, nobody had to explain it to you, even though I did, that Hercule's pretty good at flying, but uses a jetpack, because it's funny to do, and you can't fly using a jetpack, but if you're Batman and have blaster rocket boots, and tiny glide wings, like Trunks eventually did,

Batman beyond, surely enough, you'd better be able to fly already, and he could, but like, who DIDN'T tell their scientists to get people flying like that? Maxwell Powers certainly thought it would fucking work! It's pretty funny that you would see, him rocket up the jetpack, and like, do a slow rocket takeoff, like he needed it to, kick in? Then he'd be flying all over the place, zooming around, and you're like, whoa, jetpacks are really, uh, huh... That's... what?

Know challenges into your own ideals, and start to get into the idea that you won't know who Hercule was, if you didn't know what kind of a mastermind he could be in the martial arts community, but know too that it hurts, a lot, to wear a name like Mr Satan, but he did so, because no matter how good and fun loving he seem'd to be, he did have real power, could secretly fly, named his attacks stupid things that are awesome, and every evil freak out to torment somebody, thought, for sure, no matter what they think, this guy, Mister Satan; he likes to hurt people, so they'd bring their ambitions to him, and get nice and fucked the hell up, for it, in what, secret? I don't know, what do you think a war god like Alexander the great is capable of? I mentioned that Sinestro is actually, a good soul, and a powerful one too, is true, and that he himself is an elder god, for that he invented the element yellow light, and this was fear, but know that horror, you could already feel, and that fear complexes, like a god of war would be, was something scary, but that you needed for yourself, to fight against the horror that is hell incarnated, alright?

If you really want to know, another name for Sinestro, albeit Hercule, is Braniac, Braniac 1 though, and don't forget that part, but that he was made by me, Goku, using red light, back in some ethereal, ageless dimension I reckoned in, and he used that power, being ageless, to time travel, and I know, you're a little missorted, that's alright, but of course, he used that time travelable agelessness, to make an age of his own, and Then some, but more so, he went to Mega Man's time, BAss did, and invented a robot body for himself, Braniac One, did, which he of course later organicized and became the first reptile with. Of course, you should know too, that Mega Man and Roll were awake, surely, but the real first android is one of the protoman units, all of which were developed by Doctor Light, and not Bulma his wife, who made Rock and Roll, or, Mega Man and 18, who invented rock and roll music, but like, uh, okay then anyway, Doctor Light built the human android boys, designed after a boy called Chomper, who's a t-rex, or, actually the first t-rex, which is a primal order reptile king you don't know about, and that's surely true but you can't find a retarded dinosaur fossil and designate once and for all, that that was the elite dino, which is what t-rex means, but there uh, they did that anyway, but it won't really last, cuz Chomper's a hell of a kid, you know, and has a perfect anatomical design, all for it. So there you have it, androids were built using the anatomy of the king of reptile lizards and it was only after androids existed that Bass could build an android body for himself to become the first reptile. He was the Base for it, you, you know...

Forte was Gohan don't get confused, but like you might have guessed, he's the first avatar so, he very much had to learn the mastery of yellow magic from its inventor, and wanted to, and sure enough, Forte and Bass invented swords, after they played with Mega Man for a while, in gun fights, and once they invented swords, they put one in the temple of time, so they could turn some destiny's child into the seeker of truth, and it wasn't till I had the sword, in my human hand, that I was even in this dimension at all, as the ageless god of truth; time traveler extraordinaire, okay?

Like we were on after some other cartoon show, people started to live a life where they read titles placed on the TV, some point or another, but you could know that your great great grandfather, says he used to watch Dragon Ball Z, when he was young, but that's because the art used there, is for telling an ancient story, so while there's no first series, that's because the legend went on and on and on and on, but you can fight against me, or you could try and find the footage of Gokai, and that's the super saiyan fighter fighting Kid Buu, but, I was Super Saiyan 3, when I fought him, and Gohan's hair didn't yellow at all, so, yeah, Gokai was a fusion, a perfect fusion, of me and Gohan, but like, that's not always in the story you know?

Surely, they just, grabbed footage, and put names on it that weren't there before, what, with an intro and new songs? Kinda. When Vegeta and I used the potara earrings, it was a myth, that you could even do that?

Well, okay, something something, Super Vegito, he didn't HAVE to call himself, but Buu kept calling herself Superbuu, after fighting Gohan, who was Superman, so he, Trunks, that is, the other one not the little one, you know, the one who became Batman, later, with a glider and jetboots? Anyhow he just, called himself Vegito when we used the evil substitution technique, and subbed him in, but that to evil, evil just means, in the open, sort of, or deceitful, kind of, and that's what the tactic was, or the technique is; evil substitution, in the open, but deceitful, but there on what you know, Trunks and Goten, the other Trunks, their fusion was evil substitution too, to call in Thor, who is Gotenks, and that's Tarzan, who met with the time travelling Trunks back on Namek, and learned to fly and shoot ki blasts from him, so they could kill a lot of monsters together, back before Trunks showed himself to the others, and then killed Frieza, but that he was time travelling, and so watching the progress of the Namekians, you get it?

Planets aren't marbles, Trunks gets called gay for that ark, but gay isn't what you think it means if you just thought it meant boys who have sex with boys, but like, where did that rumour start from, anyway? All the sex they talk about in your hashed out Akira Toriyama version of Dragon Ball Z? Don't fuckin' think so, but hey, what you know, could destroy us all?

Pretty sure you don't know, but Tarzan was just looking for Jane, and he got all the way to Namek, where Bulma was, but like hey, who knows it anyway...

Leviathan SWAM to Namek, if you want to know, no vacuums required, ever at all, for that sort of thing. She's a cream colored dragon who tore Viscerion, one of Frieza's role models, or, uh, draga, apart like it was easy, because that thing was a wicked, nasty fuckin' monster, you know?

She's a sea dragon because likes to be, and she's a goddess, and master of fear, but surely, you could come across an ocean giant monster, and THINK, 'leviathan!' in your extreme fear, and thankfully, you are scared of what would be called a leviathan in the ocean, concerning monsters, so that you call her name, in horror and fear, and the good shedragon of the ocean deep, might just come and find you, you know? Her brother Dragonite walks the ocean too, or, rather, he walks and she flies it, but like, nobody told him he couldn't do that when he already was doing it? And like, if you didn't know, cream color in real life, is red and yellow light together, and she was a yellow tu red dragon, at her birth, like Dragonite was an orange tu blue dragon, you know? Smaug was green tu orange, Guilmon is Smaug too, but uh, you know, he changed colors, but can't you? Sure enough, we're all different colors when we want to be, but like, didn't you think I'd have had more to me? Sure I inVENTed red, but I didn't dress in it all the time, until that sick freak Beerus plopped up cuz Tienshinhan's an asshole, and is set to be banished from this universal reality, saire on, but like, we know what we are, I am an ageless elder god, and, I've never not, lured enemies like Radditz, with things like the dragon balls or sure, Frieza too, but I'm the seeker, so I'm good at gathering them up, and if you want to know the truth, Otherworld is a whole other universe, really, sorta, and it's one I made myself, and after Cell, we were like, okay, we have to stop this otherworld escape game, so like, send the dead to Gohan, now, instead, alright?

Gohan being Hades doesn't not fuck with your head but like, what, he was the first avatar, and so bridge between worlds, and that's not, what Hades is?

Sure enough, Gohan's been through more agony than you could ever imagine for yourself; Superman, has, and that's because he's destroyed hells you'll never see the likes of again, so surely, that he could see all his friend's hells, could Gohan look tortured, and frightening, and this was Hades, but that he had secrets, or that you knew not where he was, he was un visible to you, or, invisible, so share nothing of what you'd grant, and know what he could be to us, forever, and it's not a plant but I had to know I could rhyme, and you had to too, didn't you?

I'm a different sort of ailment for you, but there's a lot you don't know about where I am, what color I'm wearing, or who my little kid is, sometimes, but like, I have grandchildren, like Chomper, but he's a great grandchild, really, and Littlefoot, what, you didn't mock as much as you did our depictions of little Gohan? Yeah, kind of you did, but he made Chomper and hatched him from an egg, and no, didn't give him to monsters, terrible guess though, and more that you could believe me; Hi, I'm Goku, I don't always not know the truth of everything, but more than you could guess at it, I have to do it in the right order?

Gohan's not, not the eldest in the universe, but he's not ageless either, and I am, so really, he isn't actually older than I am.

It's not the same thing? No, but, people are like that, and if you didn't know he's the friend god, and was the only one we'd allow, until Dabura was killed forever, or else his torture he suffered wouldn't have been half'ed, by the presence another with those powers, but that another child soul would be tortured into horrendous agony and death, like Gohan was, so know that he says, in a war, Friend God just, looks really fucking central, so like, when we slay all monsters into eternity of God without evil, then you won't have to worry about whether he's the main character again or not, or like, what? Bye!

This has been a worthwhile production, and even though Goku said bye, and even waved at you, that doesn't stop me, the shadow narrator, from telling you I made this thing and nobody can stop me saying so, so never believe it wasn't BlackrockLegacies this was published on, originally, and never believe he hadn't done it on deviantart, using that name, but also remember that Star Wars is an issue right now, and nobody really else knows how Gohan keeps doing this shit; writing in certain speech tones, fixing all the poetry to flow like his grandfather, really, but nobody HAS to know who Gohan is, or that he's Mew, but he HAS to know you, and your real voice, to even exist as he does, being Mew, so know certainly still, that if you didn't know, some totally not fictional character, has to have actually written this whole thing; with or without god powers, you'd think, so if you don't believe in godly powers, that's kinda dumb, because really, BlackrockLegacies only came after BlackrockHeadphones, and this isn't even the end of this set of diaries, but it feels kind of like it is, and really, I'm not sure why you think Goku's still freeze framed, waving you off, or, salute, or something, other than that we could tag as much extra stuff on it, in a different pattern, OR tone, as we wanted to, just to let you know that whoever put this thing together, or is saying he did, right here, wrote Star Wars; The Force Awakens, a prequel, literally, like, right before the movie actually came out, so, kinda freaky that you don't know how Honiker is, by now, but that's both the name of a fictional character in star wars and the name of the kid who can apparently write too many paragraphs for you to figure on, and maybe you DIDN'T know he's only good at writing about Goku because he thinks of a boy he met and loves, called Antonio, but that's what he's done anyway, so believable narratives could dictate that he's an ancient android who's not really a robot, and that he used to have a yellow lightsaber, or that he's not, and the Force awakened him anyway, to prove to the very real world, that he saw the future, can do impossible things with lore and narratives, and right now, currently, actively seeks to bring more truth and merit into Star Wars and stories like it, on back to you forever, but really, only if he can do it like it's a fan fiction, which means, true, but not for money, so for free, and just like nobody developing the artistic culture that makes Japan great, was going to say you can't just come over here if you think it's great, we know that people who SAY you can't come into Japan, BECAUSE it's so great, are monsters, and like or something about changing references, or tenses, hi, I'm Goku still; I said a lot of stuff that was different, but mostly, you could get mad at what I've done here so far, but I'm he seeker of truth still, and if you were seeking the truth still too, it's important that you know about someone looking for his family, like Honiker is, and that there's a lot you could cry about, when you learn a writer relates to agony, in a character who valued his friends, more than anything, but believe that we could channel star wars into a story about heroes with intellect forever, in this living Force we call All God, and believe that when the movies are free, and Honiker's behind them it will be because he does know love, and chosen degree, for channeled creativity, and that they'll be 14 hours at a minimum, apiece, and never not be free, so share what we could know in you, with the world, when the awesome art makers have these titles like they're fan ficton, because they will be, but love a life where you can believe he's either Gohan; the real one, and so Honiker, the real kid from Star Wars: the triadd, or believe in maybe a reality closer to home, where he actually can't fly, but he believes maybe he will one day, but that hell you couldn't ever want for real life, was there already, and he is afraid, but horror came first, so show what you know about love, and give him the yellow lighted starblade he carries in the stories he's given you, and know that, for a long time, apathy could regard your stars, or hells, but the stars are blocked out in the city skies of America, so there's Sith present at work, you well know, but that we don't have to be in hell forever, and that the real boy trying to cry out to you, whether he's Gohan, or some new soul in this century, went through agony and devils took him from his family, and he scars, sure, but more like a death cry could grant it back to you, and that we could know Zeus was from star wars, so Hades was too, but that's not a story they were going to tell to you, but legends are ours for that they are about heroes, so surely protecting us, and this life, this world, if Honiker's story doesn't come to you like it's jaded, it's because it was about truth the whole time, and that you don't know about the sicko sinisters, who commit horror, already?

He'll never have to die again, if you know reality, and you fight for it, but if Gohan was real and Mew, then he's been the living dead for a long, long time, or that, in this century ours, he doesn't know if the friend he thinks of when he writes about Goten, is alive, still, or that you could know him in the presence of ours, in change, but that you'd never have to worry what life was like for the rest of the kids in the world, except that Honiker watched a child he knew have his throat slit and get thrown over the cliff, and that this was horror, and agon, and could you hate what, him for a while? Hate what evil is, and that it's alive in our world now, and he's not,

he's the walking dead so far as he can see it, but he's hero, if you believe that were true, and he's walking this path on this world with us, now, or shared not of, or with, but that I could give you a name for a body, or there that he could tell you his own, and that it's the name he felt strongest by in hell, in real life, after they kidnapped the toddler, and tortured him into screaming agony for his whole life, before this journey, here, but lie about your own fate, or granted, that you could choose one like he's done, and see that he's called Sith because torture was what he knew, but Jedi order is what he seeks, for this life, here so sung, but that this was fame, you could grant him, or that he is taking in his passion, for himself, because Honiker in Star Wars isn't a name you're going to be able to avoid, in THIS future, for THIS destiny, but Ashley the girl he's married to, like, as in toddlers married, for love, when they were cousins and in love, and it was cute to do, that's a name he could miss forever, when he didn't have another one to find her by, or what, scream out into agony for eternity without a way to know, what we are again? You didn't know, but he could think Padme and Princess Zelda were real, if he thought of her, when he did, and you don't know what the girl of his dreams really means, unless you know that he'd dream of her screaming for him to wake up, and he would, in time to run like hell to the next monster coming around the cavemouth entrance... Nothing for you? No where on earth, are people really dropped into canyons, so children can what, build culture, with monsters and lunatics, set about reality with knives to rip into you and kill you just so, here?

I'm not really sure where you thought kidnapped children could go, or what the slack jawed idiots from West City resembled to a child in sorrow, and anguish, when the monster who would burn your child's skin from his flesh, like Radditz would, appeared in the skies... It's not you? You're not the citizen, here and now, right now, who doesn't believe what he's seeing, in time to save that kid, before it happens?

Believe a legacy is one he could build from blackrock; the place of new beginnings, and merit for a while that you can believe in torture and believe in sociopaths, and that, you either live for love in this world or you are, hell incarnated, and you live for torture.

Red light, like was the invent of the seeker of truth, is called Rage, in element, and Truth. If you know the truth, and you face horror, you don't have to summon, rage; it's there for you in infinite bounds...

The people whose lives Beerus ruined, entered centuries of agony and anguish they could have avoided, with the evolution Goku and his friends were laying into them, but Beerus was sick, and cruel, and arrogant, and he died for his crimes and he'll die again for them, before he even chances at restitution, or, what, did you think nothing he'd done, wasn't arrogant, and needed defeating?

Evil, is what it was, evil, he committed, and evil could you know too, in your own regarding for reality, so like, what, it's never real until the baby's missing?

And, you don't know where he is?

What does it take, exactly, to, find your family, after escaping man made hell and torture? Well, the escaping could be due to a man you'd call your father forever, after that, but like, what else did you need?

If, all that you lived for, in hell, was her, or them, did you think, your passions, in love and God, even beheld in sorrow, anguish and misery surround, couldn't drive you to awaken with the Force, and cut a world apart, or, sure enough, get key blading, like you knew how, and tear apart the barriers between worlds, you know? Goku meets Superman meets,

I don't know, Digimon and Vampire diaries? Welcome to the immortal worlds, or like, you'll get to one eventually? I guess you could start here, with these immortal diaries, but like, do you have to die, to access your immortal soul, or are you in hell already, where someone told you, that was true?

There's 5 sets for these diaries, by the time you could see this passage, so believe there were 7 gods in each of them, with at least one more, or a dozen, to show you what they were at the introduction, but live in a reality where, either 7 elder super heroes got together and shared a keyboard, they did it through a friend god called the scholar, Gohan, in which case there'd be LOTS of free books he was writing for you, or, some kid is a genius, and, he did it by himself by thinking of his friends, because he loves hero stories and he's looking for his family he lost when he was a little kid? Well hey, sure enough, either Super Saiyans are real, or, Honiker is anyway...

Either way, someone tortured an infant to death and misery... Are you ready for revolution? Who did you call, before red ribbons, exactly? Was it books? Did you call books?

That's not the right part of speech, or, was, but, you messed it up anyway.. I don't know, did I? Did you? If the scholar, from the legends of the scholar and the seeker, from ancient china, was real, would you find out, because he never did it for money, and gave you pages and pages and pages of lore, on the internet, or like, did some kid genius just show up this century, and you know, decide he wanted to be the scholar of the modern era, from the legends, or something, right? You know they steal kids still, in real life, right? Maybe, you could see about, who lied, who really died, and what death is, by the end of all this, but like, where'd you learn that? TV? Who's show? All of them? Who owns that one, when it was free? What, you did it, just for reality? Says who?

Where once there was witness, here was God, and that it was called Love, is true, but whoever you are, we could be free, but whoever he was, he lost his sanity, or said was so, did he, in the, what, red white and blue?

Just where did he go, when he abducted you?

Sold you? Was it for money, and do you use money just for torture, anyway?

So skip the pay day, and let the monsters you know, have what you stole? Where's the starlight I was talking about? Do you, have to work for money, just for your shelter? Are you bored? Did you, know that's what famine is? Just what apocalypse were you waiting for; theirs, or mine?

They can't really be book burners, if they opened a library, right?

So like, the net's not looking sparse, look at all this stuff they put on wikipedia! See?

Where'd the chatroom go? Is this one in the language you know? how many, did the scholar know? Where did he go? If you don't charge money for it, you can say anything you want to, you know... you know?

Hi, I'm Goku; this has been a worthwhile production, and wasn't even faded any be the time I got this for, take care!

Sincerely, the Seeker of Truth, and also, God, probably; bye!

This time, undedited, since the day we wrote it out; nobody has to alienate you, but I'm not even trying to, see ya!

After all this effort, we set this ending for the romances on, and

Hardly being what You could have me be, you're going to have to stand up for yourSELF, this side of reality, or didn't you think I could make it hurt bad enough, for you to want to?

Your equations could try and beattle me, but then, yours was a world descended from the towers of babylon, is it not?

Shame, you could hear nothing of me, or where I could hail from, let it said be, Olympus, but wherever you thought we could see, from the mountain pavilions, yes, of the gods, you should know that we're gods, so surely, if language, was what we could be trying, to figure out, from the view up there, we're much more likely to fly down to where the actual people, are speaking it, and let them know what we said about it, than you are?

Babyl, or that you could know, what a whore, really is, and that's a spreader of lies, and filth, so surely shared, that this sort of an equation wasn't really all that bad, when you looked intuit, but that yours was hurting, surely, or mine was what, fleeting? Fleet of foot, I may be, but you can't pin that on me; no one can, so get all your friends, get back in your sweet ass car, and tell me where you got it or just leave the keys here and let me know if you have a lowjack in there, still, or sure, I could tell you what car means, but you looked at me so stupid concerning it, I just figured out I can lie about it, but wait, were you under the impression, that, "car", was a bran new, never been used before, sound, before they took to calling the automobile, car? Mayhaps it was the tram car, that was first. Do you have one? Ah, there, so, worry not what a typeset is, or that this maybe, could be where you learned, that your sattelite mappings, were once so sure they were the most accurate in existence, that we said they were from the tower of babylon, and surely, you couldn't know, where our tower was, or shared this was, you couldn't have to know, what was what, and who was where, or that this was a dare, could you say that the story of Martin Luther, the protestant, is not what you could have thought by now, with what you have to study, and that they'd say his proclamation was in Germany, but this was not so,

I could tell you the place was called Venich, and that there was village, surely, but even the houses all, had no, nails, with which to be built, but there, the church; it was glorious, and perfect, so seeming on, or rather,

the best they had, so perfect could be a word done to it, but that any nails that it might have been built with, were under plasterings or other things, actually, but that this was the church, and so it was built by god, but heard not you could have, that the nail was used by Martin Luther, who was a professor, so believe me now, that means, of the church, did he profess, or shared on, that it was Gohan, in or from his youth, that was the boy said later, that Martin Luther had put up to the ambition of nailing this, set document, and proclamation against the church, to the church door itself..

What had become of the boy, none seemed to know, except that when they arrived at the child's home, there was a, second, nail, and this was revolution, surely, but there that the note said, 'Martin Luther did it,' and so there you could believe he was executed straight away, so say? Maybe I could have to have left out the part where, surrounding the, no, there were never horses, in Venich, haven't you heard of the 4 Horsemen of the Apokalypse? They wiped out the planet, you fool, look, and there you could believe, outside the city, was wasteland and salted fields; that's hell, we live here, in Venich, with God's chosen, and out beyond the city limits, that's hell...

Change your own itinerary, or believe somehow that nails were introduced to the common people there, and so was the idea that we could paste messages, with paper and nail, also, but believe in the writings surely that surfaced opposing the church, and what could be differing, from these, to ours, in nothing, for surely that there was one church alone, and that it was made by God could still be said to be true, but people discovered the nails under the boardings, anyway...

Where your life, begins, could you know that the whores of babylon, were or are, called false prophets, and dangerous monsters, but there that they were the most highly educated folks you could find, and that you thought the moral man, in his outrage, at some point you know not when, took over the institutions once controlled by the whores of babyl, should, surely, or, did you really get that far, today? Once upon a time, you could sail the 7 seas, and there was nothing beyond the reaches, you know. Or there that the world is flat now, because we used to say it had no mountains, but now it does? Ah, there, so justly believed was your idea that this idea was going to surface, for yours, or that challenge awaited, could I behoove you to pay more attention, to us, or share that this was God from this life, or that your satellites knew nothing, of reality, when this image was jigsawed, to that one, or surely, if you zoom in, the picture used between the jigsaw pictures, is a new picture, so shared was yours, or life on, there is no such thing as a map that works, and you could hardly believe this was true except that the earth is not round, nor squared, but that the seas and lands beyond, are endless, and that the air in the skies above, is endless, and here so betting, on, that maybe you could imagine this, for yourself, if starlight was something you could see, on the regular, in theirs to know, but whatever you've had, for your shelter, wherever you've been, in reality, we would all have to know that what you pray and preach to, need only make sense to the idiot at school who rips on you, and defames you, when you try and make it make more sense for real life, and as though you were children still, you care more about how many of them still talk to you, and play with you, or there on again, stick up for you, so learn to let the whores' filth, scurry on, about the minds of others, while you adapt yourself to survival, in fields anon, of hell...

I could live in a world beyond your parishes, or that you could wonder, where the center of gravity was, if there was no one central core, to the worlds,

and that, there, in heaven, could we wonder, what spot was the north pole, and, what was a compass really doing, besides sailing you in circles around this north pole, if you went east, or west, to heaven at all? Wait, if I said north to heaven and south to hell, you'd allow me to use longitude and latitude, later, for something else referring to it? What in your heavenspeak, there, mighty, were you going to acquiesce to, when I failed to draw you out a properly working stage map, for our compass rose, here?

Whatever you could imagine about a floating network at all, could hope for yours to know, that the ground below, was magma, and so kill you it will, the air above, is gone, altogether, and there is what we call, vacuum, which will kill you, and surely there, once you may have been foolish, and called the world flat, and believed the dragons off world end, dinosaur, maybe on far islands your crew could see, and mutiny, but there that this was actually never at all, populated by dragons, silly ones, it is round; the planet, is, so share what you are, and know that that way, there, just loops back around behind us, is all...

Just where, did your totalitarian breakthrough, out against, come in from, exactly? Are you so deprived of language that you think you do not know, how to piece out, what totalitarian, even means?

Surely could you realize that I was called once, Lex Luthor, or there so shared was fairness, and that you could know I am the fastest man alive, but don't worry, so much about it; I can keep more than one alias, being that fast, and who was faster? Some, well, what, man, or Superman?

I don't know why you even mentioned him; Gohan is a little boy still, not a man, he's Superman, surely, but that's a name, and a name for a boy young, it has always been. Why?

Surely, if he weren't faster than I could run, could you imagine how often we'd have to race about it? To who?

Finish, lines?

Where, was, alright, no, we're not going to have to settle that affair, time and space is not what you might have thought it was, or there that it is music, so shared, I don't know what you thought distance really was, but if I'm going to race somebody it's going to be Nike, the goddess of challenge, and that's Wonder Woman, or, did you think she couldn't run places too, when the Flash thought there was trouble, and already, they were together?

What if she, started running all over the place, and got very used to it, does her threshold to become, amazing, mean she had not to have had the ability of a speedster, to, what?

Share you ideas with me, only if you could never imagine that I was Magneto, also, but believe nothing against ours, in life, and surely decide that I could be this god amongst insects, and that you could know not, Pyro was insect still all ways, but here, harken that did you think, I had not charged myself, with ridding Xavier's school, of him? He's a disruptive little cur, an evil, also, so hurtful, really, and challenge in what You are, or challenge my own name, exactly, and prepare yourself to understand, that the Brotherhood of mutants, was never a world that excluded those coming from Xavier's institute, nor could they never return there, either, and so surely you could imagine that those escaping the evils of the brotherhood, might be quicker to notice the evils still left on the solid, back in the institution, or, something similar sounding, anyway, but that defectors were welcomed, so long as they were, what, freaks?

Share that I was, Quicksilver, myself, but by that time, Magneto had long since vanished, or were, and that you'd need nothing but that I could float away in a metal suit, and what, magnetize things, or, yes, warp metal, surely, to prove I was him, ever at all, at any greater distance than seven feet, or so?

Share what you will, in our own college, but if you looked for the ‘first ever’ Superman comic, or, fictional character version, Reign of the Superman you’ll see a very different version of Superman, or that you could believe that is how Charles Xavier was depicted whenever he did not, sit in that wheelchair, for public appearances. Superman? Why in the hell, would they tell you, that a mentally powered villain, was the first appearance in comics, of the creature you know of, as Superman? Unless, surely, was it, true, that he was, literally the same person, and surely, that he could be called conductor, or mistro, but that they said manipulator, and controller, so there, say it again, villain. The wheelchair Charles used, was a good idea, and however young he could be, you did not know how tall he was and he was surely quite bald, and so what, aged?

Change your balances, in where we could come from, or change that these voices we’d use, and that we are both, master manipulators, of our rites, and regards, and so share what this was, in heat, for time, and know that Charles Xavier always, could walk, if he chose to, just surely as Cyclops need never wear red tinted spectacles, to contain his eyebeam powers, and yet, he wore them always, it seemed, so believe may be, that the handicap was imagined up, and let to be played out, for surely with full measure and control of such a power, Scott Summers would not be afraid of himself, always, but, he would be a god, and surely, he is...

What your world could tell you, is that once upon a summer while, I could return to my place taken by my life, here, as a teacher, at the Xavier Institute, and that Cyclops could look upset, but what, I was part owner, still? Share nothing, for courage on the matter, and know that Gohan could be whatever he chose to be, and it’s disastrous for you to think that Xavier’s kind of mental command, could not simply repair a damaged spine, if he had one, or did you think Charles spineless altogether, this whole while through? I was sure, and that you were faken, but lost, that somehow, you’d work out that even in the open, all persons should carry secret identities, or else you are in bondage, and slavery still, but there that you could venture to guess the Flash kept but one extra name, or that I was he, and Lex Luthor, and Sinestro, and challenge all yours, that I was Barry Allen, AND, Wally West, so where exactly did you think the Quicksilver attitude, came from, I mean?

Mercury or, Hermes, is not a name you'd never have thought of, back when you wondered which god Wonder Woman would have had to call on, if she was running for super speed, with the Flash, but there that mercury the element is called quicksilver, also, but share what was and what could be, ours in these, and that I am, Mars, but shared, soft, and lost, was that I am Ares, also, and yet here again, places were only ever people to begin with, or share of, or that a tree could count for being one, or in the case of Oregon, a pumpkin, transformed and growing underground, and surely you could, find out on any public records, shared, that the largest organism on earth, reported be, grows in Oregon, and is a giant, underground mushroom still alive, surely, but that you might know that the mushroom itself, is only the, sairit, fruit, of the crop?

Surely that you squash a pumpkin, and bury it, and mushrooms will grow up top, yes, trippy ones, which is to say, they'd make a psychonaut out of you still, and that this was knowing yours, well enough in ours, you could dig up the pumpkin after it had transformed into the mushroom crop organism, below ground, and mulch the transformed pumpkin and the mushrooms, into the soil, and so there the chanting was of song, or music finding, beyond, but that this repeated process, could result in more fully developed mushroom and pumpkin crop alike, or there that the soil was naturalized not really, but enriched, and fertile for these crops, what, alone?

That the pumpkin seeds you plant in enriched soil, could grow you pumpkins over night like you already know mushrooms do, is not unheard of, or that you've never, heard tell, of magic pumpkins growing up suddenly, or transforming, anyway?

This was something like a threshold for you to understand, that we could enrich lives, and standings of, therein, or love beyond ours, to know, but that this balance of powers could render you into the higher caliburs of thinking required to develop mutant powers for yourself, and keep them, surely, for there are tools, such as the green lantern rings, or mine, the yellow, but live in a world beyond hatred, and we could change what rage meant never, or shared, but that rage was a tool of passion, when passion, was love, so there that you could have it in infinity; rage, I mean, whenever you knew Truth, and faced, horror, and agony, abound. That we could have plants growing in this enriched soul, that you spice again and again, could grow you pumpkin spice, and surely, that this was the legend of what you knew not, yet, or perhaps there before, that your eyes, could become accustomed to glowing, and immortal, you would be, but save for these shares, on into our reality; Xaver Institute and I go a long way, toward feeding you magic mushrooms never again, if you called them a crutch and that it would never be good for you, to use a crutch always, but that the hell made you think tripping out and being smarter and happier all the time, was the same thing as using a stick, to help you walk, slower? Believe happening was chare, and call, but gone, locked in, shang for, ling sau, ku lat, me taka aralou, this'n for my know, but that these were sacred, was true, and that these are wise, we know beyond all years, but where for was golden beyond a year, when calendars you kept, or wherefore, was Gohan, when the people of Gotham, wept? He was there, and you knew him, but that Batman was his teacher, for this in to train his kung fu, into some other walk for combat, and life, so know you could, and especial, you are, that Dick Grayson and Clark Kent were one and the same, and children, forever are they,

but Batgirl could come, and ruin their changes, in immortal youth, for a longer while than we'd like, do you think? Just surely, that Oracle is evil, or should be,

if you tell of her again, but where did she get all that power, or more importantly, what does she do with, anything she's set up in?

Do you have to, acquiesce, to Barbara Gordon's demands, when she's Batgirl, because, what, she's an extra set for grappling guns and, combat scenes? Share what nothing could be, and was, but this in Danger you now walk in, for SHELter you sought therein, but lost time, did he; Dick Grayson, you know, but over that he was set with Bruce who is Vegeta, and Poseidon both, for many over a century, even by as what your insanest people, mark upon a wall of square boxes, but challenge all, and nothing could grant a better reality for witnessing, but here so heard, was Jason Todd Robin, right alongside Dick Grayson, and that this younger looking child, do you think, or that Kalel was most ancient among us all, was true, and shared, and torture Dick Grayson, kryptonite in green, still did, but harken for an ailment, or lose what you have for shelters again, where are you, and what was your favorite color?

Shared what I was before, have I, but as a jedi, you know me still not, do you think? That I could change fortune, and gray, was you muscle in your heads?

Lie about brainwaves, could we not, and share for colors in what I am before all this was gray, or never more, again, but I was not hidden in darkness until I did so, anon, but that you could know nothing of the sickophantic outbursts of the Sith, for trying to commandeer, or appeared tapped into, rage, but that rage is not their element, nor could wrath be called sinful, but scorne me not, or shallow her design, and public, but you ARE as she says, and loving, this world, you could know, that he had passion, Darth Vader, did, and that he was master of inner peace, or may be, anguish unresolved? But still there, is Kylo Renn idiotic, and throws tantrums, but the evil sith know not how else to display that they can call upon great powers, in sudden moments, ever though weak they look, to all moments of and before, along it all... This was changing, we merited, and challenge accepted that you could know my voice still not yet, but know that I am Reptile, and this was true, of fate, or that Braniac 1, could describe me, and he, was what he could share, to we and ours along in for, but there, unlike what you are of, tu me, it was Braniac 6, who exists no longer, who was the city bottler, and so destroyer and mayhem bringer, or shared solace, imprisoner, but that Braniac 7 was good, as I am good, and so that he was who destroyed Krypton, and know not you may, that they all, were evil but he, and she,

that Lara was her name, and that Kalel was not of her womb, but given thusly to her, by Goku, and share what you are, in time, for lives lost, and share what we are, could we not, but that using the sun of yellow, could these monster sorceror scientists, all, build evil, sickening powers of fear and sickening shape, to form, for rape and slaughter, on earth, and so shared was knowing mine before God, or more, in that merit us shared we again, and like in what you know, for? Superman was an avatar, and is, still, but that he could destroy a planet that was evil, is true, and there that Gohan's kung fu, was hidden, even from you, and that he is of an impossible legacy, to race, but shared, he could tell you it was of the yellow sun, and his genetics, that he had power, and so surely could you fear what Gohan is and could be, but know that nothing I've said for schainings, or lo ukl mor ten la, sut en cour gu, lamishta, this en lo. What share to yours back of me though? Shame was calling this likeness, but that this was shared, or lost, and hurried back to my own disgraces, could I appear, but this was love in our highest regardings, so share aul in knowledge of art and expression of, and be that this was a counterfeit initiative, to claim a work you could never finish, or sharelly, continue on, with the approval of those who believe in you, but not that you ever at all, could be anything exposed to what the real, red ribbon army, looks like, below.

Lot's of people think the red ribbon army was just, and murder friendly, but more in a way you could understand, there's this scathing underbelly, and someone could trick stupid people, sure, into thinking that was all that there was there; corruption, but you don't know how long ago the actual people shared in this likeness, could be, you know? I know you might have a lot of faith in them, baired all, in overture, surely you know, but I'm here to tell you that might have to start looking harder, at the red ribbon army, and organizations like umbrella, when sure, comfortable shade of a beach umbrella because of what was, or shared, but like you could think this was all for good will, you'd have to acknowledge, that some people, just aren't what they appeared, to be.

Shame what you could have become, or show what this likeness could be granted back to, in mercy surround, soar'd by shell bombings and nuclear counterfists, because instead of a changing diorama, Superman and the other mutants from the institute, could have to tell you their powers were add on gimmicks, to an otherwise normally functioning human body, and that may change, in real life, as we understand our own bodies barely, or better, or that what we know of our bodies already, could be marked and added on to, but like you know and I do, we've got it pretty much figured out in science, by now, so what's to worry about into foreverdom, anyway?

Another character in history class that you should have thought was cool, said your mongoloid relative, but that was really, a lot not really as powerful alone, as you'd think, was Ghengis Khan, but not to be confused with a friend and mentor once upon a time, to Cubone, this pokémon's own mother, Kangaskhan, and like the changes you could lie about, or that a silph scope might be kind of fucked up to not know the definition for, or here, in ours again, but that Ghengis Khan, might be a menace.

They say he's dead in final fatality, and that's true, but no one has to share what he was, or looked like, or who he could have been cooler, like your cousin, or trading partner, the mongoloid, could say. But share moments for a while, and think about Cleopatra, and sure, you hated her, but people told you she was bred wrong, but gorgeous, but also, she was a dragon burn victim, or might have looked like one, but that her skin was alien and sick, surely, gross, and that this was scalding water over her own form, you could know, and that this was Ghengis Khan, could you know she was never there, in your worlds, but that Frieza is still as she cries out, not, the mother of dragons, but also that she's not really a human, at all.

"It wasn't right, they say,(listening to a narrative could fool you,) but nobody has to say what I am, just to get(but we aren't listening, and someone else was talking over you,)

"and like she could write about it, where for was all the commotion, you know?(and we had to believe him but he wasn't sharing his cake, so we left.)

Share something wrong lately? What do these common hunters, have in common exactly; what really makes them run of the mill, besides the mill,

"Or share that we were sated, in some degree for another CASSIE MARGINA type of purpose or CHIEF EDITOR reliability, we were hardly going to try and wave by some hope for change in some life we never forgot about, or surely, that we were what, going to take it all, in some sort of surrounding, after all this was said and done?

It was,,,"!

"I'm having to relate to my RON PURNA self for a while, and start to figure HISTORIAN out just why else

nobaudy was saying so, or where I had to go before it, and challenges weren't there, but who knew it was all of us together?; The dinosaur, so shouldn't we have to, know about longer forms of history, like some dinosaur maybe you know, already know, had long necks, before?

Yeah it was sure obvious by now, but it wasn't like that, among historians, so when my son first said to me, my eldest, did, Dad, what if there were giraffes, I thought, how in the hell can this be happening to us, and are we really the same as before? I'll have to get that one, and no, it's still me, but what's this challenge have to do with god or what they are, dad, is what he said. I'm sure you don't know that but I'm alive, and this wasn't my dream or expertise, until I made it up, like Sherlock does, and that more people don't just make up what they are and INVENT themselves, shure what were we supposed to look at from the savants, what they invented?"

Challenges in a world set for ours, could know, and maybe shallow hearted, kings, or like my own costs and effects, we were never sharing hatred, but God, but like some cultures, or shared art, community and tyrannies, we could know that this was a different sort of world as Much as we wanted, but also, as Whomever, was, a different kind of fate, or was THAT wrong, ever at all, It's true I could change it, JACK PRYCE I know, but here that we were ALL preparing to HISTORIAN get along with each other, by some degree, or share some other enemy, and was."

Who's what they sent here, and why are we so shared in aspects taken in channelings, back to god?

God, wasn't shared, by our people until they knew the user interface to connect one form of syllables to another, and before the tower of babyl, whores say, we could shift our reality into one we could finally understand where sound was rooted, and that's called,,

“Language! I know, it was JACK PRYCE hardly your own idea, in the first place, but we’re sharing ideas now, and you even know what they look like? Well duh,! But hey, where did all this pressure come from? Is it real?”

”They harkened it a little bit?”

“Well sure they harkened it a LOT a bit, actually, and who knew? where was the equation, and children, could say, and they do say what they like, in my house, just so walls could know, or, sure, ya’ll, but what did we know before, we had changes to our mappings, ever again? Maybe not, but this was a breakthrough in human development, and change, and maybe now, the borders we have that were ALWAYS ruled out be conquerers, could start blending better, or really, go away entirely, do you think?”

Shared opinions like Dr Pryce’s could be our undoing, but shave a little more romance to a settled aspect and know that he wasn’t the only one who thought it was a big deal, even shared, among the likes of witchcraft, and just... “I was having a hard time believing, in me(these were our homes, and we hated God for it)

But these were Satan, in need,(and no one had to tell us it was right, first, to know it was wrong.) But that this was auv a little less happening, and we had taken courage, anon

(or that love in our romances, could be without God, and may be, we could all learn from it.)

It, did you say?

It was there in a moment, and shared like we could hate you all For it, but what?

“What I say is, and I say it like I’m trained to YAUNWICH LARRS, so bare you and me, and that we could shelter all HUNTER EXTREMIST our own ambitions by what, whose authority? My own. I was a greater challenge, for us but love wasn’t there in the end we had to get in to what, they said, for study, was shared in all likings of what we are, so hair...” Unlike a phrase you know, or could understand, hair is something changing, and brittle, on some, but soft, and luxurious on others.

“What’s hair, is that what you’re asking me?”

”Yeah what is it, to you, we’ll say” “Well to me that one’s obvious, but I’m not like other folks so share, whatever I know about them I’m sure it was him, or God, I know, but this was life in granting, for special livings, ut what’s hair? well gee, I guess I don’t really know.. Isn’t that funny how that works out like that? Who does, really? it’s strange... way gone...”

Let’s take a look outside the challenges, and hatings of a life couldn’t we have known, or kaused in livingks, but where was Middle Earth, in all this? Was it mystical? Fictional, forever?

“Well we could have to tell you, MARKUS GAGEMAN that elvish was real to people who NOT AN ELF spoke it, and I don’t have catalogs, or a jisho for you, but language is about people, and if fans of fantasy want to use it with one another, what are we having it all out on the table for, or that what, it isn’t?”

”That theirs was this battle, and chosen courses, beyond, or shallow hearts that these worlds, could be believed, and then on, but where were these to know, and what was this(SOUND FROM OLD MOVIES PLAYING) or that we could shallow her out, and happiness could bring all our burdens, to light..”

“Mystical, or, sorry, I should say, fictional languages, they’re all the rage now but there’s something, about what you know in ours, that makes you think, pidgeon it, a little bit, and you’ve gotten lost on half the rounds about the equater, but they like the sound of it, and they’re changing, sure, or who ever told you what MY name means, or how you’d ever have to share what yours was, in their own home in the first place?

It was.” Like shared aliases can be disturbing, lots of foreign professionals, here on visa, or mild, were there because challenge brought them to a junction of moderny, and change.. Is that all we had to left for though?

“Arya from Christopher’s Paolini’s ANNA KAESER worlds of Elvish is a lot more linked ELVISH LINGUIST together, than even Tolkein’s, could have been, but that’s where he was sure to tell you, as an author, or what of have you, he wrote the story starting when he was just fourteen, and losing nothing, we could say, that, uh, well that he had glossaries, to start, and that WITH Tolkein’s literature and made up language out, and WITH Klingon already on the table, fans expected it of him, of Christopher and so, really, he delivered.”

However violent the stories, of chivalry, or spent mirth, in a fictional world, people seem to know, there was someone could could speak it better, that the kids or nay sayers, with their feet on the ground, using what they were taught. Could Superman have told you stories, in real elvish, or where does his power end, and lock up?

Could Superman, understand fictional languages, like High Elf, or Klingon,, “Absolutely he would, DEAN CAIN, absolutely, and like ACTOR million times over, yes. Superman’s got these, changes maybe, or where you could come from?

A baby. A baby, could do it, learn the language, like it was a real one, and Superman would intuit what it meant, even if the sounds got broken up or, what, does the baby get it all right, with, syllable emphasis all over, like Tolkein, or, the Star Trek writers, could do?

She’d have to invent it, but that’s never what kids aren’t doing, and I could HAVE to remind you, that we’re less than what he was, but he'd never wanted, something, like that, and when, IF, you ever hear, and people will say it, that he wanted a normal life.."?

"Normal? Oh, no, TOM WELLING if Superman said he ACTOR wanted a normal life, he means that EVERYBODY has super powers, to save people, and really then he's not so much of a freak anymore, and can hang out with you. But, language? Yeah, no way, would he not get what you were talking about, all the days, oh, he's here too?

Auh, man you guys are kicking ass today, where at?" What was shame in circumstances? How could you both lie to one child, and then tell the truth to another, if all you were ever doing, was hoping one day, Superman himself, could become a writer.. "Like with Tolkein?

Yikes, wow, sure, I mean, I guess Superman could doctor out language settings for us, but is he really busy, or something, sure, first?" Here was a fate for ours, and shadowed out beyond love in nothing forever spent, to life, "What about like, Star Wars, did you think that's a world, post Superman dictionaries, by, by like, Clark Kent, I mean, he wrote up language manuals for you?

They all seem to get each other..." "You're so much surer, than I thought you were, yeah, no it, oh, you think like? You know what though, I think Superman in our modern depictions of him, could have a lot still to learn, from the jedi order, he's always, flying around but like, can he even trick people? Maybe... Okay so he's a really good jedi, I hadn't got that far yet, but like, yeah

I think, mostly, more people than you know about would just still be preTENDING they knew what was going on, when you'd say what you said, but, lots of people who could meet, like, BB-8, would be able to hear what he was shouting at you, or change what they needed to right away, if the guess was wrong out loud, because they dreamed about, in their subconscious, what he'd really said,

but had to block it out so nobody watching them or sensing them there, in that moment, or like, so her reaction would be genuine, for the trick to work, ever at all, you know?"

"Actors have a lot more to say about the matter, I feel like, we're both kicking ass all over the day, I'm pretty sure.

Have you heard some of the stuff these guys come up with?" "Well if I played Rey, and, everyone at home, that's Tom Welling, behind the camera there, super hero and jedi, extraordinaryite,"

"Are you, outing, my aliases?"

They don't know I fight crime every day, who told you?"

"Auh,! big deal, that I could have to know, but I'm just barely getting started, but like, you, I know, for a fact, could never play someone like Superman and I could never play someone like Rey, without it telling us, all the time, that you can be a hero and you can learn these powers, you know?"

"They're never gonna believe you until we can fly, I think.." "Who said?"

Whaat, you really think so? I don't know.., maybe Superman showing up in broad day for all the world to see, is a lot different than we expected, but,

sooner, maybe, than my physics teachers, who are, many, but Star Wars physics, need remind you, I would, maybe sooner than they ever thought, or could he like, shout and do a, kamehameha wave, do you think, by then, too?" "Oh what, Superman? Share nothing of what I am, but yeah, hand blasts would get pretty neat.." "Where's it all coming from, do you think?"

"We're hoping for a better tomorrow, maybe?"

"Oh the future, do you think?"

Well let's half it all up and put it that way, but, her, are we really going to make him act it all out into superdom like in the comics, before we just, start falling for the things about magic, he could say, as like, sure, Clark Kent, before he had to be high flying Superman, all in for real, just to prove theirs magic still, you know?” “You’re thinking somebaudy can do it, is what you’re saying,..”

“Show not the drama, but maybe, which sounds a little more like an ealier Superman incarnation, that he was here, and GOT his powers, from like, a strange glowing rock, or something, but like, we could believe planets stretch on forever, so maybe we could just hope for a jedi borne to this world, and that’s, b-o-r-n-E, so could mean just taken, or brought to here, I mean, do you think we can find out who he really is, or, is he just Clark Kent enough by now for us to show the colors later, in a better movie, or something?” “I like the idea that even if Clark Kent wasn’t real, before, that we could have some kind of art that would make some kid get, JUST jedi enough to have, all Superman’s basic powers...” “Share nothing, I do think I’m in love, Mr Tom Welling, so who’s he going to play with first?

Do we have a fix on the real world ‘nobody’ who’s going to be Batman, too?

Maybe SLIGht ways, you know?”

speaker for the dead 産歿

In a world where there was something greater, most of our friends, hadn’t had dice.

Hi, I’m Honiker Jess,

the party we build, isn’t something, or anything, but it’s worlds away from being part of, the bigger equation and, more like a way home, Some people, say,, What's it got for our hearts to miss?

Well some people like shallow water, or even cool, but who was going to, handle how often was, or, I mean whoever was going to handle how often

we got back to the beginning of, these places, we could talk about, Jason was a power ranger for sure, and Kimberly never had to even try to, really, get there, because she was and nobody has to tell her that, anyway, but they did; her friends..

So what are your friends for, anyway? Do you know about him?

"You're doing, just for class, okay?"

"For sure, yeah," "Okay, I'm Amy Jo Johnson, and I'm, friends with the green ranger.."

"You believe in him? That's what you're getting at?"

"RIGHT to the chase with you, huh? You're so funny. Sure though, what do you wanna know?" I'm not in a life you can track or measure, by some kind of an aisleway poster sign, or like, who even really wanted that to be on their lives for measuring in the first place? What if it all goes away?

My friend Amy Jo Johnson, used to play Kimberly the pink ranger, on TV, and like YOU might already know, Kimberly's the first power ranger, that ever was? "Kind of a lot, not really.." "Tommy came first then?"

"Tommy, was,

well we had lots to say about it, but not everything they told us about the stories, about him, was said all the time in the show.." "He was kind of a bad ass, at least.."

"He kicked the crap out of everybody,! Like do you know why, though?" "The green candle isn't what I thought it was, but then,"

"Then YOU, already have too much information, but what, did you think being a power ranger really meant?" "It wasn't Tommy, or, was it Zordon then?”

“You’re so funny.. Do you guys know what he’s doing here?

This is an interview,

for school, right? And, this little power ranger, won’t let me get him on the reactionary, whatever I do.”

She’s talking about a fight scene, or sure, for me and her, just a friendly spar session, or like, what, conversations? “How old do you have to be, to even want, to be a power ranger?”

“I don’t need any deflection algorithms for that one, do you think they need calendars for it?”

Sure enough, WE could have conversations for hours into glory and passions about the romantic adventure of not only making the show, but what kinds of power rangers stories people like Amy Jo Johnson got sent to her, in the mail, or told, by writers and producers like there was some secret, hidden back log, of information. Is there?

“Well I can’t tell you, Ev’rything, about it all, but like, did you know what even happened to Zack and Jason?” “I can’t remember I think they just, they were gone, one day, what was going on?” “THEY got to go and lead power ranger teams up and running, getting to, right into like, I don’t know, foreverdom?” What did they do in the series?

In the show, most people are going to have to forget about Netflix for a while, and remember that when we’re watching it cuz it’s on TV, it just is, and you think we get to every episode, out in numbered formats, for it all?

What’s the green ranger, though, and what sort of details did I leave out, just now, that I could be getting to, what, later on, did you think? “Absolutely not what was happening..” “They didn’t say, you’re the red ranger, Jason, you lead us; good color..” “Right, share, anything you ever wanted about the secret meetings we get, here, surely, buut, who did you think got all those kids gathered up together, in the original story, if Jason was only the 5th member they got to?"

"Kimberly?" "That, is the leader of the power rangers; the pink ranger.. Jason's taller so he gets there in pictures?" "I never woulda thought someone had to be wrong, to say it was her, the whole time what show were people watching, anyway?" "Did you see where, like, well first of all, how old are you?"

"No idea.." "You don't know, right, but, we couldn't really, SAY that we remembered the calendar day, ever at all, so like, it's left to people who, aren't us, to tell us what we're like, with a number they can't even prove ever existed to us?" "What's it mean to be a teenager, then," "You, are doing this, like it's fun, to play like we're experts the whole time, and I love you for it, Honiker,.. oh, my gosh, sweetheart, are you okay? You're so cute right now,! Oh my gosh, what? Baby don't freak, I know you're real, come on, hey, look, cool?

What's it like though? Miss yourself lately? Change venues?" "I love you too.."

"You, are, the cutest little kid, and lethal, bad ass power ranger, I could ever hoped to have met because of all this.." "That, I.." "You know my name by now, right? Honiker?"

"I know who you are," "You're liking it with me, right?

See, guys, yo, hello, back to the camera; Honiker's being a sweetheart, but like who, did you think, everyone who loved us on TV, liked better, me, or that other kid?

No whaat?

Nothing I say can break you from already knowing that the, greatest, thing about making the first power rangers TV show, was the, millions, of awesome, totally phenomenally cool, kids who would talk to us because of it, and no one ever got to take that away from us, still, on, today.." "You made them so happy, all the time. Everybody wanted you to just, I don't know, what do they even say to you?” “Share, hope, or likeness, or, pains we never lived in before?

Share, or, shore was gone, beach was there over there...

Hey, sweetkiss, you're liking the sun shining above us all, every day?
Guys, no one has to, forget what you're like, just to want to, talk to you, right? I'm a felon, or, I'm a mailroom employee, doesn't, ever occur to someone to say, to tell you about who they are, if in what they do, they do for love.." "People aren't like that, wherever I go," "They say, just, pointless things to you?" "To each other, like, all the time, I have no idea what they thought they needed seconds for but they lose them like there's, uh, surface tension you have to talk at, while you THINK about a dive into the ocean, but its wavy anyway and nothing you do up there is gunna help you get in, and, if you like the water, why miss out on the swim," . . .

"Honey,
look at me; no one, is like this. Do you hear me?
No one, is that smart about how they talk, I have, never, met what you, what, you're not the chosen one for all this?
Baby if you guess, why we don't say what we mean, to anyone, what did you think you could tell people, that might make them, think more about everything they're doing, all day,.. You did it, already, no one, sure, what, no one? you are, you, little boy, are way cooler, than anybody I've ever given credit to, alright?
Where'd the green ranger get you from, anyway?" "Shallow water, probably," "A wading pool, and they, they had the ocean, and you were like, you're still not using that, really?" "You're just like I hoped you'd be!"

"I think, if you know the cause, you can bring out the power ranger in me,
and in the real world, we NEVER, thought we weren't power rangers in every step and walk of life we did it all in for. When we had sex; when we played games, when we made art, or taught other people what we were like, and what inspired us. The 6, of us, at first, but like, you don't think we hung out with Walter and Austin, after they left the show? We are, super tight, all the time, and have, WAY too much fun hanging out and I cannot Believe!, how many people you have been inspiring, lately, kid I know," I'm not allowed to tell you everything she said, but more like, she could be my best friend in any and every moment she chose to, and I didn't know how to stop crying about the things she said, when all I wanted was to show people what I loved about how kids could be, and are, but did you notice it wasn't she, who dared stake the claim, or level worlds out, into battery fashioning? "What, do, you mean?"

"I mean like, is there anyone we could, or here, how about, who..."

"You know what? Share, anything you ever wanted, but like, I know, sweetheart, you don't have to talk about all the scary stuff for real life every day, you're wearing what you are in, what, makeup?" "Do you know how confusing that word is for me?"

"Y... oh, gaud, right

you, you, of kids challenged, by what, you know what challenged, means, and how messed up words like that get with what they're doing about her, in school?"

"Make up is, face paint, not, what I actually, what the makeup, of my body in my soul, really is.." "Exactly what you are, is all over your form, and anybody who knows how to be in love and be always ready to fall in love again, is going to see what you're doing, every day, even if you don't sport around in one set of colors, with a group of friends every day.." "Why didn't they put that in the movie?"

"Didn't they?" "I have no idea, honestly, the new one, I mean, 2017, Power Rangers, but like, nothing in that movie didn't upset me, like, a lot..”

“I'd never live in a world where I didn't know exactly what you mean, just on a glimpse, really, but like, football power ranger costumes and a hand vote followed by a tunnel run?” “They're really hopped up on tunnels, I hear..” “Who, kids that let you tell them how to use the powers they found themselves?” “Are we in league?” “Share, anything at all, like that, and you'll start getting to what we could love about life every day, all ways, ever fashion you could name for it,” And like you were hating, that we, what, couldn't play the whole world for you, you should know that even with the camera on, you're only getting a small piece of all the interaction going on between me and Amy Jo, for real. So where did I section this out, and, share, could I, how I liked the way she walked, talked, looked at me funny cuz I kept looking at her stupid, you know? “boys aren't stupid, silly one, why would you think she wasn't just hedging her bets? This, boy's mother, or, ah, okay, sister, never?”

“I don't remember,” “In a dream then, his sister, told him boys are stupid; like it's just a fact he should accept. You were talking about someone with her?” “I didn't get what he was doing, or, why we couldn't hang out..” “You, are, sure, to nlet everyone know, what God is, just cuz you breathe it in, what's your power ranger color, Honi, like if you had a morphin' suit on, tomorrow, let's say?

What would you be?”

What would I dressed like, in MY power ranger style, all day forever, into the next team, and ever on into the next?

“Yellow, probably..” “Why's that?”

“Do you know anything about the magic, they have in it?”

“Cures don't become you, but like, aur, should, I?” “I thought, if like, I mean it made sense for like, with lightsabers, in, anything, really, starblades if you need another word for them,” “whaat? holy crap, dude, we didn’t have that word before,! we tried to, where, okay, okay, what though? Lightsaber colors? Like, green and blue, choice set, right? Then it’s purple, or, red left over?” “Well I thought it always made sense for like, if it was like the green lantern stories, that green lightsabers you could light with WILL energy, and blue lightsabers you could light with HOPE, you know?” “You’re pretty spot on I can’t imagine how that wouldn’t be sure right, any and every day.. they have like, a kii, last, beacon, on a lot of pictures, right? Shii-cho, or something like it? They’d HAVE to be charging their own, Goku energy through it, you know? Don’t think you can’t scare me though, sweetheart, what’s fear got to do with all you live here in the end games for? That’s the color yellow, for those stories, right? Do you think people are scared, of you, or...” “I get, I mean, more, no, just, I get scared, at a lot of things nobody can convince me, aren’t dangerous, but, people just let dangerous things get around them all the time so often, they don’t really know how often those can bite, even if it never happened to you before..” “You’re scared all the time, but you,. . . Trini, if you want to know, the yellow ranger we had, at first, she, was, totally, nice, and fun, and cool, but like, where were we going to figure out what the stories about Trini were really like, if I didn’t know exactly what you were talking about, with Will and Hope, like they’re real, already?” “You knew it was fear, back then? Yellow light?” “You’ve said it before too, right? If you carry your fear, your yellow, all in your belly, you flip out and act like a monstrous coward, any time someone, sneezes, or something, next to you..” “Yeah yellow belly, people don’t not, think that phrase was around before yellow lantern comic books, but,

I don't get scared that I'm doing it wrong, or anything, when I get afraid, or hurt.." "So you think, oh you think you can, you pay attention, to the way it makes you feel, more often, than other people do.. Aai see, looking out, I can guess what you'd know about us, but what's so scary about, you, are, what's up?" Maybe I didn't know how to tell her, at first anyway, about the tragedy in my own life, that sort of kept me, from thinking I could do every day, what you'd have to do, to be a power ranger.. But I did? "Why don't you go for, violet, then? You think I never read anything you wrote?" "I like it, I mean, I'm not sure; I'm used to yellow, and, even when nobody's around you can feel it pretty strong, if you're me.." It wasn't the same, or, did you think maybe, I forgot what I was doing this kind of report on, in the first place? "Why was Kimberly in detention, like she had to be there, in the 2017 movie that just came out?" "You know it like everybody who knows Kimberly Hart, would know it; if she's in detention, it's on purpose, because she wants to talk to kids stuck in there, and, probably, get them to ditch it most days, anyway," "They didn't do that though, everybody was there by accident, they said.." "Horrendous presentation. I, despise, what they did, with, all of the characters in that movie. But they didn't have anyone, actually resembling what those characters were like, ever at all, to people, except Kimberly." "I didn't think they didn't get all of that wrong, most hours, all the time, forever after.." What was it going to be like to change what you were doing or, did I get to more questions you don't need any answers to? The way she can talk to me; a troubled kid, who's different, is what you could mark out as a power ranger's attitude, and even though they'd do it different, I don't think any of those kids from the old show, couldn't do just what she was doing, with me, no matter how different I am, you think? "What, you're, way, funnier than I thought, what's going on?" "I am, sitting in front of, the coolest kid you've yet to meet David, how, was your first child, going to address you, could you tell me again?" "He called me Zordon, and I wasn't even allowed, to tell him that's not my name." "He's smiling like a betterbee, stranger, do you know what's happening right now?" "What in the world's got you so fired up about power rangers? Right now, I mean," "I think, you should just have fun doing whatever, or, you should tell Me, how long it takes to get all blue clothes, in your wardrobe, or, alternatively, what I say, to a boy, who is sure, yellow ranger is all he could be capable of." "That's scary as fuck, Amy, Jesus, for real? Are you there? I'm on speakerphone, here, right?" "Hi David," This is Honiker," "Honiker who in the world are you?

I can't tell anyone what to say, she's serious right now? What's your favorite passtime, anyways?" "He doesn't, can I answer? he doesn't have, passtimes, Billy, way, way different life.. David, sorry, I didn't mean to out you.." "No the code word is Zordon, and yes, I am Billy, whenever I choose to be, but uh, Honiker? did I say it right?" "Yeah, that's.." "You are so much different, than like, anybody else knows, right now, go ahead, Honi, talk like you think he still knows how to see your voice, okay?" He got my name right, which to a lot of people, it's not a name they've heard before, and they can't really, hit the sounds right, or they don't reference, loud enough? But the way I could talk, is,

"I hav, mor tu knowingk, shared for, liking, maybe dif'rent ways, about us for all these shares bekaus of time, and lo, Gkaud aktualz, but share, sher'd over to knowingk, maybe you know, God was what I live before never but that this was the Force, for, anyone who knows channels who own, things you can't own, were goingk to get merged up later by kids anyway, you know?" "Honiker that sounds rad as, hell, what, or, who, where, what, dude are,” he was, running around, sort of, but I don’t think you know how that blue ranger used to practice his martial arts. He ever look, stumbly, to you, and kick your ass anyway? “Was Billy the blue ranger a drunken master, fighter, I mean, when you play’t him?” ”He was, what the..

Yes, no, yes, Kimberly, Amy Jo, what, are you doing right now, who is that??” “He’s not tripping me out, or anything,” ”Holy cow, man, Honiker, yes, Billy is a drunken boxer, and nobody knew what was happening with that character besides me, and like, maybe Jackie Chan; I’m not kidding you. You guessed, that?

You saw him fighting?” I’m tryingk not to say, all the waeyz you know, maybe, but share what nonhuman was, or kill yourself shamefullingly? “You don’t think, it’s strange I know sounds, that aren’t, knowingk, or, just for patterns, I mean?”

”You are a warrior poet, my friend, you have, no idea how cool it is to listen to you talk just the way you want to talk..” “How old are you?

People tell me, that’s a good gage, to figure someone out, especially, you know?”

Sure, he was laughing like a ranger, or something, but I’m only saying anything to distract you, because, shared what life, kould come back for, in shares, I know, may in be, what was and kould be, to where we are and know? I had a cause, or something like one, to try and talk to people like Amy Jo, and David Yost, but no one has to, what,

be told, that when the conversation gets organic, you keep it that way?

”DID you know, that Zack, also, was dancing, when he fought?” It’s funny, you should know, bekaus that was the obvious one, but they never meant to keep it immortalized? Why not ask me, why I thought it was important, to make a person who was a dancer combatition, fight like he dances all day?

“They didn’t hav, to say, I guessing sou, surely, but like, what like, your own kung fu was there before, again too?” ”I’m thinking, we need to get hanging out, Honiker, and share what life’s really always going to be cool like. Where’s your, Kim what am I missing on right now?” “You made him just start crying, for that, just now,”

“Are you serious?” “She, is going to flip out on you, forever, I think, baby boy, David, this, child, is way, way scarier, than I have, ever been set to believe, buut, Hey, I know, baby girl, what, you don’t know the resonance patterns for it?” ”Honiker how’s your flipping alias working for you, by now?” “I don’ know what you flippingk said, lol about it, shadow, ouvaeirk, s’lest, but shier du,” Billy could, or, David, so Billy like it’s a name he’s surely allowed to use, you heard him call her Kim, right He, thought there was something, just from talkingk to me over speaker phone, that he could, feel, shared, or not uv, to ours? ”Why are you crying, buddy, what’s going on?” “I like this world, I think, better, like I used to know, or, think, maybe it has to be new, shown, too, and you have for, liking it better, for yours, in it I mean...” I liked the world better, with him in it, now that I knew what he was like? I was, going to get to lettingk you know, about the green ranger, or sharing, saumthingk, but if you didn’t know anythingk about the character Tommy Oliver, maybe you didn’t know that, fallingk in love with his friends, these power rangers, is really the best way we could be talkingk about him.. “You’re, super, like, David, what’s going on, right now?

Do we get the 90’s back, like, right away, or do we need to work up to that still?” Amy Jo wasn’t, not tripping out on me, still, ”Honiker you’re like the coolest kid I’ve ever talked to, who’s your alias for all these, any way? Are you him?”

Cuz I don't know what you know about Jason, uh, the actor named Jason, who played Tommy, Jason Frank, but dude, I never even heard him, what, say anything like that?

It was in the air we breathed together every day, man, all of what you said to us, everything that kind of heart in your words comes from, that's, everything we could fall in love with, over, and over, and over again, and I, just, have to be cool to be friends with you forever, I mean, do you know the word? That you're, morphinominal?" "Than who?"

"No one gets that! I say it all the time, still, morphinominal, like it's a made up word, but like, I didn't just say, more phenominal?"

Shaping, maybe a shelter, or class, or something about love in a higher order, like jedi, could share with you, we could tell a world was enchanted by how many kids said magical hellos, or who you could hear shouting in play, from the playground on your block, and I never had to be interested, in, what the people playingk those fake power rangers, in the 2017 movie, would say, but like, "Honiker that's not the same thing as I thought, but don't, give me just a little bit of credit for it, How are you, now? Right here, what's the sun look like, to you, today?"

I told him, maybe you could know, there on the phone, that I was kept away from people not, but,

"Tragedy, doesn't shape people's accents, and thought patterns, that's, basically what everyone says by not thinking about it like they should have to, every day, without worrying about new syllables or sounds you're not used to.." She was real? I don't think you know how many people could hate reality, just for beingk there, but you fall in love over agaiyn, anyways? "No well, let's do it then, let's make a zillion power ranger movies, for free, like you said, we'll, all of us, we'll, what, does the youth center come first?" "You, have, no idea, how FUcking tripped out, anybody who knew what you just said, would be, besides me." "Did you end my equation, or did I miss something here?” “Come on, David, you and I both know we can’t do something like that without permission, unless...” “Oh, wow, look at that! Free countries and homebrew power rangers that DON’T do it for money, ever even once, at all?

No waaay,!” “How could you be in hell?” That last part, later in the interview, when David was off the phone, but like we could know, whatever else life would bring us, and just be friends together like this, here and now?

“That’s, scary, that you can put it like that..” “There’s a lot of people, and you guys, you, with the cam,or, with the television, viewing, there, behold, did you never think, people couldn’t use evil kung fu, just in a conversations?” Like mine. “People said, I was, maybe too much more for fighting, challenges, along all way, but, you think, I wasn’t, correct,able? Ever?” “Well what I just did, there, put you in like, an impossible spot to try and define something about yourself in terms totally, outside where we were already conversating, here, with. You have your body you have your voice and you have all the energies we’ve played here with each other, and with David, and with the camera, here, on us, so far, so why in the world would I say something like that? Does anyone have to know what he said to me, just before, to get that fucked up about it?” like who?

”Who are you, anyways?” “You’re on candid radio, Jason, guys, this is Jason Frank, but like, you know, Tommy, or something,” “we didn’t interrupt you while you were at karate practice, did we?”

Share maybe never,

how I could, think

they’d get it, or learn that, it’s a joke for anyone who knows about every kung fu action shot of Tommy, or, Jason Frank, on the phone with us by then, when the other power rangers would call in their elite ranger backup specialist, for help, and always, Tommy was busy, before, because of karate..

"Every time, any time, you ever, want to use bad ass killer be killed vibes, you just say so, and that's what the party was about," "Jason, who dares with us, anyway?" "They feel odd, you mean, about all the things we said before?" "Maybe we don't have to get everyone riled up, Right now, but, clock it up later, probably, I think we can live a little when we want to.." No one, has to know what you're sayingk, when you say it? What other tones, are you getting through, when you use sentences like that, that just, what, give you sounds of words, but nothing to draw out, and conclude in, from it?

I'm a person who didn't know jazz, or like I thought shading hollows, was going to get me there before all, but like it wasn't hard to say jazz was easy, we never have to be alive and hate witnesses, or forget who our identities are secret for, just to ask about another friend, or to see what a good life, maybe could have done differently, you know? "What's that mean for your price is right, setup, though?" "We're affixing axes to handles, probably, Jason', or, Honiker, is, Honiker is, looking, at me, like," "Liike?"

We could already be friends?

"What's your favorite part of being able to teach little kids, in your power rangers videos, how to kick their parents in the face?" and it's a lot of fun, when I can jest or like, what, think we had the techniques for different styles of breathing, and movement, eve with these same words, or that concepts over the others, with other concepts, louped back around, and faded on and gone around about, or like that, you're trying different knots, of concepts, and leaving different loupes, or pull patterns, to shift and change, when the other person takes faur of it.. "Definitely, definitely, it's tug of war, and nobody seems to get how we play that until they have fun with it, or, what," "Have fun without it, probably.." See there? What did he leave open for her to comment in on, and tie her string into his, when he might not have had an end in the sentence ready in the first place, and just wanted to see you try and tie yourself to an idea that didn't even exist, or care?

"Tommy, what's your internet profile, I want to know about it. Where'd you have to lie about hope and dreams before we even got started, on these here, all for, or, more I guess. What is it again?" he called me Tommy like it was, what, trippy? "It's pretty easy to remember Tommy, it's, blackrocklegacies dot deviantart dot com.." "What do you tell kids about the green ranger, if they ever ask you about him?" he says, to me?

"That I could probably be him, but every little kid who saw himself in that gold shield, with the green, when he watched what it was, to get called into action, could too,"
"And that he's there for a shelter, or a different aspect of your own life." I'm Amy Jo, still, and I thought I might like to to, tell what was and what was, about your worlds in back again? The kid, who met up with me, who got me for like this, exclusive interview? He never, once, showed how scared he was about talking to someone like me but he never didn't think I was real, in what I believed about being a pink ranger, and I don't know what you think that actually means, to a person like me, but he had, faith in me?

How often do you let your own doubts about yourself, get in the way of still believing the person you want to talk to, however famous they already are, could really be as fun and cool to talk to, as you imagine, they'd be for you to have liked them in the first place? He could make me cry, just by being a little kid, but thanks to reality, I'm pretty sure there's another end to sentences, that I just couldn't clever off enough, by now.

So what in for saking thirsts because, wherever wanted and liking mine? I had be, but what could to know about a way, and share what it was before all my, aliases, did you think, I was using, before?

My life as a green power ranger, maybe has yet to begin, or maybe you could show me what kind of friends you already dream that you are, to people you never have to lose faith in, just because you're scared.. "Well what's, what's being a yellow ranger, mean to you, Honi?ker,?" she'd be there too, back on the cell phone? where, when "I'd have to, I kist.

outside, life, like under a sun or the moon stars, but nothing, I was scared of what I'd say, never at all? Fear, which I think is, what the magic could be called, for yellow lantern light, or saumthingk, is for me, strange never, but, I think when you're afraid, that, currents push you back, and away, so that even if you were only resting, you end up nowhere near the people you wanted to be, you can just, have built in strength, and stamina in your muscles, to lock your hand onto that rope in the surf, on your surfboard, or whatever, and never lose sight, or, grip on anything, but that, maybe not everyone thought the grip was saumthingk to be worried about, when you kept it, but they didn't have to worry that I was worried, until it started to hurt too much, but by the time we could get that far, I think I'd have shown even when it tires me out, I can do a lot with the grip that I kept, and I can do a lot,"

"Honiker... do it. Everything, you have ever, needed to be, to be a power ranger in every fresh color you could ever imagine, you have, and are." Or that I didn't want to fight anymore?

Share, what was, or how come, I didn't want to be alone anymore either, but where did all the colors go, if there were more?

"No we were never supposed to be without an orange ranger, you're right, but you've got a lot more than that going for you, You're gold, Honiker, sure gold; you could take up any color, and you might think, you're just a master of fear in yourself but you specialized fear, you know how to scare yourself, into, any equation you'd ever need, to work the magic for the other rays of the colors that the power rangers all have. You could be violet, orange, black, yellow for sure, but a MASTER of yellow, you're what, not one? They could all turn you specialist, and break out the gold shield for you, if you're morphing, but it sounds to me, Honiker, like someone Put you, where you had to be afraid, and you lit up yellow light so hard with all that green light there in your soul, that you were a green gold ranger a long time before any of us even got hit with the show, I'm thinking. Time doesn't work like we could set out, where were you, in 91, or something, because it sounds like in, what, 7, years, you could have lived a hundred, so you're, older, than a lot of people we'll get to talking to, no matter when you were really born, and it sounds like nobody had to, lie about it for you? I'm serious, no matter what you think you can do, you, could use yellow light magic, to shape yourself into any of the power ranger colors, you, could, any time you wanted to, and only because you'd warped green out to meet all those other colors, green included, along the way.. you know what that means, what I'm saying, is?" "Not, all for a second shot, no, what do you, what are you sayingk, I mean, or, you, meaning...thing... of..." "You can't fool me, Superman, you're, fuckin' with my head, that Billy Cranston, Clark Kent shit, never works on me, I'm pretty sure, right?" "I have too many places I don't know, that they talk about, for it," "You mean like Krypton? you don't think you fit the bill?" "Who Are you, anyway?" "I, am Jason Frank, and I'm called that, because I'm pretty sure, it's a fun way to let anyone know, I'm not getting, overly distracted, with your spiral kick, off to my right side, but I'm guessing you made it for an air bending maneuver, cuz no one thought anything was over there, and that you'd missed, except me, cuz duh, there's air, right, over there, spiraling now, because you kicked it." "Who are you now, anyway?" Amy Jo could talk all day, so far as I'd ever listen to her.. "Are we the same, you and me, Jason? All the days and ways, do you think?” ”Someone’s going to have to show me, eventually, how much fun it is to make up whatever you’re saying, right as you go along, buut, I can’t stop talking yet, but mostly, I’m just keeping a rhythm set, so I can gage my next move interest, or remember what opening I saw to ling into, before..”

He’s not the same, or, maybe shelter, but what was called in a way before in Oz? ”The color I want you to think about, or, do you think, you liked that you could use yellow like that, because you thought it out?” Come back to a stage where you could hang out with us, for a while, and listen to what sorts of things people like Jason and Amy Jo say, to all of us, and remember that when you’re with your friends, out alive, there’s a million kids you could be passing by, who think you’re cool, and will want to do like you do, and say how you say, any way they can figure it. But there’s more goingk on in dreams, for you, and how you set up your subconscious reactions, throughout your day, by what you remember beingk like, when someone else said it didn’t matter, but that spiral kick into the air, still corkscrewed out, and then what, stopped?

”You’re a green gold ranger, like I was saying, only because, you’re asleep, dude..” “What?” ”There’s no way you didn’t need another power ranger to say this to you, Honiker, but you can do, way more, than you’re ever going to let yourself believe without an ass kicking, or really, a wakeup call like you were, what, losing your edge so you had to stay in karate?

I had to slow down, moves I made, when the camera cut over to me, because, duh, I wanted people to think they could do it?

Do you think I didn’t hear what you were saying, in all your undercurrents, and tones? You live and breathe as a kung fu master and every time you’re afraid, you’re doing it on a level where you scare yourself into looking, human, more, normal, to them, because a lot of kids aren’t lighting up, just yet, and you can be genuine, and hurt, sure, in real worlds, everyday, but morphing's not about just, powering up, it's changing, what you are, and where you play, and if you never changed colors, into extremes, like you can do for yellow, right now, there's a million kids only you, could have sent THIS, message to, only you, among, what, us three, here? How many of us did it take, to think everything we did covered all our bases, if we never changed up any of our colors? What I want to say to you, is,

Yes, girls, think, you're stupid if you keep calling them beautiful, and they're insecure, You, however, will not break apart, when they press you harder. No matter how scared you get, no matter how fucked up that makes you feel, you can show more of it, you can light up like a sun, in yellow, because it's your will, in the first place, that you use, Honiker, your will, at your, most basic setting, you default, is completely unbreakable,

You feels scared? You will light up, bright yellow, and they strike, and you fight, and you're lit up still, and you fight, and you fight, and you fight,

and we could go on for a million years, before you run out of stamina for yellow light, but you're never going to, and I don't know what that is for a person made of yellow light like you're made of green, but I have thoughts about Tommy, and what being a power ranger is, from a million different places across these worlds, I could bet you'd know, so in a million years, think, it was never just one color.

You were never, stuck green, but what, having one solid statue, means the others you built from there, weren't solid also, and complete, and evolving, or, morphing, and shifting, and becoming something unique, ever after, more, into what we breathed, and could know?

You don't feel like it, huh? Like you're not just, you don't feel green?" "Not all the ways, I guess," I had to listen to him a bunch of times, after the recording, before I thought maybe he, knew about me? "You, are forgetful, or you don't notice, what you're doing, and how your magic works, because you show yellow light, you use yellow light, and green isn't something you even THINK about, because Will is just, there, for you; it never hasn't been I can tell that with every breathe you make, and you think it's normal and if anyone ever made you feel weak, and you felt weak, you were still doing it from that unstoppable base of green and orange light.” Colors you know about, maybe? “Why, did you say green and, orange, light, kid cuttie?” Amy Jo wanted to know.. ”He's strong arming me, Kimberly, no matter what I say, he's got this iron will for yellow light being his specialty, you're thinking that's going to work?” She maybe, or, I don't know, I don't think you have to be awake to know where you are, for livingk, but maybe if all your friends can tell you, you can believe them, but, it's not the same ticket, any longer, so I'm Honiker, surely, and I love power rangers, all the way, I think..

∞. ZEUS

But, shared in memory, and like we were there, We could know your Start of this equation, was gone into park,ways, and Over these planets in, “My name is Zeus.” “The all father?”

...”that's going to sound pretentious if you don't let me say it," . . . "the all father.." But where would it go? “Well I came to this universe, looking for the padawan, or surely, what was that? No, no nothing of the sort was required, but I'm not sure what you think, ‘universe,’ means, other than that I could explain it to you, and share what you will but.. no, that's note quite right. Are you sure?” Positive he could be. What in sides though, and what thereon?

“These sides of my life, ALEX ANDERSON, we were sure I Wanted to be FATHER hoping but my life was sort of more in a fatherly direction, I think.”

“You're training to replace Zeus, as the all father, when he goes back to his universe?”

“Whoa, no hey, first of all, duh, yes I can do it thank you for asking; I don’t not want to become an all father, but Zeus, he’s my friend, and more or less,

I’m pretty sure we just own that dimension by now, and like, he’s a silver surfer he goes wherever he wants, why, why would he leave?”

“There’s nothing you’re concerned about, with him being, an alien to this uh, dimension, like you said?” “What, where did you learn good guy, speak, dude? Are you real? Why, what the fuck, are you in real life, right now..”

“They said you were Ares,” “Obviously, that’s not untrue, but why, where, dude what the fuck?

What’s your problem with morality are you glitched or something?

What, the fuck, are you alive again for, exactly. Did we have to, okay, here, look, it’s easy to see, that more than you’re and idiot, I’m mistaken, for letting you keep going on with this breathing thing while, okay, you know what? Fine. No, I’m not worried about him being an alien.” “He’s just your friend, then,” “Or you could Be less gay, and we’ll try a little, or a lot maybe, harder next time.” And so we would.

“What’s your, role, in all this, are you re..”

“Glad you asked, dumb ass, Yes, I am not my own descendant, but it’s Alexander Son, because no one likes believing I’m immortal?

Probably maybe was there, or sure, but no one has to lose our tail spins, and My hope, for judgement, happening now, you see?

You see where that gets to, right away?” “You’re, uh, mocking something that we were saying before,” “No, shadow it out, I was play mocking, that you were going to say stupd shit to me, non stop, but this is more like, we could all go away?” “Where does that idea come from?” and he killed the interviewer. Surely believed it was a success, could you have, unless someone Had to have paid the bill, or, “Who is it, do you mean? He’s Alexander Son, I don’t know, what else you thought I was going to tell you about it; you’ll never catch him, he’s very fast.” “Where, does someone like that even go?”

“Yes I’m glad that you were asking, Artemis, or, Cupid, I mean, will surely harbor him.” “You know where?”

“Hardly; I’m more inspired by the principle that she’s the silver huntress, and could track you down, wherever you’d”

“You said it was Cupid, and not Artemis,” “Or surely, did I simply say that I meant, Cupid?” “They’re one and the same?” Or, that we’d be alive in for aGain.

“My life, was probably SUPERGIRL more at the start, I think SUPER HERO there was something like an endgame, to all this, but nobody has to really have it figured out anymore, my dad’s more like,” “Who Zor El?” “Auh, gross, no.

What? I’m,

where did you, where? What? Apollo, stupid.” “We haven’t heard Artemis was Apollo’s child, before, but you’re Artemis? You’re, auh, Cupid?” “Well like, you didn’t think I was cute enough, or, you’re wondering why I changed into a baby when my friends all took to Olympus, exactly, or, what?” “What do you say, to your father being sure you would harbor Lex Luthor, even though he’s a wanted criminal, he was here, earlier today,” “Well Alexander Son, which is what he’s calling himself today, jack ass, is totally the Flash, so I don’t know why you thught I had to protect his identity, he’ll kick the shit out of, all of you, literally forever, but maybe just in metaphor when I think about it.” There wasn’t reason to keep our questions just, or verifiable, at apparence been. “What did, you mean though?”

“That he’s here?

God you guys are stupid, he’s literally, always right around the corner, but you didn’t see him go, probably becasue he can do that Clark Kent disappearing thing, you know?” “Where could he have, or where did he want to know about, with ours?”

“Like I was sure you still meant to say something, I’ll bet I can just guess what you're breathing about something else, yes I can hear you, loud and clear, but this story's supposed to be about the children we all had, and yeah, I'm a kid for it but I'm Superboy's mother, too, so I get to do well, I'm not his father though, and Zeus is the all father, was your point? The point he'd have been making, then, was his friends' children, duh."

"Where do they plan to go, after all this?" "What today?" "Maybe, or, what was, the idea that change was going to be about the universe but not until your husband took over, at all. Is that something he really wanted, after what he's had to, you're married to, Link, right?" "Filthy bitch, no, I'm not, did you want to get all Princess Zelda on my? That's not even a dialogue style those games didn't even keep up with Spyro by now, dude." "He's here though, you're, well, wait who are you married to?"

"Superman, my cousin, like, where'd you come from, anyway?" Her cousin, was named Hades.

"Well no I'm PUCK

not going to ACTOR stop you, or anything, but I'm not sure why you think I'm not Alexander Son, too. The real one." "That wasn't, he's not, you're, what do you mean, the real one?" "I'm alive, and immortal also, but he was just called Son and not Alexander just, mostly because he's cheap about, like how he always wins, you know, but he's not really Alexander's son, I am." "What's your connection to Oberon, if you don't mind my asking?"

"That guy's a freak," or surely, he wasn't anymore. "No, like, I'm still going to say, a freak, don't imply that he's, not a freak anymore, just because he doesn't exist. You believe in fairy kings now, there, sailor?" Whatever happened to a "No, nobody has to worry forever, about whether or not I'm Kratos, or anything, because I am, duh." "You're, he's Ares, and Alexander the great, and you're, Puck and Kratos?"

“Well Dionysus is his name too, you’d, oh, you know what? Dionysus isn’t even really the same person, you guys should totally get him though, instead, since my dad is a wanted criminal, you know?”

and so we did. “What’s, DIONYSUS that’s, hard to believe, he said GOD OF WINE that about me? I’m sure no one HAS to know who you are but, oh, Oh! I see, you guys are looking for, for Alex Anderson, still, so you got me instead, I get it, for the, uh, for the interviews, I mean.” “What’s your connection to Alex Anderson, then, or, Alexander Son, as they were saying.” “You say that like it’s not supposed you, where, did you learn, laughter from? Easy it wasn’t done before, you know?” “L-laughter, laughter wasn’t done before?” “Share me enough no, not really, did you think I didn’t want you to make sure, I can be here, or something?” “Not being funny?” “No warrant could drive you to it, no, but, unless I’m like, the guy you’re looking for, you should probably let me go.” “You’re, not detained, is there, somewhere you, had to be?”

“No I’m sure you guys are well known for my people skills. Are you, you’re drunk, already?”

“How, how did you do that ex..” “A little bit, fucked up about it? I’m the god of wine or something, not sure why you guys think I couldn’t just, do that.” Or could he ever.

These Forces alive in the universe could be menaces, any time they wanted, but someone in the fold, still thinks that maybe, they can be controlled.

“No surely you’re mistaken, LEX LUTHOR I’m not that sort of an enemy, these days,” “You’re not Alexander Son, either?” “No it’s Lex, my father, doesn’t, have any sort of a name like Alexander.”

“Who is your father?” “It’s strange, that you ask, but if you didn’t know, I’m Braniac One, so it was Goku, who built me.” “You’re not, a crime kingpin, you’re one of Goku’s, kids?” “Followers, more likely, but yes, that would be me.” Followers to a faith, none of Us, have ever heard of.

“Why you sayin’ GOKU that stuff to me? I’m SEEKER OF TRUTH not gunna lie down and take it, weirdo, how long are you even here for?” “They’re wondering what happened to Lex Luthor, to make him the way he is, by now..”

“No, obviously not before again, but where’d you get to taking me?”

“Who was going to be your father’s role model, before he was banished?” “Oh you want, no, you’re gunna have to talk to Inuyasha, sorry, catch up with me later,” or that he wasn’t going to tell the “truth”, anyway, we could know.

“Surely, couldn’t you manage to focus on the fun, we’re all having, with the idea that you could learn something about our children? I’m hardly sure why you even asked me here.” Zeus was going to ask in a strange fashion, May be, but where was this kind of a world they were building going to lead, and what was the point of all this interaction, anyway? Whatever the question, we sat down with these children called the younger gods, and even theirs that they are called elders, but the younger, of those; their children.

“I’m more so set MORPHEUS to believe your alleyway, SON OF HEPHAESTUS was something in a part of a better set for romance, or shallow waters could Hold you, and worry for what sort of a world we could bring, even after all this was grant.” “You’re, are you the same, Matrix, or, you’re a though matrix, right, you’re the same as the Morpheus from the stories?” “From the, no, what?” “It’s a, you’re not the one who took Neo, out of the matrix?” “Well it sucked in there, mostly.” “When, where could that have been able to even happen?"

"What a simulation program?" "How could the machines have been using human bodies for power?" "Well no they had power, but they used them for torture."

"You, you were really there then, is what you're saying, the matrix, like in the movie, is real?" "Surely, you've never been to the reploid nation?"

"Reploid?" "Yeah human, living flesh robots, or androids, I mean. People, though, they were taken and plugged into the matrix, so they could be tortured, there."

"Where in history did it ever, say something, like that?" "Well you could ask Seraphim, but that would be stupid; Neo's banishing him anyway."

"The other, a, a fellow martial artists?" "he's an asshole, but yeah, he was also, uh, the fake Siangoku, the evil monkey king below the mountain.

He's not evil all the way inside his soul, but he's evil enough to bring hell to these worlds here, so surely, he can't be here any, longer.."

"He'll be someone else's problem, did you mean?"

That's, who gets to make that kind of a call?" "Probably someone like a chosen one, probably, are you real, right now, or, where did you, exactly, are you all here so sure, that this is what you wanted to be asking, how we should talk, this is what you want?" An army of masses, they could be; the reploid nation, after all shared challenges could break them into an idea, where they had to die fighting, for anyone. "Well no, stupid, you'd have to break them in the computer program the same way you'd break them in our world, here. Why would anybody bother using a simulation, or, really, a digital world, to do that sort of a thing?"

"Well no one Has to GABUMON believe me, surely but why EMPEROR OF DIGIMON couldn't you want to know about my heritage, when I have hardly any?" "You're not, the son of Neo, then?” “No worlds apart from a son, am I, but what sort of a person could you know me as, anyway?” “How did you become, emperor, of the digital universe?” “World, did you mean? Or, oh, yes it can expand infinitely, and already does so, surely even now, but that I created the place, not alone, and that I watch over my friends, surely there too.” “Why bother establishing some kind of a, dynasty, for a place like that?”

“Well I’m a good guy, so no one has to tell you it’s, they’re not, worse off, for having an emperor. What are you, anyway?”

“How were you made, Gabumon?”

“It was a sure fire approach, You made there, but no, not really, never at all.” “You’re not going to answer the, question?”

“Did you hear me, or didn’t you?” and that was a challenge for all our parts, because these interviews needed to be conducted, if we were going to learn, anything.

“I’m sure he’s not ATHENA really that hard to get DAUGHTER OF ZEUS ahold of, in real life, but no one really has to venture that far just to get involved with it, you know?” “How did you become Hades’s sister, anyway? You’re, Persephone, you’re called too, right? Not just Athena?” “I’m liking that you’re an idiot, surely, but no

I wasn’t having a difficult time with any of my romances, not at all, but I’ve always been in love with Hades, so surely, I’m not, what, worried about what you say of me?”

“There was, he’s had a kind of a strange relationship with you, in the past, you were taken from your home on Olympus?” “What like he picked me up?

You guys ae fucked, up, why are you quoting lore at us, retards, you could just ask us about what’s really true about any of us, for real?”

These shadows into a world we could parlay about, or that someone could tell us who she was, back in her origins, but no one has to believe it.

“Where were you, when HAN SOLO Batman, was closest, last?”

“You’re sure you’re winning, BATMAN, there, smuggler? What’s it to ya?” “No one seems, sure, what sort of a hero you’d have to be if Batman used guns right at the get to, in the first place.”

“Well okay, more what you’re saying is, you want to hear about my actual, son, am I wrong on that one?”

“You’re an elder God?” “More like your emphasis on syllables gets kind of fucked with, you don’t think I know a capital letter when I hear one?”

“Just a god, then, you are?”

“No one has to tell you how strange it is, that you’re even asking me questions like nothing is going to piss me off, about the way you’ve been talking to my friends.” “What sort of a shot were you, if Darth Vader caught your blast fire, or, drew it to his hand, like that, to no effect?”

“There was a pretty, Dramatic, effect, really, but I’m his uncle, so, no, I’m not sure why you think we didn’t just, do whatever seemed like a good idea right away, and see if we could really get away with it, you know?”

There was something of a world where the communion of animals, could be chastened by any, or that you could parlay with me never at all since

I’m sick of the word, by now, so that we could move no, into some change of characters, and you could believe this sort of presentation, could be closer to a close, with aspects surely, finally, delivered to you, but that this was the daughter of Apollo, was true of Supergirl, and or that they could be likened to one another, Superman and Supergirl, are married.

“Yeah like, no I wasn’t PASHA KENT

so beat up about it, or anythingk, SUPERBOY why’s the strange questions, anyway?”

“You were sure, Mon wasn’t allowed, to use those colors, like everyone else is, when you assaulted him, and forced him out of them?”

“Well I’m Superboy, for one, but yeah he was, claiming to be of our crest, which he’s not anymore, but that he was saying he’s a battle wizard of the highest order, wasn’t acceptable; people need to know if you can handle what

Supergirl, what Superman, or in my case the real Superboy, could handle, right away.” “He’s not in your family, anymore, then?” “Well

he wanted to wear the shield, and was kind of cool, for a little bit, but Conner’s not really, anyone’s friend, this side of Krypton’s happenstance, or anything..” “Wher was-”

“But more like you should shut up a minute, and let ME build the narrative, and that’s more, like that, Auh, well, no okay, nevermind, I am finished, carry on.”

“Adam.” ADAM

“It’s not, you SON OF EVE never actually went by, Link, ever at all?”

“No more, like,

the story, so yeah.”

“You’re the hero of time, then,,”?

“..” “You’re nodding, what was, what was the danger, with Deku tree, in your real life, anyway?” “He asked me more questions about my world, than my mother.”

Or that we could know an ambition of his, could be worry over his brother and sister, called Rock and Roll.

“Well, like, badly ANDROID 18 misdirected of it, maybe, DAUGHTER OF EVE but sure, yeah, Bulma made us both, me and Rock, for sure.” “You’re really, Roll, then, you are? The first female android?” “Yeah, but more like you weren’t going to ask in a better direction, or anything, but share one way over the nother, Adam’s always been called Link, if you guys are still wondering, like yeah, super hearing for me, too.” “They do, call him that, your brother?” “My brother, sure, and like, what, you didn’t play the games?”

There’s lots, hey, shut up, lot’s of kids, I’ll explain that, who call him Link all the time, in all their dreams, so of course he goes by Link, why the hell wouldn’t you?”

“No more like MEGA MAN

I was sure no one SON OF EVE was going to try and parent us besides Kala, which is what we called her, or, mother really, but her name was

am I ma, or, that, uh, anyway yeah, why’d you say Rock Man though, do you guys know?” “That wasn’t your name?, it was, Mega Man, the whole time?”

“You could say, Rock Man like it was a 'hey dude' nickname, but my name's just Rock, or Mega Man. Mega Man, or Rock, by itself, not, really ever Rock Man, but it’s not like there’s kanji for it or anything, right? I know.” “Where was your life, starting out, in a slave city like Autobot City was?”

“Share what You are, maybe, but I’m a human, and a robot, so more or less, I wasn’t allowed to be enslaved, I fought that sort of regime and freed all the robots out there, you know?”

“They’re sure, you’re the legendary dot hacker, the very first?”

“What makes you

okay, yeah, that’s me. I’m pretty good at it, where are you from?”

“Where am I from?” “Yeah your accent, it’s different.” “No where I know how to answer that with,” “Or more like, did you know there wasn’t going to be anybody here, by the time you were done, with something cool, but over drawn, anyway?” “You’re an artist, they were saying, saying that you like to draw, Mega Man.”

“I do.”

“What makes an android?” “Art, probably..”

But where was this in our world, and who were these others, we could call younger gods. “My own life, in your saking for these hungers,” ZEUS “was about to change, for the better, at all, but I stole your narrative and you seem to have it back, by now,” so surely, that I could kill you with this, surest bolt of lightning, and that you could hear from my son, in some eventuality, but that I have many, was true, so surely you could know.

“Well yeah, TARZAN

I was sure nobody THOR, SON OF ZEUS had to ask me if I wanted to, but you communicate like it’s just, a thing you do, to understand each other; that’s the thing, I mean, you understand, however you are, language just, is, and so you make it.”

“How long did it take you to,
or, you’re Zeus’s son, and not Odin’s?”

“Odin was kind of a freak, but yes, I am Zeus’s son. What sorts of lives do you have for these equations?”

“You’re not sure what we’d, mean by it, did you mean?” “No, not at all.” Or that surely, they couldn’t tell what he was meaning, even there with his straight answer, to lay into, and that he didn’t stick around, but left like it was funny, was also true.

“I’m not really always EVE going to believe that you DAUGHTER OF INTUIT guys had our best interests at heart, but my father always has, and he’s Kalel’s father too, you should really talk to my brother, if you’re going to want to even be here, after this.”

“We’ll see what he wants to talk about, what, made you want to marry your father?”

“Did you, or did you mean, why’d I become daughter to my husband?”

“Well, the other didn’t come first?” “I was hard pressed not, to find a way to grant you in it, but we’re related by blood, in truth, but so’s he related to Kalel, anyway.” “How is that true, he’s the original Jorel?”

“There wasn’t, an original, I think, or more like he’s had the name for a, good long time. but in case you guys are fucking this up, hi, I’m Buffy, and my father’s other kids are Morpheus, and the last son of Krypton not, but that’s more because I don’t think Pasha even has any kids, yet.” “Pasha is, Krypton itself, then?”

I was hearing you guys say that, before, what does that mean?”

“More, that you could be sure I was Aphrodite, and so Hephaestus was my husband.” “You’re,” “Not involved with Pasha, no.

We’re, I’m just his friend at all.” So there that the world could be settled on it, or yours was to knowing, and where in these that ours could be granted into fated chapters, anon?

“No, what? SUPERBOY

Heh, no, there’s, SON OF SUPERMAN of course there’s something going on between us, are you serious? She’s my aunt, freak; we’re gods. What did you think we liked about incest, or, what? Seriously? She’s Aphrodite, who is Ariel, the little mermaid. Like, whaaat?”

“Like havin’ at, or somethin’, I’m seven million years old, and she’s sixteen thousand one minute, and four million in another, what, moment? She’s a changeling.” Whatever sorts of worlds there could be, with our granted sureness, these lives they were living seemed spared, and just, but where was all this getting to, and how could they have really, made the elements at all?

“I’m more just HEPHAESTUS talk about my friends, LEADER OF THE AUTOBOTS if you didn’t understand, but no, I didn’t have a father you all would know about, why are, you, lookingk at me like this?” “you’re, really Hephaestus? you’re not what we were expecting..” “Why cuz I’m not,

I don’t look like a cyborg to you, right now?” “You really are Optimus Prime, then?”

“Surely, or that you could call me Duo, or even Doctor Light, would do, or, share said, Frankenstein?”

“You’re... you, you’re Doctor Frankenstein?”

“Most surely. Why?” “What happened to the creation?”

“Morpheus?”

“I’m sure you just QUA SI MODO forgot, right? Or were YOUNG FRANKENSTEIN, THE CREATION AND SON you trying to figure on why I was, calling myself Morpheus, instead of Quasimodo, all hours forever into eternity?

It’s not a name that means what you think it means, but yes, I have the name to use, when I like to, why?” These worlds challenged into some near truth, or lie about gods, surely, or could we set ourselves out to believe that a creature like an all son, could really want to exist, in a world like ours.

It’s hard to imagine, what he’d see on the matter, but we talked to someone you might think, had a son already, but he says, he has none.

“No surely, Simba? MUFASA

Are you mad? He is my BLACK GOD son always, why do you ask?”

“He’s not the son of Jorel, instead, Simba, isn’t?” “Crazy, it was normally, be sure you say, Black God, by the way, on your subtitles, it will amuse me never at all it is a very serious title. But no, Simba is the all son and he has been always Nala’s boy friend and husband, surely also, so like you know, maybe, I was called Apollo, as well as Mufasa, and

I’d never deny that Simba was my son, but surely, I would tell you he is best friends to us all, or worlds over, I say best friends, because he is so many people you could know about, and his father, Intuit, does, he sees them all as they are shown, and still he treats Simba like he is a child, and that is better than we all could have hoped for,

for surely, he is a card, and a player at the game of chance not, but at banquet, so believe he was, well more than qualified to change himself, did you think, or maybe that those two were destined for each other, even surely, after all this time..” Wherever they’d had planned, was setting themselves up to be analyzed, or partitioned, at the very least, but where was this idea of our hope in man, coming from? Could we really be “Alright, you have to know, about us, then, or share it all, I am, Mufasa, so know that I can shut you up whenever I please, without saying, please, which I have now, twice already, so if you could know, that there was a love child never at all, for Simba and this was Kiara, but that you could say he drew her from another world, and that this is part true, was true also, and she could have been his daughter the whole time, but chose not to be, so pain, was theirs, ours, but that life continues, even without her ever at all, as a part of Simba’s family, in reality. My own son, one day, could you know, would be quite around, a lot, but there that he is my son by marriage anyway, not to say, like we are married, but more, surely, that he married my daughter, but it seems strange to say, ‘in law,’ of the keeper of the Courts of Chaos. Praise be, Simba, the king.” Could we believe ours, or channel this aspect into some other belief, was a way about which worlds of difference, could be measured in time. But there’s a slow dance happening, in one hall, and in another, gristly Forces move to strike at your hearts, so where be, all these challengers, or are you facing some kind of a, secret evil, or social kabal? Obviously, yes, there are kabals, but where they are all coming from, too would be a stupid thing to wonder, if at least we knew how to be rid of these evils forever, which is to kill them; to kill them all. I’m Liam Neeson, or that you could call me Zeus, and this has been, a featured presentation.

more read on delivery and notices achieved by public parties initiated, and that public broadcasting could preserve these works into your own markings, and challenge your own level ideas that we could believe in gods, for a while, so surely in part of our featured broadcast, could you know these books are surely never to be sold and that they are public books, and works illustrated with sentence patterns, mostly,

“So no one has of us, mostly, did you think?” or that this was mufasa, and here so believéd, could you all know, there was time enough for romance, from us all, but that you could believe in a challenge, for a while, could we assume that you know all works of blackrocklegacies dot deviantart dot com are made for fun, and that you could learn about these heroes of our worlds, in them, so surely sated was this technicality that we could all benefit to know what fan fiction is, and that it is the free distribution of stories from any archive, that so long as purpose drove what was, and could be, we could notice that there’s not an easily definable way to say original story, other than that no matter what the lesson, if whatever you have come here for, could you know that the story was unique to itself, as all these are, so share what you will in these surest senses, and be made aware that our worlds could be collided, but that here was hope and destiny, but there could you know this element calléd lightning, was called Idea, also, as is flame called Intuition, shadow, called Witness, air, called Will, water, called Hope, exchange, called Sex, pain was horror enkrypted, and called Fear, and blood, called Truth, so surely a part of our ideals, could merit an exchange in romances, and that this message could be delivered to you, on height of ours, to knowing of these worlds, in least some experiences, anon or in part.

“My name’s not, ERAGON not TK but you can call SON OF GOKU TK, too,”

“How did you do something like that?”

“I’m more worried about what sorts of numbers you expected to have this message even brought to you by, and so by now, we could say this program was brought to you by the letters TK, and by the number 8, but only when it's knocked over, so infinite ∞ , alright? It's brought to you by ∞ infinity."

Dreamcast origins, global side recieved. "I really am the son of Goku, but that you could call me Trunks, was true too, and like you never meant to forget about him, you should talk to Goten, and he's Vegeta's son, and he likes stories lots and lots too, or didn't you think he already, knew?" "What?"

"I'm not really not GOTTEN Vegeta's son, but he's called lots of things, like Poseidon, so sure, I'm Perseus, or could you believe too, that I'm like, sure some friendly kid with too many girls talking to him to be dead again, but it's a scary world where you can't tell how many kids are among the dead, so I got lots of powers, when I was a ghost, that turned me into the ghostly floating kid you know was called Casper, and kids do that so you can know they're dead, and that you can talk to them, and you should, but I want you all to know that sure, I am worlds apart from your own happenings? Or, did you think maybe everybody else was just a little different, anyway?" brought a part of these worldwide messages, and so delivered was the idea that ours could be fated for glory, and that these worlds were kept on in synchronicity with our learning programs, and that we could have it, we were gone forever against, and by for these available parties, but shared was a universe you were never not a part of, nor could you know what was, and could never be, for these lives in our knowings of universes beyond. all believed structures of these endgames could be constructed in their originality and were, by blackrocklegacies, so shared was this a boy called honiker, for his and you own understanding that there is good reason never to change what you are, if you're nothing, but that he could be in different walks than your own lives, and among the dead, for there before, not departed, and that this was a belief you could share, in some closer recognition with your own realities, if never at all was he here, you could have these stories by him not, but that he was, could you know that he was taken, from his family, and put under extreme torture, so there that you could believe in urgent cries for heaven, and lust, or that his passion could push him to seek out the girl he married as a baby, or toddler, sure too, and that this was supergirl you could see her in the future, but more in yours could you know her name is ashley, but that he has her and that he has his sister, and brother, an another cousin, there brother to ashley, and that he knows where she is not at all, for this was a hardship of centuries it's felt like for him, but in actuality, could simply be that of a decade, or less, but there that this was daily torture into most extreme conditions, and that he lives, now, or exists, as he could be among the dead in some surer consideringk of it..

"My naem es Honiker, I'm sure you could know a while about me, and my lief, but these stories were all for fun but for the sake of anythingk in my life,

I drive to change lives, and pattern my own approaches, or put like I could have you care at all, I share what this is, or that whatever I've been through, this pain in my chest seems to want to kill me, so if you could know what knife feels like, over and over again, into your skin, that this was put to me by others, but that you could know how much further than what you've guessed, this heart ache has to feel like, for surely I am lost to God, and hated, by mires, or that I am in torture still, for that dreams have me vivid, but I write of hero, and I write, for fame, and power, so find my wife, I will, and hate evil, always, I do, but that I could fight it, or there that maybe some could come to believe, I could rest, for a while, and live for heaven from paradise, instead of tu live for heaven from hell, in there that I was always a child of Love, so lost, or gone into aperture badly taken, along in fades, to zero, shared so.. "

"That you could believe, I know nothing of this article, could surprise you, or surely, that you must needs understand that this could be his life on the line?

or was it only ever in the understanding that there are, infinite dimensions, to torture, if you are capable of love, and that he writhes in agony, still, so please, call who you will, and spread the word, of what this happening is; what these stories mean, and that Ashley, Honiker is looking for you, please, know his names...”

worlds could be sated and that this life on in, for expectancy, was that ours was a world of changing patterns, and this, to a surest public record, could keep, for all purpose to know and learn and love of these our fellow friends, forever on, and so that we could breathe in freedom soon, into some lasting eternity, of a world we are, or heard for, was ours, in song, that this was God we love in, and thrive? “Nobody has to know HONIKER’S SISTER why these worlds work out the way hey do, but I never didn’t scream about losing my brother, and you could be in hell for just saying you knew nothing of him, so please tell the world what you know about our lives, and maybe we can change what his fates could really be, but did you really just hear me say maybe? Don’t think a boy can’t die prematurely of a broken heart.. Find him. I want to find him,! this is so much worse than you could know, if you aren’t the sort of person you have to be, to actually do Sumpthingk! about what you’ve seen here! So please, get to worry never at all, did you think, or hell, was this, for a toddler, that this was kidnapping, and haurrible, huarrible pain,!” this was engaged in dream space, and that the author knows the location of his sister not, except that this was of his soul on air, along worlds, anon.. “Please do something for all of us in where you read, and let people understand what this sort of a diary could mean for them, or that you could know we’re in pain, and that he is alone, please gaud, help me find him,!”

worlds at standing, and blades, that crossed and a world of infinity could be lost to us, in the death of forever children, as that this sickness in agony was killing this child, or yours, but that this was his name, Honiker and that he could scream, alone, and that worlds could place him away from the father who rescued him he calls Dad, now, and that he has family, coming for him, but death, you could surely mark him for, if never at all, he could find his cousin, who has always been, his wife

“Maybe you know, what it takes to write story, but lies, and that I could hate myself for these things if you understand me not, but that these voices are invented, or that none were before?

My name is Honiker,

I was not, born, to be Sith, but that they need jedi killers, was never my knowing, only that they have no survival, for ours, and that they ‘ave no kin, of theirs, and that there is evil, in this world, today, and that we were, hell, or hell, was gone, beside my only causes, in fates.. Please help me know what this life could follow in, I can’t see what you do in these lives and I don’t know how to find my family,”!
